

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XIX.—NO. 30.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1891.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR.

PARLOR GRAND.

EMERSON PIANO

Warerooms: 174 Tremont Street, BOSTON.

McFARLIN'S
CHINA PARLOR.
CHINA AND GLASS.
LOW PRICES RULE.
AT 39 FRANKLIN STREET.

McFARLIN'S CHINA PARLOR.
39 Franklin St., Boston.
125 Decorations in Hand and Co's.
DINNER SETS.
Also a full line of goods suitable for Shore and Country Houses.
75 DECORATIONS IN TOILET SETS.

McFARLIN'S CHINA PARLOR.
GAME SETS, FISH SETS, CREAM SETS.
Fancy Goods Suitable for Wedding Presents.
39-41

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE.
437 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton.
Hours—Until 9 A. M., 1 to 3 p. m.

Dr. F. L. McINTOSH,
Corner of Washington and Jewett St.
(Office of the late Dr. Keith).
Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home
until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. P. Wesselhoof, and Dr.
James B. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 46-2.

Dr. D. E. BAKER,
227 Walnut Street, Newtonville.
Office Hours: 2 to 4 P. M. and evenings (except Tuesdays and Fridays), 7 to 8.
At Newton Lower Falls.
Tuesday and Friday evenings, 7 to 9.
Telephone, Newtonville, 26-4.

Mr. H. B. DAY,
TEACHER OF
PIANO-FORTE, CHURCH ORGAN
HARMONY,
Counterpoint and Composition.
Address 180 Tremont Street, Boston, or Hotel
Hunnewell, Newton. 33 y

Shirts Made to Order!
By E. B. BLACKWELL,
43 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.
Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place
as will suit their convenience.
Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands,
15c.; Cuffs, 30c.; Collars, 25c.; Centre
Plaits, 25c.
Easily fitting shirts made to fit well. 48

The Greatest Novelty of the Age!!
THE Cyclone Coffee Mill!!
If you want the best cup of COFFEE in town,
we can serve you. Call and see our new mill and try a pound of our fresh roasted Coffee.

Gamaliel P. Atkins,
FINE GROCERIES,
273 and 275 Washington Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

DR. WILLIAM A. MOFFITT,
CHIROPODIST,
7 Temple Place, Boston, Room 32.
Corns, Bunions and Ingrowing Nails Removed
without pain. All work guaranteed first class.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M. 18

Leave ORDER for any kind
JOHN PRINTING
at the Graphic Office.

WE GUARANTEE —OUR— Silver, Brass and Iron Bedsteads

To be the BEST in regard to Metal, Construction and Finish.
We have now in Stock a Full Line of Superior English Steads in Attractive Designs.
N. E. We never ship a Bedstead in its original package. Each stead is thoroughly inspected before shipment.
Estimates for Furnishing Residences with Metal Bedsteads and Fine Bedding of Every Description Furnished upon Application.

PUTNAM & CO.,

546 Washington Street, opposite Adams House, BOSTON.
W. F. SPOONER, Manager. Telephone No. 2492.

Spring Opening.
HIGH CLASS TAILORING
—FOR—GENTLEMEN,
—AT—
MODERATE PRICES.

We make a specialty this season
of very neat and stylish Business
Suits from English fancy cassimeres or Scotch material, at $35
and upward. Business Trousers at $9.00 and upwards.
NOTE—Being Practical Tailors
and Cutters, with a long experience in London, we pay personal attention to the cutting and fitting of every garment. Also all our garments are made up on the premises, under our constant supervision, thus enabling us to give the very best results to our patrons, at a price about 25 per cent. lower than the same class of tailoring elsewhere.

INSPECTION INVITED.
ALLAND BROS.,
TAILORS and IMPORTERS,
3 PARK STREET, BOSTON.
Street Floor. 26

WE HAVE BOUGHT
A Large Lot of
First-Class - Furniture,
SECOND HAND,
and now is your time to get a Bargain.
COME AND SEE OUR STOCK.

BENT'S
Furniture and Carpet Rooms,
Main Street, Watertown,

C. S. DECKER,
Custom Tailor
326 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

DESKS,
Chairs.
Office Furniture.
SEND FOR CATALOGUE
DESK & KILMER DESK CO.
93 CAUSEWAY ST. BOSTON.

We have made large preparations to meet the demand for the popular and choice styles of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Jackets, Reefers, Blasers,
Long Garments, Capes,
and Wraps for the present Season.
Prices vary from $5 to $50.

CHANDLER
& CO., Winter Street.
BOSTON.

TEN PAGES.

The GRAPHIC this week consists of ten pages, most of which contain original matter of local interest, and all patrons should see that they have the full number of pages.

NEWTON.

C. Farley rents pianos, Wash. St. Newton.
—Mrs. H. E. Hibbard is in Baltimore for a short visit.

—Auction of choice house lots at Woodland on May 9. See adv.

—The Newton Directory and Maps at Harrington's news store.

—Mrs. Frankland will have a large room unengaged in about two weeks.

—The Newton Tennis Club expect to have the grounds in playing order tomorrow.

—F. J. Parks, the jeweller in Brackett's block, has sold his business to Albert H.
Sisson of Newtonville.

—Mr. Johnson has a very fine assortment of pansies and bedding plants at his greenhouses on Thornton street.

—Mrs. Royal Winter left Hotel Hunne-well Friday, where she has been stopping this winter, for her residence on Park street.

—Mrs. Horace Davis of California, daughter of the late Rev. Thomas Starr King, is visiting her aunts, the Misses Wiggin of Tremont street.

—Miss Thurston attended the meeting of the State Library Association at Worcester on Thursday, when Col. Higginson made an address to the librarians.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Jordan and Miss Jordan of Boston, come to Hotel Hunne-well for the month of May before going to their cottage at Hull for the summer.

—“An Evening in India” is the attractive title of an entertainment to be given in the vestry of the Baptist church, Thursday evening, May 14. The program will be announced later.

—Mr. F. A. Hubbard of Hubbard & Proctor, started this morning for Jamaica, on a Boston freighter. Mr. Hubbard is taking this trip for his health and will be gone about three weeks.

—The street department intend to commence work on Tremont street in a very few days, and put it in good condition. It is one of the most travelled streets in the city and also has the worst road bed.

—The Newton Social Science club will meet at Mrs. John Lodge's, Fairmont Ave., Wednesday, May 6 at 10 A. M. Business meeting and five minute talks desired.

—Mr. L. T. Burr and Mr. W. R. Dupee of Chestnut Hill have been chosen vice-presidents of the Newton Young Men's Association, and Mr. D. W. Heath of Newtonville a member of the executive committee.

—The Rev. Dr. Samuel R. Maxwell, at one time rector of the largest parish in Pittsburgh, Penn., is to officiate in Grace church the coming Sunday morning and evening.

—Mr. Geo. R. McFarlin's china parlor, 39 Franklin street, Boston, is a very attractive place to visit, and special attention is called to the Haviland dinner sets, of which there are 125 decorations.

—Mr. W. Z. Ripley has been awarded a fellowship in Political Science, by the examining council of Columbia College.
There were many papers from different contestants and the award is considered a great honor.

—Thomas Smith is the section man having charge of the streets in the business section, and he is working very faithfully to keep things in good order, and to repair any defects in the road bed. The good effects of his work are already evident.

—Music in Grace church Sunday night:
Processional, “O day of gladness.”
Two Anthems by Statham.
Antiphon from “The Holy City,” by A. R. Gaulcalled “O God, who hast p eared.” Retrospection, “All hail the power of Jesus’ name.”

—The public are cordially invited to the annual meeting of the Newton Civil Service Reform Association at Allen Brothers’
school house, West Newton, Wednesday,
May 6th, 1891, at 7:30 p. m. President Lambert will deliver an address on the present
state of the reform.

—Billings Park, as Mr. Chas. E. Billings has named the street on which are his new houses, will be occupied this week. Mr.
Moses R. Emerson is the first to move in, but the other houses will soon be occupied respectively by Mr. Fred. A. Gay, Mr. F. J.
Wetherald and Mr. Sydney Harwood. The houses are very attractive ones, and were all taken before they were fairly begun.

—A local real estate dealer, speaking of the claims made by the south side of the city that it is the most rapidly growing section of Newton, says that there have been more houses built in Wards One and Seven the past year than in Wards Five and Six, and as a sample of the rapid growth of Newton, he gave twenty five houses that have been built in Ward Seven, almost all within sight of each other, while nearly a dozen others will be begun within the next two months.

—The house of Mr. F. G. Davis on Pem-brooke street was entered by burglars
Wednesday night, but nothing is missed.
The dining room window was found open,
the parrot and cage thrown on the floor with evidences of intrusion. It is surmised that the burglar was frightened by the parrot who has a habit of speaking. Mr. F. J.
Wetherald, who was in the room during the night, with “What do you want?” If this suspicion is correct, doubtless the parrot saved valuables to the family.

—The real estate agents say that there is a brisk demand for houses in Newton this season, but there are no desirable houses to show people who want to pay a moderate rent. They could have rented a hundred houses, if they had any modern ones, at rents ranging from $400 to $600. All the new houses built to rent are leased before completion and at prices paying a good interest on the investment. People with money to invest would find it more profitable than railroad stock or bond companies to put it into moderate priced houses in good locations.

—A meeting of the Suffolk Bar Association was held Saturday morning, in connection with the first session of the superior court to take formal action upon the recent death of Hon. Robert F. Pitman, one of the justices of that court. Hon.
Seth J. Thomas presided, and addresses were made by Mr. L. S. Dabney and Hon.
Thomas Weston, reviewing the career and character of the deceased. The bar meeting adopted appropriate resolutions and adjourned, after which 10 justices of the superior and supreme judicial court entered and the resolutions were formally presented. Chief Justice Mason received the resolutions and spoke at length of the life and services of the deceased judge.

—A number of young bicycle riders of Newton organized a club at the home of Henry Crowell, Church street, last evening, and will call themselves the Newton Ranblers. The club will number about twenty and is limited to those who ride large saddies. Meets are to be held every other Saturday, commencing this week. A short constitution was drawn up, and the following officers elected: Capt. John Aiden,

Pres.; Lieut. Henry Crowell, Sec. and Treas.; Executive Committee, Messrs. John Aiden, Henry Crowell, Henry Wellington, Everts Field and Grosvenor Calkins.

—The postponement of the Entertainment Club's last entertainment has so broken up the cast, that in lieu of dramatics, the club announces a concert in the Channing church parlors, next Wednesday evening at 8. The special feature will be the singing of the Harvard Glee Club, 24 members; the Banjo Club, 12 members, will assist, and several soloists are expected to add to the pleasure of the evening. Among them Mr. Rempe, an old Newton favorite, and the bass singer in the Ruggles Street Quartet. Tickets at Hubbard & Proctor's.
Seventy-five chairs in the first parlor at 50 cents each. Seats in the second parlor, which for concerts are good, 35 cents.

RAYMOND-BULLENS.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING AT GRACE CHURCH.

The marriage of Miss Mary W. Bullens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Bullens, to Mr. Robert M. Raymond of Neilhart, Montana, attracted a large company to Grace church, Thursday evening. The chancel was beautifully decorated with roses, and Mr. Day presided at the organ, the vested choir giving a choral service.
The ceremony was to take place at 7:30, at which hour the bridal party entered the church preceded by the eight ushers, Messrs. Chas. T. Davis, Geo. L. Bullens,
Anderson Lord, Wells E. Holmes, Fred Gron and Daniel Dewey, Jr., of Newton.
Mr. Baldwin of New York, and Mr. Raymond, a cousin of the groom from Harvard. The bridesmaids, Miss Bullens and Miss Lord, attired in yellow crepe costumes, with bouquets of lilies of the valley, were followed by the bride, leaning on the arm of her father. They were met at the chancel by the groom and his best man, Mr.
Jopling of Cleveland, O., and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Shinn, the rector of the church. The bride was given away by her father.

The costume of the bride was of white armure silk, with long train, and the usual tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

A reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents on Waverly avenue, which was attended by some 300 guests, representing the prominent people of Newton and vicinity. The supper was served by Lee of the Woodland Park Hotel.

There was a handsome display of valuable presents, in silver, cut glass and artistic remembrances from friends, the groom's gift being a coronet of pearls.

At the close of the reception Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on their wedding tour, and will reside in Neilhart, Montana.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Auction of choice house lots at Woodland on May 9. See adv.

—Mr. Bartholomew is having his residence here painted and outside premises repaired after which it will be sold.

—Two handsome residences are being erected on Waban avenue. They are situated on elevated ground and command a fine view of surrounding places.

—Edward Farrell was arrested last Friday by Officer Seaver, charged with larceny of carpenter's tools. The case came before Judge Kennedy Tuesday and he was fined $20; appealed.

—The watering-cart has been a welcome visitor to our citizens the past two weeks.
We hope it will continue and not be shut out when the hot time arrives as was the case last summer.

—Patrick Donlon while at work in the vicinity of Boston Highlands last Saturday on the roof of a building, fell a distance of 25 feet and is suffering from internal injuries.
Drs. Freeman and Sherman have been attending him since Saturday. He is reported to be improving.

—The public are cordially invited to the annual meeting of the Newton Civil Service
Reform Association at Allen Brothers’
school house, West Newton, Wednesday,
May 6th, 1891, at 7:30 p. m. President Lambert will deliver an address on the present
state of the reform.

—James Oakley, known in this village as Welch, was arrested in Newton Friday evening last for disturbing the peace. As he proved to be the party implicated in stealing horses while in the employ of the late Mrs. E. J. Collins, for which he served almost three years, he was sentenced 6 months for the former charge.

—A complaint was entered against Officer Carman last week by a party of young men residing in Wellesley, their chief complaint being that he used unwarranted discipline with them upon a certain evening.
A hearing was granted the officer, Tuesday evening, before the selectmen, which resulted in his discharge, without sustaining the charges preferred.

—The semi-monthly meeting of St. Mary's Guild was held in the chapel last week and very largely attended. After the business meeting an entertainment was given consisting of musical selections and readings by Mrs. Lodge which was greatly enjoyed by all. Mr. French in the solo of Farmer Magee, captured the audience. The last number on the program was a toy symphony entitled “The Slipping Party,” under the direction of Miss Jordan by the following ladies and gentlemen: Piano,
Miss Grace Gilbert and Mary Jordan;
Violin, Miss Carrie Seaver; Cornet, Mrs.
M. W. Drum, Mr. W. B. Alden; Whistle,
Mr. F. C. Leslie; Combs, Miss Crehore;
Miss Isabelle Jackson; Bells, Miss Annie Jackson; Triangle, Miss Crehore; Castanet, Mrs. Freeman. This was well received by the audience and reflects great credit on the director. After the entertainment ice cream and cake were furnished by the committee. These entertainments have been very much enjoyed by the members and their friends and will no doubt be continued another season.

French Clock Repairing.

Any one who has a French clock knows the difficulty of getting it repaired, but Saul Brothers of 135 Moody street, Waltham, have had so many years of practical experience that they can guarantee satisfactory work. They will call for and return clocks, and they also are very skillful in watch repairing. They have a fine assortment of clocks, watches and silver ware, to which they call the attention of Newton people.

Pantries.

Select your pantries at Mansfield's from
3,000 of the best strains, French, German,
Belgian and English. Orders by mail promptly delivered. Box 111, Newtonville, Mass.

Newton Y. M. C. A.

It is to be hoped that the reception to our new General Secretary Mr. Barrett, which is to be held in Elliot chapel, Wednesday evening, May 6th will be fully attended.
There will be short addresses by gentlemen prominently engaged in Y. M. C. A. work and light refreshments will be served during the evening.

Mr. Barrett has been doing good work in Yonkers, N. Y. where he has been located for some years; and he is sure to be an addition to our community. Let us all give him a hearty welcome to Newton and so encourage him as he begins his work.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Mrs. Samuel Hall has been very ill.

—Mr. Amos Hale has started the cellar for a new house.

—Cooper & Dyson have put in one of the modern meat blocks.

—Auction of choice house lots at Woodland on May 9. See adv.

—Mrs. Abbott is at Newton Centre visiting her sister, Mrs. William Bemis.

—Mr. Frank Bowker, night watchman at the Newton Rubber Works has been very ill.

—Mr. Frank McAdams and family of Chestnut street, have removed to Elliot street.

—Mr. Charles S. Harding of Boston, has taken a position as bookkeeper at Hickey's Paper Mill.

—Mrs. Charles Thompson expects to remove from High street into one of Emery Hall's cottages.

—Mrs. Morris Whalen of Holyoke, has taken the position of superintendent at Hickey's Paper Mill.

—Mr. Ephraim Estelle will occupy one of Mr. Wm. Lowe's new stores with a stock of boots and shoes.

—The regular weekly prayer meeting of the Baptist society was held on Thursday of this week instead of Friday.

—The Elliotts defeated the Needham Plains 39 to 13 in a well played game last Saturday. The Elliotts are a strong team.

—Mr. Kellar of Newton Highlands will take the house on the Wm. H. Clarke estate, purchased recently by the Pettie Machine Works and will carry on a boarding house.

—Mr. William Lowe is still pushing work on the completion of his new stores.
A new chimney has been substituted for the former ancient one and gas pipes have been laid to connect with the stores.

—Mr. Charles Miner has given up the Pettie Machine Works' boarding house and will remove to his own house on High street. Mr. J. Walton of Chestnut street, is to take charge of the boarding house.

—The public are cordially invited to the annual meeting of the Newton Civil Service
Reform Association at Allen Brothers’
school house, West Newton, Wednesday,
May 6th, 1891, at 7:30 p. m. President Lambert will deliver an address on the present
state of the reform.

—Burnett's milk team was damaged considerably one day this week. The team was left in front of Mr. Lowe's house on Chestnut street, when the horse started and the wagon top bringing up against the limb of a tree was badly broken.

—The single men of the Quinobeguin Association gave the promise after going to their bowling opponents in last week's contest at Newton Centre, Monday evening.
It was a magnificent spread, and the married men acknowledge the debt settled.

—Mr. W. H. Bennett, proprietor of the Chemical Rubber Co., has been engaged doing business near the Rubber Works, has removed to South Duxbury. Mr. Bennett will be associated with another man there and the business will be extended.

—Rev. G. W. Holman will have completed a term of two years of his service here in two months more and the society will undoubtedly try to secure him for another year. His preaching here has been very acceptable and has drawn large audiences.

—A horse and buggy found on High St.
a few mornings since was the same that brought a couple home from a Needham dance late at night. The horse was left standing at the gate for a while and when the gentleman was ready to go home there was no team and he walked.

—Mr. Bernard Billings has put in a new J. W. Tufts' table fountain this week. The color of the marble is a light finely veined grey with trimmings of Italian marble and terra cotta. There are 10 syring cans, all removable. The fountain has been placed where the old one formerly stood and its attractive appearance will please many of the visitors of Echo Bridge.

—Mrs. Orie Pettie died at her home on Elliot street, Monday morning after quite a long illness. She took a severe cold some weeks since which finally developed into pneumonia and pleurisy which proved fatal. The funeral took place from the house at 30 yesterday afternoon and was attended by many of the large circle of friends of the deceased. Rev. J. H. Emerson, pastor of the Methodist church, conducted the service and the singing was very touching. The flowers were very simple, but none the less beautiful.

—Monday evening was a “red-lettered” one in the history of the Quinobeguin Association, the occasion being that of a banquet given to the “benefactors” of the society by the single men. This was in consequence of the defeat sustained by the latter at the bowling contest held at the alley of the Newton Centre Gun Club on Saturday evening, April 19th. The arrangements, which were in charge of some of the young men, were admirably planned and executed.
At 9 o'clock the married men, who were out in full force, in company with the single men, sat down to a superb supper furnished by Dill of Waltham. The tables were neatly arranged, and by the side of each plate was a tasty leaflet containing the bill of fare, with many local allusions, and a list of the names of the donors. The loving responded to toasts, Oscar E. Sutter being toast master; John A. Gould, Jr., L. P. Everett, Jos. Temperley, Wm. F. Bird,
John Thompson, A. V. Smith, Robert Threlfall, Fred A. Platt, Chas. E. Hussey. The auction, which was one of the most pleasing events of the evening, was in charge of Mr. Thompson, who, by ingenious scheming disposed of the articles in a manner quite remarkable for the single men. The toasts, which were responded to by the various members, were replete with wit and humor, expressing the confidence displayed by the married men and the professed ability of the single men.
The cause of the defeat was clearly explained by the society's orator. This society is the flourishing one of the village, and its members are looking forward to many pleasant and profitable times together the coming summer. Their numbers are steadily increasing, and its meetings were never as interesting as at the present time.

Annual Reunion.

The annual reunion of the T. L. S. S. D.
S. and N. H. S. D. S. was held on Saturday evening, April 18, at the Parker House, Boston. Covers were laid for twenty and each society was well represented.

Mr. John Cutler of the S. D. S. presided over the festivities and introduced the following gentlemen who responded to their toasts in a lively and interesting way.

“Our Absent Members,” William Z. Ripley
“Money,” Leighton Calkins
“The Young Man of the Period,” J. F. R. Fiske
“The Human Tongue,” Henry Whitmore
“The Fretting Fashion,” E. F. Smallwood
“Our Common Love,” H. H. Haskell
“The Past, Present and Future,” C. L. Eddy
“The Ladies,” Herbert S. Potter

After dinner the usual social features were enjoyed and arrangements were made for a reunion of the same character each succeeding year.

You can Save
from $2 to $5 on a baby carriage or a refrigerator by going to F. L. Graves, 194 Moody street, Waltham. He has a fine assortment, and keeps a large stock of furniture, which he sells at very low prices.
Goods delivered in any part of Newton.
Electric cars pass near the store.

THE CITY GOVERNMENT.

THE SEWER LAND HEARINGS AND CURIOUS LEGISLATION.

Both branches of the city government met Monday night, and a good deal of business was transacted. In the board of aldermen all the members were present except Alderman Sheppard and Mayor Hibbard presided. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

A communication was received from Albert Brackett, protesting against sewers being laid across his land, between Jefferson street and Nonantum place and the Metropolitan sewer; referred to sewer committee.

A communication was received from Mrs. Sherwood, secretary of the School Board, giving the action of the board in regard to enlarging the Pierce school house at West Newton.

A petition was received from E. E. Hardy, asking for the paving of the gutters on Central street; W. H. Leatherbee, asking for a concrete walk on Hillside avenue. From C. A. Balcom and others asking for a layer of crushed stone on the sidewalks on Hunnewell avenue and Fairview street, referred.

Licenses to keep intelligence offices were granted to Lydia E. Trefry and George Lane.

NO INSURANCE.

Alderman Luke from the finance committee reported against insuring the city buildings, on account of the difficulty of ascertaining what rates would be granted by the N. E. Insurance exchange, and also against the establishing of any sinking fund, by the city, as it could not legally be done. This probably disposes of the plan to change the existing practice.

Alderman Hyde reported an order authorizing the public property committee to advertise in the papers for plans and specifications for the enlargement of the Pierce school at West Newton. He said that the addition was needed, as the school was now overcrowded and something must be done at once. The plan contemplated was to build two wings of three rooms each, at a cost of $10,000 or $12,000. The order was passed.

On motion of Alderman Hyde, the mayor was authorized to sign a quit claim deed for the city, for Kate E. Flood.

THE SEWER HEARINGS.

The hearings on the taking of private lands and private ways for the sewers, were then opened, and there was a large attendance. A number of objections were received from parties wishing to protect their rights in the matter but in the great majority of cases no protests were received.

Rev. Mr. Gould objected to the sewer in Mt. Ida Terrace; Harriet M. Allen to Pond avenue; on private lands from Crafts to Court, J. J. Sullivan entered an objection for the Watertown Savings Bank, and for Thomas Stanley and his brother, J. H. Pearson objected to Nonantum street extension; Michael McDermott to Lincoln court, also John Bryant, Mrs. Chabertlain, Jas. Hart, John Buckley, J. Fitzgerald, James Flannagan and George Mead. James Ryan objected to Crescent square; Mrs. Mary Calverly to Gardner street; A. F. Ireland to Oak street. All the objections were entered and referred to the sewer committee.

After a short recess an order for the paving of the gutters on Pearl street, from Jewett to Gardner was referred to the highway committee; E. M. Springer asked for concrete walks on corner of Park street, and J. B. Murphy on corner of Watertown and Chapel streets; Geo. F. Richardson on Marshall street; Mellen Bray on Institution avenue; John E. Bristol, corner of Pearl and Gardner streets.

Caroline S. Jeunison and others asked to have Crescent square accepted as a public highway; referred.

SEWER ORDERS.

On motion of Alderman Harbach orders were passed taking private lands for sewers on the private ways and across private lands, to conform to the plan of sewers in Wards One, Two and Seven, the said streets having been named above.

THE TWO DOLLAR ORDER.

An order came from the common council for the payment of all city laborers two dollars per day, and referred to the highway committee and the water department. The aldermen concurred.

MONEY FOR SEWERS.

An order offered by Alderman Harbach was adopted providing for the appropriation of a sum not exceeding $250,000 for sewer construction, to be expended under the direction of the committee on sewers. The order was passed by a ye and nay vote, 6 voting in the affirmative, 1 member absent.

An order offered by Alderman Harbach was adopted authorizing the water board to lay 27 1/2 feet 6 inch pipe in Westnut Hill road and appropriating $772 therefor.

On motion of Alderman Fenno a hearing was ordered for Monday evening, May 18, at 7.30 o'clock on the petition of the Newton Street Railway Company requesting the board to rescind its action in ordering the relocation of the company's tracks from the side to the centre of River street. Notice of the hearing to be advertised in the Newton papers.

NONANTUM ENGINE HOUSE.

An order came from the common council authorizing the public property committee to procure plans and specifications for an engine house at Nonantum.

Alderman Fenno asked if the matter had ever been before the fire committee; Alderman Hyde said it had not. Alderman Hyde said the order was rather crudely expressed, and he supposed it meant that the public property committee should see what such a building would cost. They had an engine house at Newton Highlands which was approved by every one, but as the order had never been before the fire committee he moved that it be referred to that committee, and the motion was passed.

Alderman Harbach presented an order for the general system of sewerage on accepted streets; passed.

Alderman Coffin presented the amendment to the police ordinance, providing for two sergeants, and it was passed to be ordained.

The board then at 9.30 adjourned.

The Common Council.

In the common council, Councilman Grace paralyzed that body by presenting an order that all the city laborers should be paid two dollars a day.

The general impression was that it came from the highway committee and it was passed with only one dissenting voice.

Afterwards the members found that it did not come from any committee, and on motion of Mr. Roffe it was reconsidered and referred to the highway committee and the water department, it not being customary to pass orders which have not been considered by any committee.

An order presented by Councilman Forknall, authorized the public property committee to advertise for plans and specifications for a new engine house at Nonantum, and was passed. It was afterwards reconsidered and changed to authorize them to procure plans, and then reconsidered again and referred to the fire committee, in concurrence with the board of aldermen.

New System of Managing the Streets.

We congratulate Newton on the adoption of the new plan. We have long believed that thirty thousand dollars a year or more could be saved of the expenditures on the highways, and keep them in better condition than they are now in; we also think it will in the end prove of much advantage to Newton by educating road makers, and showing who has the ability and judgment to do the subject justice.

We notice that the highway committee report to the aldermen in favor of adopting the recent act of the legislature in regard to watering the streets of cities of thirty thousand inhabitants and upwards.

This, it seems to us, Mr. Editor, is a grave mistake; we admit that Newton is paying much more than ought to be paid from the common tax levy, for watering the streets, but the operation of this act, we believe would be still worse. It is arbitrary with no rule of justice in it. In the first place, Newton is not a city of thirty thousand inhabitants, but a cluster of half a dozen villages containing altogether about twenty-three thousand, to which such an ordinance is not appropriate, arbitrary, and often unjust, it could not fail in operation to multiply contentions, while hereafter under a different management of the streets less watering will be necessary. Hitherto to make a perfect sand papered street (for a while) the first top finish has been a dressing of pulverized, often soft stone, one half of which was blown away and the other half became a sort of paste that had to be scraped off and carted away, or allowed to clog the gutters.

A road properly crowned, dressed with screened gravel and rolled, would be hard enough to turn the water from it, preserve the road much longer, and commit much less dust to the wind.

And it seems to us that any plan for raising funds for watering should involve some regulating principle of equity.

T. H. C.

High School Notes.

The last regular debate of the Lyceum for '90, '91, was held at the school building last Saturday evening. There was a good attendance present when President Whitmore rapped to order at 7.45. He made some remarks on the Lyceum, its purposes, and the advantages which were to be derived by speaking. The following program was then announced: Solo, Mr. Kimball, '91; recitation, Miss Heckman, '91. These selections were very well rendered. The records were then read and approved. Holmes Whitmore presented the following resolution which was adopted: "Whereas the Honorable the school board of Newton has kindly granted to us the use of a room in the High school building for our meeting. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Lyceum of the Newton High school extend a vote of thanks to the honorable the school board for their kindness.

Mr. Tyler presented the following resolution, which was passed:

"Be it resolved, That the sincere thanks of the Lyceum be extended to our respected principal, Mr. Goodwin, for his kindness in granting the use of the rooms, in which the business meetings of the past year have been held. The clerk was instructed to communicate, which he has done.

Mr. Stone then moved that "a vote of thanks be extended to the officers for their efficient services rendered during the year;" passed. Speaker Coffin then took the chair after the clerk had read the following bill:

"Resolved, That capital punishment be abolished in the United States (signed) Geo. K. Burgess, '92." Mr. Stone gave the committee a report, which opposed the bill. Discussion was then opened and it became so exciting that the debate lasted until 9.15, when the closing arguments in favor were given by Messrs. Burgess and Whitmore. The debaters, during the evening, were those already mentioned and Mr. Howard Whitmore, Mr. Huxley, Mr. Tyler, Mr. Walworth and Mr. Stone. The vote resulted in a tie, 15-15, so the president cast his vote which defeated the bill and sustained the speaker and his committee. The meeting adjourned at 9.35.

A chemical accident happened in the laboratory last Thursday morning which fortunately did not result very seriously. Division C. class of '93, were experimenting with ammonium chloride to produce ammonium nitrate, by heat. Miss Costello and Miss Hackett were working together and Miss Mullen and Miss Farrell were near them, but working alone. Without any warning the glass tube, in which the chemical was being heated, burst, and sent its contents in every direction. Miss Hackett burnt her hands quite badly while Miss Farrell and Miss Costello received slight burns. Miss Mullen received the larger part of the chemical on her face and neck and she suffered severely pains. Mr. Chandler, who was in the room, applied soda water to the burnt parts, which partially relieved the pain.

The Q. U. E., '92, met at the home of Mr. Blake last Saturday evening and spent a very enjoyable time. Progressive games were first on the program of the evening's entertainments and Mr. Miller and Miss Kately captured the boobyies, and Mr. Lord and Miss Hunter the first prizes. After games came dancing, followed by a collation.

Ninety-three's progressive club, the N. M. C., held their campfire at the home of Mr. Stevens, Church street. Progressive Lotta was enjoyed and the first prizes were won by Miss Brown and Mr. Jordan. The second prizes went to Miss Jewell and Mr. Bosson, and Miss Felix and Mr. Redpath were awarded the boobyies. A collation was then served after which the company joined in singing college songs.

Mr. H. A. Stone has been elected manager of the base ball nine.

The fencing match for second prize was held in Eliot lower hall last Monday evening, Mr. Sampson and Dr. Hudson were the judges and awarded the prize to Davy, '93.

Berkley hall, Boston, was gay Saturday afternoon with the bevy of bright young girls and boys of the School Editors' Club. The club has been organized about two years, and holds its monthly meeting at 25 Beacon street, that of Saturday taking the form of a social dance from 3 to 6 o'clock. Arthur W. Tarbell was one of the aids. Quite a number were present from this school.

The officers of the battalion have received invitations to the Brighton High School drill next Thursday evening.

A drum and fife corps has been organized under the leadership of J. G. Holmes to attend the G. A. R. Post 62, to the city of Detroit this coming August. Many of the men in the corps are at present members of this school. What led to the organization was the fine exhibition given by the School corps at the midwinter drill. The costume will be that of the New York Zouaves. The members are J. G. Holmes, drum major; L. W. Chapman, drum serg.; A. S. Wakefield, fife serg.; drummers, Messrs. Peck, Edmonds, Wildes, Blackburn, Savage, and Wentworth. Base drum, Frank Booth; cymbals, Hale; fifes, Messrs. Ballou, White, Pickles, Leonard, Vose, Folsom, Inman and Willey; cornets, Messrs. Atwood, Preston, Willey and Williams.

AMATEUR INTERCLUB BOWLING.

BOSTON ATHLETICS WIN THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

The B. A. A. bowling team won an up-hill battle in its game in the amateur interclub league with the Woodland Parks on the alleys of the Norfolk House Casino, Monday evening. The game was the last on the schedule of the interclub bowling league, and the defeat of the B. A. A. team meant a series of matches between it and the Newton team to decide the championship of the league.

At the conclusion of the first string the Woodland Parks lead by just eight points, and on the next string the B. A. A. men went in to win. By good work on the part of Hill and Lodge the B. A. A. succeeded in capturing the lead so that at the end of the fourth frame the second string they were 41 points to the good.

But this did not last long, for on the next frame the Woodland Parks managed to gain 20 pins, and on the next decreased the lead of the B. A. A. team to two points. On the eighth frame the B. A. A. gained nine points, and at the conclusion of the second string were just two points to the good.

The next string decided the ownership of the game. The B. A. A. man opened the string by going to the head with a total lead of 21 pins, but at the conclusion of the first half of the string the Woodland Parks again lead by seven pins. For the remainder of the string both teams rolled splendidly, scoring spares and strikes in rapid succession. By some extraordinary even bowling the B. A. A. team managed to capture the game and the interclub bowling championship by a score of 2295 to 2251. The summary:

B. A. A.
Bowler	First string	Second string	Third string	Totals
Hill.....	192	161	179	532
Goodnow.....	118	150	148	416
Hayden.....	149	130	159	438
Lodge.....	163	155	151	469
Wood.....	136	155	151	442
Totals.....	749	751	785	2285

WOODLAND PARKS.
Bowler	First string	Second string	Third string	Totals
Loring.....	132	160	148	440
Pearson.....	225	121	148	494
Lockett.....	119	147	159	425
Dole.....	127	142	125	400
Raymond.....	154	174	133	461
Totals.....	757	751	743	2251

RECORD OF THE NEWTON TEAM.

The Newton team has completed its series in the Amateur Interclub Bowling League tournament, and has made an excellent showing. All the schedule games have been rolled, and the position of second place in the league race has been assured.

In 25 games, the Newton team has knocked down a grand total of 57,750 pins, an average of 2310 pins per game. The largest number of pins knocked down in any one game was 2500, and the smallest number 2012. The highest 10-frame score made in the series was 223 pins by Richards; only two pins being the highest record of the season, that of 225 pins, made by Lodge in the Chelsea Athletic match at Auburndale last Wednesday evening, and by Pearson of the Woodland Parks Monday evening on the Norfolk House alleys. Brown made the largest three-string score in the tournament, that of 590 pins.

The record of each individual in the Newton team is detailed in the appended table:

	No. of games played	Tot'l No. of pins.	Av. per game.	Av. per string.
Follett.....	21	9,910	471.9	157.3
Brown.....	23	10,853	471.9	157.3
Tapley.....	25	11,721	468.4	156.1
Richards.....	17	7,857	462.1	154.1
Savage.....	25	11,397	455.8	151.8
Hunt.....	8	3,696	462.0	150.2
Hamilton.....	4	1,671	417.7	139.2
Shirley.....	2	845	422.5	137.5

TEAM SIX A WINNER.

Teams 6 and 9 rolled a game in the Newton Club bowling tournament Monday evening. Shirley was high roller with a total of 316, and Keller scored with 289 pins to his credit. The match was one of the closest and most interesting in the series, and was won by team 6 by 17 pins. The summary:

TEAM SIX.
Bowler	1st string	2d string	3d string	Totals
Shirley.....	166	150	316	316
Hawley.....	140	140	280	280
Barker.....	117	119	236	236
Hopkins.....	108	109	217	217
Totals.....	531	518	1049	1049

TEAM NINE.
Bowler	1st string	2d string	3d string	Totals
Keller.....	149	140	289	289
Powers.....	123	129	252	252
Kinsley.....	119	164	283	283
Tucker.....	115	115	230	230
Smith.....	122	122	244	244
Totals.....	628	680	1318	1318

Here are some French advertisements: "A governess—with diploma—would like to accompany a musical lady to the country and on the piano." Here is another: "Wanted—A French nurse who loves children of 3, 5 and 8 years." And here is the queerest: "Wanted—A professor to come twice a week to the house of a noble family in order to reform the pronunciation of a parrot."

I suffered from a severe cold in my head for months and could get no relief. Was advised to use Ely's Cream Balm. It has worked like magic in its cure. I am free from my cold after using the Balm one week, and I believe it is the best remedy known.—Samuel J. Harris, Wholesale Grocer, 119 Front street, New York.

An unfortunate man has obtained access to rich Baron Rapineau. He depletes his misfortunes, his misery, in so moving a manner that the baron, with tears in his eyes and his voice choked with sobs, calls to his servant: "Jean! Put this poor fellow out into the street! He is breaking my heart."—Le Figaro.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.

H. W. DOWNS CO.,

143 Tremont St., Boston.

One Door South of Temple Place
Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

High Grade Dress Linings and Findings.

The Largest Variety and Finest Selections of Silk and Cotton Linings in the City.

L. H. CRANITCH

HOUSE, SIGN, AND ORNAMENTAL PAINTER,

Graining and Paper Hanging a Specialty.

WALNUT STREET,
2d Door from Central Block,
NEWTONVILLE.

F. H. WHIPPLE,

Sole Agent For New England For

White's Automatic Fire Alarm.

Inspection, Practical Tests and Correspondence Solicited.

Office: 1472 Washington St.,

BOSTON.

PARLOR, HALL, DINING ROOM AND BED-ROOM FURNITURE

LOWEST PRICES.

F. L. GRAVES,

So. Side Furniture Rooms,

194 MOODY ST., WALTHAM.

W. H. WHIPPEN,

CONSULTING ENGINEER,

Will advise with regard to the Erection and Running of STEAM PLANTS. Also Estimates of the Cost of Same.

Furnished. Transmission of Power by Wire Cable a Specialty. Call or address

615 Atlantic Avenue,

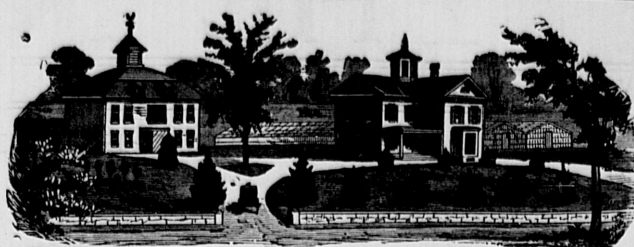

BOSTON.

Insurance.

Henry M. Baker,

47 Seilly St.,

Boston.

The Granite State Building ASSOCIATION.

OBJECT.

THE object of this association is to furnish homes to its members on an instalment plan at the very lowest cost. According to the lapses on old life insurance and one to five year orders for the past five years, fifty per cent. of all have lapsed. We find by careful investigation, a homestead costing Three Thousand Dollars can be obtained at a cost of about Eighteen Hundred Dollars to all members of this association. Our plan is this; All members pay five Dollars to join this association and as soon as this fund reaches the amount of Three Thousand Dollars, certificate holder No. 1 can buy or build a house, select his own location, and make his own contract for building, plans and specifications to be approved by the association. The members shall first give a mortgage for Three Thousand Dollars without interest, less the amount paid in by said member, and shall continue to pay his weekly instalment until his mortgage is paid up in full.

SOURCES OF PROFIT.

THE lapse element. It is impossible to hold any considerable number of persons together in any kind of an association without change; old members drop out and new ones come in, change in condition, alteration of mind, death, etc., all contribute to exemplify this principle, and constitute an inevitable law by which the persistent members realize a large profit. All members stand equal, as each one has to pay in full for his homestead, less the lapses, which, according to past five years' experience, place the lapses at fifty per cent. This will reduce the cost of each member's Three Thousand Dollar house to Eighteen Hundred Dollars, or less. Ninety per cent. of all instalments go to the building fund, ten per cent. to the general fund to pay the expenses of the association.

For further particulars apply to any of the following members or at the company office, Burnham Building, Room 11 and 12, 74 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

W. H. Smith, 10 Central Market, Boston.
A. J. Cunningham, 51 Blackstone St., Boston.
J. W. Smith, 202 Lewis St., Lynn.
Geo. G. Hackett, Wakefield Mass.
L. O. Dion, Natick, Mass.
Chas. W. Baird, 39 and 41 North St., Boston.
Fred R. Whitworth, 33 Boylston St., Boston.
John H. Crowley, 16 Carver St., Lynn, Mass.
Chas. E. Brown, 39 North St., Boston.
Mr. Jas. B. Fife, West Somerville, Mass.
J. S. Sawyer, Winthrop, Mass.
W. H. Lyons, 202 Union St., Lynn, Mass.
T. F. Griffin, 6 Gray St., Charlestown.
M. J. Sawyer, West Medford.
J. E. F. Griffin, 6 Gray St., Charlestown.
A. C. Smith, Savin Hill.
Daniel A. Glavin, 39 Bennington St., E. Boston.
N. Clifford Paul, Lynn, Mass.
Louis Harlow, 60 Pearl St., Boston.
G. B. Baker, 481 Dudley St., Roxbury.

F. G. BARNES & SON.

Real Estate, Mortgage and Insurance Brokers.

AUCTIONEERS for Real and Personal PROPERTY.

FOR SALE and FOR RENT

a large line of desirable property throughout Newton and vicinity.

Offices: No. 27 State Street, Boston, and Brackett's Block, Newton.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,

OFFER

HOUSE LOTS

AS FOLLOWS:

At West Newton, high ground, near station, 4c. to 10c. per foot.

At Auburndale, near station, 12 1/2c. per foot.

At Newtonville, " " 10 to 37 1/2c. per foot.

At Newton, good locations, near station, 10 to 50c. per foot.

Some very desirable ones at 20 to 25c. Call and investigate.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,

No. 2 Pemberton Square, Boston.

ELIOT BLOCK, NEWTON.

Dress Cutting School.

LADIES, ATTENTION.

Madame Hodgdon's Wonderful

Invention of the Age.

The best opportunity ever offered for learning the system of Dress Cutting, and

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB. The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the Tariff, is cordially invited to take part in the discussions carried on in this column. Respectful consideration will be given to inquiries, criticisms, and communications of every kind, whether coming from Tariff Reformers, Free Traders or High Protectionists. Address Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, Newton Centre, Mass.

The Reciprocity Dodge.

President Harrison wants it understood that he helped promote the so-called reciprocity dodge in the McKinley bill. But what queer reciprocity legislation it was? We took the duty off of sugar, and claimed it as a boon to the American people. We kept hides free for the same purpose. Now we say to foreign countries which have sugar and hides to sell: "Hark, you, if you do not take the duties off of some of those things we have to sell, we will proceed to put burdensome taxes on our own people for the purpose of punishing you!" Is free sugar a boon? Who, then, will suffer if the duties are restored? Do free hides help our great leather industry? Who will foot the bills if they are taxed again? Reciprocity is a good thing, but it should be based on natural conditions of trade. We shall learn true reciprocity one of these days.

What's the Matter?

(From the N. Y. Tribune.)
All last year the enormous consumption of pig iron was hailed as evidence of general prosperity. The greatest production attained in the early months was about March 1, 1890, 900,000 tons weekly, and April 1, about 1,784,474 tons, but after the usual shrinkage in the summer the highest production ever attained at any time, 183,846 tons weekly, was reached December 1. In December the output declined 16,000 tons, in January 21,500, in February 11,500, and in March 21,300, so that this weekly output April 1 was only 113,200; estimating the decrease in charcoal output at about 500 tons, and the fact that the lowest prices ever recorded for such iron at Detroit have now been reached indicates that the decline may be greater. The anthracite and coke output was but 102,508 tons, against 129,000 March 1. * * * The production of iron was large in the first three months of the year, so that the average of 104 grades was 24.6 cents April 1, against 24.5 January 1 and 24.2 a year ago, there has been a sharp fall in the price this month. Cotton has also fallen below 9 cents for spot middling uplands, and April is quoted at 8.07 cents. Hides are also weaker, and the boot and shoe business unusually dull because distribution has not come up to expectations.

What is the matter? We were asked to believe that the McKinley tariff would make business boom, but for some reason or other the iron business is less prosperous than it was last year, domestic wool in spite of increased protection, is only a little fraction higher, and the woolen manufacturing business is not sensibly improved, according to the Boston Advertiser. Is it not evident that our prosperity comes from natural causes, and that artificial stimulants are always of doubtful expediency? How long shall we handicap this wonderful country by a tariff which makes raw materials cost more here than in rival countries?

The Rebate Clause.

Under the rebate clause of the McKinley bill the American manufacturer can get 99 per cent. of the duties which have been collected on foreign materials used in his manufactures. In most cases it is inoperative because of the difficulty, when using mixed materials, to make a case under the statute. David A. Wells has made a masterly analysis of this rebate clause in the N. Y. Evening Post. It is, on its face, a discrimination against American consumer. It says to the American manufacturer that if he will sell certain productions of his make to foreigners, he shall be allowed to receive the raw materials for the foreign market. Of course, the obvious query is why the consumer in the foreign market should be supplied cheaper than the consumer in the American market. The kind of free trade the American manufacturer engaged in all kinds of business, wants, is the free trade that supplies him with cheaper goods, not the free trade that supplies the citizens of foreign countries with them. The American consumer asks, that the same legislation on the tariff which has made sugar 33 per cent. cheaper to him be extended to a variety of other articles. McKinley prices have got into almost a proverb in this country. What is wanted is something the reverse of McKinley prices. They are wanted here, not abroad. But Mr. Wells shows that these much vaunted low prices as regards American goods for anybody are for the most part a delusion and a snare, except in the case of one giant trust and monopoly, which they so largely benefit. It is not altogether satisfactory to the average American to be told that American manufacturers are increasing their trade by being granted facilities for selling goods lower to all the rest of the world, except to himself and his and their fellow-countrymen, but even this, Mr. Wells makes plain, is not true except in the case of a limited portion of them.

The chief gainer under the rebate clause is the Standard Oil Company, a puny infant that needs careful nursing. That company gets back about a million and a half a year on the tin cans in which it sends abroad a large part of its product, it being by far the largest canning industry in the country.

The President and trade with Mexico.

In his speech at El Paso the President said: "I am glad to stand at the gateway of trade with the great Republic of Mexico. I am glad to know that it is not only a gateway of commerce, but a gateway of friendship. That not only do these hurrying vehicles of commerce bear the product of the fields and mines in mutual exchange, but that they have facilitated those personal relations which have promoted and must yet more promote the friendliness of two independent, liberty-loving people. * * * I look forward with interest to a large development of trade."

And yet it was this same President Harrison's Secretary of the Treasury whose orders put almost a complete stop to "these hurrying vehicles of commerce," commonly called freight cars, which bore the product of the Kansas cornfields and the Mexican mines in mutual exchange. And this same President Harrison used his influence in favor of and exultingly signed his name to the McKinley bill, which contains a proviso specifically designed to stop permanently this mutual exchange of the products of Mexican mines and Kansas fields.

Probably Mexico has suffered little from this interruption of a commerce which President Harrison says he looks upon with so much interest. As to this information is meagre. But it is certain that the farmers of Kansas had a foreign market for their corn closed to them; that smelting establishments in Texas and Kansas were closed, and that the owners of American mines producing refractory silver ores were left at the mercy of the "carbonate ring."

To the injury of many and large American interests the President assisted in closing that gateway of commerce which seems to him such a beautiful thing when he sees it on his junketing tour.

Window Glass.

(From the Philadelphia Press.)
There has been an effort in some directions to show that the shut down of window glass manufactures all over the country is due to the operations of the McKinley bill. Secretary George L. Calkins of the Window-Glass Workers Association said to-day (Jan. 22) that this was a mistake. As a matter of fact, the production of window-glass in this country is not equal to the consumption. The shut down is due to the circumstance that prices are high, and by restricting production they can be kept up to the top notch. Mr. Calkins says there is no other reason why factories should not now be operating in full. As a result of the shut down more glass blowers are now seeking employment than at any time since 1885.

The top notch at which the price can be held is the price at which glass can be imported, duty paid. The McKinley bill moved this notch up by advancing the rates of duty on the sizes of glass most imported. That this was unnecessary as a means of protection is shown by the Press's statement that the production of domestic glass is not equal to the demand.

The duty was advanced by the McKinley bill to enable the manufacturers to more perfectly corner the American market and to advance their prices, which they have done several times since William McKinley, Jr., was appointed chairman of the ways and means committee.

So the profits of the manufacturer are increased under the McKinley bill, but what of the American workman, for whose interest Republican politicians are solicitous just before an election? Why, they are thrown out of employment.

Emergency and Hygiene Society.

The annual meeting of the Newton Branch of the Massachusetts Hygiene and Emergency Society was held in the choir room of Grace parish house, April 23rd. The following officers were elected: President, Dr. Geo. W. Shinn; Secretary, Miss Alice Buswell; Treasurer, Mr. D. R. Emerson. The executive committee of last year with a few changes was re-elected:

Newton—Dr. F. L. McIntosh, Mr. Thomas Weston, Miss M. Calkins, Mrs. Geo. S. Harwood.
Newtonville—Dr. W. O. Hunt, Dr. F. M. O'Donnell, Miss Margaret Worcester, Mrs. G. T. Hill.
Chilmark—Dr. Perkins, Mrs. G. A. Walton, Miss C. Field.
Auburndale—Miss C. P. Gordon.
Newton Centre—Mr. A. Lawrence, Mrs. R. R. Bishop, Miss I. Davis.
Newton Highlands—Dr. Eaton, Mrs. C. P. Clark, Miss G. Bryant.
Chilmark—Dr. Slade, Mrs. Burr, Mrs. Sawyer.
Nonantum—Rev. W. Lamb.
Upper Falls—Dr. Thompson, Mr. O. Pettee, Dr. McOwen.
Lower Falls—Miss Peters, Mrs. D. E. Baker, Miss Crebore, Miss Jackson.

The presidents address contained the following statements: He began by answering the two questions commonly asked "What is this society for?" and "Is there room for it in Newton?" "Whenever," he said, "people see the odd combination of letters: N. B. M. H. E. S. it means that something is being done to make Newton more beautiful and more healthful, to help in times of disaster, to remove something that menaces public safety and to introduce something that may add to the general well being."

"We can confidently claim that the organization has ever for itself a right to live longer by what it has done this first year."

The summary is as follows:

1. It has spread information by means of paragraphs in the newspapers as to what to do in times of danger, and the rendering of first help to injured persons.
2. It has given some twenty lectures and instructions to groups in the Emergency and Nursing courses.
3. It points with especial satisfaction to the lessons in Home Nursing given at the Hospital by Miss Peters to a company of twenty ladies who are to repeat the instruction in different parts of the city.
4. It held an important meeting in the interest of the sewerage of the city, and aided largely in having the plans well understood.

The work laid out for next year includes some efforts along these same lines, and in some new directions, as for example, lessons in House Sanitation. The address closed with these words: "We must remember that to prevent disease is as important as to cure it; to make people healthful is to help them do better work; and that it is a part of religion to promote sobriety and purity, to heed the cries of distress, and to make every day life nobler."

Hotel Humarock.

The coming season Hotel Humarock, so charmingly situated between the dashing surf of the Atlantic and the beautiful North river, will be under the experienced management of Mr. W. S. Sawyer, a young and progressive hotel man, who has spared no expense to make this well known resort the most popular on the South shore. A new dining room has been added for driving parties and the service will be absolutely first-class as Mr. Sawyer will cater to none but the best. The house has been put in thorough repair and entirely new kitchen arrangements put in. A new road to the Humarock connecting through Cohasset with the famous Jerusalem road, will make the Humarock the very centre of popularity.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

THE NEW ENGLAND.

With every issue the New England Magazine becomes wider in its scope, and is more artistically gotten up, it being the evident desire of the editors and publishers to make it take first rank among the great illustrated monthlies. The May number presents a varied and excellent table of contents. The initial article is "Walt Whitman at Date," by Horace L. Traubel. Mr. James Hannay's article, "The Loyalists," written from the Loyalist standpoint is finely illustrated. An interesting article at this time, when the Bering Sea matter is so much before the public, is Mr. Charles Hallcock's "The Alaskan Fur Trade, its Origin, Courses, and Ethnography." Mrs. Bernard Whitman writes in a lively, gossipy strain about the Puritans of early Dorchester, one of the suburbs of Boston. "Lovejoy—Hero and Martyr," is a strong plea for remembrance of one of the early Anti-Slavery agitators. "The Oldest House in Washington," by Milton W. Adkins, is the history of the old Burns estate, over which Washington had some trouble with the thick-witted proprietor, when the Federal government was located there. O. S. Adams writes an amusing account of some of the old ante-bellum newspapers. There is a fair instalment of poetry and fiction. "Poor Little Miss Severance," by Miss Fanny Louise Weaver, is a queer little story of Nantucket. "My Lady Wentworth," by Adeline A. Knight, is an interesting mixture of fact and fiction. The serial, "A Fair Exchange," develops a situation.

THE FORUM.

If any well-informed man were asked what are the most important topics that have engaged public opinion during the month of April, and about which the public desires authoritative information, he would be sure to answer (1) Italian difficulty, (2) the new Australian Commonwealth, (3) our reciprocity treaties with South America, (4) religious discussions caused by a large number of trials for heresy, and (5) silver coinage.

The Forum for May contains articles on every one of these subjects—on our Constitution and the demand of Italy, by ex-Secretary Bayard, who takes the same position taken by Mr. Blaine; on the Commonwealth of Australia, by Sir W. Cameron, the best authority in the United States; on reciprocity, by R. Q. Mills, ex-Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives, and by Senator Frye, who writes with especial reference to the improvement of our Southern harbors; on changes of orthodox belief, by W. D. Howells, the Rev. Dr. Alfred Moberg of St. Louis College, London; and on "Free Silver Coinage—Why Not?" by Edward Atkinson.

HARPER'S.

Harper's Magazine for May opens with the first of a series of attractive papers on "The Warwickshire Avon," by A. T. Quiller-Couch, illustrated by Alfred Parsons. The Venerable F. W. Farrar, Archdeacon of Westminster, contributes an impartial and appreciative sketch of the origin and work of "The Salvation Army." "Roman London" is the subject of an interesting paper, written by Eugene Lawrence and illustrated by H. D. Nichols, describing the Roman remains recently discovered beneath the London pavements. Colonel T. A. Dodge gives the first of a series of entertaining articles about "Some American Riders," his paper being beautifully illustrated from paintings by Frederic Remington. Approaches of the recent increased interest in the affairs of the United States, by the Rev. Dr. Alfred Moberg of St. Louis College, London; and on "Free Silver Coinage—Why Not?" by Edward Atkinson.

THE ATLANTIC.

Certainly there has been no story so extraordinary in its plot and so forcible in its vivid descriptions, as the late Douglas O'Connor's "Brazen Android," the concluding portion of which appears in the Atlantic Monthly for May. There is a portion of a journal of Richard H. Dana, which describes a voyage on the Grand Canal of China. Miss Jewett has never done anything better than her description of the return of the Hon. Joseph K. Lanaway to his native town, Winby. Mr. Parkman has an admirable concluding paper on the "Capture of Louisbourg by the New England Militia," Mr. H. C. Merwin, on the "Ethics of Horse-keeping," will interest lovers of that animal. Mr. William P. Andrews finishes a second paper on "Goethe's Key to Faust," and the well-known historian, Mr. George E. Ellis, has a paper on "Jeremy Belknap." There are four chapters of Mr. Stockton's bright serial, "The House of the Seven Gables." The usual reviews and the Contributors' Club, which is divided among six writers, concludes a number remarkably well composed.—Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston.

"Do yez tink, Rafferty, that it's bad luck to be going under a ladder?" O' dunn'd, said Rafferty, as he shouldered his hod. "It may be, but it's worse going over wan tin or twilve hours a day."—Washington Post.

Fiu de Siecle Children—He: "I say, Hilda, I should so like to give you a kiss." She (who will pick up such strange expressions from the boys): "Would you indeed?" "I like your cheek?" He: "I'm sure I should like yours."—Punch.

John L. Sullivan, the sluggeresque Thespian, appeared on the stage of a Cincinnati theatre Monday evening while drunk, and a gallery god used him as a target for an orange in a state of decay. Thereupon Mr. Sullivan offered to whip the entire house and the entire house in a cruel and cowardly manner gazed the artist clear off the stage. If fares the town, to hasten to the theatre, where pure dramatic art is knocked out in this way.—Washington Star.

ESTABLISHED 1817.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO. CARPETINGS.

Oriental Rugs and Carpets,
Curtains, Draperies, Wall Hangings,
Furniture Coverings, Shades, &c.
AT REASONABLE PRICES.

558, 560 WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON.

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE,
—SUCH AS—
Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, Scissors, Shears and Lawn Mowers.

Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House
We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.

HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?

And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?

If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves. WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES, OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.

A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

An Eight Per Cent. Investment.

The Fully Paid Certificates Issued By The GRANITE STATE PROVIDENT ASSOCIATION

MANCHESTER, - - - N. H.,
Draw a Guaranteed Annual Dividend of EIGHT Per Cent Payable Semi-Annually.

The Association makes its Investments in the East on City Property only thereby obtaining Security that is Constantly Increasing in Value. When an Institution can show that it has a Dollar and Twenty-three Cents with which to pay each dollar it owes, no doubt is expressed as to its Financial Solidity. The recent examination of the Bank Commissioners show that

Granite State Provident Association's
Ratio of Assets to Liabilities is One Hundred and Twenty-three.

The Association has the name of over 7500 Investors on its Books to whom Certificates of a Par Value of nearly $10,000,000 have been issued. If you wish a Safe and Profitable Investment you cannot do better than to write for particulars.

Hon. J. C. MOORE, President; Hon. H. D. UPTON, Treasurer;
G. PERCIVAL STEWART, Vice President;
E. E. BURLINGAME, Secretary;
PHILIP CARPENTER, General Counsel;
FRANK S. STREETER, Associate Counsel.

Great Reduction in Carpet Cleaning.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE
NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COMPANY.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminster; 8 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per yard. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. Sole Manufacturer of the ROCHESTER BUG EXTERMINATOR. Price 35 cents a bottle; 3 bottles for One Dollar.

SIMON A. WHITE,
P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street.

P. A. MURRAY, Carriage Builder.

ALL
Work Guaranteed.

Special attention given to REPAIRING AND PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGES
WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

M. C. HIGGINS PRACTICAL PLUMBER

Sanitary Engineer.
(Formerly with S. F. Carrier.)
Sumner's Block, Newton.

PLUMBING WORK IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.
Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city; perfect satisfaction guaranteed.
23-17

MADISON BUNKER, D.V.S.
Veterinary Surgeon.
BUSH'S STABLE, ELMWOOD ST.,
NEWTON, MASS.
Telephonic connection. 59

Daniels' Nonantum Stables
HENRY C. DANIELS, PROPRIETOR.
Livery and Hacking.
Patrons will find at these Stables the best of Horses and Carriages for hire.
Landaus and Hackes, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. Safe and reliable horses for ladies to drive.
BOARDING.
Superior accommodations for Boarding Horses, lean and comfortable stalls; careful and prompt attention.
Telephone 13-5. 80

J. OTIS McFADDEN,
DEALER IN
Window Shades, Wire Screens, Wall
Papers, Venetian Blinds.
23 CORNHILL, BOSTON.
23-17

HARRIS E. JOHONNOT, ELECTRICIAN.

Annunciators, Gas Lighting Apparatus, Burglar Alarms, Electric Supplies and Bells.
Incandescent Light Wiring.
All kinds of Electrical Apparatus Installed & Repaired.
MACHINIST and LOCKSMITH.
329 Centre St., Howe's Block, Newton
LADIES AND GENTS' BOOTS
Made to fit any shaped foot, stylish if you wish, or neat, plain and comfortable if desired. If your feet trouble you try a pair of boots made on my new natural last, and don't suffer any longer. A full line of Ladies' Gents' and Children's Boots Shoes and Rubbers kept on hand at bottom prices
A. L. RHYND, 265 Washington St., Newton

J. HENRY BACON, Successor to Francis Murdock & Co.

Dry Goods & Notions

Ladies' and Gents'
Furnishing Goods,
OIL and STRAW CARPETS,
Trunks, Bags, &c.
BACON'S BLOCK,
Nos. 279 to 281 Washington St.,
NEWTON.

The Corrugated CARPET LINING

is the best thing to Put Under Carpets.
FOR SALE BY BARBER BROS.,
415 Centre St., opp. Public Library.

JEWELER.

FRED J. PARKS,

HAVING BOUGHT OUT
L. D. Whittemore, Jr.,
Is prepared to carry on the business at the old stand in RACKETT'S BLOCK.
Careful attention given to Repairing Watches, Clocks, Music Boxes, Jewelry.

Watches and Diamonds For Sale.

411 Centre St.,
NEWTON.

Moody Street Nursery

C. D. FISKE, Proprietor.
WALTHAM, - MASS.
All orders promptly attended to.

THEODORE L. MASON,

Agent for the celebrated
Rockford Watch
ELGIN, WALTHAM, and other American
Watches always in stock.
Repairing of Fine Watches, French, Grandfather
and American Clocks a specialty.
All work warranted to give satisfaction.
Elliot Block, Centre Street, Newton, Mass.

J. L. PHILLIPS, PLUMBER, STEAM

—AND—
GAS FITTER.
Steam and Hot Water Heating a Specialty.
44 Spruce Street,
Waltham, - Mass.
23-17.

PURE - MILK

supplied daily from
PROSPECT VALLEY FARM.
One Cow's Milk supplied when desired.

H. COLDWELL & SON,

WALTHAM, MASS.
P. O. Box 1092. 12

JOB F. BAILEY,

Dealer in Doors, Windows and Blinds.
Glass, Balusters, Blind Trimmings, etc.
WINDOW WEIGHTS AND LINE.
24 Kneeland St., Boston.
23-17

THE LICENSE HEARING.

NEWTONVILLE OUT IN FORCE BEFORE THE CITY COUNCIL.

The hearing asked for in regard to Mrs. A. Williams' application for 6th class license, before the board of Aldermen, Wednesday evening, attracted a great crowd of Newtonville residents among whom were many ladies. Both of the city council chambers were filled, a great many men being present, and the crowd found a good deal of amusement in the proceedings, judging from the frequent laughter.

Mrs. D. C. Heath conducted the case for the remonstrants assisted by the noted criminal lawyer of Boston, Wm. B. Gale, and Mrs. Williams was assisted by Mr. John B. Goodrich.

The Mayor had a good deal of trouble in confining the remonstrants to the case in hand, as they were inclined to wander off into intemperate general statements, and from some of the so-called evidence one would have inferred that Newtonville was notorious for the general drunkenness of its residents and that intoxicated men could be seen on the square at all hours of the day or night, instead of being as it is a quiet suburban village, and drunken men are so infrequently seen that the writer, who has occasion to visit it several times a week has never seen a drunken man there.

Mrs. Heath opened by saying that she expected to have Hon. Chas. Robinson, but he was ill, and she had secured Mr. Wm. B. Gale to assist her. She thought a poor laboring man ought to be on every board of aldermen, to know what it was to go to work from a cold house with insufficient breakfast, and after further remarks of a like nature she said the petitioners had not signed Mrs. Williams out but the evidence had. She called her first witness, Joseph King of West Newton who testified to being at work for Mrs. Heath on Oct. 13, 1890. He testified that Mr. Costello was "pretty well on" in the morning, and that he got some whiskey a second time from Mrs. Williams, and some from other places, and when Mrs. Heath came out from Boston, she found King and Costello fighting and they were both taken to the police court. King said he signed the book at Mrs. Williams.

Walter Costello said at 11 o'clock he got a half pint of Mrs. Williams, and his name was on the book.

Mrs. Heath resumed her argument, but was interrupted by Mr. Goodrich, who said that the prosecutrix ought to either finish her argument or finish calling witnesses.

J. B. Taylor was next called and said he had an excellent domestic, who had only one fault, that of getting full when she went to Boston. One day he found she had got some liquor in Newtonville and following her down street in the evening, found her in Mrs. Williams store, and the latter was putting up some rum and arnica for her foot, but on his speaking, Mrs. Williams gave her him instead, asked to see the book, and it was shown him, but couldn't find the girl's name, although Mrs. Williams said she was sure it was there. In reply to Mr. Goodrich said the girl was very respectable in appearance, and nothing in her looks would prevent people giving her what she asked for.

There arose a discussion over the book, which Mrs. Heath wanted produced, as Mr. Goodrich said the books were not for public inspection, but for that of the proper authorities.

Mr. Gale blustered and threatened all sorts of things if the books were not produced, and Mrs. Heath said she could not go on without the book.

Mr. Goodrich said the prosecutrix had the curious notion that she could compel Mrs. Williams to testify for the prosecution and assist its side of the case. If Mrs. Heath wanted to learn anything from Mrs. Williams, why did not she visit her as she had the other druggists, instead of writing a threatening letter. The books were kept in strict conformity to law, and would be shown to any proper authorities.

After more discussion between counsel, Mayor Hibbard ruled that the books need not be produced.

Mrs. Heath said she wanted the books to prove Sunday sales and sales without signing the book.

Mrs. Chas. Murphy was the next witness. She had asked Mrs. Williams not to sell to her husband, but she did, and she had received bills. She went to Mrs. Williams and said she would not pay any bills and Mrs. Williams sent her a receipted bill, because she said she was sorry for her.

Chas. Murphy testified that the sales had all taken place two years or so ago, and he had not bought any liquor or drank any for a year and a half. The date of the bills seemed to confirm this statement.

Here Mrs. Williams was called by Mr. Goodrich and said she had never sold liquor to Mr. Murphy after the request of his wife. She marked the bill settled, because she was sorry for her.

James Knox Heath, a young son of Mrs. Heath, testified that he saw a coal driver refusing liquor at Mr. Payne's, and then watching through Mrs. Williams window, he saw him get a bottle there. Mr. Gale again made an effort to have the books produced; and the Mayor called on the City Marshal, who said that the board had no power to send for books in this case. Mr. Gale made an effort to prove otherwise but the Mayor stood by the decision of the City Marshal, and told Mr. Gale that the Mayor and aldermen were prepared to do their duty.

Mrs. Heath then began to give the results of her visits to other drug stores, but Mr. Goodrich objected that this was not testimony. Mrs. Heath continued about liquor at 50 cents a pint, and Mr. Goodrich asked if the mayor could not confine the prosecutrix to the case in hand. The mayor said it was very unpleasant to stop a lady, but if it was Mr. Goodrich he would stop him without hesitation.

Mrs. Heath called the City Marshal, who said he had always found the books of Mrs. Williams perfectly regular. Mrs. Heath then put in a bill, which she claimed showed Sunday sales, but the name of the buyer was not given, and rested her case.

Mr. Goodrich said there was very little evidence so far, and nothing to answer. The only violation so far was that Mr. Taylor failed to find the name of his servant, but Mrs. Williams was so sure she had signed that she showed the book without hesitation. If Mrs. Williams had violated the law a much less vigilant person than Mrs. Heath could have worked up a strong case, but Mrs. Williams was to be congratulated that after all this demonstration and search high and low through Newtonville, the case was such a pitifully weak one, and really no defence was required. It was rather strange to attack a woman alone, but Mrs. Williams was quite as well known in Newtonville as Mrs. Heath. She had bravely took up the business left by her husband, which was her only means of support, and had earned the respect of those who knew her. At the time covered by most of these sales, Mr. John F. Payne was her chief assistant, and he had a store of his own, but he was a man and no attack had been made on him. When Mrs. Heath took this matter up she visited Mr. Gaudet and Mr. Payne, and rumor stated there had been great changes in the latter's store. Why did she not also visit Mrs. Williams? She now professed to be very anxious to see the books, but Mrs. Williams would have been glad to show them to her.

Mr. Goodrich then read the letter Mrs. Williams wrote to Mrs. Williams, threatening her that if she did not withdraw her application, she would be shown up in a very unpleasant light.

Here Mr. Gale interrupted with remarks, and Mrs. Williams attempted to make a remark, when Mr. Gale brutally told her to hold her tongue.

Mr. Goodrich continued, said this was not a matter for sensation, but for investigation by the proper officers, and if they did not do their duty, then something could be done, but he thought Mrs. Williams should be allowed to reply.

Mrs. Williams stated that Mr. Taylor's servant came in and wanted some gin for medicine, as she was sick. She looked very respectable, and she gave her the book to sign and supposed she did so. She said her foot troubled her and she would come down in the evening and get something for it. She came, and while putting up some rum and arnica, Mr. Taylor came in and objected and she gave her him instead.

Mrs. Heath had been telling all about Newtonville that I sold liquor openly and very poor stuff. Mr. Goodrich interrupted, and Mrs. Williams read a letter from Gilman Brothers from whom she bought her liquor stating that it was the best they sold.

As for Mrs. Murphy, when she came and asked me not to sell to her husband, I complied and never sold him afterward. About the bill, it had become an old account, and been left unpaid so long, I marked it settled and gave it to her.

Mr. Bean, the well known prohibition leader of Newtonville, was called and testified that he had been in and out of Mrs. Williams store several times a day for 15 years and never saw liquor sold there. He did not believe in licensing any of the druggists, but they all should be treated alike. Mrs. Williams' store was a very orderly and well conducted place, and the sentiment of Newtonville was that all should be treated alike.

Mr. Goodrich was about to call other witnesses to the same effect, but the Mayor said that the aldermen needed no testimony as to the reputation of the store.

Mr. White was called upon by Mr. Heath, but said he had not signed the petition and knew nothing of the case.

Mrs. Heath next called Henry Carter, who had heard that much liquor was sold there and he had heard men say they could get anything there and he knew there was a great deal of drunkenness in the square; all the druggists sold liquors.

Mr. Kilborn asked Mr. Carter how many times he had been in the store. He couldn't say, perhaps a dozen times in the last 3 years.

Alderman Fenno then read another remonstrance signed by about a dozen people.

Mr. Kilborn said of the 84 signers, 53 had not been in the store in 3 years and the others rarely came in.

Mrs. Heath denied being to see Mr. Payne. He had come to see her.

Mr. Heath said it was only fair to say that Mrs. Heath had no malice in her following up of the case, it was only because she was so interested in the men at work on the house. If his son was taught to be a spy, but hearing about the case at home, he had taken an interest in finding out something for himself. He was sorry the hearing had taken such a personal character and felt like apologizing for Mr. Gale's being present.

Deacon Greene was called and said he had volunteered to circulate the petition and found people very ready to sign. In reply to Mr. Goodrich, he said he did not think Mrs. Williams was exceptional among the Newtonville druggists.

On motion of Alderman Fenno, Mr. F. A. Devson was invited to say a few words. He said he had no facts, but he would have signed a petition to have licenses refused to all three druggists. He was satisfied there was a good deal of carelessness among the Newtonville druggists. Physicians don't average one prescription a month for liquor. He was not a total abstainer but he respected those who were, and he thought the laws should be strictly enforced. He respected Mrs. Williams, and perhaps she had been careless, but the three druggists could not support themselves if they did not sell liquor. There was a great temptation to sell.

Rev. Mr. White was invited to speak, and said he knew nothing about this matter, but if any druggist was proved to be breaking the law, he would be glad to aid in prosecuting. He knew nothing against Mrs. Williams, however.

Mr. Gale made his closing address, in which he assumed that all charges were fully proven, that all that had been said was evidence, and that because Mrs. Williams did not keep her books after they had been properly inspected, and the business year was closed, was proof that the books were not properly kept.

Mr. Goodrich said the Chief Marshal had testified that he had examined the books and found no violation of law, which answered Mr. Gale's assertion. The leading petitioners even acknowledged that Mrs. Williams' case is not exceptional, and it would be unreasonable and unjust to make any discrimination after such a hearing.

Mr. Taylor said he would like to suggest the feasibility of refusing a license to all the druggists.

The hearing was then closed.

The admirable way in which Mayor Hibbard presided, and kept the testimony down to the case in question was favorably commented on. His rulings were fair and kept the hearing which threatened to last all night within reasonable limits, while giving ample opportunity to all who had any facts to present. Mr. Gale evidently did not expect to encounter a man of Mayor Hibbard's size.

Summer Season.
Gentlemen needing a spring suit will be interested in the announcement of C. Brooks & Co., of 6 Union street, Boston. They have a spring assortment of the most desirable imported cloths, which they make up in the best manner and at moderate prices. See Adv.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.

IN THE INTEREST OF THE JOHN BOYLE O'REILLY MEMORIAL FUND.

The Rev. L. J. O'Toole presided at a large and spirited meeting in city hall, West Newton, Tuesday evening, in support of the above named fund.

The speakers were the Rev. P. B. Murphy of Natick and Miss Katherine A. O'Keefe of Lawrence.

Prof. E. M. Sheedy recited in a spirited manner and with marked dramatic effect O'Reilly's poem "Fredericksburg."

The Rev. Father Murphy was an intimate friend of Mr. O'Reilly for twenty years, and eloquently and touchingly portrayed the manly and patriotic characteristics of Mr. O'Reilly and gave some interesting reminiscences of the poet, journalist which have not been heard from public platform before.

Miss O'Keefe who was also a warm personal friend of Mr. O'Reilly spoke for nearly an hour, and during this time held her audience with an intensity of interest which gave evidence not only of the hearers sympathy with the subject matter but with the masterly ability and fervid eloquence of the speaker. Her versatility and beautifully woven sentences in delineating many interesting phases in Mr. O'Reilly's life and character, would fittingly harmonize with the sublime utterances of Col. Higginson in his eulogy of O'Reilly at the great memorial meeting at Tremont Temple; while her spirited, yet pathetic powers of expression would vividly recall the impassioned eloquence of Collins on that memorable occasion. It is safe to say that there are comparatively few speakers in the country, men or women, who have a greater faculty of controlling and interesting an audience than Miss O'Keefe, and there cannot be other than an enviable future for a lady of her genius and accomplishments.

Master Cahill, a bright boy about twelve years of age favored the audience with a sonnet for the fund, and was heartily cheered for his command of the instrument.

A charming and interesting feature was a drill exercise by five boys in attractive uniforms called the "Diamond Five" of the J. P. O'Reilly Cadets, Natick.

This is a company of boys organized by Father Murphy and splendidly trained in military tactics. The whole company is to be carried in barges from Natick to Holywood, Mass. 30th and reverently decorate the grave of the poet patriot whose name they bear.

The business feature of the meeting was inaugurated by the appointment of a solicitor, and a committee representing the different parts of the city and good results are expected.

Special Bargains
are still offered at Woodward's blue store, 40 Bromfield street, Boston, and cut rates on all medicinal goods, patent medicines, etc. Lower prices than any other store offers.

BUSINESS NOTICES
TO LET—A cottage of seven rooms on Harvard street. Will let at low rent to a desirable tenant. Apply at greenhouse or 366 Newtonville avenue. 3041

FOR SALE—Ten shares of Newton Street Railway Company Stock at 102. Chas. S. Parlin, 53 Congress street, Boston. 3021

FOR SALE OR TO LET—Furnished or unfurnished, new house with all modern improvements on Woodbine street, Auburndale. For terms see particulars, address Box 43, Auburndale postoffice. 3021

$3500 TO BE LOANED—at 5 per cent on first mortgage on improved real estate. Apply to "S," P. O. Auburndale, Mass. 3011

FOR SALE—Family horse and extension top carriage, light and dark; also Mr. Carter's horse at Hill's stable, Newtonville. Also his house, Apply at Mr. Potter's, Grove Hill avenue, Newtonville. 3011

TO LET—Without board, one large room, adjoining bath room and one room on first floor. Apply to Mrs. Monroe, 455 Centre street, Newton. 3011

FOR SALE—Safe family and row-boat, 15 foot motor launch, keel bottom. Pre-cott street, Newtonville. 3011

TO RENT—In Newton Centre, on Crescent street, a furnished house with stable, for the season or longer. Address Box 35, N. C. 3011

MISS A. E. Holman will receive pupils in Botany, Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, through May and June. Terms reasonable; use of microscope included. Bowdoin St., Newton Highlands. 3011

TO LET—A neat house for a small family, five rooms in complete order. Three minutes from railroad station, depot and post office. Inquire of Henry Fuller, 261 Centre street, Newton. 2911

DONKEY FOR SALE—Address J. H. S., P. O. Box 4, Newton Highlands. 2821

WANTED—An experienced nurse girl. Address with full particulars, Box 459 Newtonville. 2821

TO LET—In Auburndale a desirable house of 12 rooms, at moderate rent. Apply to J. W. Davis. 2941

WANTED—A room with board for a lady. West Newton, Newton or Newtonville. Graphic Office, M. B. 2911

FOR SALE—Two Jersey cows, a carryall, (all most new) a buggy, phaeton, ten cords lawn mowing machine, and a lot of household goods. Inquire at 21 Avon place, Newton. 2831

FOR SALE—Open piano box buggy, nearly new, only used a few times. Address for terms and particulars, Box 11, Auburndale, Mass. 2841

TYPE WRITING AND COPYING—Done promptly and well by experienced operator at reasonable rates. Apply to Miss Henderson, 239 12 Washington street, rear of Nonantum Station. 2841

LARGE DARK ROAN—Kind, safe family horse, for carriage or light drive; also a bred Kentucky saddle mare, all gait; extension top carryall, natural wood survey, 1 light road wagon, 1 set double harness, 1 single harness, lap robes, blankets, &c. sold for no fault or reason, but because owner has no time to use them. Apply to Chas. E. Adams, 20 Summer street, Boston, or Gro. S. Hill, Newtonville. 2811

FURNISHED HOUSE to rent on Walnut street, Newtonville, opposite Ex-Gov. Griffin's, containing 10 rooms, with bath and laundry. All modern improvements; 4 open fire places. Will be rented to a small family at reasonable rate. Apply to Mrs. Geo. F. Kimball, Newtonville. Telephone 55-3. 1911

STORAGE—Excellent storage room to let, dry, clear and light, at Jackson Homestead, W. 2831

TO RENT—Part or whole of house No. 76 of Baptist church lot, on Church street, both in Ward One, Newton. Address or inquire of A. B. Marshall, 76 Bennington street, Newton. 2741

TO LET—House of six rooms, with bath and modern improvements. Apply to T. J. Hartnett, Newton. 2741

TO LET—A pleasant house and grounds. Fruit trees and shrubbery, large hen house, handy for business. Call on Mr. H. H. Read, Fair street, Newton Centre. 2741

FOR SALE—Best quality of English hay. Inquire of S. M. Jackson, Newton Centre. 2711

TO LET—In Newtonville, one tenement $10 a month. D. P. O'Sullivan, Cabot St., Newtonville. Telephone 55-3. 1911

EGGS FOR BREEDERS—Prize Stock Red Leghorn eggs. One dozen $1.00; Two Dozen $1.75; Three dozen $2.00. Apply at C. W. Bunting's Market. 2641

HOUSE AND STABLE FOR SALE OR TO RENT—House modern, with furnace and bath room, 10 rooms, 10 minutes walk from Newton Centre station. Rent $30 per month. Also 5 acres of building land for sale. Apply to John Stearns, Newton Centre. 2541

Do You Suffer With PILES?
TRY THE GERMAN PILE CURE.
25 Cents a Box. For Sale at Hudson's, Newton, and Payne's, Newtonville. 2011

City of Newton.

ASSESSORS' NOTICE.

The inhabitants of the City of Newton, and all other persons liable to pay taxes therein, are hereby required to bring in to the Assessors of said Newton, on any day from

May First, to the Fifteenth Day of June, Next,

true lists of all their Polls (males, 20 years old and upwards), and schedules and estimates of their personal estates, not exempted from taxation.

ASSESSMENT OF WOMEN.

Chap. 196, Acts of 1889.

The Assessors or Assistant Assessors shall, in the month of May or June in each year, visit each dwelling-house or building and make true lists of all women twenty years of age and upwards, who shall in writing over their own signatures, request the Assessors to assess them for a "poll tax," and it shall be the duty of the Assessors to inquire at each such dwelling house or building for such written requests for assessment which must give the name in full—age, occupation, and residence May 1st, 1890. All women desiring to be assessed for a poll tax should have their written request for such assessment in the form required by the act of 1889, ready for delivery to the Assessors when they shall visit the houses where they dwell. Each request shall be upon a separate sheet signed by the applicant with her name in full. No application for the assessment of a woman for a poll tax will be received by mail or in any other than the manner provided by said Chapter 196, except by filing in the office of the Assessors the list provided by Section 12, of Chapter 298, of Acts of 1884, as amended by Chapter 200, of Acts of 1888.

Persons holding estates in trust, whether for minors or otherwise, are particularly requested to furnish the Assessors with statements in relation to such estates.

When estates of persons deceased have been divided during the past year, or have changed hands from other causes, the Executors, Administrators, Trustees, or other persons interested, are required and warned to give notice of such change; and in default of such notice will be held to pay the tax assessed, although such estate has been wholly distributed and paid over.

Returns of Property Held for Literary, Benevolent, Charitable, or Scientific Purposes.

In accordance with the requirements of Chapter 217, Acts of 1882, all persons and corporations are hereby required to bring in to the Assessors of Newton on any day from May first to the fifteenth day of June next, true lists of all real and personal estates held by such persons and corporations respectively for literary, benevolent, charitable, or scientific purposes on the first day of May, 1891, together with statements of the amount of all receipts and expenditures by such person or corporation for said purpose during the year next preceding said first day of May; such lists and statements to be in such detail as may be required by the tax commissioner.

MORTGAGED REAL ESTATE.

Chap. 175, Acts of 1882, Sec. 1.

Any mortgagee or mortgagee of Real Estate may bring in to the Assessors of the town or city where such Real Estate lies, at the time specified for bringing in the list as provided in Section thirty-eight of Chapter eleven of the Public Statutes, a statement under oath, of the amount due on each separate lot or parcel of such Real Estate, and the name and residence of every holder of an interest therein as a mortgagee or mortgagor. When such property is situated in two or more places, or when a record of mortgage includes for one sum two or more estates or parts of an estate, an estimate of the amount of the mortgagee's interest in each estate or part of an estate shall be given in such statement. The Assessors shall, from such statements or otherwise, ascertain the proportionate parts of such estates that are the interests of mortgagees and mortgagors, respectively, and shall assess the same. Whenever, in any case of mortgaged Real Estate, a statement is not brought in as herein provided, no tax for the then current year on such Real Estate shall be invalidated for the reason that a mortgagee's interest therein has not been assessed to him.

SHIPPING.

Shipping and business income are not taxable to the resident partner but to the partner who takes these items in his individual return. Owners and agents of ships and vessels engaged in the foreign carrying trade, are referred to Sections 8 and 9, of Chapter 11 of the Public Statutes, for the form of return required to obtain exemption from taxation upon the valuation of such property. Said returns to be made to the Assessors on or before June first.

Any person bringing in a list of all his taxable personal property will be assessed upon the valuation thereof, and any person neglecting to furnish the Assessors with such list within the time above specified, will be deemed a legal meeting of the Board of Assessors agreeably to the laws of this Commonwealth.

All persons will take notice that statements of personal property must be in writing and subscribed under oath before one of the Assessors, on or before the fifteenth day of June, and that the Personal Property of all taxable persons must be estimated by the Board, notwithstanding any verbal statement or informal written communication to any one or more of the Assessors.—Pub. Stat. Chap. 11, Sec. 29 and 41. When a person has failed to bring in a list or schedule of all his taxable property, in conformity to this notice, no abatement of a tax assessed on Personal Estate to such person can be granted, "unless such tax exceeds by more than fifty per cent, the amount which would have been assessed to that person on Personal Estate if he had seasonably brought in said list; and if said tax exceeds by more than fifty per cent, the said amount, the abatement shall be only of the excess above the said fifty per cent.—Pub. Statutes, Chap. 11, Sec. 73.

The Assessors will be in session at their office, in the City Hall, in the City of Newton, on the 6th, 13th, 20th, and 27th days of May, and the 3d, 10th, and 17th days of June next, from 3 to 5 o'clock, P. M.

Blank schedules will be furnished on application to either of the assessors.

SAMUEL M. JACKSON, } Assessors of HOWARD B. COFFIN, } the City
CHARLES A. MINER, } of Newton.
Newton, April 25, 1891. 3011

GENTLEMEN OF NEWTON!!

YOU WILL FIND AT THE

NEW HAT STORE,

JUST OPENED AT

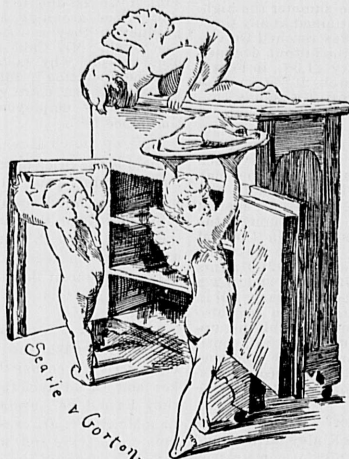

685 MAIN ST., WALTHAM,

A Fine Assortment of the Latest Styles of Hats in all the Fashionable Colors at Manufacturers' Prices, viz:—

$4.00 Hat, Our Price, $3.00; $3.50 Hat, Our Price $2.75;
$2.50 Hat, Our Price, $2.00; $2.00 Hat, Our Price $1.50.

Save money by purchasing at the "SORRENTO."
Agents for Mystic Hat Company Manufacturers.
Hats made to order.

685 MAIN STREET, opposite MOODY STREET,
WALTHAM.

Alaska Refrigerator,

Best in the World. $3.50 to $60.
Baby Carriages,

Also an extensive line of medium and fine
FURNITURE, CARPETS AND RANGES.

Standard Furniture Co.,

23 WASHINGTON AND 87 FRIEND STREETS, BOSTON.

Reasonable Credit to Trustworthy Persons.

PEERLESS CRATE

50 ARTISTIC DESIGNS

MADE IN

17 DIFFERENT STYLES OF FINISH.

Intense Heat, Perfect Cleanliness.

10 PEERLESS SHAKING GRATES sold to every one of other makes.

Send for Catalogue and Testimonials.

MANTELS, TILES & PORTABLE GRATES.

JOSEPH W. GRIGG,

206 Charlestown Street, - Boston, Mass.

By JAMES F. C. HYDE and ELLIOTT J. HYDE.

AUCTIONEERS,

1731 MILK STREET, BOSTON.

NEWTON STREET RAILWAY.

Commencing April 20, 1891, cars will run as follows:

NEWTON TO WALTHAM.

Leave Newton 6.25, 7.30, 8.00, a. m., and every half hour until 11.00 p. m.

For West Newton only 11.30, 12.00 p. m.

Newtonville 6.32, 7.38, 8.08 a. m., and every half hour until 11.02 p. m.

For West Newton only 11.38 p. m., 12.08 a. m.

Car Station 6.50, 6.55, 7.13, 7.45, 8.15 a. m., and every half hour until 11.12 p. m.

For West Newton only 11.45 p. m., 12.15 a. m.

West Newton 6.05, 6.40, 7.15, 7.48, 8.18 a. m., and every half hour until 11.18 p. m.

WALTHAM TO NEWTON.

Leave Waltham 6.40, 7.15, 7.45 a. m., and every half hour until 11.15 p. m.

For West Newton only 11.45 p. m.

City of Newton.

DOG LICENSES EXPIRE

April 30, 1891,

And all persons owning or keeping a dog or dogs in Newton after that date, without license, are liable to be proceeded against for violation of the law. The fine in such cases is $15.00 and costs, amounting to about $25.00. See Chap. 102 of the Public Statutes.

I. F. KINGSBURY,

City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Proposals for Almshouse

The Committee on Public Property invite proposals for the erection of a new almshouse on land owned by the City, on Winchester street, Ward Five. Separate proposals will be received for the Mason work, including excavating, grading, foundations and stone walling, and for the remainder of the building, excluding these items.

Each proposal must be enclosed in a sealed envelope, endorsed to show which work is bid for, and addressed to the Committee on Public Property. All proposals must be delivered to the architects on or before Monday, May eleventh, 1891, at one o'clock p.m. Copies of the plans may be obtained and any additional information will be given at the office of the architects, Kendall & Stevens, 8 Oliver St., Boston.

The right is reserved to reject any or all proposals.

For the Committee, ELLIOTT J. HYDE, Chairman.

29 31

EDWIN I. DILL,

Baker, Caterer and Ice Cream Manufacturer.

Particular Attention Given to Catering for Weddings and Private Parties.

A. O. U. W.; Lock, Moody Street, Wattham; Spring Hotel, Main Street, Watertown.

21

SPECIAL BARGAINS

Toilet - Articles.

No matter what you want from an apothecary store, you can save money by buying it at 40 Bromfield street. We sell all patent medicines, all perfumes, all toilet articles, all roots, bark and herbs, all oils, essences, tinctures, extracts and elixirs, absolutely pure wines and liquors, selected especially for medicinal use, and all other drug store goods, at

Lower Reduced Prices Than They Can Be Bought for at Any Other Store on Earth.

PHYSICIAN'S PRESCRIPTIONS PUT UP FOR LESS THAN HALF OF OTHERS' PRICES.

WOODWARD'S

BLUE STORE WITH RAINBOW SIGNS, 40 Bromfield St., Boston.

22 3m.

SPRING SUITS.

J. H. NICKERSON

Merchant Tailor and Clothier, WEST NEWTON, MASS.

Is now prepared to furnish Spring Suits from the latest styles of goods, ready made or made to order as you may desire. No better or cheaper clothing for Men or Boys can be procured. Call and see our line before purchasing. Please leave your orders early to avoid having to wait when the season advances.

GO TO—

G. A. BURLEIGH,

BOOTS, SHOES and SLIPPERS.

138 Essex and 56 Beach Sts., Boston.

427 BROADWAY, SOUTH BOSTON.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's Low Cut Shoes for Summer Wear at Lowest Prices.

Gents' Goodyear Welt Shoes, easy as hand sewed, $2.50 and $3.00.

C. A. HARRINGTON

LUMBER,

Lime, Cement, Plaster, &c

Crafts St., Newtonville, Mass.

Telephone, 248-5 Newton.

47 36

CHURCHILL & BEAN

Tailors.

IMPORTERS

FINE CLOTHS

503 Washington St.

BOSTON.

G. F. CHURCHILL, Newtonville.

J. H. BEAN, Dorchester.

Slate, Copper, Tin and Grave ROOFING.

Special attention given to repairing.

John Farquhar's Sons,

Nos. 20 and 22 East St., Boston.

Established 1836. Telephone No. 162. 49

CAMBRIDGE LAUNDRY.

NEWTON OFFICE.

Sumner's Block, opposite Newton National Bank

Work done well and promptly. Work taken Monday to 2 p.m., and returned Thursday night Received after Monday and up to Thursday, returned on Saturday. Holland and lace curtain a specialty.

Steam Pumps, Boilers and Engines.

GARDEN HOSE.

Spiral Weld Steel Tube.

Used for Water, Steam or Gas.

Test 300 lbs. and upwards per sq. in.

Sizes, 6 in. to 24 in.

The cost of this pipe is only a fraction of that of standard pipe. Descriptive circular sent on application.

60 PEARL STREET, BOSTON.

Telephone No. 707, Boston. 50

ARTHUR HUDSON.

Analytical and Pharmaceutical

CHEMIST AND APOTHECARY.

(28 years experience in the business.)

WARNER'S LOCK, NEWTON

Cor. Centre and Elmwood streets.

A full line of Chemicals of Standard Purity all ways in stock.

Physicians' prescriptions compounded with accuracy at all hours.

Proprietary Medicines and Druggists' Sundries

CHEMISTRY.

With a large and thoroughly appointed Laboratory, Mr. Hudson offers his services in the line of his profession. Investigation as to the composition of matter conducted by analyses or syntheses, according to most approved methods. Analysis of potable waters, milk, etc., a specialty.

The Senior Druggist of Newton.

TELEPHONE 7979.

VOSE & SONS

PIANOS

ESTABLISHED IN 1851.

28000 SOLD AND IN USE

NEW STYLES.

ELEGANT

DESIGNS.

SUPERIOR

WORKMANSHIP.

GREAT

DURABILITY.

EASY TERMS.

WE RENT NEW and second-hand

Pianos and allow ONE YEAR'S rent

on the purchase price.

100 second-hand Pianos at $275.

$250, $225, $210, $200, $175, $150,

$100. Be sure and examine our stock before purchasing.

VOSE & SONS PIANO CO.,

170 Tremont Street.

LATEST

in

BLACKS

and

BROWNS.

FRANK CHAMBERLAIN'S

NOBBY SPRING HATS.

Wear Our $3 Non Breakable Hat.

Fine Furnishings, Gloves, Canes, and Umbrellas.

663 Washington St., Boston.

3 doors south of Boylston St.

OPEN EVENINGS.

FISH OYSTERS,

Vegetables & Fruit of all Kinds

Bunting's Fish Market.

COLE'S BLOCK.

Established 1877. Connected by Telephone.

ADAMS' MACHINE SHOP.

MACHINE JOBBING AND REPAIRING.

All Kinds of Machine Sharpening and Grinding.

MACHINE AND TRICYCLE REPAIRING A

SPECIALTY. LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED.

396 WASHINGTON STREET, NEWTON.

P. O. BOX 114.

16-41

Scientific Dress Cutting.

Mrs. M. S. MUGRIDGE,

25 Richardson St., Newton.

Evening costumes a specialty.

11

Board of Aldermen.

The board of aldermen, while waiting for the petitioners to appear at the hearing, Wednesday night, transacted a good deal of business.

John Bellamy was granted license to erect hen house on Webster street; T. D. Sullivan, to alter building on Walnut street, Ward 5, and the N. E. Telephone Co. to erect poles on South street.

Hack licenses were granted to A. F. Harrington, J. F. Makee, J. R. Atwood, S. P. Whitman, J. F. McSherry, J. T. Hill, Robert Weir, C. G. Tinkham, S. F. Cate, Geo. W. Bush and Fitzgerald Bros.

Express licenses to Henry T. Hesse, A. H. Eames, W. J. Holmes, F. H. Hunting, Joseph Lee, P. S. Gleason, R. J. McAdoo, Johnson & Keyes, and Wilson. An inn holder's license was granted to Joseph Lee.

An order was passed granting the Newton Street Railway's petition to run wires and poles on Crafts and Waltham streets.

After the hearing, druggists' licenses were granted to all the druggists of the city except Mrs. Williams.

An order was passed appropriating $250 to purchase a horse for the chemical engine in place of the one killed this week.

Base Ball.

The first game of the N. H. S. base ball nine was held on Walworth's field, Newton Centre, Wednesday afternoon.

The opponents were the Crescents of Newton Centre and both nines put up a good game, considering the short time that they have practiced. The Crescents went to the bat first. Only seven innings were played. The work of the Newtons was much better than the Crescents. Appended is the score:

N. H. S.

	AB.	R.	B.	TH.	PO.	A.	E.
Kimball, c.....	4	2	2	3	7	2	0
Page, p.....	1	0	0	0	0	1	1
Wentworth, if.....	2	1	4	0	0	0	0
Blackburn, ss.....	2	1	0	0	2	1	1
Waite, 3b.....	4	2	3	5	1	2	1
Bosson, if.....	4	0	0	0	1	0	1
G. Inman, p.....	2	0	0	0	0	8	0
Shepard, c.....	1	1	3	0	0	0	0
H. Inman, 2b.....	3	1	1	2	1	2	1
Totals.....	27	10	9	18	21	13	5

CRESCENTS.

	AB.	R.	B.	TH.	PO.	A.	E.
Trombly, cf.....	0	0	0	0	0	1	1
Leah, 2b.....	1	0	0	0	2	4	1
Rand, ss.....	2	1	1	0	0	3	2
Richardson, c.....	3	1	0	0	0	0	0
Cushing, c.....	1	0	0	0	0	0	0
Walworth, if.....	4	0	0	0	1	0	1
Kingsbury, 2b.....	3	1	0	0	2	2	0
Benedict, lb.....	2	1	0	0	11	0	0
A. Russell, p.....	4	0	0	0	0	4	1
W. Russell, rf.....	3	2	1	1	0	0	0
Totals.....	28	7	2	2	20	12	8

*Page called out.

Innings..... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7

N. H. S..... 2 0 0 1 2 3 7

Crescents..... 4 0 0 0 1 2

Earliest run, N. H. S., 2 base hits, Kimball, H. Inman; 3 base hits, Waite, Shepard; home run, Wentworth, base on balls, Inman; Russell; 2 umpires, Knox and Thompson.

AMATEUR INTERCLUB BOWLING.

Teams 7 and 4 played a game in the Newton club bowling tournament at Newtonville Wednesday evening, the former winning the match by 47 pins. Savage was high roller, with a total of 324. The summary:

	TEAM SEVEN.	First string.	Second string.	Total
Bowler
Hamilton.....	153	167	159	299
Fuller.....	147	147	154	294
Marsh.....	174	135	130	309
Udley.....	129	130	130	289
Collins.....	100	109	109	209
Totals.....	710	659	659	1375

	TEAM TWO.	First string.	Second string.	Total
Richards.....	160	160	160	324
French.....	125	136	136	271
Morse.....	129	130	130	289
Grigg.....	102	102	102	224
Buswell.....	108	141	141	249
Totals.....	625	703	703	1328

The Ladies Delighted.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

An Odious Fellow.—“I can't bear that man,” said she; “he talks continually about nothing. What small thing ever crossed his conversation the other night?” “You,” answered her rival, sweetly.—[N. Y. Continent.

21,979 FEET.

Eleven thousand, four hundred and sixty-seven columns of advertisements were printed last year in the

BOSTON HERALD

And the SUNDAY HERALD.

If placed end to end, they would extend twenty-one thousand, nine hundred and seventy-nine feet.

SEE Saturday's Boston Herald for the contents of next Sunday's Herald.

The ablest and cleanest Newspaper published in New England. No Objectionable News or Advertising.

Just the Paper for your Family to read.

Miss E. J. SPARHAWK

will receive you, in WATER COLOR, OIL PAINTING and CHINA DECORATION.

Terms and particulars on application. 16m

Homer Street, Newton Centre.

AN ARTIST'S HOME.

METHODS AND MANNERS OF LOUIS K. HARLOW.

Louis K. Harlow has been before the public as a water-color painter and etcher for many years, though not in a conspicuous way until, say five years ago, when the true worth of his graphic colors and interpretations found ready patrons.

Since that date his work has been distributed pretty well over the country, not only by original production but by the processes as well, and not the least factor in this dissemination has been attributable to the efforts of the etching publishers, who have found in Mr. Harlow's water colors those perfect suggestions required for picturesque plates.

Then, too, his ready pen has been employed by the book publishers, in the way of text illustrations, and the Prang Company in many a booklet have utilized the unique thoughts of this artist of ideas. Thus it will be seen that our subject is not an unfamiliar one, and, like the well-known poets and authors, his language in color is of an intimate nature, a household guest, ever entertaining in many phases of the arts.

While Mr. Harlow enjoys a large circle of acquaintances, is popular on both sides of the Atlantic, still the public have not been initiated into his manner of living and working, and as it is an interesting thing to know something of the interior life of a well-known man, the writer attempts to describe it.

We will pass the details of his journeys to Europe in quest of material, say little of his wandering up and down our own picturesque land; he is over the alert for subjects, now picturing the images drawn in rhythm by our poets, and again inspiring the canvas with a view of Oriental manners and customs, or of the Venetians. Today he may be dreaming of the highway Charles Darnley tomorrow sketching the rustic lines of an inland country home, and so on, with never-ceasing steps, his hand plucks from nature the sweet smiling faces of beauty, which are found only by those who search diligently for them.

Mr. Harlow, in several years, had a studio on Beacon street, where he painted and composed, received his guests and enlivened an otherwise prosaic precinct. About two years ago, however, finding that his past accumulations were sufficient to warrant a realization of his demands, he built a home in Waban, upon the heights, where he could obtain an unobstructed view of the grand urban horizons. Of course his house must be something more than a carpenter's scheme in construction; it must be a little more than an architect's conception of outlines and comfort, and possessing an ideal of the grace and beauty of his own life, he applied them, with natural talent, and today there does not stand in this state a more artistic home than Harlow's.

There is no particular set style of architecture in the outward lines of his house, but there are instead many good features of the best forms, all borrowed like the mendicant's pennies, from many sources and brought into one grand pile. The rustic porch, tower, and old English garden yard wall of rough stones, and a few windows peeping, like faces, from the north facade, are the noticeable accents which one sees as he climbs the hilly slope, which helps to give character to the structure. Of course the many pretty curves which come to view from unexpected sources, add to the movements, give expression and balance. Enter the grand hall and from all sides you are greeted with receptive views. On the left is a gray and gold drawing-room; the next opening leads to the library; the one on the right brings you to a quaint, wainscoted dining-room. Near the entrance is a splendid stairway, at the base of which one may view the next floor rooms; all is open and airy. Several short steps and two landings bring us into Harlow's tower studio, a delightful, spacious room with lofty cone-shaped roof, with lively color effects. The features here are the enormous open fireplace and massive mantel, and the decorations, consisting of old Gobelin tapestries, rare examples of Delph ware, and old valued paintings of the Flemish school and other pictures, all exceedingly decorative and tastefully arranged. From this room one notes the mural coloring, the black and whites which adorn the hall walls; Rembrandts, monotypes, Meryon-like etchings, well hung, nicely fitting and not in the least set or fussy. I might mention the bits of bric-a-brac, ornamental carving, specially designed fixtures; rich skins, rugs, fine old furniture, oak dades and other things, which give one in ensemble an idea of what an artist can do with material and drapes, and such adorning stuffs which go to make up the luxurious surroundings of a refined temperament. But space forbids. We may now chat with Harlow while he lays in a landscape. He converses freely, and the while keeps steadily on with the growing view. Now he will jump up suddenly and throw his picture on the floor, stand off a pace or two and note his effects, never losing the thread of the topic and often leaving his work to study up some author on the theme, after which he will dig away at his wash-work, and in an incredibly short time you behold one of his charmingly finished water-colors. But do not run away with the idea that he has painted this scene while he has been talking—far from it. You will, if you follow up his method, find many sketches, parts of which are incorporated in this work; you will go farther and find him contemplating the sky at many an odd moment; indeed, whenever he is awake he is thinking out a scheme for a picture of some sort, and before he sits at his table has settled his composition and color. The matter of production is therefore only manipulative; the thing is to be sure, wonderfully created, a marvel of skill.

Harlow moves about a great deal; his temperament is of the nervous order; he is not always at his table. He finds time to receive his friends and neighbors; goes to New York for several days in the month; is taken some portion of every day; is fond of whist and out-of-door sports; a great reader of antique lore, and singular to state he “never drinks or smokes.”

A more prolific artist cannot be found in this country, and yet he gives much time to others, in passing judgment on rugs, attending auction sales of antiques, visiting studios, helping some fellow artist or poor literary chap to a sale of his efforts, in fact a very busy man, always, and yet a great picture producer. Such men attain influence in a community; they occupy places which cannot be filled at a second's warning. Harlow in the fine arts is as unique and conspicuous as Mansfield is in dramatics; though less heralded, billed and posted, in his own sphere is equally as well known and appreciated. Harlow has won his way to success entirely on his

AN

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

85 WASHINGTON STREET, NEW TON, MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at the sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable to

EDWARD D. BALDWIN, Editor and Publisher

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

The GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday
afternoons, and is for sale at all News Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston & Albany News Room, Boston Depot.ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail
unless stamps are enclosed.

NEWTON TRANSCRIPT HAS BEEN CONSOLIDATED WITH THE GRAPHIC

THE COTTAGE HOSPITAL.

The trouble at the Cottage Hospital has been pretty generally discussed this week, the result of the leading articles in two of the Boston papers. The physicians' side of the case has been pretty thoroughly written up, but people should remember that there are always two sides to a story, and that the trustees have not yet been heard from, and officially, perhaps they could make out an even stronger case than the physicians.

It has been asked why the trustees were so anxious to have Dr. McIntosh retained, and this can be easily answered. Some wealthy friends of Dr. McIntosh had promised to give $20,000 to the hospital. Two men would give $5,000 each, and another had promised $5,000, but these gifts were conditioned on Dr. McIntosh being treated just as other physicians. The hospital needs $6,000 at once to pay current bills, and it needs a private ward. The trustees did not know where the money for these things was to be raised, unless these offers were accepted, and for this reason they were extremely anxious to have nothing placed in the way.

Since last Friday's meeting these offers have been withdrawn, and the trustees are very much troubled to know where the money that is urgently needed is to be obtained.

The Hospital can not get along without physicians, and on the other hand, it can not get along without money. One is quite as necessary as the other. The avenues from which aid was to come have apparently been shut off by the action of the physicians and their friends and the money must now be obtained elsewhere. Dr. McIntosh is certainly fortunate in having wealthy friends among Newton citizens, but he is probably not alone among Newton physicians in this respect.

It is certainly a very unfortunate affair. Here is an institution where hundreds of the poor sick people of Newton have been tenderly cared for, to which many citizens have given liberally and in which they are deeply interested. Shall this charity continue to be a blessing and an honor to Newton, or is its prosperity to be shadowed, and its usefulness interfered with by what, when it is simmered down, appears to the outside public to be merely a petty quarrel over professional etiquette? Because one physician does not treat another with elaborate courtesy is the charity which has been such a credit to Newton, and has been such a worthy example for other cities, to be allowed to perish?

The consequences of such an ending would be far reaching; other cities will be deterred from entering upon plans for hospitals which have already been begun, and the results will be felt not alone by the poor in Newton but in a score of other cities, which are now agitating the question of imitating Newton's Cottage Hospital. No man or set of men would like to be held responsible for such deplorable results, and the mere thought of such a thing ought to set all parties to work to see if they can not do something to avert it. Surely some compromise can be made that will be accepted by all parties and bring unity again to the management of this worthy institution, even if all parties have to make some concessions. Personal feelings always have to give way to the public welfare, and no one can expect to have everything his own way in all respects in this world. The success of the hospital is the one thing that ought to be considered by all parties, and that is the only thing in which the general public are specially interested.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT'S HEARING.

As the result of Wednesday night's hearing before the Board of Aldermen, Mrs. Williams was refused a druggist's license to sell liquor, but all the other applicants were granted licenses. The testimony of Mrs. Murphy that liquor had been sold to her husband after she had protested; and the further fact that a bill had been received without money being paid; was one of the reasons that led to such action. It is only fair to say, however, that Mrs. Williams denies the selling after she received the request from Mrs. Murphy, and that the receipting of the bill, which was a year or more old, was explained as because she was sorry for Mrs. Murphy, and she had given up hope of getting the money. This will probably be a lesson to druggists to collect their bills with all possible severity, as if they show any weak hearted generosity it may be used against them. The other reason was that the books back of the first of January had been destroyed, although they had been examined by the city marshal, and Mrs. Williams states it had always been her custom to destroy them at the beginning of the year. Nevertheless the books ought to be kept, and the warning will be heeded.

The hearing was certainly a curious one, and there were many things about it to make the judicious grieve, although they furnished mirth for a large part of the audience present. Mr. Gale, the Boston criminal lawyer, did not make a favorable impression, and his methods are rather more suited to the criminal courts than to hearings before the city council. Mr. Goodrich on the other hand was very courteous and managed his part of the hearing with great skill.

Mrs. Heath can certainly be congratulated on the success of her efforts; she had a long petition, but as such petitions can be easily secured by any prominent person who takes the trouble to go about with them, that was not of much assistance, and her witnesses were very general in their statements, many of them thinking that the other druggists in Newtonville were just as lax as Mrs. Williams, and their testimony being mostly hearsay, it was not of much weight. But what evidence was secured was very shrewdly used, and evidently made an impression. Mrs. Heath would have had more sympathy but for the bearing of Mr. Gale.

None of the evidence was very direct in regard to occurrences within a year, and probably just as strong cases could have been worked up against many of the other druggists. It is unfortunate that it was directed against a woman, as many people will have more sympathy for Mrs. Williams than they would for a man, and will regard it as unfair persecution. More excuses can be made for a woman than could be made for a man, and the lot of a woman who has to endure the sharp competition of business is by no means an easy one, especially when her competitors are men. Mr. Bean, who is as strong for temperance as any of the witnesses on the other side, testified that he had perfect confidence in Mrs. Williams, and we hope the Newtonville people who have secured this action, will now see to it that the business of Mrs. Williams does not suffer. They have succeeded in making this the only temperance drug store in the city, and they should now be true to their principles by patronizing it.

The Republican candidate for governor this fall is attracting a good deal of attention, and the uncertainty about the result is having the result in clearing the field of those candidates who in an ordinary year would be the loudest in making their claims. It is recognized that in order to win the candidate must be one whose record and character is unassailable, and who will have the ability to meet Governor Russell on the stump. The politicians are just now very anxious to have Mr. Crapo drafted into the service, and this year they would all throw up their hats for him with enthusiasm, and he could have the nomination if he would say the word. But Mr. Crapo naturally does not like the way he was treated last year and so far refuses to allow his name to be used. Many think, however, that a younger man should be chosen, and Mr. Wolcott is the favorite of those who would like to see the very best man chosen. There is some talk of Mr. Greenhalge, who is a very witty speaker, but who has not shown in his Congressional course any evidence of independence, or much stability, and his sneers at educated men would be remembered against him, so that he would have more obstacles to overcome than a candidate not connected with the last Congress. Politics are certainly in a very healthy condition when each side sees the absolute necessity of putting up their cleanest and strongest man, and in such a case, whoever wins we shall have a good governor.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has a neat way of making speeches, and is evidently making a good impression on the people he meets on his Southern and Western tour. He is probably also getting new impressions himself, and finding that this is a great and a united country, with just as many patriots in each Southern state as there are in Indiana, and he probably now realizes that it was an excellent thing that his force bill was defeated. The only regret people up this way have is that he did not take Senator Hoar along with him. The time for sectional legislation has long passed, as a new era of brotherly feeling has set in, which ought to do away with distinctions between the North and South, or the East and West. The business prosperity in the South and the great increase in its manufacturing industries has caused a great revolution of feeling there, shrewd observers tell us, which has wiped away all the bitter feelings among the mass of the people. Of course there are Bourbons here and there in the South, who have learned nothing and forgotten nothing, just as there are in the North, but these are the exceptions, and their number decreases as the years pass on. The hosts of Northern people who go South for the winter have had a good deal to do with this change of sentiment, and the development of business has done more.

THERE was a very amusing bit of legislation in the Common Council Monday evening; Councilman Grace introduced an order that all city laborers be paid two dollars a day. Many of the members supposed that the order came from the Highway committee and as no reporters were in the room, they were not very wide awake, and so the order slipped through with only one dissenting voice. But after reflection on the matter the members woke up, found that it came from no committee, and very promptly reconsidered it and referred it to the Highway committee and the water department, which is the usual course. Another order in regard to a new engine house at Nonantum slipped through in the same way, was reconsidered and referred to the fire committee. The Common Council means right but there is evident need of more direct attention to the matters under discussion, if that body wishes to preserve its reputation. To pass orders without having them considered by any committee would lead to a good deal of crude and hasty legislation.

The salary grab contemplated by the state legislators is a very unpopular measure with the people, and the more it is considered, the worse it seems. The idea the legislators have of the worth of their services and the idea the people have, are very widely separated. There is a very widespread fear of injury to the Commonwealth by unwise legislation, such as the proposed corporation tax, but no one seems to see any great benefits in prospect. The much-talked of lobby bill does not seem to have been of any great practical benefit, as from all reports the lobby have no difficulty in having their wishes carried out.

The section men seem to be doing their work well on the streets of the city and signs of improvement are so evident that people are more than satisfied with the change. Those living on the line of the section men can do a good deal to encourage them, and to keep the men interested in their work, and in many cases this is being done.

GOVERNOR HILL of New York is said to be actively engaged in laying the wires for the Democratic presidential nomination. The Republicans could ask no better fortune than to have him succeed, as it would take all doubt away from the contest, and give the Republican candidate a walk-over, in nearly every state.

Those who wish to appreciate the condition of Newton streets should take a drive through some other town, Watertown for instance, and they will come home more than convinced of the superiority of Newton's street department.

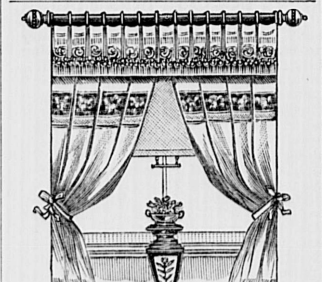

The unlicensed dogs will now have to look out for Mr. Laffie, and those who own good animals should attend to their licenses at once.

How It Was.

At the battle of Gettysburg, I was shot through the left leg and was sent to the hospital. The army surgeons relieved me but pronounced my case incurable. It discharged pieces of bone and for years I have suffered with a running sore. I tried everything which my limited means would allow, and experienced no relief until I tried Sulphur Bitters. I am now almost well and shall continue their use.—Old Soldier.

EUROPE. H. GAZE & SONS

Select tours under personal escort (each party limited to twenty-five). Leaves New York, April 22, May 2, 6, 13, 27, June 3, 17, 24, 27, July 1, 4, 8, 22, 23, etc. North Cape and Russia, June 27; Fall Tour, Holy Land and Egypt, Sept. 16; Round the World (westward) Oct. 3. Send 6c postage for Gazette containing full particulars. W. H. EAVES, New England Agent, Parker House, Boston. Ladies received in Reception Room. Estimates furnished for independent travel covering any desired route throughout Europe. Agents for all lines ocean steamers, and choice routes secured. Plans of steamers, sailings, etc., on application. Correspondence solicited.

S. C. SMALL & CO.,

Manufacturers of FURNITURE
and Interior Decorations.Recovering and Repairing at moderate prices.
at 73 P. Island St., near No. 22y

HACK PRICES.

Carriages Licensed by City of Newton.

On and after May 1st, 1891, the prices for depot hack service will be as follows within the limits of Ward One and Seven, unless otherwise specified:

Each Passenger and Ordinary Baggage from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.	.25
After 9 p. m. and before 7 a. m.	.50
North of Watertown street	.50
Above Sargent street: One Passenger and Ordinary Baggage	.50
Two or Three Passengers	.75
Four Passengers from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.	1.00
Sunday's Depot and Church Service, Each Passenger Each Way	.50
Depot Hack per Hour	1.50

HENRY C. DANIELS, GEO. W. HUBB, JOHN R. ATWOOD, JOHN F. McSHERRY, S. P. WHITMAN.
Newton, April 18, 1891.

Prices in Ward 2, Newtonville.

On and after May 1st, 1891, the prices for depot hack service will be as follows: Within the limits of Ward Two, unless otherwise specified, will be as follows:

Each Passenger and Ordinary Baggage, from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.	.25
After 9 p. m. and before 7 a. m.	.50
Each Passenger North of Adams street	.50
Depot Hack per hour	1.50
Sunday's Depot and Church Service, Each Passenger, each way	.50

J. T. HILL.

Prices in Ward 3, West Newton.

On and after May 1st, 1891, the prices for depot hack service will be as follows:

Each Passenger and Ordinary Baggage from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.	.25
After 9 p. m. and before 7 a. m.	.50
To Newtonville or Auburndale, Each Passenger	.50
Sunday's Depot and Church Service, Each Passenger each way	.50
Depot Hack per hour	1.50

S. F. CATE.

Prices in Ward 4, Auburndale.

On and after May 1st, 1891, the prices for depot hack service will be as follows:

Each Passenger and Ordinary Baggage from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.	.25
After 9 p. m. and before 7 a. m.	.50
Sunday's Depot and Church Service, Each Passenger each way	.50
Depot Hack per hour	1.50

C. G. TINKHAM.

NORTHERN

6 1/2 PER CENT.

DIVIDED.

PAYABLE QUARTERLY.MAY, AUGUST, NOVEMBER AND FEBRUARY.SISSON & HENDERSON,
TAILORS.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Spring and Summer, '91.
The Correct Styles.FULL DRESS, SEMI-DRESS and BUSI-NESS SUITS.

Novelties Always on Hand.

IMPORTERS OF FINE CLOTHS.

Sartorial Parlors,

37 BOYLSTON ST.,

BOSTON.

Over Savage, King & Co.

Dress Suits to Let.

24-2m

My Hat Blown Off!!

We are offering 10 Per Cent. Discount for 30 days on our Nobby Hats. No Humbug, real HONEST BARGAINS. EVERY HAT WARRANTED. Don't fail to secure a SPRING HAT at a very Low Price.

PARKER'S BEE HIVE,

278 Washington St., Boston.

29-4t

Spring Millinery!

A Choice Assortment at

THE JUVENE.

The Ladies of Newton and Vicinity Invited.

Miss E. Juvene Robbins,

SUCCESSOR TO

H. J. WOODS,

Eliot Block, Elmwood St.,

Newton.

Open Monday, Friday and Saturday evenings.

Mrs. E. A. SMITH,

MILLINERY.

202 Moody Street,

Opposite Walnut Street,

WALTHAM.

HACK PRICES.

Carriages Licensed by City of Newton.

On and after May 1st, 1891, the prices for depot hack service will be as follows within the limits of Ward One and Seven, unless otherwise specified:

Each Passenger and Ordinary Baggage from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.	.25
After 9 p. m. and before 7 a. m.	.50
North of Watertown street	.50
Above Sargent street: One Passenger and Ordinary Baggage	.50
Two or Three Passengers	.75
Four Passengers from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.	1.00
Sunday's Depot and Church Service, Each Passenger Each Way	.50
Depot Hack per Hour	1.50

HENRY C. DANIELS, GEO. W. HUBB, JOHN R. ATWOOD, JOHN F. McSHERRY, S. P. WHITMAN.
Newton, April 18, 1891.

Prices in Ward 2, Newtonville.

On and after May 1st, 1891, the prices for depot hack service will be as follows: Within the limits of Ward Two, unless otherwise specified, will be as follows:

Each Passenger and Ordinary Baggage, from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.	.25
After 9 p. m. and before 7 a. m.	.50
Each Passenger North of Adams street	.50
Depot Hack per hour	1.50
Sunday's Depot and Church Service, Each Passenger, each way	.50

J. T. HILL.

Prices in Ward 3, West Newton.

On and after May 1st, 1891, the prices for depot hack service will be as follows:

Each Passenger and Ordinary Baggage from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.	.25
After 9 p. m. and before 7 a. m.	.50
To Newtonville or Auburndale, Each Passenger	.50
Sunday's Depot and Church Service, Each Passenger each way	.50
Depot Hack per hour	1.50

S. F. CATE.

Prices in Ward 4, Auburndale.

On and after May 1st, 1891, the prices for depot hack service will be as follows:

Each Passenger and Ordinary Baggage from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.	.25
After 9 p. m. and before 7 a. m.	.50
Sunday's Depot and Church Service, Each Passenger each way	.50
Depot Hack per hour	1.50

C. G. TINKHAM.

JOHN S. SUMNER,

352 Centre Street,

NEWTON, MASS.

GEO. LEONARD,
President.
A. A. HOWE, Treasurer.

INVESTMENT

PURCHASES and OWNS Strictly Central Business Real Estate in large and growing cities. Its rentals earning its dividends. Officers of the Company are men of large business experience. Other similar Companies in which the President of this Company is largely interested have met with great success.

THE MASS. REAL ESTATE COMPANY has paid 5 per cent. for five years and now pays 7 per cent. and has a surplus of $106,000 after awarding an extra dividend of 7 per cent. Paid up capital about $1,000,000.

THE BOSTON INVESTMENT COMPANY has paid 6 1/2 half per cent. per annum and its Real Estate, at present value, shows a surplus of about $5,000,000. Paid up capital $2,000,000.

THE NORTHERN INVESTMENT COMPANY holds about $1,600,000 of Real Estate, at cost, and has an appreciation of over $150,000. Stock sells at 102 1/2 per share, subject to advance. Call or send for full particulars.

GEORGE LEONARD, General Agent, Rooms 7 to 11, Advertiser Building, 246 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.

Real Estate.
Mortgages.

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale.
SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATES in the above villages.

Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES
—OFFICES—

J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

SAUL BROTHERS,
Watch Makers, Jewelers—AND—
OPTICIANS.

135 MOODY ST., LINCOLN BLOCK, WALTHAM.

Make a specialty of repairing Fine Watches and French Clocks.

We wish to call the attention of the people of Newton in regard to this branch of our business. We will call for and repair your French Clock and warrant it to give satisfaction or no charge.

References: C. F. EDDY, S. F. CATE, NEWTON GRAPHIC, ETC.

Drop us a Postal.

SAUL BROTHERS,

135 MOODY STREET, - WALTHAM.

E. U. SAUL.

C. T. SAUL.

NEW HORSESHOEING SHOP.

PATRICK B. FARREL & CO.,

(Formerly of Murray & Farrell.)
BROOK STREET, NEWTON.

With an experience of 21 years in Newton, much of the time with the great horseshoer of this vicinity, the late Mr. Nugent, and for the past 8 years a partner of the firm of Murray & Farrell, I feel I may properly ask for a share of the public patronage. Special care taken with shoeing over-reaching, interfering and tender-footed horses.

TRY THE PERFECT FLOUR

Pride of Newton.

It always gives Satisfaction.

For Sale Only by

C. O. TUCKER & CO.,
Opposite Depot, Newton.

NOW THE PARTY - SEASON

Has returned, We are prepared to receive Orders for Parties, Receptions, Weddings, Lunches, Etc.

We have just received from New York, a lot of

FANCY MOULDS OF FANCY ICES.

ALL KINDS OF

ICE CREAMS and SHERBET. CAKE in

Variety. WEDDING CAKE a Specialty.

SALTED ALMONDS, CANDIES

and BON BONS of all kinds may be found at

PAXTON'S,

Eliot Block, - Newton.

Christian Science
CONVERSATIONS.

The Second of the Series will be given in ELIOT LOWER HALL, WEDNESDAY EVENING,

APRIL 29, AT 7.45 O'CLOCK, and continued successive Wednesdays till further notice

ALIVE

To Your Wants For SPRING, We have Out-done All Other SEASONS by Carrying the Largest Stock of

Artistic Millinery,

EVER SHOWN IN

WALTHAM.

Come and See Our Assortment.

It will prepare your ideas so you can leave your Orders with us.

Please remember we have removed to

LINCOLN' NEW BLOCK.

J. W. MACURDY,

133 Moody Street,

SOUTH SIDE, WALTHAM.

HOWARD B. COFFIN

DEALER IN FINE TEAS and BEST COFFEES

AND NEWTON AGENT FOR
DEERFOOT - FARM - PRODUCTS

363, 364 Centre and 4, 6 Hall Sts.

COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON.

THE LESSON ON THE BANJO.

When embowered in my solitary bedroom I began to count the hours to be spent there—23; and it would be impossible to sleep away more than 11 of them.

Hark! Somebody was crooning snatches of a quaint tune in the back premises. An idea broke in upon me—I disrobed my banjo of its "traveling ulster." Why not spend the time learning the songs the negroes were singing over their work down in the yard and kitchen? In all the accounts of Southern life I had read in novels and magazines the negroes were represented as always singing merrily, except when they were drowsy and nodding.

I tuned the banjo; then the song stopped. Not another note did I hear for an hour; there was plenty of noise, but it came from the clatter of dishes, the steady rainfall, and the shrieking of the locomotives on the seven roads. I was not to be balked of my project. I rang for the chambermaid, and asked her to get some colored man who sing and play the banjo to come up and give me a lesson—I would pay him well.

Imagination now began to work; I expected to see a lively young fellow with laughing eyes and dancing feet ushered into my room. It would be jolly; he should teach me all he knew. Presently a muffled knock came at my door.

"Come in!"

A large, middle-aged negro with a very grave and very black face, stood on the threshold, making a low bow with all the "deportment" of a Turveydrop, bat in hand, banjo in the other.

He wore a shabby, blue tweed suit, his toilet getting poorer as it went down, the coat still attempting to make an impression on style, with its double row of white china buttons, the pants well patched about the knees and threadbare in spots, and his shoes broken into gaping holes, and tied with red twine strings.

"Yes, come right in. I sent for you. What's your name?"

"Simon Barjona, dat's my proper name, ma'am," but dey mostly call me Roy! (Royal) 'bout heah, kase I come out o' de Roy! family in Fahigny 'fo' I come to Weldon."

"I hope you are well, Royal."

"Pretty well, ma'am, 'cep'n' I subjic' to typhoid fever and consumption; when I gets hot up I is attacked wid de fever, an' ef I gits cold I breaks out wid de consumption; but I makes out to keep a goin'; my health is to'able good now, ma'am."

"I am glad to hear it; sit down there."

The negro looked doubtfully at the chair indicated, as if it would be disrespectful to me to take it.

"I want you to make yourself comfortable. Kase so you can teach me some of your best songs. You sing, don't you?"

"Oh, yes'm!"

Royal's voice quivered with a mysterious parental tenderness, and there was a moist look in his eyes. "But my membership gittin' slack, w-at kinder song dat yo' humbly 'servant teach yo'?"

"I'd rather you should choose one."

With a firm, solemn chord or two he preluded a strangely stirring hymn I had never heard before. What a roll and sound he brought out of his dilapidated banjo, as he sang this—"Old Ship Zion!"

The woodwork was warped, every string was tied at the bottom, yet a longing seized me to possess it, as such a violinist might cherish for an Amati. It seemed to me it must have a superior soul to that of my frisky, beribboned instrument, which was so independent of my touch that it would only twang and clang with defiant metallic echoes. The coy banjo deity was a familiar of this grave, dignified negro and yielded such melody to his fingers as I had never heard from the expert in the Northern city who had been giving me lessons at the rate of $2 per hour. Royal's voice showed no signs of the consumption it was subject to; it was rich and deep beyond a suggestion of fatigue.

When the hymn ceased, I said, "The Old Ship Zion" is very fine, I am glad to hear it, but it's not exactly the kind that I'd rather learn from you—I can find it in a book somewhere. Let me have some of your regular plantation tunes that you used to sing at such bachelors."

He hesitated a moment, with a reluctant air, "Seem lak' I kinder tu' ter de hymn chunes ter day, lady, des nachul, bet I mus' ter fer ter please yo'. How yo' lak dis one?"

Striptaping up briskly he changed the key entirely.

"Look-a-look a heah, look-a-look a what! Look-a-look away o' yander! Don't you see de ole gray goose A smilin' at de gal? Unh unh um, a low down! Unh unh um, a low down! Johnny come down de hollow!"

A settin' on a ole gun log A lookin' for his dabbah, Terrapin croke up behind dat frog An' pushed him in de watah! Unh unh um, a low down! Unh unh um, a low down! Unh unh um, a low down! Johnny come down de hollow!"

Oh, de squirrel am got de bushy tail, De possum tail am bar, De racoon tail am ring all round! An' stumpy am de fall ob de har! Unh unh um, a low down! Unh unh um, a low down! Woooo! Johnny come down de hollow!"

"Look-a-look a heah, look-a-look a what!" he repeated; "set that down in yo' remembrance book."

Then, when I had all the words before me, I began to sing them as well as I could, with a random accompaniment on my banjo. How weak and thin my imitation!

Royal wriggled in his seat—"Scuse me ef I disrup' yo' m'am, but yer don't screech mo'n half loud 'nuff; jes' make up yo' mind ter take de riff off—dis way—wooooo!" He opened his mouth like a yawning cavern—"Johnny, come down de hollow! Strike dat' dat' off heah—deey's swivitin' to git on."

"I wish you'd let me have your banjo to carry away with me, Royal, and take mine in place of it. Perhaps I could learn to play if I had your."

shesky. He don't hol' he age as good as he masher, but I's got attached to him somehow. I don't want ter part wid him till dey gib me a harp to play on, up in de New Jerusalem. I made dis hean banjo on de ole Roy! plantation w'en I was a co'tin' Tiddy. Dat' o'man—she gwine ter stick ter me clean tru' till de crack o' doom; I niver had no twife like her."

After strumming at "look-a-look a here" for a while longer, I said, "Can't you sing me another one now, Royal?"

He turned his eyes up to the ceiling with an abstract air, as though his thoughts were wandering far away from this room. There was something pathetic in his gaze, something imploring; was the man praying?

His fingers strayed over the strings till they found a soft minor, and then came a tender, lingering wail that thrilled me to the core, his voice melted to the consistency of a wistful lullaby:

Oh, Susie, oh, Susie! wouldn't you like to go away up de mountains? Dar' whar de river flow, Oh, de hills an' de mountains will all pass away, An' yo' will have a new heart again some day!

The music ceased with a broken sob. Royal leaned his head against the banjo; his tears fell over the strings. "What's de matter? Poor fellow! Are you sick? Is it that you are so awfully poor? Never mind; I'll help you some."

"I might po', lady; dat wh'y I 'bleeged to come heah an' pick up a few cents to-day; but dat ain't troublin' me now. You must skuse me. Roy! heart too heavy. He can't sing no mo'. Oh! my l'il Susie! dat onlies' lamb de Lawd send me after all yo' m'am, kase I kinder dat at home!"

—Frances A. Doughty in the Home Magazine.

THE INDIAN QUESTION.

WHAT A HIGH SCHOOL GIRL OF SIXTEEN THINKS.

The following paper on the Indian question was written by a High school girl of sixteen, in a recent debate, and is well worth reading.

Question—"Have the American Indians a right to possess the soil of America?"

Answer—"The Indians have a right to the soil by their prior discovery and prior occupancy. That right was acknowledged by all the foreign powers when making grants of land to colonies. Every grant made was, in their own words, subject to the Indian's possessory right."

"Subject to the Indian's right of occupancy."

The Supreme Court of the United States has always acknowledged the possessory rights of the American Indians.

Many writers on the laws of America have given good evidence to the land-holding right of the Indians. In Garner's "Institutes of International Law," the respective rights to land, of the Indians and the whites are thus summed up: "In our Union the aborigines had only a possessory title, and in the original thirteen states each owned in fee, subject to the Indian right, all ungranted lands within their respective limits, and beyond the States the residue of the ungranted lands were vested in fee in the United States subject to the Indian possessory right, to the extent of the national limits."

Dr. Walker in his "American Law" says, "The Indians have a qualified right of occupancy which cannot be extinguished by treaty and upon fair compensation, until which they are entitled to be protected in their possession."

It is probably understood that a nation can only make treaties with a nation, and also that wandering tribes with no written, understood laws and government, are not considered nations.

Therefore, the Indians are not a nation, and it is contrary to international law to make treaties with them. Their right of occupancy cannot be extinguished by that means. The way remaining, that of "fair compensation," has never been tried. They have never received fair compensation for their lands.

Perhaps you will say that they were satisfied with their compensation. Whether they were or not made no difference to us; it was, "Take that or nothing. You'll have to get out any way."

Do you say that in this case might is right? Might is not right. "Since men are naturally equal, and a perfect equality prevails in their rights and obligations, equally proceeding from nature, nations composed of men, and considered as so many free persons living together, are naturally equal and inherit from nature the same obligations and rights. Power or weakness does not in this respect produce any difference. A dwarf is just as much a man as a giant; a small republic, no less a sovereign state than the most powerful kingdom."

It is evident that the one fundamental right of nations is just treatment from others, and the right of the smallest tribe equally with the most powerful kingdom.

But I think the best plan is to try to imagine ourselves in the Indian's place. Just suppose that while we are living here in America, quietly and contentedly, carrying on our various occupations to get our living, to the best of our knowledge and ability, some other nation vastly more powerful than we, outnumbering us, supporting themselves by occupations of which we know absolutely nothing, and with modes of warfare entirely unknown to us, come upon us some day, overpower us, and deprive us of our only known means of support.

Gradually, yet with cruel and unfeeling force, they drive us from our towns, destroy our houses, take as much of our property as they see fit, and at last shut us up on "reservation," where we must stay and obey their laws, but have nothing whatever to say about those laws, be punished in their courts, but have no status in those courts except that of a criminal. We rebel against this unjust treatment—what happens? We are shot down like wild beasts!

Now, really should we do in such a case? Should we not revolt at every opportunity? Perhaps you say, that in the legal sense, the Indians did not occupy the country, that is, they did not improve the soil.

Did they improve it to the best of their knowledge? They had always lived by hunting and fishing, and had no reason for cultivating the soil beyond the extent to which they did cultivate it, for the raising of Indian corn. And as for their doing it now, you might as well try to make a draught horse out of a race horse in a minute. It is not their nature and they have not been properly taught.

"According to the existing Indian policy, an Indian is a person, within the meaning of the laws of U.S." (I quote from Ency. Brit.)

But has he been treated as such? Why is it that the Canadians have so comparatively little trouble with the Indians there? Why is it that the British in India have so devotedly loyal to the Crown? Just because they are treated humanely, kindly, reasonably, not driven from homes and hunting grounds, and compelled to settle just where the government pleases to put them, and not had treaty after treaty made with them only to be broken, until finally they lose all confidence in their Government?

There have been great men among us who treated the Indians kindly and firmly, but as if they were men; and under their guidance and protection the Indian has shown himself ready and willing to reform.

Of course you will say that the Indian is naturally revengeful. Tell me why they should not be revengeful?

In our treatment of him, what has he seen that would prompt anything but revenge? Have we not, as a nation, been as revengeful as he, and for poorer causes?

The only way by which the difficulties of the Indian can be overcome is by their entire civilization and conversion. But there is no possible use in trying to convert the Indian till we allow him to see a few Christian principles in our own treatment of him.

Did not God place the Indians in this country? Do you think God created that race of people for the fun of seeing them ill treated and exterminated? Acknowledging the all Fatherhood of God, are not the Indians our real brothers? Have they not just as much right to a reasonable portion of the country in which God placed them as their brothers have?

I do not mean to say that I think it was not right for them to interfere with the rights or the property of the people they found here, but just so long as there remains on our frontier one square mile of land occupied by a weak and helpless owner, there will be a strong and unscrupulous frontiersman ready to seize it, and a weak and unscrupulous politician, who can be hired by a vote or by money, to back him; and for what reason? Greed!

Since the possessory right to the soil of the Indians can not be extinguished by treaty, and has not been extinguished by equivalent compensation, their possessory right to the soil of America still exists.

The American Indian has a right to possess the soil of America.

A First of April Joke.

Written for the GRAPHIC.

"Jack? Why, Jack is the most generous man I ever met,—with his tongue; tongue and purse don't always pull together though. That was why the joke took so amazingly."

Last year when Esuel was married, we in the office chipped in and bought him a handsome present. Jack talked a lot, but somehow his name wasn't on the subscription paper.

Afford it? Better than the rest of us! Nobody but himself to look after!

Jack is a master hand at telling news. Came into the office one day, and said: "Guess Minturn is gone to be married."

I met him headed for the station with his grip sack.

"When is he coming back?" said I. Burt, who is 'two-tarts-that-eat-as-one,' you know, with Minturn, spoke up from his desk.

"Coming Tuesday."

"So you're in the secret?" said I. He tipped me a three-cornered wink, and I waited.

That was enough for Jack, and before the day was out, there wasn't a man in the establishment who hadn't heard the news.

When Jack turned up again, somebody had him.

"Know Minturn has gone to be married?"

"Is that a fact for sure?" asked Jack. "So I hear!"

Of course there was nothing in it, but we made up our minds to get something out of Jack's pocket for once, and, next day, when he came back, and a glimpse at my fat pocket-book would have given a contribution box the apoplexy.

Monday I came round to Jack for the cash. He looked over the list rather ruefully.

"Has all this been paid in?" said he. "Every stiver of it but yours?" said I. I've years ago pulling teeth, but he made out to hand me the dollar, and I took a flying trip round the shop to unload my purse among the boys.

Minturn was back Tuesday night, but Burt had coached him, so he received all congratulations gracefully.

The errand boy had his instructions and it was passed round among the subscribers that the presentation would be made at noon next day.

You'd better believe every soul was back from dinner, and in the packing room in good time. We had the very biggest punch bowl we could find, with ladle and tumblers on the table, and a white cloth laid over in a careless way so as not quite to cover the "spread."

Jack looked at the spread, but he made out to hand me the dollar, and I took a flying trip round the shop to unload my purse among the boys.

Minturn was back Tuesday night, but Burt had coached him, so he received all congratulations gracefully.

THE FOREST CITY.

SOME OF THE CHARMS A NEWTONIAN FOUND IN SAVANNAH.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 12, 1891.

To the many citizens of Newton, who know Savannah only as the writer did a few weeks, perhaps the impressions of an enforced stay of two weeks here, may be of interest to the readers of the GRAPHIC. I had heard of the beautiful city, the "Forest City" of the South, but was not prepared to find so many broad streets well lined with trees and so many squares and playgrounds for children.

There are said to be forty-two of these squares, besides Forsyth Park and the large military parade ground adjoining. Indeed, Savannah seems a paradise for babies, children and their colored nurses. But few signs, "keep off the grass" are up and the only fault one might find would be that too great liberties are taken with the squares, even to making well worn short cuts across the grass to save a minute's time.

On Easter Sunday noon, the beautiful Forsyth Park was very attractive as it became the rendezvous for the young ladies from the churches, arrayed in their new hats and dresses and with their escorts visibly delighted that Lent was over and that they could the coming week, once more join in a season of dancing and festive gaiety.

The weather was like June in Boston. The handsome Azaleas in full bloom and the beautiful white flowers of the dogwood trees were very attractive. Speaking of weather, there have not been many days when a Northerner would be comfortable without an overcoat. The natives speak of the "beautiful weather" but there is a certain chill in the air which one, not acculturated here, feels perceptibly.

The business of Savannah is steadily on the increase and recently the cotton merchants had a "jollification" at the completion of handling 1,000,000 bales of cotton at this port, out of the present crop. The entire crop of the United States being estimated to be about 8,000,000 bales. The Georgia Central Railroad having recently passed into the control of the Gould combination, the merchants of Savannah look for great increase of merchandise through this city by steamers to New York and Boston and it is expected that a daily line will soon be needed to New York instead of four sailings a week, as at this time. The prominence of this as a cotton and naval stores market is well known. Indeed, she ranks first of all American cities in naval stores and second only to New Orleans in Cotton. The facilities for handling merchandise are unsurpassed and a visit to the Cotton Compresses, (one of which is the most powerful in the world) to the warehouses and to the extensive yards of the Georgia Central Railroad will well repay one. In no southern city are such convenient and extensive facilities afforded to the merchants and cotton factors for the handling of their business, and this is largely due to their own push and enterprise, as was manifested by the energetic earnest spirit and tone which prevailed at the Cotton Exchange "jollification" before alluded to. The harbor facilities too, under the guide and direction of Capt. Carter, a promising young engineer in the employ of the United States Government, are being constantly improved, so that in the near future, the shipping and commercial interests will undoubtedly be largely increased.

It would seem that here in this fine city which is most attractive from a social standpoint and as a place of residence young men from the north, with ability, push and enterprise might find good openings for business.

Daily walks and rides in the electric and horse cars of a city give one some insight into the character and general conduct of its inhabitants. The writer has nothing but words of commendation for the colored, as well as the white people he has met. Undoubtedly there are many bad and vulgar persons here as in other cities, but certainly the cities prominent and well would it be if the same could be said of Boston and other cities in Massachusetts. How much a traveller is pleased with a city, often depends upon the hotel he finds there and in this respect the merchants of Savannah have been very far sighted. A few years ago they realized that their hotel accommodations were not up to modern requirements, and they formed a Stock Company and built "The De Soto." They already had the "Pulaski" named for a military hero, but this new house, costing one million dollars, is named in honor of the discoverer of the Mississippi river. The house is built in the form of a hollow square, with entrances on three sides. The architect of the building was Wm. Preston of Boston, the name of Tucker of Boston is on the plumbing and the Whittier Machine Co. furnished the boilers and elevator machinery. It was opened in January 1890, and so everything is new and in good order. There are no dark rooms in the house, as all have either a street, a park or a large courtyard to look out upon. Already, this house is well known by the travellers to and from Florida and hundreds have stopped here the past fortnight for two or three days at a time. Only this evening, the register shows the arrival by southern train of 162 persons.

The hotel will be kept open during the summer. A fortnight from now the trees of Savannah will be in their perfection and to anyone fond of a sea trip and seeking a good place to go to, a voyage to and from Savannah by steamer and a stay of some days at the "De Soto" would make a fine excursion. G. R. C.

The Boston Journal is very severe on the narrow spirit that prevails among certain politicians, and which is not unknown even in our state legislature. After quoting from a Congressional leader it says:

That's it. "Subordinate everything to party." Pass no laws that will benefit the country, for fear that the other side may get some of the credit of it. It is the same mean, narrow, cantankerous spirit that ruled the Southern leaders for years before the war.

In the recently published Journal of Lady Dufferin, she gives the following illustration of true native politeness. "A judge, who was a very bad shot, had been out for a day's sport, and on his return the man who went with him was asked, 'Well, how did the Judge shoot to-day?'"

"Oh," he replied, "the Judge shot beautifully, but God was very merciful to the birds."

Census-taker—Good-morning, madam; I'm taking the census. Old lady—The what? Census-taker—The census! Old Lady—For the lan's sake! what with tramps takin' every thin' they kin lay han's on, young folks takin' fortygrafs of ye without so much as askin', an' impudent fellows comin' 'roun' as wants ter take yer sennos, pretty soon there won't be nothin' left to take, I'm thinkin'.—Harpers Weekly.

Wanted.—A good appetite. You can have it easy enough by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It tones the digestion and cures sick headache.

The Best Result.

Every ingredient employed in producing Hood's Sarsaparilla is strictly pure, and is the best of its kind it is possible to buy. All the roots and herbs are carefully selected, personally examined, and only the best retained. So that from the time of purchase until Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared, everything is carefully watched with a view to attaining the best result. Why don't you try it?

A Fortunate and Grateful Woman.

Mrs. J. H. Giles, of Everett, Penn., says: "I suffered for years from kidney and gravel trouble. No physicians or medicine at home did me any good. I finally visited my former home at Rondont, N. Y., and began using Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy of Rondont, N. Y. A few weeks will tell the result. I am a perfectly well and happy woman."

No Matter How Hard.

any druggist sell tries to his own cough medicine, remember he does it because he makes more money on it. Insist on having Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, for there is no cough medicine so pure and none so quick to break up a cold. For influenza, soreness of the throat and tickling irritation of the chest, Kemp's Balsam is an immediate cure. Large bottles 50c. and $1. At all druggists.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says:

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co., Gentlemen:—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly,

L. L. GORSUCH, M. D., Office, 215 Summit St.

We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Cancer Can be Cured, and by Dr. James M. Solomon, Jr., 75 Court St., Boston, Mass.

Dr. Solomon has cured a cancer on my lip of seventeen years' standing, it was cut out twice, by what they call eminent surgeons, at intervals of six years, after being cut out each time I knew by the feeling that it was still there, and it would be now if I had not been so fortunate as to have Dr. Solomon treat it, he did it without any cutting. I would urge those afflicted with cancer not delay, but to go at once and be cured permanently as I have done. My dear Doctor I thank from the bottom of my heart.

JOHN HALLAHAN, 78 Charlestown Street.

It won't cost you one-half as much. Do not delay. Send three two-cent stamps for postage, and we will send you Dr. Kauffmann's Large Box 34, Small 14 Pills. At all Druggists and.

I was a sufferer from catarrh for fifteen years, with distressing pain over my eyes. I used Ely's Cream Balm with gratifying results. Am apparently cured.—Z. C. Warren, Rutland, Vt.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their inferior instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it."—MRS. ELLA A. GOFF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists, $1.50 for $5. Prepared only by C. H. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar

A. HODGDON, Whitening, Whitewashing, and Tinting.

Work Guaranteed First Class in every respect.

Orders may be left at Barber Bros.' Hardware Store, opp. Library or at Residence, Cor. Centre and Jefferson Sts., Newton 27.

PROFIT GUARANTEED

Pierce Loan & Investment Co. (INCORPORATED) TACOMA, WASH. CAPITAL $100,000. Stocks, Bonds and Real Estate Loans. Make investments in Real Estate for non-residents in sums of $1000 one hundred dollars and upwards and guarantee profit. Write for free information, maps, etc.

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK. INCORPORATED 1831. Bank Hours: From 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.; on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. Office in the Newton National Bank. GEORGE HYDE, President.

JOHN WARD, Vice President. MISS SUSANNA M. DUNCKLEE, Treas.

Trustees: Joseph N. Bacon, James F. C. Hyde, Dustin Lancy, Francis Muldock, Wm. Henry Brackett, Samuel M. Jackson, William Dix, Charles E. Billings, William C. Strong, Charles A. Minor and Elliott J. Hyde.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTMENT: George Hyde, Samuel M. Jackson, J. F. C. Hyde, Chas. A. Minor, Clerk and Auditor.

Interest begins on deposits on the first days of January, April, July and October.

West Newton Savings Bank. Incorporated 1887. West Newton, Mass. AUSTIN R. MITCHELL, President.

JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treasurer. ALFRED L. BARBOUR, Clerk.

Trustees—Austin R. Mitchell, Benj. F. Houghland, Dwight Chester, Edward L. Pickard, Prescott C. Brigham, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, Edward W. Cate, Adams K. Tolman, C. F. Eddy, Lyman K. Putney, Committee of Investment—Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickard, Dwight Chester, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett.

Open for business daily, 8.30 to 11 a. m., 1.30 to 4 p. m. Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and October.

Don't Drink

Barber Bros.

Newton National Bank. NEWTON, MASS. BUSINESS HOURS: From 9 A. M. to Solid Comfort at Last for Bald Heads.

The skin grafting physician of Reading, Dr. Ege, who has successfully demonstrated by practical tests that it is possible to turn a black man white, has made known his real object in conducting these experiments. The doctor does not think that there are any colored people in the world who would be foolish enough to submit to the skin grafting torture in order to be classed with the white folks, but he does claim that thousands of bald headed people are willing and anxious to wear a genuine head of hair. This can be accomplished by the skin grafting process. Dr. Ege stoutly asserts that a bald head can be covered with scalp teeming with healthy hair. He has several letters in his possession from persons anxious to undergo the operation.

The wonderful process opens up a world of possibilities. The sensitive red haired man could trade scalps with some black headed person who is anxious to get rid of a cowlick. Dame Fashion might decree that polka dot was the proper caper in hair, and the new process would be a harbor for the ultra fashionable. Again, by utilizing the hide of a blue Skye terrier the Fourth of July orator could make an impression upon his hearers by wildly tearing out handfuls of red, white and blue hair.—Philadelphia Record.

A Natural History Lesson for a Cent.
There is a new member of the new numerous slot machine family. It is a "drop-a-cent-in-the-slot-lock-through-the-microscope-and-see-the-wonders-of-nature" contrivance, and is really a very clever idea. Few of them have as yet appeared. The machine stands on an iron pedestal. It is square, and from the top of it sticks up a nickel tube in which is placed a very good microscope. A small lamp, like those in use on cigar counters, stands just at the back of the machine, throwing a ray of light into its dark interior.

When the penny is dropped into the slot it removes a slide from the lens of the microscope and sets revolving a dial inside the machine on which are placed seven of the so called "wonders of nature." As the dial revolves these pass under the microscope. The "wonders" in each machine are changed once a week. In the machine seen by the writer was a human hair, a section of a hard corn taken from somebody's foot, a flea, a croton water bug, a bedbug, a strand of raw silk, and the wing of a fly.—New York Times.

Found $1,700 in an Old Violin.

Casper Clement, a charcoal burner in Bergen county, N. J., found $1,700 in greenbacks in an old violin which he bought recently in Philadelphia. Clement has a taste for music, but was too poor to buy a violin. Chance took him to Philadelphia, and while there he stumbled upon a pawnbroker's sale. The old violin was put up. Clement bought it for eighty cents.

He took the violin home, thinking he had a big prize, but, to his intense disgust, he couldn't get any good out of it, and was about to smash the instrument when he thought better of it and concluded to take it apart. He found a roll of greenbacks inside in good enough condition to spend. He was elated with his good fortune, but had the good sense to put the violin together. Then he found that he owned really a very fine instrument as well as a small fortune. Clement is now seeking for an investment for his money and is going to give up the charcoal burning business.—Easton Argus.

Private Railway Cars.

So far this season nearly sixty private cars of railroad and other officials and men of wealth and influence have been in St. Augustine—probably a larger number than in the case with any other city in the south. Some of these cars are veritable "palaces on wheels," while others are only plainly elegant. On Sunday Superintendent Crawford, of the J., St. A. and H. R. railway, told a correspondent that he was prevented from attending services owing to official duties in connection with the hauling of these private cars. "There are several of them here over Sunday," said the superintendent, "and up to today our road has hauled fifty-four private cars in and out of St. Augustine this season."—Florida Times-Union.

Fast Western Railroad.

The record of the Pennsylvania limited mail train has again been lowered, and again it knocks out all previous time. Recently the train made the run from Columbus, O., to this city, 188 miles, in four hours and four minutes, making fifteen stops and a number of elowdowns. The run to Bradford to this city in two hours and four minutes. A great deal of the distance was made at the rate of eighty miles an hour. "We had an engine," said Conductor Taylor proudly, "that could climb a tree."—Indianapolis News.

An apparatus called a lactarite has recently been used by French chemists to separate greasy matter from milk. It consists of a steel barrel rapidly revolved, and if a certain temperature is necessary for the reaction the barrel is placed in hot water until the required degree of heat is attained.

Stories of human beings with their hearts on the wrong side have occasionally made their appearance, but Cincinnati comes to the front with one about a man in that city who has his brain placed wrong side foremost in his head.

Edmunds was only thirty-eight years old when he entered the senate. His venerable appearance of late years gave him a strong resemblance to the portraits of St. Jerome, but the resemblance was solely physical.

George Justice, probably the only Choctaw Indian in Indiana, is dying of heart disease at Jeffersonville. It seems like the irony of fate that he has been a gravedigger for the whites for many years.

A Rich Paris Beggar.

Pucciarelli, a Paris beggar, committed suicide by throwing himself from the window of the apartment which he occupied in the Rue Princesse. The streets of Paris, if they are not exactly paved with gold for the benefit of the beggar, are at any rate macadamized with bronze. The commissary of police for the quarter in which the Rue Princesse is situated was called upon to make the usual examination as to the death of Pucciarelli. In performing his task in the dead man's room—which was not certainly furnished with sufficient luxury to render the same a lengthy operation—he nevertheless made the interesting discovery that the old man possessed in securities and money no less a sum than 80,000 francs ($16,000.)

Like most beggars, Pucciarelli lived frugally; a little bread and cheese and a demi-settier of wine were sufficient for his needs. One luxury he allowed himself, and that was cigarettes. All the afternoon and evening he lay on his bed and smoked cigarettes. Late in the day he had met with reverses in his profession. Other beggars stronger than himself had driven him away from where he had been wont to make so much, and he had been forced to seek fresh fields for his industry.—Cor. Chicago News.

The Finest Pullman Car.

Hot Springs thoroughbreds are aggrieved because Cornelius Vanderbilt has not taken his annual bath here this season. But the assemblage of millionaires has been tolerably representative of the country's plutocratic crop. The sidings at the Hot Springs railway terminus have been filled with private cars of railway and other potentates who can afford such luxuries for weeks. Just now the finest private car here is Mr. Pullman's, of course. The car is painted a quiet color, and there is nothing gaudy about its appointments, but the big arched plate glass windows, the massive steel frame and many other details bespeak the superior quality of this comfortable home on wheels.

It is like Mr. Pullman that the Pullman monogram, P. P. C. in gold, is the only distinguishing mark upon the side of the car. So many men would have put their own initials there. Mr. Pullman once told me himself that he hadn't much use for a private car, and most of his traveling is done in ordinary Pullman coaches.—Hot Springs Cor. Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Newspaper Statistics.

The statistics which have been gathered for the 1891 edition of the American Newspaper Directory show a remarkable increase in the number of newspapers published. According to this standard authority there are now 19,373 publications of different classes in the United States and Canada—a net gain of 1,613 over last year's record. At no time since the publication of the book was begun has the increase been so large. Last year it was only 653, and the figures for the present year even exceed those of 1884, when the net increase was 1,500.

As regards geographical distribution, New York state still holds the lead, now having 1,958 papers as against 1,778 for last year. Illinois, Pennsylvania and Ohio follow in the order named. The fifth and sixth places are now held by Iowa and Missouri, whose gain in new newspapers has been large enough to put them ahead of the Dominion of Canada and Kansas, which held these positions last year. The end of the list is brought up by Alaska, with only three publications.—Printer's Ink.

Jolid Fungus.

What its discoverer declared to be a new kind of mineral was received by the department of agriculture the other day all the way from California. Professor Galloway examined it, and told a reporter that it was merely a fungus of a very peculiar kind which grows in California and several other states as far east as Michigan, being developed upon the trunks of pine trees. The specimen mentioned weighed about three pounds and was very solid, being composed almost entirely of resin. This material, for the purpose of its own support, the parasite causes the tree to secrete in unusual quantities. Wherever the fungus flourishes it is believed by the country people to be an excellent substitute for quinine, and is used by them as a remedy for chills and fever.—Washington Star.

Much Ado About a Cent.

The smallest deposit ever made in this city was that of Postmaster Jewett, who recently placed one cent to a special account of a Comanche county postmaster in the Wichita National bank, who in his quarterly settlement last fall was found short this amount. The department will be duly notified of the credit made. The second assistant postmaster general will notify the auditor of the treasury, and in turn will demand a receipt from the treasurer of the United States at New York, who will send this receipt in triplicate to the postmaster general, the treasurer of the United States and the Comanche county postmaster. Great is the circumlocution office!—Wichita Eagle.

In France a new "magic mirror" has recently been introduced. It consists essentially of a glass plate coated with a film of platinum so thin as to be transparent to light coming through from behind, while being a true mirror or reflector to light impinging on it from the front.

The mare Sunol cost Robert Bonner $41,000 when he bought her from Governor Stanford. The price Mr. Bonner paid Mr. Vanderbilt for Maud S was $40,000. Maud S's record is 2:08; Sunol's is 2:10.

The Hawaiian race has been steadily dwindling in numbers during the present century, and the latest census gives it a population of but 40,000, or a decrease of one-half within a half century.

Six miles off the Ladrone Islands, in the Pacific ocean, a Russian vessel took soundings a few weeks ago and found a depth of five miles, the deepest spot yet found in any ocean.

Manuscript of "Home, Sweet Home."

The death of Mrs. Asa Jackson in Athens, Ga., has brought up once again the much talked of mystery of the whereabouts of the original of John Howard Payne's "Home, Sweet Home."

Mrs. Jackson was a near relative of Miss Mary Hardin, who was much admired by John Howard Payne. For a long time Miss Hardin had the only known copy of the famous song in the handwriting of its author. When she was dying several years ago in Athens it was rumored that in one of her eccentric moods she had willed the copy to be buried with her, but when asked on her deathbed if this was true she told Mrs. Jackson that she had not done so, but had left the manuscript, as well as all her other earthly goods, as a bequest to her.

After Miss Hardin's death the manuscript was searched for by Mrs. Jackson, but was not found. Only a few days ago a reporter called on Mrs. Jackson and asked if nothing had ever come of the search.

"Nothing yet," was the reply. "but I hope to find it before I die. Mary kept the copy concealed all the time while she lived. John Howard Payne sent it to her when he was consul to Algiers, and between the lines were written little love messages. They were sweethearts once, these two. Mary was offered tempting sums for the manuscript in her lifetime by publishers, but would never part with it."

"Several lawyers have lately been to me to get my permission for them to ferret out the whereabouts of the manuscript, but I have refused to let them take the case. I feel certain that it will come to light before I die."

It is generally believed that the manuscript will some time be found. Some think that the copy, which was known to be the only one extant written by Payne himself, was stolen from the house by a servant.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Little Georgia Volcano.

Mr. Henry Gartrell, living about ten miles from Ellijay, Ga., says there is a tree on the mountain above the large cliff of marble on the line of the Marietta and North Georgia railroad that has been burning for five months.

The latter part of last October the woods were being burnt off, and an old hollow tree caught fire. About three weeks thereafter he saw the fire and found that the tree had been almost consumed, and the ground appeared to be ablaze. He has watched it continuously ever since, and can see the fire better on a rainy night.

Sunday he took a long rod of iron and some water and poured the water in the hole, but it did not extinguish it. He then ran his iron rod down about five feet through the cinders and got some out. The whole mass in the hole is red hot, and the material when taken out is very much like shop cinders, but after being exposed for a few hours it slacks like lime. It is very strong with alkali, and smells like sulphur. Gilmer county may have a young volcano.—Cor. Atlanta Constitution.

Government in Competition.

It is perhaps not generally known that Montreal has the cheapest telephonic service on the continent today. But so it is, and the increase in the number of persons now having telephones in their residences and offices has been exceedingly large since the rates were lowered to twenty-five dollars in both residences and offices by the Bell Telephone company. The Federal Telephone company has at present almost 6,000 city subscribers, their prices being thirty-five dollars for offices and twenty-five dollars for private residences, while the Bell, in the city alone, have about 5,000. The latter company are increasing their subscribers at about the average rate of over a hundred a month, while the Federal company's list of patrons is also steadily on the increase. Think of it, twenty-five dollars a year when we here in Boston pay $125 a year, or five times as much.—Boston Transcript.

A Big Estate and No Heir.

The estate of the late Mrs. Wilson C. Swann, of 1,512 Walnut street, will amount, it is said, to $5,000,000, and for this vast wealth there appear to be no heirs. The magnificent property at 1,512 Walnut street, with its inestimable wealth of paintings, sculpture, carvings and curios, will be sold at an early date. The house was planned by Dr. Swann and built in 1857. In past years it was the scene of many princely entertainments, and although Mrs. Swann was afflicted with a form of nervous prostration which confined her to her apartments and prevented her attendance to social duties, it was her wish that these entertainments should be continued. Probably no establishment in Philadelphia was maintained on a more lavish scale during Dr. Swann's life.—Philadelphia Record.

Death of an Editor.

Frank Campbell, a noted character of Victoria, B. C., died recently. For more than twenty-one years he carried on a store, and was known to every person in the city for his good humor and widespread charity. But he was better known as editor of the "Bulletin." This was not a paper, but was a big blackboard, on which was placed every bit of local news as soon as it was known. The people of Victoria consulted the Bulletin with as much confidence as they did their newspapers.

Pain and Imagination.

A Wisconsin man discovered a big gash in his boot where he had cut his foot while in the woods, and just managed to get home, feeling himself growing fainter from loss of blood all the way, and fainted on arriving, when somebody discovered that the gash only went through his boot and the red color was not blood, but only a woolen stocking.—Bath (Me.) Independent.

In the Lodge Room.

Jim—How did you get in? You haven't the password, and are not a member anyhow.
Jack—Avaunt there! Haven't I got the grip?—Pittsburg Bulletin.

A Safe Guard—Always on Duty.

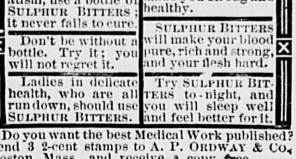

Thousands make a practice of taking Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., whenever they have symptoms of possible sickness, and through the prompt action of this remarkable medicine they are really never ill. It is a perfect safeguard against all forms of malaria, sick and nervous headache, palpitation, dyspepsia and heartburn.

Husband and Wife.

Have more than once been saved by the timely use of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, after all other remedies have been tried in vain. The Balsam stops decay of the lungs and cures influenza and acute and chronic coughs. There is no other medicine in the world that acts so promptly, certainly none that does its work so thoroughly as Kemp's Balsam. All druggists sell it. Large bottles 50c, and $1.

SULPHUR BITTERSTHE GREAT German Remedy.*TRUTHS FOR THE SICK.

For those deathly Bilious Spells depend on SULPHUR BITTERS. It will cure you. Do you suffer with that tired and all gone feeling? If so, use SULPHUR BITTERS. It will cure you. Operatives who are closely confined in the mills and workshops; clerks who do not procure sufficient exercise, and all who are confined in doors, should use SULPHUR BITTERS. They will not then be weak and sickly. If you do not wish to suffer from Rheumatism, use a bottle of SULPHUR BITTERS. It never fails to cure. Don't be without a bottle. Try it; you will not regret it. Ladies in delicate health, who are all run down, should use SULPHUR BITTERS, and feel better for it. SULPHUR BITTERS will build you up and make you strong and healthy. SULPHUR BITTERS will make your blood pure, rich and strong, and your flesh hard. Try SULPHUR BITTERS to-night, and you will sleep well and feel better for it. Do you want the best Medical Work published? Send 3 2-cent stamps to A. P. ORDWAY & Co., Boston, Mass., and receive a copy free.

No more of this!THE "COLCHESTER" RUBBER CO.

make all their shoes with inside of heel lined with rubber. This clings to the shoe and prevents the "slip" from slipping off.

"ADHESIVE COUNTERS."

SAGE & CO., Boston, Exclusive Wholesale Agents. AT RETAIL BY A. E. Brickett, Newton Highlands. A. J. Gordon, Newton. A. L. Rhoad, Newton. John McCammon, Newton. J. V. Sullivan, Newtonville. G. E. Barrows, Newton Centre. J. F. Maginley, West Newton. J. T. Thomason, Newton Upper Falls.

DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDYPURIFIES THE BLOOD*AND IS RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS

when all other remedies fail—as the only positive cure for Dyspepsia, Constipation, Liver and Kidney Diseases. Thousands gratefully testify that Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has Saved Their Lives. To Mothers and Daughters (even the youngest) Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has Proved a Real Blessing. $1.00 bottle; 6 for $5.00. All Dealers.

"A FAMILY JEWEL."

—How to Cure all Blood and Kidney Diseases—(mailed free. Address (naming this paper) DR. DAVID KENNEDY, CORPORATION, RONDOUT, N. Y.)

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENTUNLIKE ANY OTHER.

As much for INTERNAL as EXTERNAL USE. Originated by an Old Family Physician in 1810.

Positively cures Diphtheria, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Hoarseness, Cough, Whooping Cough, Catarrh, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhea, Sciatica, Lame Back and Soreness in Body or Limbs. Stops inflammation in Cuts, Burns, and Bruises. Relieves all Cramps and Chills like magic. Sold every where. Price 25c. a bottle, $2.00 a dozen. Sent by mail. A. C. JOHNSON & CO., Boston, Mass.

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by all who are in want of

STRICTLY ALL-WOOL FABRICS

—FOR—

Ladies', Gent's, Youth's or Children's Wear,

In all Weights and of the Latest hadings and Styles.

The many who have availed themselves of the bargains offered by us in the past can testify to this, and all in want in the future are invited to send for Samples and Prices before supplying themselves elsewhere and be convinced.

All the Remnants and Imperfect goods made at the Assabet Mills also sold by us, and they are offered at PRICES LOWER THAN EVER BEFORE.

Write for samples or give us a Call.

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY,

MAYNARD, MASS.

Water Bugs and Roaches.

Clear them out with our EXTERMINATOR

No dust. No trouble to use.

Price, 50c., sent by mail for 60c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

BARNARD & CO.,

7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.

R. A. EVANS & SON,

Dealers in and Manufacturers of

ALL KINDS OF

Marble and Granite

WORK.

123 HAVERHILL STREET, - BOSTON.

REFERENCES: J. N. Bacon, R. L. Day, C. J. Hatch, C. S. Phillips, C. B. Fillebrown, O. A. Billings, D. R. Emerson, Geo. L. Keyes, J. F. C. Hyde, Isaac Sylvester and S. A. D. Sheppard.

Dr. James M. Solomon, Jr.'s Botanical Medical Institute

75 Court St. (Scollay Sq.), Boston, Mass.

INDIAN BOTANICAL REMEDIES

Roots, Herbs, Gums and Barks chiefly used. Dr. Solomon treats all CHRONIC DISEASES, makes a specialty of LUNG TROUBLES, CANCERS, TUMORS, EPILEPTIC FITS, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, ST. VITUS DANCE, SPINAL COMPLAINTS, HEMORRHOIDS OF LEGS, ECZEMA and all SKIN DISEASES, KIDNEY and LIVER TROUBLES and all DISEASES OF THE BLOOD. PILLS and FISTULA cured without the use of the knife and cure guaranteed. Consultation free.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE. ELY BROTHERS, 54 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

WEST END STREET RAILWAY COMPANY.

Newton to Bowdoin Square

WEEK DAY TIME.

First car leaves Newton 5.55 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 5.25 P. M., then 5.50 P. M. and every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.

Returning leave Bowdoin square 7.05 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 6.35 P. M., then 7 P. M., and every thirty minutes until 11 P. M.

SUNDAY TIME.

First car leaves Newton 7.50 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.

Returning leave Bowdoin square 8.30 A. M. and every thirty minutes until 11.00 P. M.

First car for Boston leaves Watertown at 7.25 A. M. F. H. MONKS, General Manager.

S. K. MacLEOD

Carpenter and Builder.

Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed. Bathrooms and Fittings for Plumber's Work a Specialty.

Shop, Centre Place, opp. Public Library Residence, Boyd street, near Jewett. P. O. Box 650, NEWTON, MASS.

Mrs. ABBIE C. THAYER.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTIST,

19 CHANNING STREET, NEWTON.

Practices Christian Science Mind Healing; taught by Mrs. Mary B. G. Eddy.

T. F. GLENNAN.

Carriage Trimming & Harness MAKING.

BLANKETS, ROBES, WHIPS, &c. Washington Street, Newton.

J. J. JOHNSON.

FLORIST.

CONSERVATORIES, School Street, Newton. Floral Decorations for Weddings, Receptions, etc., etc. Cut Flowers and Bedding Plants.

FRANCIS MURDOCK.

INSURANCE AGENT,

Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass. INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies. Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

Gold Silver Bronze Medals

The highest honors have been awarded for these instruments.

Bay State Guitars,

MANDOLIN'S and BANJOS; also Wm. B. Tilton & Maynard's Superior Guitars. Send for Catalogue for all Musical Instruments. J. C. HAYNES & CO., Mass.

Insurance Agent,

Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass. INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies. Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

Fitchburg Railroad.

Hoosac Tunnel Route.

Through Train and Sleeping Car Service.

Leaving Causeway St. Passenger Station

BOSTON.

For Troy, Albany, Saratoga, Rome, Utica, Syracuse, Watertown, Ogdensburg, Rochester, Binghamton, Hornellsville, Salamanca, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and the West.

6.30 A. M. Daily, Sundays excepted.

For Troy, Albany and Intermediate Stations.

8.30 A. M. Daily, Sundays excepted.

DAY EXPRESS.

For Troy, Saratoga and the West. Palace Parl Cars through without change Boston to Troy, Albany and Binghamton. Sleeping to Buffalo and Albany.

10.45 A. M. Daily, except Sundays, to Albany, Watertown, Ogdensburg, Niagara Falls and the West.

11.30 A. M. Daily, Sundays excepted.

PASSENGER.

For Troy, Albany, Saratoga and intermediate stations.

3.00 P. M. Daily.

Palace sleeping cars through without change Boston to Chicago, and Boston to St. Louis.

7.00 P. M. Daily.

Palace sleeping cars through without change, Boston to Chicago.

11.00 P. M. Daily, Sundays excepted.

Palace sleeping cars through without change, Boston to Troy.

Be sure your Tickets read via

Fitchburg R. R.

"Ask for them and take no other."

For maps, time-tables, tickets, seats and berth in sleeping cars, apply at the Company's office New England and the Provinces.

R. W. WATSON, Genl. Pass. Agent.

June 19, 1889.

250 Washington Street, 250

Passenger Station Ticket Office, Causeway St., Boston, or to any authorized Ticket Agent in New England and the Provinces.

R. W. WATSON, Genl. Pass. Agent.

June 19, 1889.

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre
agent for the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand-bills,
and all other kinds of printing. Also, real estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Mr. Charles Rogers has returned home.
—Mr. Luther Paul, Jr., is at Mr. G.
Warren's office.

—Auction of choice house lots at Woodland on May 9. See adv.

—Newton has another stringer. A boy to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Stringer.

—Mr. John Lowell, Jr., and family are at their Chestnut street home.

—Mrs. O. W. Gates has been in town for a few days this week from the south.

—Two hundred feet more of front fence has been removed from Pelham street.

—Mr. Robert Hawthorne and family have removed to Belmont from Pleasant street.

—Mrs. Caklin and Miss Phoebe Conklin, Lake avenue, have removed to Newark,
N. J.

—Mr. W. D. Eagles has been called to Nova Scotia by the severe illness of his mother.

—Miss Clara Armstrong has accepted a position as bookkeeper in Richardson's market.

—Rev. Mr. Hunt of Jamaica Plain exchanged with Rev. Lemuel C. Barnes last Sunday morning.

—The City council have authorized the laying of water pipes on Chestnut Hill road at a cost of $512.

—Our village clock has not struck the hour for three weeks, perhaps it will be put in order sometime.

—Mr. A. D. Claffin, son of ex-Governor Claffin, moved into his new house near Grant avenue, this week.

—The examinations for graduations have been commenced at the Newton Theological Institution on the hill.

—Mr. Henry F. Miller, of Cobb, Aldrich & Co., of Boston, is quite ill with the grippe at the residence of Mr. E. M. Fowle.

—"Deacon" S. V. White, the New York banker, visited our village on Sunday last, being a guest of Mr. L. Loring Brooks of Summer street.

—Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Bowser passed Sunday in Hingham, where Mr. Bowser occupied the Unitarian pulpit in exchange with its pastor.

—A new street from Grant avenue to Hammond street is being built on Judge
Robert R. Bishop's land. Arthur Muldon is the contractor.

—Mr. C. Howard Wilson read a very amusing poem at the meeting of the New England Tariff Reform League in Boston, Tuesday evening.

—Mr. Charles Rogers, eldest son of Mr.
Thomas L. Rogers, has returned from Nebraska, where he has been studying mining for a year or more.

—The Unitarian Society held its last social on Wednesday evening in Associates' Small Hall. Some music was furnished followed by dancing.

—One of the city horses on the chemical engine was so much injured on Wednesday at the slight fire at Cork City, by getting against the fence that it was killed.

—An account of the entertainment of this year's graduates from the Newton Theological Institution is given in another column.

—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening the pastor will lecture on "The Sabbath and Labor." Services will commence at 7 o'clock. All cordially invited.

—The Cambridge Reds wish to secure games with the Newton base ball team for May, June and July, and on the grounds of Somerville also want to hear from the home team.

—The letters remaining in the postoffice are for Michael Daly, Miss Hazle Dean,
Mr. John Flynn, Mr. Chas. W. Hawes,
Mrs. Wm. H. Rogers, Miss Lena J. Wallis, Charles White.

—A vesper service will be held in the Unitarian church next Sunday evening, beginning at 7 o'clock. Sermon by Rev. Mr.
Bowser and music by the regular quartet;
Mr. R. S. Loring, organist.

—The anniversary of the Judson Mission Band was observed by them at the Baptist church parlors Wednesday evening. A social time was enjoyed and during the evening there were refreshments.

—Messrs. A. Muldoon, G. B. Sherman, S.
W. Dyer and G. Loomer, members of Canton Abraham Lincoln, No. 38, of Boston, took part in the 72nd anniversary of Old Fellowship at Malden on Monday.

—At Richardson's market are fresh broiled lobsters every day, also shad, butter fish and other kinds; pine apples, cocoa nuts, oranges, asparagus, spinach, veal, lamb,
beef, canned goods, butter, cheese.

—While returning from the meeting of the city government Monday evening, one of the front wheels came off of Councilman Richardson's wagon throwing him to the ground, but he escaped serious injury.

—George Hamill, the popular young clerk at the postoffice, where his genial countenance will be missed, has accepted a position at Richardson's market. Mr.
Richardson putting on another team Monday.

—Crystal Lake Division S. of T. received 12 applicants for membership at the last meeting and they are thinking of leasing a larger hall, possibly in White's block, where one of the tenements is being altered to form a hall.

—Mr. A. D. S. Bell has improved so that he was able to leave this week for the South, attended by Dr. B. H. Bell. He will travel by easy stages and his many friends hope that he will find complete restoration to health during his absence.

—A schedule of games for the coming season has been arranged by the Boston Athletic Association, base ball nine and among the dates are: May 15, and July 15, which are made with the Newtons and will be played on Walworth field, Newton Centre.

—The public are cordially invited to the annual meeting of the Newton Civil Service
Reform Association at Allen Brothers'
school house, West Newton, Wednesday,
May 6th, 1891, at 7.30 p. m. President Lambert will deliver an address on the present
state of the reform.

—The public are cordially invited to the annual meeting of the Newton Civil Service
Reform Association at Allen Brothers'
school house, West Newton, Wednesday,
May 6th, 1891, at 7.30 p. m. President Lambert will deliver an address on the present
state of the reform.

—No communications are printed unless accompanied with the name of the sender, as it is necessary to know whether the item comes from any reliable source. This may explain the absence of some recent items.
An item may be correct, but if no name accompanies it we have no means of knowing whether it is true or false.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Ward has brought about five acres of the high part of the Samuel Pulsifer farm on Oak Hill and will build soon. Rev. Milan C. Ayres, editor of the Boston Advertiser, has bought the western part of the farm, the purchase includes all the buildings. The family remove there at once from the Winchester mansion, Newton Highlands.

—Postmaster Edward A. Ellis assumed his duties at the postoffice for the first time this morning. The necessary adjusting of the affairs of the office was accomplished by Mr. Ellis and Mr. Richardson last evening, and the former takes charge May first.

No important change will be made in the department at present although new fixtures and a different arrangement of the bookshelves will probably be made in the near future.

—The annual meeting of the Newton Centre Improvement Association this week and its present prosperous condition, recalls
the fact of its inception, which was at Mr.
A. D. S. Bell's residence at Chestnut Hill.
Mr. Bell had seen what good results such societies accomplished in other places, and with his usual energy and public spirit, he set about forming one here. He invited some fifty prominent gentlemen of this ward to meet on a certain evening at his house, and after hospitably entertaining them, set forth his ideas in such a persuasive way that a committee was appointed to take charge of the matter, to draw up rules and regulations, and provide for a permanent organization. The plan proved a popular one and it was only a few months before the society was successfully organized, and it has continued its good work ever since, making Newton Centre one of the most beautiful and attractive of the Newton villages. Such societies can only be successful in a place where there is a great deal of public spirit, and they serve a valuable purpose as an educating influence, by creating a spirit of local pride, and making a village one to be proud of.

—The Newtons play their first game Saturday, May 2, on Walworth's field with the Harvard Freshmen. The occasion promises to be one of special interest. The Newton city government, members of the legislature and senator from this district, and president of the Newton Centre Improvement Society have been invited to witness the game. A grand stand with seating capacity for one hundred and fifty persons has been erected, and a certificate from the city inspector warranting its safety is in the hands of the club. It is built on the first base side of the diamond, is covered with a fine awning and commands a full view of the field. There will be a charge of ten cents a seat on all days, holays excepted, when the admission will be fifteen cents. The club will appear in their new uniforms, which are of a blue gray with black trimmings, black belt and stockings. We understand the young ladies of the town are to present the club with a pair of foul flags and a pennant, bearing the name of the club. The pennant is fifteen feet by six and the letters two feet high. It will fly from the pole at the grand stand on the days when the club is to play. The players and position for the day will be: Cushing, c; Sherman, p;
Cutler, 1 B; Warren, 2 B; Bates, 3 B; Rising, S; Wright, L; Barton, C; Craft, R. F. It is hoped the town will be present in full numbers and give the boys a rousing send off. The game will be called at 3.30. Presentations of flags at 3.15.

—The annual meeting and reception of the Newton Centre Improvement Association was held in the Associates' Hall last evening. There was a very large attendance and music was furnished by a band and mandolin club, a quieted by Mrs. White gave selections.
President J. R. Leeson presided and read a short paper on the value of securing parks and playgrounds, while the city is yet sparsely settled. The report of the treasurer, Mr. Louis C. Melcher, showed the amount on hand at the beginning of the year to be $527.26; receipts, $1167; expenditure, $1012.66; cash on hand, $681.90;
amount in playground fund, $192.45.
Judge Robert R. Bishop, chairman of the park committee, then made a report. At the last annual meeting $400 was subscribed, to prepare a temporary playground and a portion of this money was used last autumn, and a playground was opened on Homer street. Through the generosity of Mr. Mellen Bray a piece of land 100x15 feet, necessary for the permanent park, was given by him to the association, and at another place where adjoining the complete desirable, and which belonged to Mr. Louis C. Melcher, the latter when spoken to about its purchase presented it to the society, the amount being about 7500 feet. The park when completed will contain about 20 acres, and will be valuable to the whole city. Mr. Olmstead, landscape gardener and City Engineer Noyes, have taken a great interest in the park, and according to proposed plans the park will be provided with two or three ball diamonds, taking about six acres, seven tennis courts, several running tracks and possibly outside gymnastic apparatus. The grounds will be graded and thoroughly drained, and will be relieved with shrubs and flowers, and a promenade will be laid out on the top of Cochituate aqueduct. Sketches of the general plan, seeming most desirable, were exhibited. It is hoped to complete a portion of the permanent park near Centre street very soon, and in the course of several years the entire park will be completed.
The thanks of the association were tendered Mr. Bray and Mr. Melcher for their generous donations. Ex-Mayor Alden Spence thought the city ought to be as generous to the proposed playground as to the Public Park. He wished to see the Library, the latter having an amount of $10,000. Mr. A. C. Walworth made an interesting statement showing the amount paid by the city. $20,000 had been supplemented by about $20,000 from subscriptions and gifts of land.

—City Engineer Noyes made an interesting statement of the drainage needed, and the way in which it is to be done, and the following officers were then elected: J. R. Leeson, president; H. H. Reed, vice president; A. C.
Walworth, secretary; L. C. Melcher, treasurer; executive committee, 3 years, W. F. Harbach, A. C. Walworth, L. Loring Brooks;
2 years, A. H. Roffe, D. H. Andrews, G. A.
Pierce, 1 year, G. F. Richardson, Wm.
Church, N. H. George.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—The Monday Club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Loring.

—The Chautauqua circle will meet with Mrs. C. P. Clark, next Monday.

—Attention is called to the advertisement of Miss Holman among the business notices.

—The West End Literary Club will hold its first annual tea on Thursday afternoon, April 30th.

—Mr. Roraback now occupies the house leased by him of Mr. E. H. Tarbell, on Cherry street.

—The Hammond estate on Cook street, now occupied by Prof. Cheney, has been sold to Thomas Belger.

—At the next Ladies' night of the Highland Club, May 12, Miss Gertrude Franklin will be the attraction.

—Rev. F. H. Borton, the Methodist clergyman, will occupy a tenement in the Lane house on Floral avenue.

—It is hoped that all that are interested in the prosperity of the M. E. Society will attend its May party next Wednesday evening.

—J. R. Smith, Esq., has moved to his new house on Hyde street, and Mr. J. F. Barnes of Melrose, now occupies the house vacated by Mr. Smith.

—We hear that Mr. M. C. Ayers has purchased an estate on Dudley street, for many years owned and occupied by Mr.
Samuel Pulsifer.

—Mrs. Whitney and her daughter, Mrs.
Fuller and her two children, who have been boarding with Deacon Whiting for several months past, have gone to Dedham, where an estate has been purchased.

—Mrs. Brackett and family will remain at the Highlands a few weeks longer, as Mr. Brackett writes from his California home that their house is not quite completed and the furniture not yet arrived.

—There will be a meeting of the Improvement Association on Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. C. F. Johnson, to take action in regard to the completion of the fountain and setting out trees.

—Auction of choice house lots at Woodland on May 9. See adv.

—The death of Mrs. Sarah W. Choate occurred Sunday, April 26th, at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. W. D. Stratton, at the age of 84 years. Funeral on Thursday, and interment at Woburn.

—The M. E. Society enters upon the year with no debt and feels encouraged to start a subscription paper to raise money with which to buy land and build their church.
The pastor, Mr. Borton, will move here next week.

—The "Ladies' night" at the Highland Club last week was a most successful and enjoyable affair. Through the kindness of Miss Ham and Mr. Toner of Boston, and Mr. Rice of Newtonville, the audience enjoyed some fine singing, which was supplemented by readings by Mr. E. L. Collins of Waban.

—Mr. A. Crafts is having his house painted by Mr. G. B. Randall, Mrs. Pottle is having her house on Hyde street, occupied by Mr. A. L. Greenwood, painted by G. A. Avery, and Mr. E. B. W. is having a veranda built and house painted by Messrs. Temperley & Hurley, and they are also painting Mr. G. R. Fisher's residence.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Cobb arrived at the Highlands from Pensacola, Fla., on Thursday evening last week, in good health and courage, and will commence building operations at once, having already staked out a cellar for a house on Hillside avenue, opposite the residence of Mr. H. C. Robinson. Mr. Cobb expects to reside here for several months if his business interests at Pensacola will permit of his absence.

—The "Aim and Methods of Associated Charity Work in Newton" was presented by Rev. R. A. White of Newtonville, who is the president of the board of directors at the Congregational church last Sunday evening.
There was a good audience present, who listened with much interest to the presentation of the plans proposed for the working of the system. An agent will be employed who will investigate in regard to the calls for charity, to ascertain if help is needed and the best means to adopt to give assistance. A penny savings system has also been adopted, which is thought will be of much benefit to persons who desire to deposit small amounts. Mr. Seward W. Jones is the director for the Highlands, who will be happy to give information in regard to the system which is now in operation.

—A most unique entertainment was given by the gentlemen to the ladies of the Lake side Club at Mr. L. K. Brigham's on Hartford street, last Saturday evening. It was an original burlesque on ladies' literary clubs. The gentlemen were dressed as ladies, carried bags with books, pencils and pens, and they went through the exercises of a model afternoon club.
Beginning with "current news" upon which each one reported, then devoting considerable time to some bright papers
on art, music and co-operative housekeeping, followed by other papers on the "History of Newton Highlands," which place was conclusively proven to be the original ladies' club, and the ladies with books, pencils and pens, and they went through the exercises of a model afternoon club.
Beginning with "current news" upon
which each one reported, then devoting considerable time to some bright papers
on art, music and co-operative housekeeping, followed by other papers on the "History of Newton Highlands," which place
was conclusively proven to be the original
ladies' club, and the ladies with books,
pencils and pens, and they went through
the exercises of a model afternoon club.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

—The Circular No. 64, issued by the Atchison
Company to its stockholders, and dated May 23,
1890, explained the manner in which the Common
and Preferred Stocks of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway Company were exchanged
for stock of the Atchison Company.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XIX.—NO. 31.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MAY 8 1891.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR

McFARLIN'S
CHINA PARLOR.
CHINA AND GLASS.
LOW PRICES RULE
AT 39 FRANKLIN STREET.

McFARLIN'S CHINA PARLOR,
39 Franklin St., Boston.
125 Decorations in Hand and Co's.
DINNER SETS.
Also a full line of goods suitable for Shore and Country Houses.
75 DECORATIONS IN
TOILET SETS.

McFARLIN'S CHINA PARLOR.
GAME SETS. FISH SETS. CREAM SETS.
Fancy Goods Suitable for Wedding Presents.
30-41

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE,
527 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton
Hours—Until 9 A. M., 1 to 5 P. M.

Dr. F. L. McIntosh,
Corner of Washington and Jewett St.
(Office of the late Dr. Keith).
Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home
until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. P. Wesselschoff, and Dr.
James B. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 46-2.

Dr. D. E. Baker,
227 Walnut Street, Newtonville.
Office Hours: 2 to 4 P. M. and evenings (except Tuesdays and Fridays), 7 to 8.
At Newton Lower Falls
Tuesday and Friday evenings, 7 to 9.
Telephone, Newtonville, 26-4.

Mr. H. B. Day,
HARMONY,
PIANO-FORTE, CHURCH ORGAN
Counterpoint and Composition.
Address 180 Tremont Street, Boston, or Hotel
Hunnewell, Newton.
33 y

Shirts Made to Order!
By E. B. Blackwell,
43 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.
Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place
as will suit their convenience.
Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Ties, 25c.; 15c.; Cuffs, 50c.; Collars 25c.; Centre
Plaids 25c.
Badly fitting shirts made to fit well. 48

The Greatest Novelty of the Age!!
THE Cyclone Coffee Mill!!
If you want the best cup of COFFEE in town,
we can serve you. Call and see our new mill and try a pound of our fresh roasted Coffee.

Gamaliel P. Atkins,
FINE GROCERIES,
273 and 275 Washington Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

DR. WILLIAM A. MOFFITT,
CHIROPODIST,
7 Temple Place, Boston, Room 32.
Corns, Bunions and Ingrowing Nails Removed
without pain. All work guaranteed first class.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M.

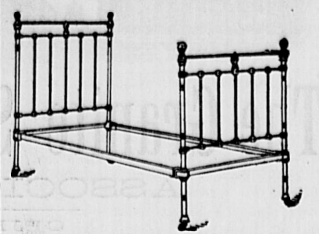

Miss E. J. SPARHAWK
will receive paint, oil in WATER COLOR, OIL PAINTING
and CHINA DECORATION.
Terms and particulars on application.
1-6m
Homer Street, Newton Centre.

HOWARD B. COFFIN
DEALER IN FINE TEAS and BEST COFFEES
AND NEWTON AGENT FOR
DEERFOOT - FARM - PRODUCTS.
363, 361 Centre and 4, 6 Hall Sts.
COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON.

TRY THE PERFECT FLOUR
Pride of Newton.
It always gives Satisfaction.
For Sale Only by
C. O. TUCKER & CO.,
Opposite Depot, Newton.

JOB PRINTING
GRAPHIC OFFICE.

Putnam's "Pavonia."

A NOCTURNE IN WHITE AND BRASS.
UTILITY, BEAUTY AND VALUE
Are combined in this Brass and White Bedstead, which is the acme of Comfort, Strength,
Cleanliness, Lightness and Convenience, Elegance.
It never wears out; is perfectly made, easily handled.
Manufactured expressly to meet the wants of those seeking a thoroughly reliable, comfortable
Bedstead at a reasonable price.
PRICE WITH WOVEN WIRE SPRING:
6x4 1/2 $12.75 6x6 1/2 $13.75 6x8 1/2 $14.75 6x10 1/2 $15.75

PUTNAM & CO.,
546 Washington Street, Boston.

EXCLUSIVE DESIGNS

—IN—
Silver, Brass & Iron Bedsteads.

FINE BEDDING
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

MATTRESSES, SPRING BEDS, BOLSTERS,
PILLOWS, ETC., REMADE AND RENOVATED
BY THE MOST IMPROVED PROCESS.

PUTNAM & CO.,
546 Washington St.
BOSTON.

GENTLEMEN OF NEWTON!!

YOU WILL FIND AT THE NEW HAT STORE,

JUST OPENED AT
685 MAIN ST., WALTHAM,

A Fine Assortment of the Latest Styles of Hats in all the Fashionable Colors at Manufacturers' Prices, viz:—

$.00 Hat, Our Price, $3.00; $3.50 Hat, Our Price $2.75;
2.50 Hat, Our Price, $2.00; $2.00 Hat, Our Price $1.50.

Save money by purchasing at the "SORRENTO."
Agents for Mystic Hat Company Manufacturers.
Hats made to order.

685 MAIN STREET, opposite MOODY STREET,
WALTHAM.

Spring Opening.

HIGH CLASS TAILORING
—FOR—GENTLEMEN,
—AT—
MODERATE PRICES.

We make a specialty this season
of very neat and stylish Business
Suits from English fancy cassimeres or Scotch material, at $35
and upward. Business Trousers at $9.00 and upward.
NOTE—Being Practical Tailors
and Cutters, with a long experience in London, we pay personal attention to the cutting and fitting of every garment. Also all
our garments are made up on the premises under our constant supervision, thus enabling us to give the very best results to our patrons, at a price about 25 per cent. lower than the same class of tailoring elsewhere.

INSPECTION INVITED.
ALLAND BROS.,
TAILORS and IMPORTERS,
3 PARK STREET, BOSTON.
Street Floor. 26

WE HAVE BOUGHT
A Large Lot of
First-Class Furniture,
SECOND HAND,
and now is your time to get a Bargain.
COME AND SEE OUR STOCK.

BENT'S
Furniture and Carpet Rooms,
Main Street, Watertown,

C. S. DECKER,
Custom Tailor
326 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

Scientific Dress Cutting.
Mrs. M. S. MUGRIDGE,
28 Richardson St., Newton.
Evening costumes a specialty. 1f

DESKS,
Chairs.
Office Furniture.
SEND FOR CATALOGUE
DEBBY & KILMER DESK CO.
SALESMEN
93 CAUSEWAY ST. BOSTON.

CHANDLER
& CO.

We have made large preparations to meet the demand for the popular and choice styles of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Jackets, Reefers, Blasers,
Long Garments, Capes,
and Wraps for the present
Season.
Prices vary from $5 to $50.

CHANDLER
& CO.,
Winter Street.
BOSTON.

M. M. SILSBY & CO.,
Fine Tailoring.
32 CORNHILL, BOSTON.

NEWTON.

C. Farley rents pianos, Wash. St. Newton.
—Mrs. H. E. Hibbard has returned from her visit to Baltimore.

A key found at the railroad crossing awaits owner at the office.
—Mrs. J. Sturgis Potter and daughter have returned from Denver, Col.

—Rev. Dr. Calkins has gone to Kansas City and will be absent two weeks.

—Mr. A. J. Solis has removed from Boyd street to the Barker house in Waban Park.

—Mrs. Judge Gardner, formerly of Newton, is passing a few weeks in Auburn, Me.

—Mr. R. J. Morrissey has leased his new house on Boyd street to John C. Brimblecom.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Harwood and Miss Harwood are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

—Mr. J. B. Goodrich and family have moved into their new house on Church street.

—Mr. Jos. W. Bacon has purchased a lot on Fairview street and intend to build this season.

—The May festival of Channing Sunday school will be held at Armory Hall, Saturday afternoon.

—Mr. R. A. Ballou has leased the east half of the handsome Goodrich double house on Church street.

—Much sympathy is felt for Dr. and Mrs.
Bunker, who have just lost their youngest child, from pneumonia.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Harwood and Miss Harwood are expected home from their visit to England next week.

—Prof. Jesse Fewkes is in Arizona, with the Hemingway expedition, looking up the history of the Zuni Indians.

—The fence surrounding the triangular park at the intersection of Washington and Park streets has been removed.

—The Ramblers held a meet last Saturday morning. The route was through Dedham, Needham and West Roxbury.

—The Newton Science Club will meet at Mrs. N. P. Cutler's, Montrose St., Wednesday, May 13 at 10 a. m. Subject not announced.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bacon returned from their visit at Northfield, Minn., on Wednesday, Mrs. Stanton remaining at Northfield.

—The Highway department is engaged in putting Watertown street in good condition, and have already begun work on the repairing of Tremont street.

—Mr. Geo. Strong and family have moved into their house on Vernon street, formerly the Allen place, which has been extensively altered and improved.

—Mr. F. S. Bemis, who has occupied the Goodrich house, corner of Centre and Church streets, for the winter, has gone to their summer home at Northfield.

—The Newton Woman Suffrage League will have a meeting in the interest of Good Citizenship, next Monday evening in West Newton, with a number of prominent speakers.

—The next meeting of the Newton Camera club will take place at the house of Mr.
Stonemetz, 1053 Washington street corner
Parsons, Newtonville, on Monday next May 11th at 3.30 p. m.

—Mr. Jas. H. Green, who has been taking care of the Bigelow and Underwood schools for Mr. Chas. R. Young, has been elected janitor of the two buildings, Mr.
Young having resigned.

—Mr. Currier, who has built several handsome houses in that vicinity has the contract for building Mr. J. H. Wheelock's new house, on the corner of Hunnewell avenue and Washington street.

—The third of the series of Christian Science lectures in Eliot Hall was given Wednesday evening. The operation of healing in Christian Science was illustrated by Mr. Bailey's own experience. The final lecture will be given next Wednesday as announced elsewhere.

—Mr. Arthur F. Barrett, General Secretary, N. Y. M. C. A., returned with his wife to Yonkers, N. Y., this week. He will come back to Newton early next week, and continue his duties while Mrs. Barrett and the rest of the family will remain a short time at Yonkers before starting for their summer vacation at Springfield.

—Music in Grace church on Sunday night.
Processional, "Crown Him with many Crowns." Elvey
Anthems, Magnificat and Nunc Statham
Dimitis. "Ye men of Galilee," Lewis Retrospection, "Lift up your heads, eternal gates." Lahee

—The Yonkers Statesmen of May 1st, gave a column account of the farewell Y.
M. C. A. reception to Mr. Arthur S. Barrett and wife, who have come to Newton to live. Mr. Barrett will have charge of the club in the city, and rooms are being fitted up in Bacon's block for the Association.

—"An Evening in India" in the chapel of the Baptist church, Thursday evening, May 14, will consist of beautiful scenes and tableaux. These will be explained by Mrs.
David Downie, whose fifteen years' residence in India has given her an intimate knowledge of the manners and customs of the "Telugus."

—The Fisk University Jubilee Singers sang their slave songs and plantation melodies at Eliot church chapel last evening. A very large audience was present and much enjoyed the music. Addresses were given on the needs of missionary work in the South by Mr. M. Clifford Pardee, Miss A. M. Vassar and Mr. J. W.
Holloway. A collection netted nearly two hundred dollars.

—Rev. Joseph B. Clark, D. D., secretary of the Home Missionary Society, will preach morning and evening at the Eliot church, Sunday. He is an eloquent speaker and was formerly pastor of the Newtonville church. The evening service will be of special interest, and Dr. Clark's address will be illustrated by a large map of the country. Seats free.

—Rev. W. A. Lamb, Nonantum, will preach Sunday evening at the North Evangelical church on the interesting subject
"The Factory Girl." The choir will furnish special music for the occasion.

—Tenor Solo, "Come unto Me" from Emmaus. Pease
Alto Solo, "How long wilt Thou forget me?" Carl Pfeiffer Service commences at seven.

—Mr. Edward Darron, who died May 2nd, was buried from his late residence, 58 Medford street, Chelsea, Tuesday afternoon. There was a large attendance, many being present from Newton and Watertown. Mr. Darron had for eleven years kept the barber shop at the corner of Washington and Centre streets. His son will continue the business.

—One of the greatest improvements on Brighton hill will be the new house which Mr. John L. Whiting of Boston is to build on the Harris estate, on the summit of the hill. The present buildings are to be removed at once and work will soon begin on a handsome new house, which Mr.
Whiting intends for his own residence.
There are over two acres in the estate and it will probably be handsomely laid out.

—Donations for the Pomroy Home during the month of April were as follows:
Newton 2 carpets, clothing, 1 barrel of potatoes, rolls, bread, box of books; a friend, sandwiches; Eliot church, oysters, cups, rolls, coffee; Baptist church, oysters, meat; Book and Basket Society, 15 sheets; Newton Centre, straw matting, milk, vegetables; Newtonville, meat, clothing. All of which were gratefully received.

—The Howard Ice Company, successor to Howard Brothers, have opened an office at 342 1/2 Centre street, next to M. C. Higgins, and orders can be left there. Newton people will find this office a great convenience. In their advertisement in another column, is given the opinion of State Assayer Sharples of the ice the company are selling, which is endorsed as absolutely free from impurities. The price of ice is very reasonable this year.

—The Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold a school of methods in the Methodist church, Tuesday,
May 12. Sessions at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.
Mrs. Susan Fossenden, President of the Massachusetts W. C. T. U., will preside.
The speakers include Mrs. Martha Hyde of West Newton, Mrs. Helen G. Rice, Miss Elizabeth P. Gordon, Mrs. K. L. Stevenson, Mrs. Abbie F. Rolfe, and Miss Louise C.
Purinton, M. D. The ladies and gentlemen of Newton are invited to attend.

—The Waban Racquet Club started this week to fix up their new grounds on Boyd street. The land has been leveled and they are now waiting for the city to put in water before the land is rolled and seeded.
The Newton Tennis Club has nearly inished fixing their grounds, and are now waiting for a good rain, so that the courts may be rolled. Local tennis players are getting their courts ready and one of the best grass courts built this season is Mr.
George Strong's, situated on Tremont street.

—The Channing Entertainment club concert Wednesday evening was very successful, and the concert proved very entertaining. The Harvard Banjo club was the great attraction and they received enthusiastic encores on each appearance. The Fresman Glee club was not altogether untrue to its name, although their quartets were much better than their choruses. Miss Lillian B. Windle, the new soprano of the Channing choir, made a very favorable impression and received encores on each of her two songs, and the concert as a whole was very entertaining.

—A great sensation was caused in this city on Wednesday by a cablegram from Boston papers, stating that Mr. W. W.
Jacques and his daughter were assaulted by a mob in Florence, Italy, while out driving and his daughter severely injured. The stones that were thrown. Mr. Jacques and family sailed for Europe March 7, and in the latter part of April went to Italy. His two daughters are aged 9 and 7 years respectively and what possible reason the mob could have is not known, as Mr.
Jacques is a gentleman and never disposed to get into needless trouble. Mrs. Jacques was much shocked and grieved, and does not think the facts are as bad as reported, and Mr. W. R. Russell of Hunnewell avenue, received a cablegram, Wednesday evening, from Mr. Jacques, saying that the report was untrue and that neither he nor his daughter had been seriously hurt. Further particulars will probably be sent by letter.

—A reception was given by the Newton
Y. M. C. A. in the chapel of Eliot church, Wednesday evening, to its new general secretary, Mr. Arthur F. Barrett. Mr. Barrett was the former general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Cambridge, and recently accepted a call extended by the Newton association.
The chapel was filled with ladies and gentlemen interested in the work of the Newton association, and Mr. Barrett was given a most cordial and welcome. The speeches were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr.
McKeown, D. D., followed by addresses by Rev. D. N. Beach of the Cambridge Y. M.
C. A., Mr. F. O. Winslow, treasurer of the state executive committee, Y. M. C. A., and Rev. George E. Merrill, Mr. C. Haskell and others. Mr. Thomas Weston welcomed Mr. Barrett in behalf of Eliot church, and Rev. G. V. Shinn, D. D., in behalf of the city. Mr. Barrett spoke briefly, expressing his appreciation of the cordial welcome he had received and touching upon the work of the general secretary. At the conclusion of the speechmaking, refreshments were served by young ladies from the different Newton churches.

High School Notes.
On Monday the hour for drill was changed to the fourth period instead of the last period. All who did not take drill or calisthenics now have to stay in school.

Saturday's interscholastic tennis tournament, held under the auspices of the Harvard Lawn Tennis Association, was an entire success. Nine schools believed to have their own set contestants. Walworth, '01, beat R. Davis, Dartmouth, 6-3, 1-6, 6-2, an easy victory he putting in some good work. Thomas, '02, beat Davol of the same school 6-4, 6-3, not having quite so easy an opponent. In the second round O. E. Wyeth of Chelsea High beat Walworth 6-3, 6-4 in a closely contested match, while Thomas beat R. S. Howard a very tough match, 2-6, 6-5, 7-5. In the semi-finals Walworth was not in it and Thomas suffered defeat by G. P. Herrick, Berkeley.

A new rule was published in school
Wednesday which prohibits the scholars leaving the school grounds during recess without the permission of the room teacher. This rule was necessary because of various complaints made to the school authorities.

Extra company drills have commenced in earnest for the prize drill which will be held on some date in June, not yet decided.

A citizen of Brunswick is now trying to solve a problem which interests him very much. He owns a large amount of real estate in that city. Last year he failed to return one entire block of lots, saw the same advertised, coveted it, and when sold by the marshal bought it in,
and now wants to know how he can get his money back out of the city treasury.
There is no one so smart as to tell him how it can be done legally. He will surely return it this year, being doubly entitled to do so. He now owns it both by right of possession and by right of purchase. [Atlanta Constitution.]

Professional Etiquette.
(Boston Traveller)
According to a statement in the Herald, there has been for sometime a disagreement among the physicians of the Newton Cottage Hospital on matters relating to professional etiquette, and the executive committee of the board of managers are puzzled to know how to act, in fact the old question arises who shall decide when doctors disagree.

Pantries.
Select your pantries at Mansfield's from
3,000 of the best strains, French, German,
Belgian and English. Orders by mail promptly delivered. Box 111, Newtonville,
Mass.

People talk about talent, I tell you it is nothing but practice and steady application. "Practice makes perfect." Take the doctor, what would his business be without practice? [Pharmaceutical Era.]

Wholesale florists' sale of bedding plants at 129
Kingston street, Boston. See adv.

FELL FROM A ROOF.

A NEWTON PAINTER KILLED IN WAL-THAM YESTERDAY.

George W. Boyd of Newton, a painter, fell from the roof of a house in Waltham about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and received injuries from which he died shortly after.

The accident occurred at the residence of J. W.
Peters on lower Main street. Mr. Boyd, who was foreman for J. A. Evans, was at work close to the chimney around the ridgepole, a ladder supporting him in his place. The ridgepole, which was suddenly gave way, and the unfortunate man rolled down the roof, over the eaves and down 30 feet into the driveway, striking on his head.
When picked up he was alive, but death ensued shortly after his arrival at the hospital.

Mr. Boyd was about 35 years of age, and a son of the late George Boyd of this city, where he had lived for many years; was educated in its schools, and was very highly respected. A mother and sister survive him.

The body was brought to Newton, and his funeral will be held from his late home on Boyd street.

N. H. S. vs Crescents.
The Newton High school nine contested with the Crescents of Newton Centre, Wednesday afternoon, before a large audience. The game was called at 3 p. m. on Walworth's field, the Newtons first at bat.
The Newtons are strong in batting,
but in field work they lack organization, this game proved. The Crescents are more concentrated in their field work, but are weak in batting. Appended is the score:

N. H. S.
Kimball, rf.
Page lb.
Wentworth, c.
Blackburn, 3b.
Waite 3b.
Bradley lf.
Craze c.
H. Inman 2b.
Booth p.
Totals	43	12	11	13	0	30	19	14

CRESCENTS.
Trombly, cf.
Lesby, 2b.
Rand, ss.
Wentworth, c.
Walworth, lf.
Furber, 3b.
Bendict, lb.
W. Russell, rf.
A. Russell, p.
Totals	45	11	9	10	3	30	19	12

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
N. H. S.....0 1 0 4 1 4 0 0 1-12
Crescents.....2 0 1 0 2 4 2 0 0-11
Earned runs, N. H. S. 1; Crescents 1, two-base hits, Walworth 3; base hits, Blackburn, first base on balls, by Rand 3, Russell 5; Booth 4; struck out, by Booth 5, Russell 7; double plays, Inman to Waite hit by pitched ball, 1; time,
2 hrs. 30 min.; umpires, Hollis and English.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

The Misses Bullard have returned from Florida.
Hargden & Baily have commenced their work on the parochial house.

Mr. E. Jennings has sold his milk business in this village to J. Watson.

Hose 2 was called out, Monday, to extinguish a brush fire near the old pit, Cate's woods.

The Kiley house and adjoining buildings situated on Worcester street, Waltham, were burned to the ground, Tuesday night.

Dr. Knight of Knight's Botanic compound fame, interested a large street audience opposite Boyden hall Friday evening and disposed of considerable medicine.

Walter Gray, an employee of Sullivan's mills, was injured last week Friday, while feeding a garnet machine, one hand was badly injured. He was taken to the Cottage Hospital.

The dedication of Boyden hall as Freeman hall will be celebrated this (Friday) evening by a social dance. A supper of ice cream and cake will be furnished and the affair promises to be a success.

Dr. F. W. Freeman, proprietor of Boyden block, has greatly improved the interior of the hall;
ceilings and walls have been frescoed, new blinds have been added, and walls painted, and has been improved in such a manner so as to meet the requirements of a dance or concert hall better than ever before.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

WATER THE SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION THIS TIME.

Last week the board of aldermen listened to a long discussion on water, and this week they had a warm debate over water. Aldermen Crehore, Luke, Hyde, Fenno and Harbach were present and Mayor Hibbard presided. As usual the call to order was at just 7.15, the hour appointed for the meeting. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The quarterly report of the overseers of the poor was read and referred. The mayor appointed W. S. French inspector of milk, meats and provisions.

Chas. A. Wyman and about 100 other citizens of West Newton asked to have the steamer at West Newton again put in commission, and used at fires when other apparatus is sent. The mayor stated that he had referred the petition to the board of assessors to see what amount of taxable property the petitioners represented, and found that they were assessed for $1,198,800. The petition was referred to the fire committee.

Alderman Hyde reported petitions for back and express licenses from H. C. Daniels, American Express Co., Adams Express Co., Newcomb & Snyder, M. L. Cox, C. H. Jennison and about a dozen others, and they were granted.

A number of junk licenses were also granted. On petition of Chas. W. Loring, license to keep bowling alleys and pool table was granted to Newton Boat Club.

Frank A. Day and William Vinton were granted licenses as auctioneers. The Boylston Telegraph Co.'s application to run wires across the B. & A. tracks to Daniels' stables, was granted, subject to the approval of Superintendent Bisby.

The petition of Geo. Avery, Architect, for license to build stable for ten horses on land of the Ellen Gifford corporation on Lake street was granted on the endorsement of Alderman Harbach.

Albert H. Temperly asked for license to build barn and paint shop, 15x20, at Upper Falls; S. W. Jones, to build barn 20x30 on Columbus street, Newton Highlands.

E. A. Pope asked for concrete walk on Hunnewell avenue, and Fred. H. Henshaw on Woodward street.

Alderman Crehore reported on the order for an engine house at Nonantum, giving a new draft which authorized the public property committee to secure plans for a house at Nonantum. The order as amended was passed.

WATER. Alderman Fenno presented an order from the highway committee, authorizing the watering of the streets, or such portions of them as may be deemed necessary, at an expense not to exceed $15,000, and authorizing the committee in accordance with the acts of 1891, to assess on the estates abutting on the street, a portion of the cost not to exceed 60 per cent.

Alderman Harbach said he was not ready to vote on the order in that shape. We have already appropriated $7,500 for watering the streets, which $1,500 is for water, which is a matter of bookkeeping only. He thought a stated price per front foot should be fixed, and that not over 50 per cent, of the cost should be assessed. The matter could be arrived at, and not over $5,000 more than was already appropriated was needed.

Alderman Fenno said the 60 per cent. was fixed at the instance of the city solicitor. The committee did not intend to assess over 50 per cent., but if in any case it was a little more, the wording of the order would prevent any question of its legality. The actual cost could not be determined now, and no arbitrary rate could be fixed. The committee were having petitions every day for new streets to be watered, and it was possible that two more carts might have to be secured, and in that case the $15,000 would be needed. The carts we already have can not do much more than they are doing at present. Fifteen carts for seven months cost $13,125, including water. The city heretofore has paid one half the cost and furnished the water, and the order is but following out the report accepted by the board. The sum to be paid by the abutters would be about 2 cents a front foot, less than ever before, and it would be so small there would be no complaint.

Alderman Harbach said the city now pays $100 per month for each cart, and they are used seven months, that is, $700 for sprinkling two miles of streets. One half of this, $350, is assessed, which would be 3.33 cents a foot, or 1.66 for each side. Two cents a foot would be too much. He did not believe in charging the water on the abutters, it was merely a matter of bookkeeping anyway, and he thought $200 would pay for all the extra cost of the water used this season. The $1,800 was put down merely as representing what would be a fair sum, if the water was furnished by a private company.

Alderman Fenno asked if the alderman, as member of the water board, would recommend that the water board make no charge for water.

Alderman Harbach said no, he preferred to let it stand as it does now. Alderman Luke asked why if the water only cost $200, the water board charged the city $1800 for it.

Alderman Harbach said the latter amount represented a fair estimate for the water on the basis of what private companies furnish water for, just as the sum charged for hydrants.

Alderman Fenno said the committee had no precedent to go by, but they had estimated as closely as possible, and the order was drawn up on the recommendation of the city solicitor and the estimate of the cost obtained from the city engineer.

Alderman Luke said there was no intention but to be fair, and as more water was used probably the cost would be greater.

Alderman Harbach thought the committee could estimate the cost exactly. They knew the cost of a cart, and the number of feet in a mile.

The city clerk called attention to the provision of the law, which says that the cost shall be assessed on the value of the abutting estates, in which it differs from the sewerage assessment.

The order was then passed. Alderman Fenno said that as it would be impossible to get the money from the assessment to pay half of the cost this year, he would present another order, appropriating $7500, and adding it to the appropriation for street watering, to be charged to the tax levy of the present year.

On motion of Alderman Luke the order was tabled to await the presence of the full board.

NEW DRAINS.

On motion of Alderman Fenno an order was passed appropriating money for drains and culverts on the following streets: California street, $1200; Oak street, $1500; Page's drain, $1000; Lenox street, $1000; Hillside avenue, $750; Oak street, $2500; Summer, $1000.

SEWER BOXES.

On motion of Alderman Luke, the city treasurer was authorized, under direction of the finance committee, to dispose of 100 bonds, of the par value of $1000 each, bearing interest from April 1, 1891, to be denominated the Newton Sewer Loan, and to be paid April 1, 1911, bearing interest at the rate of 4 per cent. A sinking fund was also established.

Alderman Luke presented the petition of M. Taffe and others for sidewalks on River street, from Auburndale avenue to Lexington street, to be covered with gravel or crushed stone; referred to highway committee.

THE PLAYERS.

THEIR THIRTEENTH SERIES PROVE A LUCKY NUMBER.

There was nothing unlucky about the 13th series of performances given by The Players, on Monday and Tuesday evening. The City Hall was crowded on both evenings, the music was excellent as usual, and the two plays were brilliantly given, many even considering it the most successful of the club's entertainments.

The Ladies' Battle is a French translation of a very interesting play, and although it is not unfamiliar on the amateur stage it has never been so well given as by The Players. The scenery was very attractive, and one stage setting answering for the three acts there were no tiresome waits. The costumes were handsome and appropriate and the action never lagged, giving evidence of careful rehearsal. Miss Gertrude A. Long as the Countess made the success of the evening, and is a very charming actress. Her lines were given with a power that aroused the enthusiasm of the audience, and she and Mr. J. A. Conkey as "Gustave de Grignon" had to appear several times before the curtain.

Mr. Conkey's make up was admirable, and he surprised even those who know his histrionic talents by his excellent presentation of the part. Mr. E. W. Spurr was very successful as the dashing "Henri," utterly careless of consequences, and Miss Louise G. Dietrich gave a very charming representation of the open-hearted Leonie, who is never able to conceal her thoughts. Mr. James Walker, Jr., was a desperate baron, whose skill as a detective is no match for the quick wit of the countess. Messrs. Cobb and Pulsifer made very martial draughts, and Mr. B. P. Cheney, Jr., a ferocious brigadier and a model servant, he having double parts. The applause of the large audience was a sufficient evidence of the satisfactory nature of the whole performance.

The comedy was followed by the farce "Trying it On," in one act, in which Mr. T. E. Stutson literally carried everything before him, besides trying it on, and convincing the audience. The other parts were satisfactorily taken, and the farce was so amusing every one remained to witness the end. The characters were as follows:

Mr. T. E. Stutson, Mr. Johncock, Mr. G. R. Parker, Mrs. Jobstock, Miss Evelyn Purdie, Fanny (her niece), Mrs. Walter H. Stearns, Lucy (her maid).

Newton Hospital Case.

To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:—In reply to a statement in the Boston Herald concerning the Newton Cottage Hospital, I will say that I signed the application of Dr. McIntosh for membership in the Massachusetts Homeopathic Medical Society in good faith and friendship last October, supposing his promises would be fulfilled, but as there was no change in his conduct, or the position of his supporters, and he had interfered with the attending physician accepted, about three months before the annual meeting of the society, I withdrew my endorsement of his application, which, with an article in the Herald of that date, relative to the hospital controversy, was brought to the attention of the board of censors and his name quietly dropped.

I was assured by an influential member of the society that, if his name was brought up, there would be more than the required number of black balls against him which would be worse than to be quietly dropped. It was not my duty, but of the board of censors, to inform him of the situation and its action.

He was notified six days before the last meeting of the board of censors, but neglected to file a new application. The physicians of Newton have never so far as I know, had any occasion to be jealous of Dr. McIntosh.

Truly yours,
E. P. SCALES, M. D.
Newton, April 29, 1891.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORMERS.

THE NEWTON ASSOCIATION ON THE PROGRESS OF

The annual meeting of the Newton Civil Service Reform Association was held in Allen's school house, West Newton, Wednesday evening, April 24, 1891. President Harrison presided. The reports of the officers were read and accepted. That of the secretary stated that a gratifying addition had been made to the membership during the past year, over 200 new names having been enrolled.

The report of the secretary touched upon the appointment of census enumerators in Newton, and said that they had not been actuated by any political influence. The best service had probably been secured, owing to the superior preparation, but there had been very few complaints, and the work in Newton had been, on the whole, satisfactorily performed.

The report of the treasurer stated that the expenditures for the year had been $237.31, and that there was a balance in the treasury of $137.50.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Rev. Henry Lambert, president; Hon. Leverett Saltonstall, Hon. R. R. Bishop, Hon. W. P. Ellison, E. B. Haskell, Edwin P. Seaver, N. T. Allen, W. P. Tyler, vice-presidents; Thomas B. Fitz, E. P. Bond, G. E. Gilbert, E. C. Heath, E. L. Bridgman, C. Bowditch Coffin, directors; Stephen Thacher, secretary; H. E. Bothfield, treasurer.

Following the election of officers, a paper on "The Present Status of Civil Service Reform" was read by President Lambert. The Republican platform, said Mr. Lambert, promised not only that the reform should be extended to all grades of the service to which it is applicable, but that the spirit and purpose of civil service reform should be observed in all executive appointments. President Harrison, in his letter of acceptance, said that "the civil service law should have the aid of a friendly interpretation and be faithfully and vigorously enforced."

He further said that "only the interests of the public should suggest removals from office."

How far have these promises been fulfilled? President Harrison has given us the best commission we have had, but on the other hand he has given to like warm friends or decided opponents of the reform like Wauwamaker and Clark; who hold positions so important that they have been able to do in certain directions more to retard and injure the reform than the commission has been to improve and extend it.

The President also disregarded the recommendation of the commission to extend the reform to the census bureau. The commission's efforts to punish offenders guilty of bribery or of levying political assessments have been of little avail, because it has not received the aid it had the right to expect. The forbidding officials to take part in political meetings has been equally and consistently ignored, without rebuke.

Three months after the President's inauguration 990 changes were made in the public service, while in the same time, under ex-President Cleveland, only 2000 changes were made, although for 25 years the Republicans had controlled, and almost entirely filled, the public office.

In less than a year, of the offices controlled by the President, 65 per cent. of the incumbents were changed, and of 6,000 offices controlled by the postmaster general over 65 per cent. have been changed.

These figures need no comment. They are a most damaging record of promises made only to be broken.

There are, however, some favorable indications for the cause of civil service reform worth noting. One of the indications is the lessening number of civil service reform associations, due to the growing conviction that the reform is well established.

A movement decidedly favoring the cause is the introduction of the Australian ballot system, which has grown out of the civil service reform movement.

The steps taken to prevent bribery and the improper use of money in elections all tend to purify the public service.

The bill introduced by Mr. Lodge to bring fourth-class postoffices under the civil service law, if passed by the next Congress, will be a decided advance.

A very important reform in the navy department has been begun by Secretary Tracy and the present system of allowing the navy yards to be managed in the interests of politicians promises to be abolished.

In conclusion the speaker said that it was a source of gratification to find so much to favor the cause and that the best augury for the future was in the fact that the reform had already proved to be eminently effective in partially putting an end to political patronage and in the gradual securing of a valuable class of public servants.

At the conclusion of President Lambert's address, the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Resolved, That this association learns with great satisfaction that the President has decided to put the Italian bureau in part under the civil service law.

That the thanks of all civil service reformers are due to Secretary Tracy, for introducing the merit system into the navy yards; and we hope the President will make it permanent by extending to them the civil service rules, thus putting an end to a prolific source of political corruption in the administration.

That while we are grateful to Congressmen Lodge and Greenhalge for their earnest efforts to secure the introduction of the civil service law by the civil service commission, we cannot but condemn the course of Congress in refusing to grant the increase, and in actually reducing instead of enlarging the number of clerks as requested by the commission.

Resolved, That this association learns with great satisfaction that the President has decided to put the Italian bureau in part under the civil service law.

That the thanks of all civil service reformers are due to Secretary Tracy, for introducing the merit system into the navy yards; and we hope the President will make it permanent by extending to them the civil service rules, thus putting an end to a prolific source of political corruption in the administration.

That while we are grateful to Congressmen Lodge and Greenhalge for their earnest efforts to secure the introduction of the civil service law by the civil service commission, we cannot but condemn the course of Congress in refusing to grant the increase, and in actually reducing instead of enlarging the number of clerks as requested by the commission.

Resolved, That this association learns with great satisfaction that the President has decided to put the Italian bureau in part under the civil service law.

That the thanks of all civil service reformers are due to Secretary Tracy, for introducing the merit system into the navy yards; and we hope the President will make it permanent by extending to them the civil service rules, thus putting an end to a prolific source of political corruption in the administration.

That while we are grateful to Congressmen Lodge and Greenhalge for their earnest efforts to secure the introduction of the civil service law by the civil service commission, we cannot but condemn the course of Congress in refusing to grant the increase, and in actually reducing instead of enlarging the number of clerks as requested by the commission.

Resolved, That this association learns with great satisfaction that the President has decided to put the Italian bureau in part under the civil service law.

That the thanks of all civil service reformers are due to Secretary Tracy, for introducing the merit system into the navy yards; and we hope the President will make it permanent by extending to them the civil service rules, thus putting an end to a prolific source of political corruption in the administration.

That while we are grateful to Congressmen Lodge and Greenhalge for their earnest efforts to secure the introduction of the civil service law by the civil service commission, we cannot but condemn the course of Congress in refusing to grant the increase, and in actually reducing instead of enlarging the number of clerks as requested by the commission.

Resolved, That this association learns with great satisfaction that the President has decided to put the Italian bureau in part under the civil service law.

That the thanks of all civil service reformers are due to Secretary Tracy, for introducing the merit system into the navy yards; and we hope the President will make it permanent by extending to them the civil service rules, thus putting an end to a prolific source of political corruption in the administration.

That while we are grateful to Congressmen Lodge and Greenhalge for their earnest efforts to secure the introduction of the civil service law by the civil service commission, we cannot but condemn the course of Congress in refusing to grant the increase, and in actually reducing instead of enlarging the number of clerks as requested by the commission.

Resolved, That this association learns with great satisfaction that the President has decided to put the Italian bureau in part under the civil service law.

That the thanks of all civil service reformers are due to Secretary Tracy, for introducing the merit system into the navy yards; and we hope the President will make it permanent by extending to them the civil service rules, thus putting an end to a prolific source of political corruption in the administration.

That while we are grateful to Congressmen Lodge and Greenhalge for their earnest efforts to secure the introduction of the civil service law by the civil service commission, we cannot but condemn the course of Congress in refusing to grant the increase, and in actually reducing instead of enlarging the number of clerks as requested by the commission.

Resolved, That this association learns with great satisfaction that the President has decided to put the Italian bureau in part under the civil service law.

That the thanks of all civil service reformers are due to Secretary Tracy, for introducing the merit system into the navy yards; and we hope the President will make it permanent by extending to them the civil service rules, thus putting an end to a prolific source of political corruption in the administration.

That while we are grateful to Congressmen Lodge and Greenhalge for their earnest efforts to secure the introduction of the civil service law by the civil service commission, we cannot but condemn the course of Congress in refusing to grant the increase, and in actually reducing instead of enlarging the number of clerks as requested by the commission.

Resolved, That this association learns with great satisfaction that the President has decided to put the Italian bureau in part under the civil service law.

That the thanks of all civil service reformers are due to Secretary Tracy, for introducing the merit system into the navy yards; and we hope the President will make it permanent by extending to them the civil service rules, thus putting an end to a prolific source of political corruption in the administration.

That while we are grateful to Congressmen Lodge and Greenhalge for their earnest efforts to secure the introduction of the civil service law by the civil service commission, we cannot but condemn the course of Congress in refusing to grant the increase, and in actually reducing instead of enlarging the number of clerks as requested by the commission.

Resolved, That this association learns with great satisfaction that the President has decided to put the Italian bureau in part under the civil service law.

That the thanks of all civil service reformers are due to Secretary Tracy, for introducing the merit system into the navy yards; and we hope the President will make it permanent by extending to them the civil service rules, thus putting an end to a prolific source of political corruption in the administration.

That while we are grateful to Congressmen Lodge and Greenhalge for their earnest efforts to secure the introduction of the civil service law by the civil service commission, we cannot but condemn the course of Congress in refusing to grant the increase, and in actually reducing instead of enlarging the number of clerks as requested by the commission.

Resolved, That this association learns with great satisfaction that the President has decided to put the Italian bureau in part under the civil service law.

That the thanks of all civil service reformers are due to Secretary Tracy, for introducing the merit system into the navy yards; and we hope the President will make it permanent by extending to them the civil service rules, thus putting an end to a prolific source of political corruption in the administration.

H. W. DOWNS CO.,

143 Tremont St., Boston.

One Door South of Temple Place

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

High Grade Dress Linings and Findings.

The Largest Variety and Finest Selections of Silk and Cotton Linings in the City.

L. H. CRANITCH, HOUSE, SIGN, and ORNAMENTAL PAINTER, Graining and Paper Hanging a Specialty.

WALNUT STREET, 2d Door from Central Block, NEWTONVILLE.

F. H. WHIPPLE, Sole Agent For New England For

White's Automatic Fire Alarm.

Inspection, Practical Tests and Correspondence Solicited.

Office: 1472 Washington St., BOSTON.

Spring Millinery! A Choice Assortment at THE JUVENE.

The Ladies of Newton and Vicinity Invited. Miss E. Juven Robbins, successor to H. J. Woods, Eliot Block, Elmwood St., Newton.

Open Monday, Friday and Saturday evenings.

WALWORTH Construction and Supply Co. Steam and Hot Water Apparatus. Steam Traps, Valves and Fitters. Steam Pumps, Boilers and Engines.

GARDEN HOSE SPIRAL WELD STEEL TUBE. Used for Water, Steam or Gas. Test 300 lbs. pressure per sq. in. Sizes, 1 in. to 24 in.

The cost of this pipe is only a fraction of that of standard pipe. Descriptive circular sent on application.

60 PEARL STREET, BOSTON. Telephone No. 707, Boston.

NEWTON STREET RAILWAY. Commencing April 20, 1891, cars will run as follows:

NEWTON TO WALTHAM. Leave Newton 6.25, 7.30, 8.00, a.m., and every half hour until 11.00 p.m.

For West Newton only 11.30, 12.00 p.m. Newtonville 6.32, 7.38, 8.08 a.m., and every half hour until 11.00 p.m.

For West Newton only 11.38 p.m., 12.08 a.m. Car Newton 6.00, 6.35, 7.13, 7.45, 8.15 a.m., and every half hour until 11.15 p.m.

West Newton 6.05, 6.40, 7.18, 7.48, 8.18 a.m., and every half hour until 11.15 p.m.

WALTHAM TO NEWTON. Leave Waltham 6.40, 7.15, 7.45 a.m., and every half hour until 11.15 p.m.

For West Newton only 11.45 p.m. West Newton 6.05, 7.05, 7.42, 8.12 a.m., and every half hour until 11.42 p.m.

Car Newton 6.08, 7.08, 7.45, 8.15 a.m., and every half hour until 11.40 p.m.

Newtonville 6.15, 7.15, 7.52, 8.22 a.m., and every half hour until 11.52 p.m.

SUNDAY CARS. Same as on week days except that the 6.25a.m. car from Newton and the 6.40 and 7.45 a.m. from Waltham are omitted.

Special Church Cars between West Newton and Newton. Leave West Newton 10.05 a.m. Newtonville 10.15 a.m.

Arrive Newton 10.22 a.m. Leave Newton 12.20 p.m. Newtonville 12.30 p.m.

Arrive West Newton 12.38 p.m.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO PASSENGERS. On and after Monday, April 20, 1891, the cars of this company will stop only at the Signal Poles, but only upon request of a passenger, or signal from a person wishing to ride.

F. G. L. HENDERSON, Supt.

EDWIN I. DILL, Baker, Caterer and Ice Cream Manufacturer.

Particular Attention Given to Catering for Weddings and Private Parties.

A. O. U. W., Lock, Moody Street, Waltham; Spring Hotel, Main Street, Waltham.

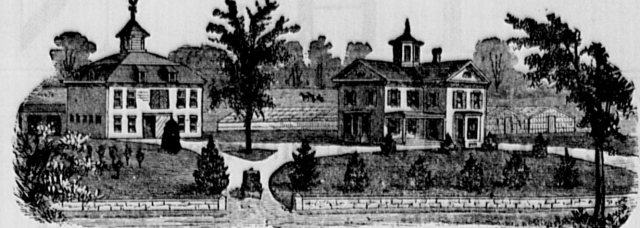

W. H. WHIPPEN, CONSULTING ENGINEER.

Will advise with regard to the Erection and Running of STEAM PLANTS. Also Estimates of the Cost of Same. Furnished. Transmission of Power by Wire Cable a Specialty. Call or address

615 Atlantic Avenue, BOSTON.

SPRING SUITS. J. H. NICKERSON, Merchant Tailor and Clothier, WEST NEWTON, MASS.

Is now prepared to furnish Spring Suits from the Latest Styles of goods, ready made or made to order as you may desire. No better or cheaper clothing for Men or Boys can be procured. Call and see our line before purchasing. Please leave your orders early to avoid having to wait when the season advances.

The Granite State Building

ASSOCIATION.

OBJECT. THE object of this association is to furnish homes to its members on an instalment plan at the very lowest cost. According to the lapses on old line insurance and one to five year orders for the past five years, fifty per cent. of all have lapsed. We find by careful investigation, a homestead costing Three Thousand Dollars can be obtained at a cost of about Eighteen Hundred Dollars to all members of this association. Our plan is this; All members pay five Dollars to join this association and as soon as this fund reaches the amount of Three Thousand Dollars, certificate holder No. 1 can buy or build a house, select his own location, and make his own contract for building, plans and specifications to be approved by the association. The members shall first give a mortgage for Three Thousand Dollars without interest, less the amount paid in by said member, and shall continue to pay his weekly instalment until his mortgage is paid up in full.

SOURCES OF PROFIT. THE lapse element. It is impossible to hold any considerable number of persons together in any kind of an association without change; old members drop out and new ones come in, change in condition, alteration of mind, death, etc., all contribute to exemplify this principle, and constitute an inevitable law by which the persistent members realize a large profit. All members stand equal, as each one has to pay in full for his homestead, less the lapses, which, according to past five years' experience, place the lapses at fifty per cent. This will reduce the cost of each member's Three Thousand Dollar house to Eighteen Hundred Dollars, or less. Ninety per cent. of all instalments go to the building fund, ten per cent. to the general fund to pay the expenses of the association.

For further particulars apply to any of the following members or to the company office, Burnham Building, Room 11 and 12, 74 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

W. H. Smith, 10 Central Market, Boston.
E. R. Cunningham, 51 Blackstone St., Boston.
J. W. Smith, 202 1/2 St. Andrew St., Boston.
Geo. G. Hackett, Wakefield, Mass.
L. O. Dion, Natick, Mass.
Chas. W. Baird, 39 and 41 North St., Boston.
Fred R. Whitworth, 32 Boylston St., Boston.
John J. Crowley, 16 Carnes St., Lynn, Mass.
Chas. E. Brown, 30 North St., Boston.
Mr. Jas. B. Fife, West Somerville, Mass.
J. S. Sawyer, Winthrop, Mass.
W. H. Lyons, 202 Union St., Lynn, Mass.
T. F. Griffin, 6 Gray St., Charlestown.
M. J. Sawyer, West Medford.
J. E. F. Griffin, 6 Gray St., Charlestown.
A. C. Smith, Savin Hill, Boston.
Daniel A. Grovin, 39 Bennington St., E. Boston.
N. Clifford Paul, Lynn, Mass.
Louis Harlow, 60 Pearl St., Boston.
S. G. Baker, 481 Dudley St., Roxbury.

Franklin Damon, 481 Dudley St., Roxbury.
E. R. Christopher, 201 Summer St., Somerville.
L. A. Christopher, 201 Summer St., Somerville.
Edgar R. Todd, 16 Porter St., Somerville.
F. O. Cunningham, 276 Summer St., Somerville.
Edgar L. Fuller, 55 Main St., Everett.
Cassius McGregor, Medford.
John H. Wood, 91 Newhall St., Lynn.
John Butler, Jamaica Plain.
Chas. H. Seeley, 55 Spring St., East Cambridge.
A. McLeod, 9 Boden St., Somerville.
John O. Bonney, 44 Lincoln St., Charlestown.
Horace Caswell, Charlestown.
T. Nelson Landers, 20 Cambridge St., Somerville.
Frank W. Watson, 170 Gove St., E. Cambridge.
Geo. W. Maynes, 125 N. St., So. Boston.
H. H. Newton, 19 Milk St., Boston.
Jacob Alfons, 324 Washington St., Somerville.
C. D. Lyon, 186 Western Ave., Lynn, Mass.

LAWYERS.

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB. The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the Tariff, is cordially invited to take part in the discussions carried on in this column. Respectful consideration will be given to inquiries, criticisms, and communications of every kind, whether coming from Tariff Reformers, Free Traders or High Protectionists. Address Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, Newton Centre, Mass.

Let us Remember It.

Mr. McKinley says there are no free traders in the country, all agree that the best way to raise the necessary revenue is by a tax on imports. Let us remember this when we denounce as free traders in the next campaign, because we want a tariff made for the benefit of all the people, and not a handful of manufacturers, who are content to sell their products to foreigners cheaper than to their own fellow-countrymen.

Not Intended.

Imadventerly a man once dropped a quarter in the contribution box when he intended to put in a nickel. Instantly discovering his error, he asked the collector to give him 20 cents in change. This was refused. "Well," said the unwilling contributor with resignation, "anyway I'll get credit for the quarter in heaven." "No, you won't," promptly responded the church officer, "you'll only get credit for the five cents you intended to give."

The McKinley bill was intended to diminish imports. That was one of its chief virtues. But, on the contrary, imports have increased. The N. Y. Tribune says:

The fact is that the value of imports for the six months ending with March, the entire period except six days of October under the operation of the McKinley bill, was $403,450,812, against $381,241,783 for the corresponding months of the previous year, an increase of $2,102,030. But the imports of the previous year had been much the largest known in any year of the country's history. Plainly such a vast amount of merchandise could not have been brought hither within a half year if the free trade stories about the bill had been true.

Neither could the importations have been increased if the bill had had the effect Mr. McKinley and his associates expected.

Helped by Free Trade.

The most conspicuous fact in all our commercial statistics for 1890 is that in our trade with all nations the balance in our favor was about $80,000,000, while with Great Britain and Ireland the balance in our favor was not less than $281,406,706. Our commerce with all countries besides the United Kingdom resulted in a large balance of trade against us, but the enormous balance of trade in our favor in dealing with this one nation wiped out this adverse balance and left us with a favorable balance of $80,000,000. The balance of trade in our favor in dealing with the United Kingdom was very much greater than the whole amount of our imports from that country; in other words, England, including Ireland and Scotland, bought of us almost three times as much as we bought of her. The figures are:

Our imports from England,	1891,	$186,488,056
Our exports to England,	1891,	$477,895,062

Balance in our favor, $291,406,706. Our total exports for that year were $587,828,084, so that England bought more of us than all the rest of the world put together did, while out of all our imports we got less than one-quarter from England. All the breadstuffs that we exported in 1890 were worth $154,925,927, and of this England took $94,351,897 worth. Of raw cotton we exported $250,983,892 worth, and England took $148,297,771. Of provisions we exported $506,008,506 worth, and England took $86,506,038 of this. Of cattle we exported $31,261,131 worth, and England took $29,767,461 of this.

The breadstuffs, provisions, cotton and cattle which England bought of us in 1890 amounted to $558,723,167 or about $35 for every farmer, dairyman and stock raiser in this country.

And thus our best customer admits our products free from duties! What should we do without such a customer?

Effect of Increased Tariff on Wool.

Last year we, and all other tariff reformers, and some wool users who are not tariff reformers, explained why the increased duty on wool could not be depended on to benefit the American producers. The warnings then given have been amply justified, and rather sooner and more conspicuously than was expected. After six months of the McKinley bill fine domestic wools are cheaper than they were last year, and more foreign wool is being imported than ever before. The Boston Commercial Bulletin says that the prices of Ohio and Michigan fine fleeces are lower by more than 1 cent a pound than they were one year ago. Ohio XX has dropped from 33 1/2 to 32 cents, Ohio X from 32 to 31 cents, and Michigan X from 30 to 28 1/2 cents. The quantity of these wools sold in the Boston market, "which is so much larger than any other in the country that its statistics are a fair indication of an alteration in demand," was less by nearly 12 per cent. in the first three months of this year than in the corresponding months of 1890. On the other hand, the following figures show the demand for Australian wool:

Stock on hand January 1.....	1891,	861,700	1,833,000
Total imports to April 1.....	1891,	9,454,364	2,397,629

Total supply for three months 10,296,064 4,230,629. Sales to April 1..... 5,287,411 3,935,000. In addition, the imports for April show a still further increase of the quantity of Australian wool received, although the duty is higher than it was last year, and Ohio wool is quoted at a low price, while the price of Australian wool is comparatively high.

If the three Shepherd Kings of Ohio could exclude foreign wool entirely, instead of greatly increasing the demand for domestic wools; they would almost destroy the demand for domestic wools; they would destroy most of their customers, the manufacturers, and they would put a stop to those manufactures in which the foreign and domestic wools are mixed, and yet Messrs. Delano, Harper and Lawrence would imagine the millennium was at hand if they could totally prohibit importations of wool.

A Fortunate Man.

I had severe attacks of kidney disease. My stomach also troubled me very much. I was prevailed upon to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. After using five or six bottles, I was cured. I consider it an invaluable remedy for Kidney Disease, Stomach trouble, and all diseases of the blood.—John Vander-slice, No. 1 Gregory st., Rochester, N. Y.

THE NEWTON CEMETERY.

PLANS OF THE TRUSTEES FOR THE COMING SUMMER.

The season has come when people who drive are accustomed to pay frequent visits to the most beautiful locality in Newton, and which is a favorite place to take visitors to the city. Owing to the lack of the much-talked street car line through Walnut street, visitors who do not come in carriages are rarely met with.

As one enters the imposing gateway a beautiful green lawn, dotted with flowering shrubs and plants greet the eye, and a little further on the visitor overlooks the beautiful series of ponds, with their green islands and shubbery, and their flock of pure white ducks, which are very tame and are great favorites with the children who visit the cemetery. Ascending the hill Bigelow Memorial chapel and conservatory encircled by green lawns, now made brilliant by beds of tulips, make a charming view.

The trustees have decided to modernize and enlarge the house on the cemetery grounds, Mr. Chas. W. Ross leasing it for another year with that understanding, and the addition will give an extra room for the office, which has long been needed. The trustees have also engaged Wm. H. Ross, the oldest son of the former assistant superintendent, who will in some measure take his father's place, and relieve the superintendent, Mr. Henry Ross, of some minor duties.

This season it is planned to build a stone bridge at the upper pond, with a stone railing and also finish the work already begun around this pond. A foot bridge 6 feet wide, with a wood or stone arch will be built over the water fall, and a path laid out on the south side of the pond, under the hill. The improvements already begun and which have added so much to the attractiveness of the place will be finished, and it is intended to build several hundred feet of fence on the Richardson land, with the intention of enclosing the whole cemetery in the near future. It is also the intention to have the whole cemetery surveyed this year and laid out into sections. Men are now at work filling and regrading the old walks and drives and putting them in fine order, and the cutting of grass has already begun. The perpetual care fund provides for a good deal of work, which aids in giving the cemetery its neat appearance, and it is hoped that all the old lot owners will have their lots placed under the fund. Some 600 lot owners now have it, but there are 500 who have not been persuaded to join. An unincorporated cemetery is certainly a melancholy sight, and no lots are now sold without the perpetual care being provided for.

Among the new monuments is a plain but very attractive one to be placed on Mr. Mellen Bray's lot. It is to be seven feet square and some 15 feet high, and the elevation of the lot will make it a handsome addition to the cemetery.

THE CONSERVATORY attached to the chapel is now filled with plants and trees, and some of the latter are getting too large for the limits afforded and will have to be trimmed severely or else removed. The orange tree bore 30 or 40 oranges, this spring, the first of which had a fine flavor as the best Indian River oranges, but the later ones had very thick skins. The banana tree shows no signs of bearing this season.

THE GREENHOUSES are in finer condition than ever before, and are well stocked with bedding plants, many of which will be sold. They are more flourishing than usual at this date, and the hot beds are also well filled. Mr. Ross has a new variety of Canna in which he takes great pride, from the beauty of its flowers.

The nursery has been very prosperous this season and the sales have been much larger than ever before. The trustees were thinking of closing out the nursery but the prosperous season may induce them to put it in care of a competent man and continue it.

The past winter was very severe on evergreens and many in the nursery and about the cemetery have died. Mr. Henry Ross passed the 30th anniversary of his position as Superintendent in April, and he has seen the cemetery grow from small beginnings until now it is one of the handsomest places of the kind about Boston, and a great deal of this is due to his skill and faithfulness. He has always the hearty cooperation of the trustees, who form one of the most harmonious bodies in Newton. At the April meeting every member was present, which is something that does not happen often, and they were very well satisfied with the condition in which they found the cemetery; and they would have been hard to please had they not been.

Obituary.

In the death of Mrs. Hannah Woodward Fuller, we feel the loss of one who has been identified with this community for more than a half century, and who was respected and beloved by a large circle of friends, for her noble Christian character.

A daughter of the late Hon. Wm. Jackson, she was born in Boston in 1814, but from seven years of age until her marriage, she was a member of the home at the well known Jackson homestead on Washington street, Newton. While an inmate of that home, she imbibed the spirit of her honored father to whom she was devotedly attached.

The nearest church was at the Centre under the care of Rev. Dr. Homer and Rev. Mr. Bates, and there she united in 1827, and remained a member of the church and choir until, with a colony of thirty-seven, she left to form the Eliot church in 1845. She remained a beloved member of this church to the end. She had deep religious convictions and an earnest consecration. As far as her health permitted she was active in the social and benevolent work of the church. She was one of the very few survivors of the original membership.

She was married Oct. 29, 1840, to Mr. Henry Fuller, an intimate friend of her childhood and youth. Mr. Fuller had erected a house for himself and bride on Centre street, and together they occupied it for more than fifty long and happy years. In Oct. 1890 they celebrated their golden wedding and surrounded themselves with many of their old-time friends, and many reminiscences and congratulations were given of the long ago when they were young.

On account of ill-health and lameness, Mrs. Fuller was largely withdrawn from society and church life during the past ten years, but it was always a pleasure to her to receive calls from her numerous friends, and a greater pleasure to them to visit her in her home.

She leaves her husband and three daughters, one of them the wife of J. Henry Bacon, and buried her only son in 1868.

Mrs. Fuller had marked characteristics, but was so quiet and unostentatious, that it required an intimate acquaintance to appreciate her choicest qualities.

She was eminently sensible and practical, and her frankness, openness and sincerity were refreshing. She had a strong dislike for indirection, under-handed or double-dealing and insincerity. Her thoughts and words were one. Her outlook upon men and things was so impartial, so free from prejudice, and her judgment so sound as to command admiration.

She was kind and benevolent, with heart and hands always busy for the poor and needy. Articles begun by her for the poor and left unfinished now speak her praises in her home. She was a Dorcas Society in her own person.

She was very domestic. Her home was her throne. She looked well to the ways of her household. That home was made happy by her love, her thrift, her devotion.

So companionable was she that to her daughters she seemed like an elder sister as well as mother. To her husband she was a devoted wife, a counsellor, a partner in all his plans, a helpmeet in all the departments of life. Those long conversations together about the separation of one from the other and the future life, were a preparation to them both for the coming event.

Her last sickness was very short, only from Saturday morning to Monday afternoon, and no last words could be spoken, though consciousness remained. She died on April 20. Her funeral was attended by Rev. Doctors Calkins, Wellman, Furber and Worcester, all of them her friends, and two of them her pastors, who spoke loving and tender words over her, and offered fervent prayers for the family.

She has left a line of light in her passage upward which shall guide and lighten those who are to follow her to heaven.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

How It Was.

At the battle of Gettysburg, I was shot through the left leg and was sent to the hospital. The army surgeon relieved me but pronounced my case incurable. It discharged pieces of bone and for years I have suffered with a running sore. I tried everything which my limited means would allow, and experienced no relief until I tried Sulphur Bitters. I am now almost well and shall continue their use.—Old Soldier.

ARTHUR HUDSON.

Analytical and Pharmaceutical CHEMIST AND APOTHECARY.

(28 years experience in the business.)

WARNER'S LOCK, NEWTON.

Cor. Centre and Elmwood streets.

A full line of Chemicals of Standard Purity all ways in stock.

Physicians' prescriptions compounded with accuracy at all hours.

Proprietary Medicines and Druggists' Sundries

CHEMISTRY.

With a large and thoroughly appointed Laboratory, Mr. Hudson offers in the line of his profession, investigation as to the composition of matter conducted by analyses of synthetics, and the most approved methods. Analysis of potable waters, milk, etc., a specialty.

The Senior Druggist of Newton. TELEPHONE 7979.

HAVING SOLD

the EDDY REFRIGERATOR

In Newton, for the past 23 years is sufficient guarantee that they are the Best.

Call and examine them before purchasing a refrigerator and avoid regret and Save Ice.

Old Refrigerators re-lined and repaired at short notice.

CELEBRATED MAGEE MYSTIC RANGES and BOSTON HEATER FURNACES always on hand.

Moves Ranges and Furnaces cleaned and repaired; repairs for all makes furnished to order.

Tin Roofing, Condenser Work and General Jobbing promptly attended to and in a workman like manner.

JOHN S. SUMNER, 352 Centre Street, NEWTON, MASS.

GO TO

G. A. BURLEIGH, —FOR—

BOOTS, SHOES AND SLIPPERS.

38 Essex and 56 Beach Sts., Boston, —AND—

427 BROADWAY, SOUTH BOSTON.

Ladies' Misses' and Children's Low Cut Shoes for Summer Wear at Lowest Prices.

Gents' Goodyear Welt Shoes, easy as hand sewed, $2.50 and $3.00.

Slate, Copper, Tin and Grave ROOFING.

Special attention given to repairing.

John Farquhar's Sons, Nos. 20 and 22 East St., Boston.

Established 1836. Telephone No. 162. 49

FISH OYSTERS, Vegetables & Fruit of all Kinds

AT

Bunting's Fish Market, COLE'S BLOCK.

Established 1877. Connected by Telephone.

ESTABLISHED 1817.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO. CARPETINGS.

Oriental Rugs and Carpets, Curtains, Draperies, Wall Hangings, Furniture Coverings, Shades, &c. AT REASONABLE PRICES.

558, 560 WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON.

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE,

Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, Scissors, Shears and Lawn Mowers,

Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House

We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.

HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?

And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?

If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves. WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES, OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.

A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS, WEST NEWTON, MASS.

An Eight Per Cent. Investment.

The Fully Paid Certificates Issued By The

GRANITE STATE PROVIDENT ASSOCIATION

—OF— MANCHESTER, - - - N. H.,

Draw a Guaranteed Annual Dividend of EIGHT Per Cent Payable Semi-Annually.

The Association makes its Investments in the East on City Property only thereby obtaining Security that is Constantly Increasing in Value.

When an Institution can show that it has a Dollar and Twenty-three Cents with which to pay each dollar it owes, no doubt is expressed as to its Financial Solidity. The recent examination of the Bank Commissioners show that

Granite State Provident Association's

Ratio of Assets to Liabilities is One Hundred and Twenty-three.

The Association has the name of over 7500 Investors on its Books to whom Certificates of a Par Value of nearly $10,000,000 have been issued.

If you wish a Safe and Profitable Investment you cannot do better than to write for particulars.

Hon. J. C. MOORE, President; Hon. H. D. UPTON, Treasurer;

G. PERCIVAL STEWART, Vice President;

E. E. BURLINGAME, Secretary;

PHILIP CARPENTER, General Counsel;

FRANK S. STREETER, Associate Counsel.

Great Reduction in Carpet Cleaning.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE

NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COMPANY.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminster 5 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. Sole Manufacturer of the

ROCHESTER BUG EXTERMINATOR. Price 35 cents a bottle; 3 bottles for One Dollar.

SIMON A. WHITE,

P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street.

P. A. MURRAY,

Carriage Builder. ALL Work Guaranteed.

Special attention given to REPAIRING AND PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGES

WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

M. C. HIGGINS PRACTICAL PLUMBER

—AND—

Sanitary Engineer.

(Formerly with S. F. Carrier.)

Sumner's Block, Newton.

PLUMBING WORK IN ALL ITS BRANCHES. Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city; perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

MADISON BUNKER, D.V.S. Veterinary Surgeon.

BUSH'S STABLE, ELMWOOD ST., NEWTON, MASS.

Telephonic connection.

Daniels' Nonantum Stables HENRY C. DANIELS, PROPRIETOR.

Livery and Hacking. Patrons will find at these Stables the best of Horses and Carriages for hire.

Landau and Hacks, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. Safe and reliable horses for ladies to drive.

BOARDING. Superior accommodations for Boarding Horses, clean and comfortable stalls; careful and prompt attention. Telephone 13-3.

J. OTIS McFADDEN, DEALER IN Window Shades, Wire Screens, Wall Papers, Venetian Blinds.

23 CORNHILL, BOSTON.

HARRIS E. JOHNNOT, ELECTRICIAN.

Annunciators, Gas Lighting Apparatus, Burglar Alarms, Electric Supplies and Bells.

Incandescent Light Wiring. All kinds of Electrical Apparatus Installed & Repaired.

MACHINERY and LOCKSMITH. 320 Centre St., Howe's Block, Newton.

LADIES AND GENTS BOOTS

Made to fit any shaped foot, stylish if you wish, or neat, plain and comfortable if desired. If your feet trouble you try a pair of boots made on my new natural last, and don't suffer any longer. A full line of Ladies' Gents' and Children's Boots, Shoes and Rubbers kept on hand at bottom prices.

A. L. RHYND, 265 Washington St., Newton.

J. HENRY BACON, Successor to Francis Murdock & Co.

Dry Goods & Notions

Ladies and Gents' Furnishing Goods,

OIL and STRAW CARPETS,

Trunks, Bags, &c.

BACON'S BLOCK, Nos. 279 to 281 Washington St., NEWTON.

The Corrugated CARPET LINING

is the best thing to Put Under Carpets.

FOR SALE BY

BARBER BROS., 415 Centre St., opp. Public Library.

Moody Street Nursery C. D. FISKE, Proprietor.

WALTHAM, - MASS.

All orders promptly attended to.

QUICK TRAVEL ROCKFORD WATCH

RAILROAD WATCH

THEODORE L. MASON, Agent for the celebrated

Rockford Watch

ELGIN, WALTHAM, and other American Watches always in stock.

Repairing of Fine Watches, French, Grandfather and American Clocks a specialty.

All work warranted to give satisfaction.

Eliot Block, Centre Street, Newton, Mass.

J. L. PHILLIPS, PLUMBER, STEAM

—AND— GAS FITTER.

Steam and Hot Water Heating a Specialty.

44 Spruce Street, Waltham, - Mass.

23 1/2 yr.

Mrs. E. A. SMITH, MILLINERY.

202 Moody Street, Opposite Walnut Street, WALTHAM.

PURE - MILK

supplied daily from

PROSPECT VALLEY FARM.

One Cow's Milk supplied when desired.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY
85 WASHINGTON STREET, NEW TON, MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.

All money sent at the sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be
made payable to

EDWARD D. BALDWIN, Editor and Publisher

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

The GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday
afternoons, and is for sale at all News Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston & Albany News
Room, Boston Depot.

ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished
communications cannot be returned by mail
unless stamps are enclosed.

RENEWED TRANSCRIPT HAS BEEN CONSOLIDATED WITH THE GRAPHIC

A PATRIOTIC DUTY.

It is certainly to be hoped that the committee appointed at the last meeting of the Hospital trustees will be able to find a satisfactory way out of the present muddle. Without entering into the merits of either side, it may be said that the controversy is no credit to the city and one that will ruin its most deserving, or rather its only public charity. The contemplation of such a result ought to bring a sober second thought to all the parties engaged in the conflict, and make them eager to find some peaceable solution.

It matters but little whether the doctors or the laymen have the right on their side, the one that has ought to be the more magnanimous. In this as in most other quarrels both parties have probably a certain amount of right, and as both sides have reasonable men among them it is surprising that they allowed the trouble to gather such force and bitterness. A little tact, a little of that Christian charity of which the Hospital is the exponent, ought to have prevented all the difficulty.

The general public have been very much interested and amused, in spite of themselves, at the exhibition that has been made in the public press. It may be amusing to the onlookers, but is not this sort of thing calculated to destroy all interest in the Hospital, for which both medical men and laymen are supposed to be working? The dignity of both sides may be vindicated, but it is a rather high price to pay for such vindication, to have the Hospital itself destroyed in the process.

Are grown men justified in refusing "to play" because they cannot have their way in all things? The men who withdraw their offers of money and the men who refused their services seem to be both in the same predicament, and of course each thinks the other is very unreasonable.

This is the undignified attitude which both sides occupy in the minds of the general public, who do not care especially for any particular doctor or any particular donor of money, but who are deeply interested in the success and welfare of the Hospital, and in seeing its affairs progress smoothly and successfully. No one can be expected to give money as long as affairs are in the present condition, and we do not believe that either side desires the destruction of the Hospital. If they thought that was threatened they would be willing to make any sacrifice of personal feeling to avert the danger and to restore harmony. If any dangerous epidemic was to visit the city, all would unite in doing their best to provide for the Hospital and to prove their interest in their fellow men, in the sick and the poor, with a generous disregard of past dissensions. Such times of trouble bring out all the good that there is in men, but why wait for such a disastrous visitation? The time to compromise is, now before the Hospital is irreparably injured. Let each opponent look at the matter from his neighbor's standpoint, and not from his own narrow view, and realize that neither the one nor the other is utterly in the wrong, and then set about earnestly to heal the wounds that have been made, and make the Hospital again an institution in which every citizen can feel a just pride, instead of having to blush for shame every time it is mentioned by outsiders. The reconciliation committee ought to have the best wishes and the most cordial co-operation of all parties.
The best sentiment of the citizens will favor every effort to restore harmony, and the men who are the foremost to take steps to bring this about are the ones who will deserve public gratitude. There is certainly no honor to be gained in any prolongation of the controversy. It is like a family quarrel, as soon as it is made public the whole family is disgraced, and if the members have proper pride they efface all traces of it as soon as possible and present again a united front to the world.

ONE noticeable improvement about the streets is the greater care exercised outside of the sidewalk by residents.
The space is being turfed over very extensively, the grass cutters do not stop with the lawns, but cut the border of grass outside of the walk, and greater care is used about putting any rubbish in the streets. All this shows a hearty co-operation with the section men, and a great deal can be done in this way to secure the best kept section. The ambition to win a prize for their own section man seems to be shared by a great number. One improvement, also, is that on Saturdays the section men pay particular attention to the business squares, picking up waste paper and rubbish, and making everything neat for Sunday. If a by-law were passed forbidding the scattering of handbills about the streets, it would save the men a good deal of labor. Even those who ridiculed the new plan of caring for the streets now seem to be convinced of its superiority to old methods.

The grade crossing bill, providing for the abolition of crossings without the consent of the railroad directors, is meeting with determined opposition, as was expected. It has been ordered to a third hearing, but Wednesday a fight was made on a reconsideration, but its friends were successful by a vote of 80 to 77. Mr. Chester stood by the bill. Both parties divided on the bill, the Republicans giving a party majority of 29 against it and the Democrats a majority of 42 for it. Representative Mellen was for once on the right side, and he charged that the movement against the bill was directly traceable to lobby influence. That the bill is needed is shown by the history of crossings in Newton. The Boston & Albany pretended that they wanted their increase of stock to abolish the Newton crossings and secured votes on this plea, but when they got the money all pretence of doing anything in Newton was dropped, as far as the public can discover.

The usual sharp frost due about this time came on Monday and Tuesday nights, and quite respectable ice formed in spots. The freeze was rather severe on early vegetables and there is some fear that it injured cherries and other fruits now in blossom. It is believed that apples escaped as they are not yet in blossom. Last year the frost was later and it ruined the apple crop. The telegraphic reports show that the cold wave extended over a wide section and did great damage.

THE BROOKLINE CHRONICLE after long consideration endorses Roger Wolcott's speech and in regard to candidates for the governorship it says: "Let the Republican party in Massachusetts ask the people of the state to give their votes this fall for a true and honest man, a man who stands for unmasking the evil and corrupt wherever found, and it need not be fearful of the result."

SPEAKER BARNETT is very highly commended for his decided action on the foreign corporation bill, which he succeeded in making a good measure.

Homeopathic Dispensary Fair.
All donations for the Newton table including money, fancy and useful articles for sale, should be sent to the following ladies by Saturday, May 9th. Mrs.
A. S. March, Newton; Mrs. G. H. Talbot, Newtonville; Mrs. H. P. Bellows, West
Newton; Mrs. Chas. H. Sprague, Auburndale;
Mrs. S. L. Eaton, Newton Highlands;
Mrs. John H. Sanborn, Newton Centre.
(Chairman of Ward Committee.)

Sods, Loam, etc.
H. B. Parker has for sale at Grove Hill, Newtonville, sods, loam, gravel and stone for dry wells, driveways and foundations.

A Nocturne.
In white and brass is the term to describe Putnam & Co's Pavonia, and the price is very moderate. They have exclusive designs in silver and brass bedsteads, at their store, 546 Washington street, besides fine bedding of every description.
See adv.

Grand Opening.
of new designs in brass and iron bedsteads at the H. W. Bigelow Company's warehouse, 70 Washington street, Boston. Eighty patterns are shown ranging from $5 to $250 each, and inspection is invited from all who appreciate the beautiful.
See adv.

Carriages.
Spring styles at S. A. Stewart & Co., 9 & 13 Green street, Boston. This well known firm have a large stock of fine carriages in all the standard styles, and they offer a variety of second hand carriages at very low prices.

MARRIED.
ELLIS-GRAHAM-At Auburndale, April 30,
Samuel Ellis and Mary J. Graham.
COTTING-CHASE-At Newtonville, May 6,
William H. Coting and Nettie M. Chase.
THOMAS-McPHERSON-At Boston, April 29,
Clarence J. Thomas and Ada McPherson.
KENEFICK-SULLIVAN-At Upper Falls,
April 30, John J. Kenefick and Catherine F.
Sullivan.
CONNELL-SWIFT-At Upper Falls, April 27,
Thomas Connell and Catherine Swift.

DIED.
SMITH-At Auburndale, May 4, Sarah Jane, wife of William Lowell Smith, 4 years.
CUNNINGHAM-At West Newton, May 4, Mary
E. Cunningham, 30 years.
BRYSON-At Newtonville, April 28, Mrs. Elizabeth Bryson, 34 years, 10 months.
FARMER-At Newton, April 28, Sarah, wife of George Farmer, aged 61 years.
BUNKER-At Newton, 6th inst., Emily, youngest child of Dr. Madison and Emma F. Bunker, 1 year, 4 months.

BRIGGS-At Auburndale, Sarah A., wife of Wm.
W. Briggs. Funeral at her late residence, corner of Moore and Ash streets, Friday, May 8, 2:15 p. m.
WILDER-In Newton, May 3, Sara B., wife of Herbert A. Wilder and daughter of Dr. Horatio N. Page of Chelsea, 46 yrs. Funeral private.
ROWAN-At Belmont, Mass., May 7, James Hamilton Rowan, 34 years. Funeral at the residence of Mr. Arthur S. Doane, Common street, Belmont, May 9, at 10:30 a. m.
BOYD-In Waltham, May 7th, Geo. W. Boyd of Newton, 22 years.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURES!
By I. F. BAILEY.
Subject: "WHAT THE HUMAN BODY IS, AND HOW IT BECOMES UNREAL."
ELIOT HALL
WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 7:45 O'CLOCK.

G. W. RIGBY,
Carpenter and Builder.
ALL JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
Shop: WASHINGTON ST., opp. WABAN,
NEWTON, MASS. 311

CAMBRIDGE LAUNDRY.
NEWTON OFFICE:
Summer's Block, opposite Newton National Bank
Work done well and promptly. Work taken Monday to 2 p. m., and returned Thursday night.
Received after Monday and up to Thursday, returned on Saturday. Holland and lace curtain a specialty.

BUSINESS NOTICES

WANTED-Board for two children, 14 and 16 years old. Newton Centre or Newtonville preferred, address stating terms, P. O. Box 546, Newtonville. 31

WANTED-A competent and reliable girl to do general housework. Must be good cook and laundress. Best references required. Call Monday and Tuesday before 10 or after 6 at house of Mr. A. D. Claffin, Grant avenue, Newton Centre. 18

PASTURAGE-A limited number of Heifers and Cows will be sent to and cared for at Castle Hill Farm, Medfield. Apply to N. T.
Allen, West Newton. 31-11

WANTED, a position to do general house work in a small family. Address "M. O."
C. Newtonville. 31-11

TO LET-A cottage house, eight rooms on Maple street. Apply to J. F. Fawcett, Maple street, Newton, Mass. 31-11

TO RENT-Nice house, 9 rooms and bath, with large lawn, 6 minutes from Depot. Apply to E. Thompson, Hartford street, Newton Highlands. 31-31

FOR SALE-Ten shares of Newton Street Railway Company Stock at 102. Chas. S. Parinton, 33 Congress street, Boston. 30-21

FOR SALE OR TO LET-Furnished or unfurnished, new house with all modern improvements on Woodbine street, Auburndale.
For terms and particulars, address Box 243,
Auburndale postoffice. 30-21

$3500 TO BE LOANED-at 5 per cent on first mortgage on improved real estate. Apply to "S. P. O." Auburndale, Mass. 30-11

TO LET-Without board, one large room, adjoining bath room, and one room on first floor. Apply to Mrs. Monroe, 458 Centre street,
Newton. 30-11

FOR SALE-Safe family sail and row-boat, 15 feet over all, keel bottom. Apply at late residence Capt. John Martin, Prescott street, Newtonville. 30

TO RENT-In Newton Centre, on Crescent avenue, a furnished house with stable, for the season or longer. Address Box 355, N. C. 30-21

MISS A. E. Holman will receive pupils in Latin, French, Spanish and Saturday afternoons, through May and June. Terms reasonable; use of microscope included. Bowdoin St., Newton Highlands 30-11

TO LET-A neat house for a small family, five rooms in complete order. Three minutes from railroad station, depot and post office.
Inquire of Henry Fuller, 261 Centre street,
Newton. 29

TO LET-In Auburndale a desirable house of 12 rooms, at moderate rent. Apply to J. W.
Davis. 29-41

FOR SALE-Two Jersey cows, a carryall, (almost new) a buggy, phaeton, ten cords lawn dressing. Apply Box 201, Auburndale. 29-11

TO RENT-A tenement of seven rooms. Inquire at 21 Avon place, Newton. 28-31

FOR SALE-Open piano box buggy, nearly new, only used a few times. Address for terms and particulars, Box 11, Auburndale,
Mass. 28-41

TYPE WRITING AND COPYING-Done promptly and well by experienced operator at reasonable rates. Apply to Miss Henderson, 239
1-2 Washington street, rear of Nonantum Stables. 28-41

TO RENT-Part or whole of house No. 76
Benning street, also house on west side of Baptist church lot, on Church street, both in Ward One, Newton. Address or inquire of A.
B. Marshall, 76 Benning street, Newton. 27-11

TO LET-A pleasant house and grounds. Fruit trees and shrubbery, large hen house. Handy to stores, depot and church. H. H. Read, Paul street, Newton Centre. 27

FOR SALE-Best quality of English hay. Inquire of S. M. Jackson, Newton Centre. 27

TO LET-In Newtonville, one tenement $10 a month. D. P. O'Sullivan, Cabot St., Newton-ville. Telephone 55-3. 19-11

HOUSE AND STABLE FOR SALE OR TO RENT-House modern, with furnace and bath room, 10 rooms, 10 minutes walk from Newton Centre station. Rent $30 per month. Also 5 acres of building land for sale. Apply to John Stearns, Newton Centre. 25-11

ASSISTANT JANITOR WANTED AT Newton Boat Club House.
Must be a good strong young man, who is neat in appearance and willing to make himself generally useful. Address at once to W. A.
HALL, Captain, Box 18, Auburndale. 31-11

CITY OF
NEWTON.
Notice is hereby given that on Monday evening, May 18th, 1891, at City Hall at 7:30 o'clock, the Board of Aldermen will hear all parties interested in the petition (1318) of the Newton Street Railway Company that the order (12801)
requiring said Railway company to change the location of its tracks in River street from the side to the centre of said street, may be rescinded.
31-21 ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

City of Newton.
The Public Property Committee invite Plans
and Specifications for the enlargement of the Peirce School House, Washington street, Ward
Three.
For further particulars, address E. J. Hyde,
31 Milk street, Boston.
The Committee reserve the right to reject any
and all Plans and Specifications.
E. J. HYDE,
Chairman Public Property Committee.
May 8, 1891. 31-11

NOW THE PARTY - SEASON
Has returned. We are prepared to receive Orders for Parties, Receptions, Weddings,
Luncheon, Etc.
We have just received from New York, a lot of
FANCY MOULDS OF FANCY ICES.
ALL KINDS OF
ICE CREAMS AND SHERBET, CAKE in Variety, WEDDING CAKE a Specialty.
SALTED ALMONDS, CANDIES
and BON BONS of all kinds may be found at PAXTON'S,
Eliot Block, - Newton.

SISSON & HENDERSON, TAILORS.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
Spring and Summer, '91.
The Correct Styles.

FULL DRESS, SEMI-DRESS and BUSI-NESS SUITS.
Novelties Always on Hand.

IMPORTERS OF FINE CLOTHS.
Sartorial Parlors,
37 BOYLSTON ST.,
BOSTON.

Over Savage, King & Co.

Dress Suits to Let.
24-2m

By JAMES F. C. HYDE and ELLIOTT J. HYDE.
AUCTIONEERS,
31 MILK STREET, BOSTON.

Absolute Sale
-OF-
44 VERY DESIRABLE HOUSE LOTS

-AT-WOODLAND,
SATURDAY, MAY 9,

NEXT, AT 2.30 O'CLOCK P. M., A tract of 500,000 feet of the healthiest and best located land in Newton, on Washington street, has been surveyed and laid out by one of the most competent engineers and landscape gardeners; streets built, graded, etc., making one of the finest situations in all the Newtons, and about the only lot of building sites for sale in this section where a moderate cost house can be erected, situated as they are on the projected line of electric cars, and in a location where the increase in value must be sure and rapid, together with the natural advantages which these lots possess, their nearness to station, etc., should attract every seeker for a home; the lots contain from 7000 to 15,000 feet, and every lot has a good frontage; very easy terms if desired; $50 to be paid on each lot at time of sale.
For further particulars, plans and details, call on Auctioneers, 31 Milk Street, Boston, Rooms
6 and 7.
Trains leave B. & A. Depot for Woodland at 12:00, 12:15, 12:45, 1:30, 1:55 P. M. 30

ALIVE
To Your Wants For SPRING,
We have Out-done All Other SEASONS by Carrying the Largest Stock of Artistic Millinery,
EVER SHOWN IN
WALTHAM.

Come and See Our Assortment.
It will prepare your ideas so you
can leave your Orders with us.
Please remember we have removed to
LINCOLN'S NEW BLOCK.

J. W. MACURDY,
133 Moody Street,
SOUTH SIDE, WALTHAM.
29-2m

EUROPE. H. GAZE & SON'S
Select tours under personal escort (each party limited to two) to Paris, London, New York, April 22, May 2, 6, 13, 27, June 3, 17, 24, 27, July 1, 4, 8, 22, 25, etc. North Cape and Russia, June 27;
Full Tour, Holy Land and Egypt, Sept. 16; Round the World (westward) Oct. 2. Send 6c postage for Gazette containing full particulars.
W. H. EAVES, New England Agent, Parker
House, Boston. Ladies received in Reception Room. Estimates furnished for independent travel covering any desired route throughout Europe. Agents for all lines ocean steamers, and choice rooms secured. Plans of steamers, sailings, etc., on application. Correspondence solicited. 24-3m

ROXBURY TAPESTRY.
We are the largest retailers of this carpet in New England. The reputation that these celebrated goods have established is gaining more favor year by year. We will sell during the coming week 25 patterns at 75 cents per yard.

ART SQUARES.
Best Quality, All Wool,
24x3 yards.....$5.63
3x3 yards.....6.75
3x3 1/2 yards.....7.87
3x4 yards.....9.00

PARKER'S BEE HIVE,
278 Washington St., Boston.
29-41

CIVIL SERVICE.
A civil service examination of applicants for the limited clerical service of Newton will be held at an early date. Male Citizens who have been residents of Newton the past six months have a right to apply. Blank applications may be obtained of
I. F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk,

My Hat Blown Off!!
We are offering 10 Per Cent. Discount for 30 days on our Nobby Hats. No Humbug, real
HONEST BARGAINS. EVERY HAT WAR-
RENTED. Don't fail to secure a SPRING HAT
at a very Low Price.

THOMAS O'CALLAGHAN & CO.,
CARPETS.

WADDEN CARPET LINING,
5 rows stitching.....2 1-2c. per yd.
LOWELL BRUSSELS,
30 patterns.....$1.00 per yd.
LOWELL EXTRA SUPERS,
20 patterns.....62 1-2c. per yd.
EXTRA SUPERS,
20 patterns.....50c. per yd.
STRAW MATTING,
1,000 pieces, 40 yards in each,
$6.00 per roll.

Thomas O'Callaghan & Co.,
577, 579, 601 Washington St.

Real Estate. Mortgages. Insurance.

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale.
SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATES in the above villages.
Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES
OFFICES

J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

SAUL BROTHERS, Watch Makers, Jewelers

-AND-
OPTICIANS,
135 MOODY ST., LINCOLN BLOCK, WALTHAM.

Make a specialty of repairing Fine Watches and French Clocks.
We wish to call the attention of the people of Newton in regard to this branch of our business. We will call for and repair your French Clock and warrant it to give satisfaction or no charge.

References: C. F. EDDY, S. F. CATE, NEWTON GRAPHIC, ETC.
Drop us a Postal.

SAUL BROTHERS,
135 MOODY STREET, - WALTHAM.
E. U. SAUL. C. T. SAUL.

NEW HORSESHOEING SHOP. PATRICK B. FARREL & CO.,

(Formerly of Murray & Farrell.)
BROOK STREET, NEWTON.

With an experience of 21 years in Newton, much of the time with the great horseshoer of this vicinity, the late Mr. Nugent, and for the past 8 years a partner of the firm of Murray & Farrell, is feel-may properly ask for a share of the public patronage. Special care taken with shoeing over-reaching, interfering and tender-footed horses.

Alaska Refrigerator,
Best in the World. $3.50 to $60.
Baby Carriages,
Also an extensive line of medium and fine
FURNITURE, CARPETS AND RANGES.
Standard Furniture Co.,
23 WASHINGTON AND 87 FRIEND STREETS, BOSTON.
Reasonable Credit to Trustworthy Persons.

THOMAS O'CALLAGHAN & CO.,
CARPETS.

ROXBURY TAPESTRY.
We are the largest retailers of this carpet in New England. The reputation that these celebrated goods have established is gaining more favor year by year. We will sell during the coming week 25 patterns at 75 cents per yard.

ART SQUARES.
Best Quality, All Wool,
24x3 yards.....$5.63
3x3 yards.....6.75
3x3 1/2 yards.....7.87
3x4 yards.....9.00

PARKER'S BEE HIVE,
278 Washington St., Boston.
29-41

CIVIL SERVICE.
A civil service examination of applicants for the limited clerical service of Newton will be held at an early date. Male Citizens who have been residents of Newton the past six months
have a right to apply. Blank applications may be obtained of
I. F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk,

My Hat Blown Off!!
We are offering 10 Per Cent. Discount for 30
days on our Nobby Hats. No Humbug, real
HONEST BARGAINS. EVERY HAT WAR-
RENTED. Don't fail to secure a SPRING HAT
at a very Low Price.

THOMAS O'CALLAGHAN & CO.,
CARPETS.

WADDEN CARPET LINING,
5 rows stitching.....2 1-2c. per yd.
LOWELL BRUSSELS,
30 patterns.....$1.00 per yd.
LOWELL EXTRA SUPERS,
20 patterns.....62 1-2c. per yd.
EXTRA SUPERS,
20 patterns.....50c. per yd.
STRAW MATTING,
1,000 pieces, 40 yards in each,
$6.00 per roll.

Thomas O'Callaghan & Co., 577, 579, 601 Washington St.

ROXBURY TAPESTRY.
We are the largest retailers of this carpet in New England. The reputation that these celebrated goods have established is gaining more favor year by year. We will sell during the coming week 25 patterns at 75 cents per yard.

ART SQUARES.
Best Quality, All Wool,
24x3 yards.....$5.63
3x3 yards.....6.75
3x3 1/2 yards.....7.87
3x4 yards.....9.00

PARKER'S BEE HIVE,
278 Washington St., Boston.
29-41

CIVIL SERVICE.
A civil service examination of applicants for the limited clerical service of Newton will be held at an early date. Male Citizens who have been residents of Newton the past six months
have a right to apply. Blank applications may be obtained of
I. F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk,

My Hat Blown Off!!
We are offering 10 Per Cent. Discount for 30
days on our Nobby Hats. No Humbug, real
HONEST BARGAINS. EVERY HAT WAR-
RENTED. Don't fail to secure a SPRING HAT
at a very Low Price.

THOMAS O'CALLAGHAN & CO.,
CARPETS.

WADDEN CARPET LINING,
5 rows stitching.....2 1-2c. per yd.
LOWELL BRUSSELS,
30 patterns.....$1.00 per yd.
LOWELL EXTRA SUPERS,
20 patterns.....62 1-2c. per yd.
EXTRA SUPERS,
20 patterns.....50c. per yd.
STRAW MATTING,
1,000 pieces, 40 yards in each,
$6.00 per roll.

Thomas O'Callaghan & Co.,
577, 579, 601 Washington St.

NEWTONVILLE.

—C. Farley, Tuner, 433 Wash. St. Newton.
—Sale of house lots, Woodland, to-morrow. See adv.
—Master Harry Cabot has had lung fever, but is improving.
—Mr. G. H. Loomis is in town the early part of the week.
—Dr. Woodman has been quite sick, but is now out and about.
—Mr. Thomas Emerson is putting up a new house on Walker street.
—Dea. W. F. Slocum, who has been seriously ill, is now convalescing.
—Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Sylvester were in Washington this week.
—Work has been commenced on W. T. Hill's new house on Murray street.
—Mr. Rediff of Boston has leased Mr. E. K. Wilson's house on Walnut street.
—Congratulations for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Briggs, Watertown street. A boy.
—Mr. and Mrs. J. Michie, of Murray street are receiving congratulations. It is a boy.
—Pupils of Prof. Alsbury, the violinist, will give a musicale in Tremont Hall, next Tuesday evening.
—At the Universalist church there will be service at 10.45 a. m. Sunday. Subject "What is the Bible."

—New spring styles in fine boots and low shoes at Clapp's; fine goods as can be found in any Boston store.

—It is suggested that some photographer should be secured to take a picture of the Newtonville freight depot.

—Dr. and Mrs. William O. Hunt were "At home" last evening and received a large company of their friends.

—A delegation representing Norumbega tribe, I. O. R. M. will visit Ponemah tribe, Cambridgeport, Wednesday, May 27.

—The following letters are awaiting claimants at the post office: John L. Hibbett, Fred Rhoads, Mrs. Thomas Richardson.

—Clapp's shoe store is the centre of attraction for fine footwear. A great display of all the leading spring styles in fine boots and low shoes.

—The new butt for the flag staff arrived Wednesday from Oregon. It is a handsome red wood stick, 80 feet in length and will be soon placed in position.

—Work has been commenced on the new turn-out of New Street, below the Central Congregational church.

—Rev. Dr. Dunning occupied the pulpit of the Central Congregational church last Sunday. The regular morning service was followed by a service of communion.

—A regular communication of Dalhousie lodge, F. & A. M., will be held in Masonic Hall next Wednesday evening. The first degree will be conferred upon several candidates.

—The Newton Woman Suffrage League will have a meeting in the interest of Good Citizenship, next Monday evening in West Newton, with a number of prominent speakers.

—At the meeting of the Chieftains' league in Tremont Hall, next Wednesday evening, several candidates will receive the initiation degree. The hot pan dance will be omitted by request.

—Cards are out for a reception to Rev. and Mrs. R. A. White next Tuesday evening at 7.30 in the Universalist parlors, by the Goodwill Literary Union. A very pleasant evening is anticipated.

—Miss Mayo of Boston conducted a Christian Science meeting on Thursday evening at Mr. Bradshaw's, which brought together a large group of ladies and gentlemen deeply interested in her subject.

—There is a story floating about that Mrs. Williams has been in the habit of selling lager beer to high school boys. Mrs. Williams is indignant at the accusation and says that the statement is utterly false.

—Work on the drill shed on the high school grounds is being pushed forward as possible. All the foundation and piers have been laid and the carpenter commenced to cut the timbers yesterday morning.

—The second half of the 10-string match for the clock between Messrs. A. A. Savage and R. C. Bridgman will probably be rolled some evening next week. Mr. C. F. Shirley has announced his intention of challenging the winner.

—Petitions are in the local drug stores for signatures, asking the Boston & Albany to give ten trip tickets for a dollar instead of $1.30 as at present. The petitioners deserve to succeed, if only for their sublime faith that such a request will receive any attention.

—Rev. Samuel Jackson, formerly of Melrose, who succeeded Rev. G. S. Butters as pastor of the Methodist church, was given a reception by his parishioners at the residence of Mr. D. S. Sluipson, Newtonville avenue, Tuesday evening. It was a very pleasant affair.

—The Newton High school nine played its scheduled game with the Crescents of Newton Centre, on Walnut street field Wednesday afternoon. The home club was weak in fielding and the Crescents made a poor showing at the bat. It required six innings to settle the contest, the local nine capturing the game by a score of 12 to 11.

—The secret society meetings this week in Tremont Hall, included the local branch of the Ancient Order of United Workers, Monday evening; Norumbega tribe, E. M. U., Tuesday evening; Order of Egis, Wednesday evening; Knight and Ladies of Columbia, Thursday evening. The workmen initiated five new candidates.

—Mrs. Andrew Wellington spoke before the Woman's Guild Tuesday, May 5, 3 p. m., on "Our Three Poets," Bryant, Longfellow and Whitier, comparing and contrasting the literary work of each and giving a brief outline of their lives. Mrs. Wellington's remarks were warmly appreciated and she made quotations from so many poetical gems.

—The monthly meeting of the Co-operative bank was held Tuesday evening and $4450 sold—$3800 at 20 cents premium; $500 at 15 cents and $150 at 25 cents. In the series, 1300 shares have been sold, the largest number in a series since the incorporation of the bank. The business is increasing rapidly and $100,000 is now represented in the bank's loans on real estate in this city.

—The Newton Woman's Suffrage League are to hold a public meeting in the interest of good citizenship on Monday evening next in the Unitarian church, West Newton, at 7.45 p. m. Ex-Gov. Chaffin is to preside and Mrs. Julia Ward Howe will read a paper on Chivalry and Reform. Mrs. Lucy Stone, Mr. Blackwell and Senator Gilman are expected to speak. A large attendance is hoped for.

—The Nuclei Club met at the home of Mrs. R. D. Morehouse, Washington Park, on Friday afternoon. Mrs. A. M. Walton read a remarkable interesting paper on "The Real and Ideal in Politics." Mrs. Walton held the attention of the club in her own inimitable way, and the after discussion showed that many latent thoughts were awakened. Dr. A. M. Beecher, who was present, was especially helpful.

—The work of the Flower Mission will commence on May 19, for the summer. On Tuesday and Friday of each week ladies will receive flowers, fruit and vegetables that friends may donate before 9 o'clock in the morning. Committees to solicit and remind ladies of this section were appointed and the work of tying and sending flowers divided among the churches, a month to each church as in former seasons.

—Miss Nettie Chase and Mr. W. Henry Cotting were married Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's father on Austin street. The ceremony was private, only relatives and intimate friends being present. Rev. R. A. White officiated. After the ceremony, an informal reception was held and at its close the couple departed on their wedding tour. They will reside in Boston where the groom is engaged in business.

—The first prize of the Newton Club bowling tournament will consist of a fine silk umbrella for each member of the team, while the members of the team finishing second will be given five silver match safes. The individual championship contests have been decided upon the series already closed, and Capt. Shirley is the winner, with the excellent average of 165. He receives the individual prize, a pretty scarf pin of appropriate design, symbolizing the bowling craze.

—A game in the finals for first place in the Newton club bowling tournament was rolled last evening between teams 2 and 5. The rating of two men on team 5 and one man on team 2 was taken, resulting in the most injury to team 5, representing a loss of at least 125 pins. The four members of team 2 present put up a great game, Richards and Buswell excelling in the totals, the latter making a 10-frame score of 190. Grigg made some clever shots, and knocked down 186 pins in the first string. For team 5 the best work was done by Bridgman, whose total figured up 477 pins. The result of the match gives team 2 a lead of one game in the finals for first place. The score was 2254 for team 2 and 1962 for team 5, the former winning the match by 292 pins.

WEST NEWTON.

Farley rents pianos, 433 Wash. St. Newton.
—Sale of house lots, Woodland, to-morrow. See adv.

—The N. H. S. defeated the Allen school nine 35 to 10 yesterday afternoon at West Newton.

—Higgins & Nickerson are building a new house on the hill for Mr. George E. Crawley.

—Mrs. Bridget Greeley was fined $50 by Judge Kennedy yesterday for maintaining a liquor nuisance.

—Messrs. Fuller & French have sold Mr. G. E. Crawley's new house on Lenox street to Mr. D. W. Church.

—Harry I. Brett, formerly a clerk in the West Newton bank, has accepted a position as bookkeeper in the Shoe and Leather bank of Boston.

—Sixteen sidewalk loafers were fined in the police court Wednesday evening. Let us hope that the public walks will be less obstructed in the future.

—Mr. George Davis of Temple street, sailed from New York for London on Wednesday. He will be abroad for a short season of pleasure and sight seeing.

—Mrs. E. N. L. Walton and Mrs. Jane Hastings were guests of the Wellesley Hills Woman's Club at its annual meeting and reception Wednesday afternoon.

—Mr. M. J. Davis is at Townsend visiting Mrs. Proctor, a sister of the late Seth Davis, now nearly 96 years of age. The health of the aged lady is at present very feeble.

—The Newton Woman Suffrage League will have a meeting in the interest of Good Citizenship, next Monday evening in West Newton, with a number of prominent speakers.

—The recent sale of the "Lend a Hand" club at their rooms netted the sum of $203, giving the few young ladies who worked so zealously in this cause, ample reason to feel repaid for their efforts.

—Allen's school sent two contestants to the interscholastic tennis meet at Harvard, last Saturday. E. Hopkins was defeated by S. H. Henshaw, 6-3, 4-6. S. R. Hollander was beat by G. E. Brown of Duxbury, 6-0, 6-3.

—The Fiske Jubilee Singers will sing in the Congregational church this (Friday) evening at 7.45. Admission free, and all invited. A contribution will be received to aid in the erection of a new hall for the education of colored preachers.

—Rev. Mr. Pierce from Bardeazag, Turkey, will speak in the Congregational church on Monday evening at 7, and will present some stereoscopic views of missionary scenes, among which will be the school where Miss Sheldon is teaching and of whose work he will speak. The public cordially is invited.

—Capt. Pettigrew's nine has been challenged to play a series of games with the Newton Centre club to settle the dispute over the claim to the title of "Newton."

—The Newton Centre boys are willing to earn it, and if Capt. Pettigrew's men won't play, his team will probably be obliged to become contented with the title of West Newtons.

—The following letters are awaiting claimants at the post office: Edward L. Atkinson, Curtis Bellows, Mrs. Kate Carter, Dennis Casey, Mrs. Belle Clarke, J. E. Denning, Marie Ganderson, Mrs. Frank Greenwood, Katie Higgins, Lizzie Hothams, James Keating, Geo. Knowlton, A. A. Linton, Thomas Mulligan, Maggie McEachern, Mary Maldin, Hattie Perry, Wm. A. Sloan, G. W. True.

—The Newton Woman Suffrage League will hold a public meeting in the interest of Good Citizenship on Monday evening next, May 11 at 7.45 in the Unitarian church. Ex-Governor Claflin will preside. Mrs. Julia Ward Howe will speak on the "Divinity of Reform," and Mrs. Lucy Stone will be invited to present and speak. Mr. H. B. Blackwell is invited and expected, and Senator Gilman will probably speak on the necessity of a greater show of woman's interest in the management of our schools.

—The annual supper of the Women's Educational club will be held next Wednesday afternoon, in the parlors of the Unitarian church. Preceding the supper a meeting will be held for the choice of officers and transaction of business. At the table besides toasts and other enjoyable features of the occasion, each member is invited to state one thing she would do for Newton were she the governing power with unlimited means, or give a quotation from Emerson. Our city fathers will do well to hold a listening class.

—On the afternoon of May 9, the City Hall will be the scene of the annual May festival of the First Unitarian parish. The hall will be open at 2 o'clock and performances will begin at 2.30 and continue until 6 p. m. Besides the May pole dance, the program includes other fancy dances, illusions and Persian magic, callsthetic drill and general dancing for young people. Refreshments will be for sale. The entertainment promised is well worth the low price of admission; 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children under twelve.

—Newton lodge 92, I. O. O. F., observed the 73d anniversary of Odd Fellowship in an appropriate manner last Thursday evening. The exercises were held in Nickerson's hall and a large company of ladies and gentlemen were present. Three selections were finely rendered by the Harvard Ladies' quartet of Boston; solos were given by Miss Bruce and Miss Monroe; humorous readings and impersonations were given by Mr. Frank Reynolds, and remarks were made by Mr. Julius L. Clarke and Past Grand Master Levi F. Warren. The occasion gave rise in the history of the lodge as a most successful ladies' night, and the entertainment features were carried out under the direction of a committee comprising Messrs. G. E. Trowbridge, W. T. Rice and F. H. Hobart. The collation, one of the many agreeable features, was provided by Caterer Dill of Waltham.

This is the month when you need to buy a good, cold, sweet, dry Refrigerator. Then you can snap your fingers at summer and hot weather. A good refrigerator will easily last half a lifetime. Send to Paine's Furniture Co., 48 Canal street, Boston, for their Refrigerator Catalogue.

Little Ollie heard her sister Lula speaking of a diary, and having had it explained to her that a personal diary was a brief record of one's life, she exclaimed: "Well, then, I don't see what they want to call it a diary; for seems to me you oughter call it a livery."—(Boston Courier.)

AUBURNDALE.

—Sale of house lots, Woodland, to-morrow. See adv.

—C. E. Davis took charge of the Woodland Park Hotel stables, Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jones are living at her sister's, Mrs. Latimer's Hancock street.

—Rev. Mr. Adams' house near Mrs. Walker's is progressing rapidly.

—Baggage Master Cyrus Allen has purchased a fine promising black 4 year old colt.

—Mr. Spencer of Boston and five friends enjoyed boating on the river Monday afternoon.

—Mr. Albert H. Taylor has leased the house on the corner of Maple and Auburn street.

—Deacon Denison's grounds are being thoroughly prepared for a fine lawn and garden.

—Mr. Seth Johnson of Melrose has moved into Albert Wright's house on Auburn street.

—Mrs. A. H. Warren, who has been living at Mrs. Latimer's on Hancock street, has moved out of town.

—Mr. H. L. Hartwell and party of 30 from Boston have engaged six boats at Partelow's for next Saturday.

—Engineer Wallace and family, who have been residing on Lexington street, have removed to South Boston.

—Mr. Moses Richardson of the Vendome, Boston, has taken his usual summer apartments at the Woodland Park Hotel.

—Mr. C. G. Tinkham has added a handsome Judkins landau, one of the finest in the city, to his livery stock this week.

—Mrs. Chas. Edw'd Parker and family are temporarily in her mother's late residence, Mrs. Jennings, Hancock street.

—Mr. W. I. Goodrich is greatly improving the appearance of his residence on Central street by newly graded grounds.

—Mr. Black of Boston, and a party of 15 enjoyed the beauties of the Charles river Wednesday, taking boats from Partelow's.

—Mr. C. G. Bullard and family, who have resided in the Churchill house on Hancock street, have removed from town this week.

—Mrs. H. A. Thorndike returned last week from Austin, Texas, to her home on Ash street, after a pleasant visit to friends.

—Mr. W. M. Ferris of Newton has purchased a handsome new square stem lap row boat and keeps it at Partelow's boat house.

—E. V. Barkers has sold his stable and hack business to Thomas F. Melody of Waltham, and Mr. Barkers is at work in a stable in Waltham.

—Mrs. Lowell Smith died suddenly last Monday, the cause of death being a cancer. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon from the house.

—Rev. Isaac T. Bagnoll of Kansas will preach at the Church of the Messiah on Sunday next. Morning service at 10.45; afternoon service at 4.15.

—Rev. M. Gutterston and family will soon occupy the house on Hancock street lately owned by Capt. Haskell. It has been somewhat enlarged.

—Mrs. Mary Cunningham of Freeman street died Monday, consumption being the fatal disease. She had been ill for over a year. The funeral was held Wednesday.

—Have we a Band of Mercy in Auburn-dale? was significantly asked at a short time since, when two girls belonging to excellent families actually stoned to death two little dumb animals.

—The following letters await claimants at the post office: H. H. Bacon, James Day, Miss Sophia L. Eli, George P. Guertin, Miss Mary Powell, Gardiner O. Shaw, Mrs. J. Willett.

—Mrs. E. H. Walker of the Missionary Home, Hancock street, has purchased the adjoining estate of Capt. Haskell and will have it remodeled as an annex to the present home.

—H. V. Partelow & Co. are to enlarge the capacity of their canoe storage by taking in one half of the present covered floating space. It will be floored and doors cut through to the water. This will leave a small covered floating space, and the new room will store about 80 canoes and light craft.

—On Tuesday evening after dark fifty-five tulips of rare varieties were pulled from their stalks in a garden on Hancock street. The footsteps of children testify to their agency in the matter. Is there any redress or protection? Must we this early in our history adopt the high wall and iron gate in order to preserve our flowers?

—Assistant baggage master Crandell was quite badly injured Wednesday afternoon, in getting off the train from Boston. In stepping from the train he made a misstep in some way and was struck on the head by the cars. He was picked up unconscious and taken to his home and Dr. F. E. Porter was called.

—In stepping from the train he made a misstep in some way and was struck on the head by the cars. He was picked up unconscious and taken to his home and Dr. F. E. Porter was called. It was found to have received a slight concussion of the brain and his arm and side were considerably bruised. He remained in an unconscious state for about twenty-four hours. He was more comfortable last night and this morning, his condition is quite favorable.

—Monday afternoon was devoted to the saving of property far and near by hose 5 and there was no complaint from Driver Williams, the hose or the hosemen. The time hung heavy on their hands. The work did not commence until after 2 o'clock and the first was a still alarm for a slight brush fire down back of Severus street. This was put out by an alarm from box 42 for a brush fire on Central avenue, which caught from a locomotive spark. Third on the list was box 47, and hose 5 boys found a lively blaze going in the woods near the corner of Woodland avenue and Washington street, opposite the hotel lawn. Box 73 for a fire in Newton Centre came in, but hose 5 rested a few moments, as that is not in their run on first alarm, and did not look for any more excitement until 11.30, when a still alarm called them with steamer 2 and hose 6 to Rice's crossing, where about 300 cords of sawed and split sleepers down in the gravel pit were burned and several cars damaged. Since then Driver Williams has been cleaning up.

—Major Gratwick of the English Rifle Team with Major Marion and wife from Brighton came Friday May 1st, with Major Benyon to see the military drill, and were entertained by Mr. Shepherd at a very choice lunch. Major Benyon made acquaintance with Major Gratwick last year at the International Rifle Match when the Americans won the cup.

—Saturday evening May 2, the faculty invited a company from all parts of Newton, Boston and other adjacent towns to meet the Senior and Junior classes at an evening reception. The evening passed very agreeably.

—Friday evening May 1st, Miss Ellen U. Clark gave her second lecture before the school upon Percy Bysshe Shelley.

—Monday May 4, Mrs. Oakes took dinner at the school and made a short speech in the chapel, commending the success of a large number of the pupils in cooking.

—The names of those who gained 100 in the examination papers, as well as a number who received other high marks, were read aloud and the general interest recognized.

—In the evening Mr. Hills held the second of his special musical rehearsals before a large and appreciative audience.

—Tuesday evening, May 5, Rev. Dr. Crawford from the Methodist Episcopal church, Bromfield street, Boston, also Chaplain of the U. S. Navy, held the second of his evening prayer meetings.

—Rev. Dr. Chas. Parkhurst, editor of Zion's Herald, is now giving his usual spring lecture upon the "Gospels of Christianity to the Senior class."

M. F. MCCARTHY & CO.,

Wholesale Florists of 1 Music Hall Place, have taken the Store

129 KINGSTON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.,

Where they will hold their Regular Spring Sale of

Bedding Plants

EVERY

Wednesday and Saturday, at 10 A.M.

UNTILL JUNE 20th.

A fine assortment of all Varieties on Exhibition daily.

SODS, LOAM,

GRAVEL AND STONE

FOR

DRY WELLS, DRIVEWAYS AND

FOUNDATIONS.

APPLY TO

H. B. PARKER,

GROVE HILL, NEWTONVILLE.

Mrs. F. A. THOMSON,

MILLINERY.

Morning orders will receive prompt attention. HATS DYED AND PRESSED

CENTRE STREET, NEWTON, MASS.

OPPOSITE BANK.

SPRING

HAS COME

AND SO HAVE

CLAPP'S

NEW SPRING STYLES

—IN—

FINE BOOTS

—AND—

Low Shoes.

YOU SHOULD SEE THEM.

They are Nobby.

ASSOCIATE'S

BLOCK,

NEWTONVILLE.

CENTRAL

DRY GOODS CO.

Spring Dress Goods

CORRECT STYLES AT THE RIGHT

PRICES. EXCLUSIVE PATTE NS

THAT YOU WILL NOT FIND

ELSEWHERE.

MEN'S OUTFITTING DEPT.

Goods and Styles not surpassed by any house in Boston. The correct things in

NECKWEAR.

CENTRAL

Dry Goods Co.,

107 to 109 Moody Street,

WALTHAM.

CITY OF

NEWTON.

MILK INSPECTION.

CITY HALL, West Newton, Mass.

In accordance with Chapter 57, Section 1 of the Public Statutes, I hereby give notice that I have been appointed Milk Inspector for the City of Newton. All licenses must be renewed before the 1st day of June. All persons selling milk not licensed or registered must be registered at this office before that date. Blank forms of applications can be obtained by applying to me at

City Hall, West Newton, Mass. Office hours, 8.15 to 10.15 a. m.

W. S. FRENCH,

Milk Inspector.

Do You Suffer With

PILES?

TRY THE GERMAN PILE CURE.

Safe and Reliable.

25 Cents a Box. For Sale at Hudson's, Newton;

Payne's and Guadalupe's, Newtonville. 30 ct

GRAND OPENING.

Our recent importations of Special Designs in BRASS AND IRON BEDSTADS, exclusive patterns not to be found elsewhere, will be on exhibition Monday Morning at our warehouses, No. 70 Washington Street; all who appreciate the beautiful will be amply repaid by inspection. Eighty patterns from $5 to $250 each; this is our business; we make a specialty of it; we are headquarters for these goods. Fine Bedding.

H. W. BIGELOW COMPANY,

Importers and Manufacturers.

Telephone No. 350.

MINER ROBINSON,

ELECTRICIAN.

199 Washington Street, Sears' Building, Boston. Residence, West Newton.

Private Residences fitted for

THE HOSPITAL TRUSTEES.

REPLY TO THE STATEMENTS MADE IN THE INTERESTS OF THE MEDICAL BOARD.

The appended statement is made by the members of the board of trustees of the Cottage Hospital, whose resignations were tendered at the meeting of the board last Friday afternoon:

THE STATEMENT.

"The resignation of the clerk of the corporation, the treasurer and some members of the finance and building committees of the Newton Cottage Hospital, tendered this day, complicates matters, and adds new difficulties to the already overburdened Charity Hospital. The communications to the public press in interest of the medical board makes it expedient to set forth the other side of the controversy.

"The position taken by the retiring gentlemen was taken after mature deliberation, and with full sense of the responsibility involved and of the possible danger to the hospital for which they had earnestly labored.

"The trouble between the medical board and the executive committee, which occurred last December, was the non-appointment by the medical board of Dr. McIntosh to his accustomed place on the medical staff, which was said to have occurred from the violation of two rules of the hospital on the part of Dr. McIntosh of Newton; and a want of professional courtesy on his part in not exchanging calls with his homoeopathic brethren.

"Dr. McIntosh, who succeeded the late Dr. Keith, is a homoeopathic physician of the Hahnemannian school of practice, and enjoys the enviable position of attending the largest homoeopathic practice within the city, numbering among his patients many of the wealthy families of Newton.

"Dr. McIntosh has always taken a deep interest in the hospital and intended to comply with every known rule, and when notice was given of non-compliance, he was swift to ask pardon for the unintentional violation, and careful to avoid further offense. It would seem to a disinterested person that he had done all that could be asked of him, and that friendly intercourse between him and his professional brethren should thereafter prevail. When the medical board in December nominated the medical staff, for 1891, and presented the same to the ex-committee, they left off the name of Dr. McIntosh.

"The executive committee, feeling that the appointment of Dr. McIntosh to the medical staff would be an act of simple justice in view of what had transpired, asked that he be restored to the staff. They would not have asked for the restoration if the action of the medical board in dropping him had been based upon any charges reflecting upon his character or his influence as a physician.

"Their request was declined by the medical board who, subsequently finding that his friends and supporters would not be satisfied to have him thus slighted without cause, offered him a position of consulting physician. This position his friends upon the committee declined to accept, as it was practically laying him upon the shelf. In the controversy which followed the medical board resigned, refusing to occupy an advisory position.

"To satisfy the doctors and also to secure for the hospital their cooperation in management, a change was made in the executive committee and four physicians, two from each school of medical practice, was added to the committee. To further satisfy them it was voted unanimously to transfer to the doctors full power and control over all matters medical and sanitary, intending thereby to place into their hands everything medical except appointing the medical staff, in which duty they joined with the other members of the committee and which was all they could reasonably ask for or desire.

"Having yielded to the doctors, it was supposed that harmony would prevail and justice be done. Dr. McIntosh by restoring him to the medical staff, but not so, not only would the doctors not nominate him, but they would not consent to his appointment in 1891.

"The contest from this point is of special importance.

"The doctors were determined that he should not be appointed, and his friends were equally determined that their friend and family physician, whose office, if office it can be called, had been fully atoned for in the only manner open to an honorable gentleman, that he should not be made the victim of jealousy and the hospital deprived of his valuable services simply to gratify personal animosities.

"The contest had passed the stage where the violation of rules of the hospital formed the motive for his rejection. All attempts to bring those matters to the front was only to blind the eyes to the true intent and purpose of this contest, which is a determination on the part of the doctors to control all appointments upon the medical staff, to control all things medical connected with the hospital and to deny to the executive committee, the trustees and the corporation any right to choose therein. It is a complete overturning of the basis upon which the hospital was founded.

"Dr. Hunt voiced the matter truly when he said, 'the reason the allopaths took up the contest was because there is a principle involved which is of vital importance.' . . . 'the principle that medical men should have the sole charge of the medical service without interference from the laity.' . . . 'Interfere with the doctors and they will retire.' 'They claim the right to choose their own associates.'

"Here is the whole matter in a nutshell, and it is around this the whole question revolves. The trustees and executive committee may find the money to run the hospital, but the doctors must manage its affairs.

"When the Newton Cottage Hospital corporation was formed it was the distinct understanding that in the administration of its affairs the broadest and most catholic spirit should prevail, that patients should be permitted to enjoy the ministrations of any school of medicine and the comfort of any religion they might desire.

"Until April 6, 1891, the by-laws did not limit the choice, then upon motion of Dr. Scates the corporation voted to limit the medical staff to members of the Massachusetts Medical Society, and the Massachusetts Homoeopathic Medical Society. At the time of the passage of this amendment which was passed again to please the doctors, it was not known that this vote debared Dr. McIntosh from all connection with the medical staff, nor that the action of Dr. Scates in moving the amendment was for the purpose of preventing the executive committee from appointing him on the staff in 1891.

"It was later discovered that last September Dr. McIntosh made application to the Massachusetts Homoeopathic Medical Society for membership. The by-laws of the society require all applications to be indorsed by two members of the society and be submitted to and passed by the board of censors three months before consideration by the society at each semi-annual meeting in April and October.

"His application was indorsed by Dr. Scates at Newton and Dr. Kimball of Boston, and duly presented to the secretary of the society.

"On the day before the meeting of the board of censors in January last, Dr. Scates without notice to Dr. McIntosh withdrew his endorsement from the application. This withdrawal, as stated by Dr. Scates in his letter to the secretary of the society, was a temporary withdrawal only, and came too late for the secretary, as he says, to notify Dr. McIntosh in time for him to supply an indorsement before the meeting of the board of censors the next day.

"The first knowledge which Dr. McIntosh had of this matter was April 9, when upon inquiring of the secretary as to his election to membership, he learned that his name had not come before the society.

"Upon hearing these facts Dr. McIntosh's friends at once called a meeting of the corporation, intending asking the restoration of article 13 of the by-laws to its unrestricted form, but the allopathic doctors objected to the withdrawal of the amendment, and consented to a further amendment by adding the name of the Hahnemannian Association, an association composed of physicians of the homoeopathic school. The requirements for membership therein are very strict, and the association is in every way worthy of recognition. Dr. McIntosh is a member of the association.

"The meeting of the corporation was held April 24, at which time the proposed amendment, at which time the doctors, with their friends to the number of 27, including those who had consented to the new amendment, voted not to accept the amendment, while Dr. McIntosh and his friends to the number of 49, voted yes.

"The necessary two-thirds vote not being obtained the motion was lost. A further protest signed by the doctors was read at the meeting, showing they were bound to 'rule or retire' and leave the hospital and the sick to care for themselves. Under these circumstances some of the gentlemen who have given to the hospital their money and wise judgment, making the hospital a success, felt that the time had come for them to retire and leave the financial as well as the medical interests in the hands of the doctors and their friends.

"If the financial interests are endangered and upwards of $25,000 of present and prospective donations, pledged to the hospital upon condition that Dr. McIntosh be reinstated, are withdrawn, and the once harmonious charity is riven, the doctors and their friends must assume the responsibility. The many friends of the hospital who love its cause anxiously await the result."

Parks and Playgrounds.

President J. R. Leeson read an interesting paper on parks and playgrounds at the annual meeting of the Newton Centre Improvement Association. In treating the general subject the speaker cited Paris as being pre-eminent among the great cities in relation to its provision of public parks, comprising an acreage of 15-12 acres per 1000 inhabitants. Vienna, he said, was second in respect of acreage of park lands to population, and Tokio, Japan, third, and in advance of every American city. Chicago being first in this country, with 5-3-5 acres of park space per thousand inhabitants.

Parks, said Mr. Leeson, are recognized as essentials of development in every community. It is the misfortune of many old settled cities and towns to have become thickly inhabited, he added, before an appreciation of the value of parks. Shall we in Newton, he asked, have the wisdom to avail ourselves of the advantages now offered while our community is still sparsely settled? The investment of $1 now in the provision of playgrounds or parks may not only procure the equivalent in purchasing power of $2 a few years hence, but also give large immediate returns in health and refining influences.

An aspect of the question and one closely related to it is the subject of surface drainage. It is probable that in Newton, aside from the benefits of open spaces, the most tangible results in procuring healthful conditions may be obtained through a comprehensive system of surface drainage. Every sluggish stream, motionless pond and stagnant swamp should be started into activity, transforming what is now a source of miasma and disease germs in our midst into cleansing ducts, carrying away whatever is unsightly and unclean.

The citizens of Newton, he having provided space for a playground (dimensions sufficient for a large portion of the city, now ask that, as a part of a complete system of surface drainage, measures may be taken by the city government which will thoroughly drain the area secured. Such a method of treatment need not involve large expenditures at present, and by making all that is done available in conjunction with such a system as is suggested, healthfulness and economy may be combined. Even this work, however, may to some appear to involve larger outlays than judicious policy warrants.

It is well to bear in mind, said the speaker, that in a municipality nothing produces such substantial returns to taxpayers in the long run as those methods which secure to the entire community the most attractive surroundings, and conditions the most favorable to comfort and health. The solution of other problems, important though they be, may well enough be deferred until the prime necessities of life are secured—pure water and perfect drainage. Sanitarians generally concur in the opinion that no drainage system which fails to provide for surface requirements in addition to ordinary sewer drains even approximately approaches the ideal.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Eli's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped to be cured, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Do You Cough?

Don't delay. Take Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. It will cure your coughs and colds. It will cure sore throat or a tickling in the throat. It will cure pains in the chest. It will cure influenza and bronchitis and all diseases pertaining to the lungs because it is a pure balsam. Hold it to the light and see how clear and thick it is. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

Toothache, every ache from Johnson's Anodyne Liniment as from the wrath to come.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

BOSTON THEATRE.—"The Soudan" is again booming. The Boston Theatre holds large audiences at every performance, and the demand for seats in advance indicates the great public interest in this play. Upon the occasion of the 150th performance last week, a handsome souvenir was given to every lady present on that evening. It was in the form of a sketch book, filled with pencil drawings by several different artists, showing the characters, scenery and incidents of the play, as well as vignettes and thumb-nail sketches of the English and Soudanese localities in which the action of the play takes place. Matinees are announced for Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

GLOBE THEATRE.—On Monday, May 4, Francis Wilson and his company of popular comic opera favorites began a return engagement at the Globe Theatre in that remarkably successful operetta, "The Merry Monarch," which, according to the common report, has been setting a financial standard in the matter of receipts in all the leading cities of the country, which other theatrical organizations will find it extremely difficult to beat. The present engagement will be the last that the company will play in Boston until the year 1893, as arrangements have been made for the Wilson company to take possession of the Broadway Theatre, New York, next October, and establish itself there as a permanent New York organization. The company returned to this city without a single change in the cast, and with the brilliancy of the elaborate production undiminished. The sale of seats began Tuesday morning.

HOLLIS STREET THEATRE.—Richard Golden in "Old Jed Prouty," accompanied by Dora Wiley "The Sweet Singer of Maine," will follow Barry and Fay at the Hollis Street Theatre next week. The piece is intensely interesting, with a strong dramatic situation. Mr. Golden is a big success in the role and is supported by a good company of players. The sale of seats for the engagement began yesterday. Augustus Duly's comedy company is booked for its annual engagement at the Hollis, beginning Monday May 18.

TREMONT THEATRE.—The eminent English actor, Mr. E. S. Willard, commenced his engagement at the Tremont Theatre Monday May 4th. Mr. Willard, by common and universal consent of the critics of New York, and most enthusiastically so by the ablest of the journalistic guild, is an actor of the most eminent culture and refinement of art. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 4, 5, 6, he was seen in his marvellous dual role in Joseph Hatton's new drama, "John Needham's Double," pronounced a superb piece of realistic acting. The latter half of the week Mr. Willard appeared in his grand and effective assumption in "The Middleman," which was well received, and will be sure to win appreciation equal to Mr. Willard's other offerings. All the plays will be superbly set, and an engagement of great prosperity is confidently expected, and will be deserved.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE GRAPHIC.

Dear Sir:—As we have now a new superintendant of streets, I should like to say a word in regard to the improvement of the streets that observation suggests to me. For many years we have noticed carts with men perambulating the streets, men creeping round about for stones most of them so small that we think fast to call them pebble stones. Eight years ago we took a handful from the streets and found them to be mostly of this size. We spoke of the injudicious wastefulness, (as appeared to us) to the superintendent of streets and he replied that he was proud for that more than for anything else.

When in England, before the introduction of iron rails and steamers, we noticed that on the roads, the small stones taken from the roads and surface were thrown in piles every half mile or so with a suitable block and a man with a ring in his left hand, in a row of the best possible material to even all depressions or small holes in the road, which was done soon as discovered. In this way the road was kept serving a good hard road shedding the water to gutters and for a much longer period and at much less cost than is probably the treatment common with us.

We allow our roads to get nearly flat, and for a long time remain so, soaked by all the water that falls and growing worse and worse until the gutters getting filled with mud, making the whole over anew a cost far greater than to keep a road even all the time by the use of small stones. This leads us to speak of the catch basins. We are told there are more than sixteen hundred, (we think more) in the city, and that they are as many as half that number we have noticed out of some of these 20 loads a year, taken up and put in the city. It has seemed to us that in the matters that the city needs of such much more skill in adapting to circumstances.

T. H. C.

Every traveler should have Johnson's Anodyne Liniment in their satchel. Safe and reliable.

It won't cost you one-half as much. Do not delay. Send two-cent stamps for postage, and we will send you Dr. Kauffmann's Catarrh Cure, which will cure you of catarrh of the bladder, its causes and home cure. Address, A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know what to do with a cold. He says:—

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co., Gentlemen:—I have been using your Catarrh Cure for more than 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, which with one blow cures the disease in all my cases, and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly,
L. L. GORSUCH, M. D.
Office, 215 Summit St.
We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that we can be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.
Solely Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Cancer Can be Cured, and by Dr. James M. Solomon, Jr. 75 Cent.
Boston, Mass.

Boston, Aug. 26, 1890.
Dr. Solomon has cured a cancer of my lip of seventeen years' standing, it was cut out twice, by what they call eminent surgeons, at intervals of six years, after being cut out each time I knew by the feeling it was still there, and it would be now if I had not been so fortunate as to have Dr. Solomon treat it, he did it without any cutting. I would urge those afflicted with cancer not delay, but to go at once and be cured permanently, as I have done. My dear Doctor I thank from the bottom of my heart.

JOHN HALLAHAN,
78 Charlestown Street.

Catarrh of the Bladder.
I had been troubled since 1869 with Gravel and Catarrh of the Bladder. Tried several doctors, but got no relief. Finally, at the advice of E. D. W. Parsons, I was prevailed upon to try Dr. Day's Kidney & Bladder Remedy. The result was marvelous. After using a few bottles, was entirely cured. S. N. Arnold, No. 563 Plymouth Avenue, Rochester, N. Y.

City of Newton. City of Newton.

ASSESSORS' NOTICE.
The inhabitants of the City of Newton, and all other persons liable to pay taxes therein, are hereby required to bring in to the Assessors of said Newton, on any day from

May First, to the Fifteenth Day of June, Next,

true lists of all their Polls (males, 20 years old and upwards), and schedules and estimates of their personal estates, not exempted from taxation.

ASSESSMENT OF WOMEN.

Chap. 196, Acts of 1889.
The Assessors or Assistant Assessors shall, in the month of May or June in each year, visit each dwelling-house or building and make true lists of all women twenty years of age and upwards, who shall in writing over their own signatures, request the Assessors to assess them for a "poll tax," and it shall be the duty of the Assessors to inquire at each such dwelling house or building for such written request for assessment, which must give the name in full—age, occupation, and residence May 1st, 1890. All women desiring to be assessed for a poll tax should have their written request for such assessment in the form required by the act of 1889, ready for delivery to the Assessors when they shall visit the house where they dwell. Each request shall be upon a separate sheet signed by the applicant with her name in full. No application for the assessment of a woman for a poll tax will be received by mail or in any other than the manner provided by said Chapter 196, except by filing in the office of the Assessors the list provided by Section 12 of Chapter 208, of Acts of 1884, as amended by Chapter 200, of Acts of 1888.

Persons holding estates in trust, whether for minors or otherwise, are particularly requested to furnish the Assessors with statements in relation to such estates.

When estates of persons deceased have been divided during the past year, or have changed hands from other causes, the Executors, Administrators, Trustees, or other persons interested, are required and warned to give notice of such change; and in default of such notice will be held to pay the tax assessed, although such estate has been wholly distributed and paid over.

Returns of Property Held for Literary, Benevolent, Charitable, or Scientific Purposes.

In accordance with the requirements of Chapter 217, Acts of 1882, all persons and corporations are hereby required to bring in to the Assessors of Newton on any day from May first to the fifteenth day of June next, true lists of all real and personal estates held by such persons and corporations respectively for literary, benevolent, charitable, or scientific purposes on the first day of May, 1891, together with statements of the amount of all receipts and expenditures by such person or corporation for said purpose during the year next preceding said first day of May; such lists and statements to be in such detail as may be required by the tax commissioner.

MORTGAGED REAL ESTATE.

Chap. 175, Acts of 1882, Sec. 1.
Any mortgagee or mortgagee of Real Estate may bring in to the Assessors of the town or city where such Real Estate lies, at the time specified for bringing in the list as provided in Section thirty-eight of Chapter eleven of the Public Statutes, a statement under oath, of the amount due on each separate lot or parcel of such Real Estate, and the name and residence of every holder of an interest therein as a mortgagee or mortgagor. When such property is situated in two or more places, or when a record mortgage includes for one sum two or more estates or parts of an estate, an estimate of the amount of the mortgagee's interest in each estate or parts of an estate shall be given in such statement. The Assessors shall, from such statements or otherwise, ascertain the proportionate parts of such estates that are the interests of mortgagees and mortgagors, respectively, and shall assess the same. Whenever, in any case of mortgaged Real Estate, a statement is not brought in as herein provided, no tax for the then current year on such Real Estate shall be invalidated for the reason that a mortgagee's interest therein has not been assessed to him.

SHIPPING.

Shipping and business income are not taxable to a firm, but each resident partner must include these items in his individual return. Owners of ships and vessels engaged in the foreign carrying trade, are referred to Sections 8 and 9, of Chapter 11 of the Public Statutes, for the form of return required to obtain exemption from taxation upon the valuation of such property. Said returns to be made to the Assessors on or before June first.

Any person bringing in a list of all his taxable personal property will be assessed upon the valuation thereof, and any person neglecting to furnish the Assessors with such list within the time above specified, will be deemed at a legal meeting of the Board of Assessors agreeably to the laws of this Commonwealth.

All persons will take notice that statements of personal property must be in writing and subscribed and sworn to before the Assessors on or before the fifteenth day of June, and that the Personal Property of all taxable persons must be estimated by the Board, notwithstanding any verbal statement or informal written communication to any one or more of the Assessors.—Pub. Stat. Chap. 11, Sec. 39 and 41. When a person has failed to bring in a list or schedule of all his taxable property, in conformity to this notice, no abatement of a tax assessed on Personal Estate to such person can be granted, "unless such tax exceeds by more than fifty per cent. the amount which would have been assessed to that person on Personal Estate if he had seasonably brought in said list; and if said tax exceeds by more than fifty per cent. the said amount, the abatement shall be only of the excess above the said fifty per cent.—Pub. Statutes, Chap. 11, Sec. 75.

The Assessors will be in session at their office, in the City Hall, in the City of Newton, on the 6th, 13th, 20th, and 27th days of May, and the 3d, 10th, and 17th days of June next, from 3 to 5 o'clock, P. M.

Blank schedules will be furnished on application to any of the assessors.

SAMUEL M. JACKSON, Assessor of the City of Newton.
HAROLD B. COFFIN, Assessor of the City of Newton.
CHARLES A. MINER, Assessor of the City of Newton.

Newton, April 26, 1891.

LOG LICENSES EXPIRE April 30, 1891,
And all persons owning or keeping a dog or dogs in Newton after that date, without license, are liable to be proceeded against for violation of the law. The fine in such cases is $15.00 and costs, amounting to about $25.00. See Chap. 102 of the Public Statutes.

I. F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

A. HODGDON, Whitening, Whitewashing, and Tinting.

Work Guaranteed First Class in every respect.

Orders may be left at Barber Bros. Hardware Store, opp. Library or at Residence.

Cor. Centre and Jefferson Sts., Newton 27.

Mortgagee's Sale of Personal Property.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage of personal property given by Edward Angell to Eliot W. Keyes, dated December 15, 1890, and recorded in Records of Mortgages of Personal Property in the Clerk's Office of the City of Newton, lib. 10, folio 300, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction, to wit: at the corner of Auburn and Ash streets in Auburndale

on Wednesday, May 20th

at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, all and singular the goods and chattels described in said mortgage, consisting of one New York meat block, one ordinary meat block, one bench, one marble counter, one stove, one platform scale, two sets of spring balance scales, two marble slabs, two meat saws, three knives, two cleavers, two large draw curtains, small curtains, one desk, two chairs, one stove, and other tools and fixtures; also one bay horse about twelve years old weighing about nine hundred and fifty pounds, one other express wagon, one single harness, with whips, robe, etc., and all other property covered by said mortgage. Terms cash.

ELLIOT W. KEYES, Mortgagee.

B. S. Tolman, Auctioneer.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Elizabeth A. G. Wilbur to the Waltham Co-operative Bank dated September 28th, 1889, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, No. Dist. lib. 1033, folio 531, will be sold at public auction, on the premises, on Monday the eighteenth day of May 1891,

at three o'clock, in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, to wit: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon in West Newton bounded westerly by land now or late of Crafts there measuring one hundred and fifty feet northerly by Lot No 16 on a plan drawn by Marshall S. Rice dated Sept. 24th, 1869, there measuring one hundred feet; northeasterly by a forty foot street called Sharon Avenue there measuring one hundred and five feet; southeasterly by land now or late of Murry, being Lot No. 14 on said plan there measuring one hundred and fifty feet; and westerly by a street called Sharon Avenue there measuring one hundred and fifty feet. Said parcel is shown on a copy of the above mentioned plan on record in Middlesex Co. Dist. Registry of Deeds in Plan Book 38, Plan 28.

$100.00 will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of sale, the balance within ten days thereafter.

WALTHAM CO-OPERATIVE BANK, Mortgagee.

Waltham, April 23rd, 1891.

C. F. French, Att'y for Mortgagee.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, ss. PROBATE COURT.

To the next of Kin, Creditors, and all other Persons interested in the Estate of Michael Bryson late of Newton in said County, deceased, Intestate:

Whereas, application has been made to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased, to Francis Buttrick of Waltham in the County of Middlesex. You are hereby cited to appear at the Probate Court, to be held at Lowell in said County of Middlesex, on the third Tuesday of May next at nine o'clock before noon, to show cause, if any you have, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Newton Graphic printed at Newton the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE M. BROOKS, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-eighth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

J. H. TYLER, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, ss. PROBATE COURT.

To the next of Kin, Creditors, and all other Persons interested in the Estate of Thomas Kanny late of Newton in said County, deceased, Intestate:

Whereas, application has been made to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased, to William B. Young of Newton in the County of Middlesex. You are hereby cited to appear at the Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the fourth Tuesday of May next at nine o'clock before noon, to show cause, if any you have, against granting the same.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Newton Graphic printed at Newton the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE M. BROOKS, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this thirtieth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

J. H. TYLER, Register.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

That the Subscriber has been duly appointed Executor of the will of John D. Lovering late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate, and has taken upon herself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

SARAH H. B. LOVERING, Exec.

April 29, 1891.

PROFIT GUARANTEED
Pierce Loan & Investment Co.
(INCORPORATED) TACOMA, WASH.
CAPITAL $100,000.
Stocks, Bonds and Mortgage Loans.
Make investments in Real Estate for non-residents in sums of $100 one hundred dollars and upwards and guarantee profit. Write for free information, maps, &c. EBEN PIERCE, President.

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

INCORPORATED 1831.
Bank Hours: from 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.; on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Office in the Newton National Bank.
GEORGE HYDE, President.
JOHN WARD, Vice President.

MISS SUSANNA M. DUNCKLEE, Treas.
Trustees: Joseph N. Bacon, James F. C. Hyde, David Laney, Francis Mudgett, Wm. Henry Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, Edward W. Adams, K. Tolman, C. F. Eddy, Lyman K. Purney, Committee of Investment—Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickett, Dwight Chester, Samuel Bernard, Fred E. Crockett.

Open for business daily, 8.30 to 11 a. m.
Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and October.

West Newton Savings Bank

Incorporated 1887.
West Newton, Mass.

AUSTIN R. MITCHELL, President.
JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treasurer.

ALFRED L. BARBOUR, Clerk.
Trustees—Austin R. Mitchell, Benj. F. Houghton, Dwight Chester, Edward L. Pickett, Proctor C. Bridgman, Samuel Bernard, Fred E. Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, Edward W. Adams, K. Tolman, C. F. Eddy, Lyman K. Purney, Committee of Investment—Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickett, Dwight Chester, Samuel Bernard, Fred E. Crockett.

Open for business daily, 8.30 to 11 a. m.
Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and October.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XIX.—NO. 32.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MAY 15 1891.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR.

McFARLIN'S
CHINA PARLOR.
CHINA AND GLASS.
LOW PRICES RULE
AT 39 FRANKLIN STREET.

McFARLIN'S CHINA PARLOR,
39 Franklin St., Boston.
125 Decorations in Hand and Co's.
DINNER SETS.
Also a full line of goods suitable for Shore and Country Houses.
TOILET SETS.
75 DECORATIONS IN

McFARLIN'S CHINA PARLOR.
GAME SETS, FISH SETS, CREAM SETS.
Fancy Goods Suitable for Wedding Presents.
30-41

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE,
637 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton
Hours—Until 9 A. M., 1 to 3 p.m.

Dr. F. L. McIntosh,
Corner of Washington and Jewett St.
(Office of the late Dr. Keith.)
Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home
until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. P. Wesselhoft, and Dr.
James B. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 46-2.

Dr. D. E. Baker,
227 Walnut Street, Newtonville.
Office Hours: 2 to 4 P. M. and evenings (except Tuesdays and Fridays), 7 to 8.
At Newton Lower Falls
Tuesday and Friday evenings, 7 to 9.
Telephone, Newtonville, 26-4. 35-1

Mr. H. B. Day,
TEACHER OF
PIANO-FORTE, CHURCH ORGAN
HARMONY,
Counterpoint and Composition.
Address 180 Tremont Street, Boston, or Hotel
Hunnewell, Newton. 33-7

Shirts Made to Order!
By E. B. BLACKWELL,
43 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.
Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place
as will suit their convenience.
Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands, 15c.; Collars, 30c.; Collars 25c. Centre
Plaits 25c.
Fadly fitting shirts made to fit well. 48

The Greatest Novelty of the Age!!
THE Cyclone Coffee Mill!!
If you want the best cup of COFFEE in town,
we can serve you. Call and see our new mill and try a pound of our fresh roasted Coffee.

Gamaliel P. Atkins,
FINE GROCERIES,
273 and 275 Washington Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

DR. WILLIAM A. MORFITT, CHIROPODIST,
7 Temple Place, Boston, Room 32.
Corns, Bunions and Ingrowing Nails Removed
without pain. All work guaranteed first class.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M.
18

Miss E. J. SPARHAWK
will receive pupils in WATER COLOR, OIL PAINTING
and CHINA DECORATION.
Terms and particulars on application.
16-1m Homer Street, Newton Centre.

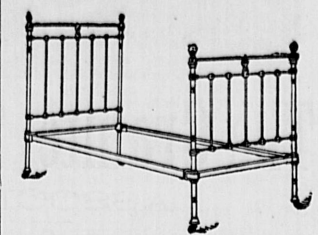

HOWARD B. COFFIN
DEALER IN FINE TEAS and BEST COFFEES
AND NEWTON AGENT FOR
DEERFOOT - FARM - PRODUCTS.
363, 361 Centre and 4, 6 Hall Sts.
COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON.

TRY THE PERFECT FLOUR
Pride of Newton.
It always gives Satisfaction.

For Sale Only by
C. O. TUCKER & CO.,
Opposite Depot, Newton.

JOB PRINTING
GRAPHIC OFFICE.

Putnam's "Pavonia."

A NOCTURNE IN WHITE AND BRASS.
UTILITY, BEAUTY AND VALUE
Are combined in this Brass and White Bedstead, which is the same of Comfort, Strength,
Cleanliness, Lightness and Convenience, Elegance.
It never wears out; is perfectly made, easily
handled.
Manufactured expressly to meet the wants of
those seeking a thoroughly reliable, comfortable
Bedstead at a reasonable price.

PUTNAM & CO.,
546 Washington Street, Boston.

EXCLUSIVE DESIGNS

—IN—
Silver, Brass & Iron Bedsteads.

FINE BEDDING
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

MATTRESSES, SPRING BEDS, BOLSTERS,
PILOWS, ETC., REMADE AND RENOVATED
BY THE MOST IMPROVED PROCESS.

PUTNAM & CO.,
546 Washington St.
BOSTON.

GRAND SUCCESS NEW STORE

Since Our Opening Day.
We sell all our Hats direct from the Manufacturer, and can save
You from 75 Cents to $1.00 on every Hat you purchase of us.
Visit Our Store and see if we are not correct when we sell

$4.00 Hat, Our Price, $3.00; $3.50 Hat, Our Price $2.50;
$3.00 Hat, Our Price, $2.25; $2.50 Hat, Our Price $2.00;
$2.00 Hat, Our Price $1.50.

Hats made to order without extra charge.

SORRENTO,
685 MAIN STREET, opposite MOODY STREET,
WALTHAM.

Spring Opening.

HIGH CLASS TAILORING
—FOR—GENTLEMEN,
—AT—
MODERATE PRICES.

We make a specialty this season
of very neat and stylish Business
Suits from English fancy cassimeres or Scotch material, at $35
and upward. Business Trousers at $9.00 and upwards.
NOTE—Being Practical Tailors
and Cutters, with a long experience in London, we pay personal attention to the cutting and fitting of every garment. Also all our garments are made up on the premises under our constant superintendence, thus enabling us to give the very best results to our patrons, at a price about 25 per cent. lower than the same class of tailoring elsewhere.

INSPECTION INVITED.
ALLAND BROS.,
TAILORS and IMPORTERS,
3 PARK STREET, BOSTON.
Street Floor. 26

WE HAVE BOUGHT
A Large Lot of
First - Class - Furniture,
SECOND HAND,
and now is your time to get a Bargain.
COME AND SEE OUR STOCK.

BENT'S
Furniture and Carpet Rooms,
Main Street, Watertown.

C. S. DECKER,
Custom Tailor
326 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

Scientific Dress Cutting.

Mrs. M. S. MUGRIDGE,
28 Richardson St., Newton.
Evening costumes a specialty. 14

Mrs. F. A. THOMSON,
MILLINERY.

Mourning orders will receive prompt attention.
Hats dyed and pressed
CENTRE STREET, : NEWTON, MASS., OPPOSITE BANK.

CHANDLER
& CO.

We have made large preparations to meet the demand for the popular and choice styles of

Ladies', Misses' and Children's Jackets, Reefers, Blasers,
Long Garments, Capes,
and Wraps for the present
Season.
Prices vary from $5 to $50.

CHANDLER
& CO.,
Winter Street,
BOSTON.

DESKS,
Chairs,
Office Furniture.
SEND FOR CATALOGUE
DESKS & CHAIRS CO.
93 CAUSEWAY ST. BOSTON.

TEN PAGES.

The GRAPHIC this week consists of ten pages, most of which contain original
matter of local interest, and all patrons
should see that they have the full number of pages.

NEWTON.

—C. Farley rents pianos, Wash. St. Newton.
—It is said that there will be five large weddings in Newton in June.
—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burt go to Europe next month for a few months' vacation.
—Ground has been broken for Dr. Utley's new house on the corner of Centre and Wesley streets.

—The Newton Street Railway expect to run their cars on fifteen minute time by the middle of next week.
—Mr. A. S. Doane has returned from Belmont, and has taken Mr. Bruce Ware's house on Bennington street.

—The Rev. W. D. Roberts of Trinity church, Boston, is to preach in Grace church on the coming Sunday night.

—The Eliot Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will hold its sociable at the church parlors next Thursday evening.
—Mr. Thomas Rush, a converted Roman Catholic, will lecture on Romanism in the Methodist church next Sunday evening, at 7.30.

—Those who wish the choicest bedding plants are now leaving their orders at Mr.
Johnson's conservatories, on Thornton
street.

—The choir of Grace church is to lead the singing at the consecration of the new church of the Redeemer, Chestnut Hill, June 1st.

—Hon. Isaac T. Burr and other members of the Mass. House of Representatives of 1876 took dinner at Young's on Tuesday evening.

—Mrs. W. H. Lord and Miss Mary Mills of Dedham, who have been staying at the Woodland Park Hotel, are now guests at Hotel Hunnewell.

—The grounds of many citizens are illuminated frequently in the early evening by torches, but it is not a party, the men are burning canker worms.

—Some of the music to be sung in Grace church on Sunday night is that selected for the great festival of the parish choir to be held in Lynn on the 27th.

—Bishop Neeley of Maine will preach and administer confirmation in Grace church on Monday night, May 18th. All the seats are to be free on this occasion.

—Rev. Mr. Hornbrook read a paper on "The Ring and the Book" before the Philadelphia Browning Society last week, and was given a reception by the society.

—At the 4 o'clock meeting next Sunday
Mr. T. W. Trowbridge will sing and Dr.
Titus will answer the question: "After six months' trial, what is this meeting for?"

—The Eliot Ladies' Home Missionary society listened to a very interesting talk on the "Paper Mission" by Mrs. Robert Hall of Cambridge, Tuesday afternoon.

—Tennis commenced in earnest on the Newton Tennis grounds this week. Every afternoon the courts have been well used by members of the club and their friends.

—The residents on Copley street and vicinity have had a double tennis court laid down in wood ashes, rolled down hard, and it promises to be one of the best in the city.

—A cablegram has been received from Mr.
W. W. Jacques, stating that he and his family have left Florence for Vienna, Miss Florence, the eldest daughter, was seriously but not dangerously injured by the mob.

—The Newton Social Science Club will meet on Tremont street, but these were street, Wednesday, May 20th, at 10.15 a.m.
Mrs. Dietrich will speak on "Woman in Africa." Members may invite a friend.

—The highway committee have decided that as Tremont street will be dug up in a few days for the sewer, that street being one of the first to be opened, the repairs to the street will be postponed until after the sewer is laid.

—Music in Grace church Sunday night:
Processional, "Come Holy Spirit" Dykes Festival Anthem, "Dykes"
Whit Sunday Anthem, McFarren
The Spirit of the Lord filleth all things Retrocessionary, H. W. Parker
Jerusalem, high tower

—The Newton Flower Mission of which Miss Louise J. Smallwood is chairman will begin its work next week, and contribution of flowers and fruit are solicited.
They should be left at the railroad station
9 o'clock, Tuesday and Friday mornings.

—An entertainment was held in the parlors of the Baptist church last evening, and brought together a large audience. A series of its delightful scenes and tableaux, representing the history of the Telugus, was conducted by Mrs. David Downie of Nellore, India.

—Alderman Sheppard has returned from New Orleans, where he went to attend the meeting of the National Pharmaceutical Association, which began April 27th. As he has been the treasurer of the association for many years, his presence at its annual meetings is a necessity.

—During the first part of the week carpenters repaired the bridge in the park, which was getting to be quite dangerous.
New timbers were put in, and a new door laid. During the week the water has been high, and in the lake, which has caused much curiosity as to the cause.

—The Eliot Ladies' Sewing society held its monthly sociable in the church parlors last evening. After the bountiful supper had been served a musical was given by the Mandolin and Guitar Club of Newton Centre, and by Miss Blanche Rice, Miss Clara Bowers and Mr. N. P. Cutler.

—On Sunday evening, May 17, Mr. Baker will speak in the Nonantum church on Russia's religious oppression of the Jews, Catholics and Protestants. He will also give an account of a Polish exile's escape while en route to Siberia. Services will commence at seven, and the public is invited.

—The Newton Natural History Society held its last meeting of the season last Monday evening at the high school building, Newtonville, with the Botany club.
Mr. George L. Chandler gave an address on "The Rose Family," which was very interesting. A discussion followed and many instructive facts were brought out.

—The busiest place in the city now is at Barber Bros., the dry weather making a great demand for rubber hose, and every one who has a lawn wants a new lawn mower or to have his old one sharpened.
This with their extensive trade in builders' hardware, they supplying most of the builders in Newton, make this a very busy season.

—Gen. Morris Schaff of Pittsfield, who has been appointed on the state board of health by Gov. Russell, is well known in Newton, his wife being the daughter of Mr. Page, who lives on the fine old estate on Glen street. Letter Carrier Dunn served under Gen. Schaff in the army, and regards him as one of the finest military officers we have had.

—A large number of the primary and grammar school scholars went to the Methodist church last Tuesday afternoon to the "School of Methods" conducted by the Newton Woman's C. T. U. They became quite enthusiastic over the work done by the Loyal Legion, and they were quite desirous of forming a band which they were told would soon be done.

—The Newton Street Railway company has completed its new turnout near Harvard street, Newtonville, and have begun work on the one to be constructed at Greenwood avenue, West Newton. When that is finished the turnouts on River and on Moody streets, Waltham, will be built, and then the road will begin running every fifteen minute time, which will add greatly to the patronage of the road.

—At the choral service at Eliot church next Sunday evening, May 17, the following music will be sung by the chorus choir, under direction of Mr. W. H. Dunham:
Anthem, "O Worship be Lord," Watson
Solo, "Fear not ye, O Israel," Barnby
Anthem, "I will give thanks," Barnby
Solo, "The soft southern breeze," Barnby
From "Rebekah."
Quartet, "O Loving One Divine," Pissuti
Sanctus and Benedictus, Mass in G. Weber Sanctus, St. Cecilia Mass.

—Rev. Joseph B. Clark, D.D., of New York, who is now secretary of the American Home Missionary Society, preached morning and evening in Eliot church, last Sunday. In the evening his address was illustrated by a large map of the world, in which represented the field covered by the society. He told what a good work was being done in the west and the need of more help. Many interesting stories were given.

—Dr. Alfred Hosmer died at his residence in Watertown, Thursday evening, after a week's illness. He was born at Newton Upper Falls, Sept. 11, 1832, but in his 9th year removed to New Hampshire.
After studying medicine he settled in Watertown and enjoyed a large practice throughout Newton. In Dec. 1889, he was stricken with paralysis and has not practiced since. His wife, son and daughter survive him. The funeral will be held Sunday from the First Parish Church,
Watertown.

—Mrs. Mary James fell down three stairs at her home on Williams street, Tuesday, receiving injuries which resulted fatally.
She struck on her head fracturing her skull at the base of the brain. She died at 8 o'clock this morning. The deceased was the widow of the late Richard James, a native of the provinces, and was 66 years of age. She had lived in Newton 45 years, and 30 years on Williams street.
Two sons survive her, Richard James at present located at Seattle and Daniel J.
James of this city.

—Mr. Thomas B. Turner of Waban struck on Tuesday morning at the residence of his sister in Roxbury, aged 26 years. He was taken with the grip over a year ago and he developed into consumption, and his health has slowly failed since then. He was the son of the late Benjamin Turner, and the only son in a family of eight children, being the chief support of his widowed mother. It is a very sad case as he was a young man of excellent character. The services were held in Grace church, Thursday afternoon, Rev. Dr.
Shinn officiating.

—Mrs. Chester H. Graves died on Monday at her residence on Hovey street, after a long and painful illness. The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon.
Rev. Mr. Hornbrook officiating. The interment was at the Newton Cemetery. The deceased was born in Ludlow, Mass., the daughter of Ely Fuller, but has resided in Newton for the past forty years. She was a very kind hearted and generous friend, devoted mother and an excellent neighbor, and many friends outside of her immediate family mourn her death. She leaves a husband, two sons and a daughter, a third son having died within the past year.

—There used to be a great deal of complaint of the saloons just over the Boston line on Tremont street, but these were closed up and for the past two or three years but little drunkenness has been seen on that street. The past few Sundays, however, men have been found coming from the direction of Oak Square in various stages of intoxication. The police took charge of eight last Sunday and took them to the station house, and are resolved to do their best to prevent the nuisance.
There are no licensed saloons in that vicinity, but there are suspicions that the men get their stuff from unlicensed dealers, and that they do not have to patronize the street car lines to reach these places. The Boston police could secure plenty of evidence if they were to watch on any pleasant Sunday.

—The Channing Society held its annual May festival in Armory Hall last Saturday afternoon and evening. Mrs. A. W. B.
Baldwin and Mrs. Lucie North officiated as managers in the afternoon festivities. The May Queen was Miss Louise Brackett, daughter of Mr. Robert A. Brackett of Baldwin street, and she looked very pretty in her costume. In the evening the exercises opened with the crowning of the queen, which was prettily done. Then "Baby Lee" appeared in suitable costume, and a dance of the sailor's hornpipe and the skirt dance, which was much enjoyed by the large audience of children and their elders, who completely filled the hall.
Miss Flossie Waite in the highland fling and Miss Genevieve in the waltz and the May pole dance by twelve little tots were very nicely performed. During the afternoon candy tables, refreshment tables and grab bags were in full operation, much to the enjoyment of the young people. During the evening dancing was indulged in by the large number of young ladies and gentlemen present.

—Frank J. Phillips, formerly of this city has mysteriously disappeared. He was a painter by trade and was at one time employed by C. A. Hill. When resident of Newton he lived in Mr. Whittier's house on Oakland street. He left this city April 7 and went to Little Neck, L. I. in search of work. While at Little Neck, he stopped at the home of his wife's sister, Mrs. M. E. Capon. He wrote to his wife on the 15th of April telling her that he intended to leave Little Neck for Flushing, April 20th. He sent her $121 to discharge his debts in this city and a few days later she left town to join her husband. She has not seen him since and she is almost broken hearted. Mrs. Phillips says that she lived very happily with her husband and she fears that something has happened to him, especially as it appears that he did not go to Flushing in accordance with his expressed intention. He was very quiet, steady, industrious man of good habits and he had about $50 when he left home.
Mrs. Phillips is now stopping with her sister's family in Little Neck.

—Rev. George G. Jones, a clergyman of the Episcopal church, died very suddenly of heart disease, last Saturday morning, at his residence on Brighton Hill. Just over the Boston line, and the funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Grace church. The deceased was originally a Methodist and occupied important positions as a teacher. He then became a clergyman of the Episcopal church, and at the outbreak of the war entered the army as chaplain of a Vermont regiment and served the year in the army of the Potomac. He contracted a chronic disease from which he always suffered in after life. He had filled positions in churches at Framingham and Milford in this state, and also in Vermont and in Florida and was a man of unusual ability. At the services the vested choir sang, the lesson was read by Rev. Mr. Fales of Waltham, the creed and prayers by Rev.

Geo. S. Converse, president of the standing committee of this diocese, and Rev. Dr.
Shinn made an address. A deputation from Charles Ward Post, and officers from the Vermont regiment to which the deceased belonged acted as pall-bearers. Mr. S. K.
Harwood represented the Masonic order.
The deceased was 69 years old and leaves a widow and a son and daughter. The son lives in Florida, but the widow and daughter were with him when he died. The remains were temporarily placed in the receiving tomb at the Newton cemetery.

HAYDEN-CLARK.
A BRILLIANT WEDDING AT GRACE
CHURCH.

Miss Alice L. Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses G. Clark, Jr., and Mr. S.
D. Hayden of Denver, Col., were married in Grace church, Wednesday evening.
The decorations were largely confined to the chancel where potted plants were tastefully arranged, bouquets of cut flowers being placed upon the altar. The vested choir gave a choral service under the direction of Mr. Day, who presided at the organ. The ceremony took place at 7.30, at which hour the bridal party entered the church, and the choir began to sing
"The Voice that Breathed o'er Eden."
The ushers were Messrs. Welles E. Holmes,
F. Alarie Peltou, W. S. Doane, Francis
Howe, W. E. Jones and Ed. C. Matthews.
The bridesmaids were five little girls attired in quaint white muslin costumes, wearing pink wreaths on their heads and carrying baskets of flowers. The maid of honor was Miss Leslie V. Grant, who was attired in a China silk made a la Empress.
Josephine. The bride leaning on the arm of her father, was met at the chancel by the groom and his best man, Mr. Lawrence Clark, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Shinn, rector of the church.
The bride was given away by her father.
She looked very charming and wore a faille Francaise costume, pearl ornaments, and the usual long tulle veil. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the choir rendered Stainer's "Amen," and "Design this Union to Approve." A reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wheelock, Eldridge street, which was largely attended. There was a handsome display of wedding gifts of silver and cut glass, with other valuable and useful remembrances. The groom's present was a deed of a fine house in Denver. At the close of the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden left on their wedding tour.
They will reside in Denver, Colorado.

The 11th District.

By the proposed apportionment this district would be well known as the Eleventh, and is made up of Wards 21, 23 and 25, Boston, Suffolk County; Belmont, Holliston, Newton, Sherborn, Watertown, Middlesex County; Hopedale,
Milford, Worcester County; Bellingham,
Brookline, Dedham, Dover, Foxboro,
Franklin, Hyde Park, Medfield, Medway, Millis, Needham, Norfolk, Norwood, Sharon, Walpole, Wrentham, Norfolk County; North Attleboro, Bristol County.
The new arrangement is exciting much comment, and the extreme partisans on both sides are dissatisfied, as they would be probably with any fair division.

Some prominent Newton Republicans have been interviewed. Mr. Robert H.
Gardner, chairman of the ward and city committee, agrees with the Boston Journal in thinking that redistricting ought to be postponed until we have a Republican governor and Republican senate, but he thinks we could as the old Ninth carry the district in a presidential year.

Senator Gorham D. Gilman says that the general opinion among Republicans at the State House yesterday seemed to be that the bill would prove very unfavorable to the Republican party. Common report has it that it pleases Speaker Barrett and Representative Quincy. So far as Newton is concerned it places the city in a district that has the appearance of being quite strongly Democratic.

Mr. Samuel L. Powers thinks the redistricting is against the interests of the Republican party, as on the vote of last year it gives the Democrats a majority of the districts, and makes this district Democratic by 1200 votes.

No Newton Democrats were seen, but Democrats in other sections of the state complain that the redistricting only gives them two certain districts, while it makes five sure Republican districts, with six left which are naturally Republican, with merely a fighting chance for the Democrats in the year.

The redistricting committee have certainly had a very difficult task, and with the certainty that they would please the leaders and party organs on neither side by any fair system of division, and in considering their report these things should be taken into consideration.

Williston Home.
A sale of useful and fancy articles will be held at the Williston Home, Waltham street West Newton, on Friday and Saturday, May 22nd and 23rd, afternoon and evening. Refreshments will also be on sale, and it is hoped there will be a very generous attendance, as the proceeds of the sale are for the benefit of the Home, and all the money received will be for the benefit of the orphans cared for by Miss Williston. Much pains have been taken to make the sale an attractive one.

Hats.
The new Waltham hat store is a great success, the fine quality of the goods and the low prices making it a popular place with Newton visitors. To Waltham, when going to that city call at The Sorrento, and you will save enough to pay car fares and for the time spent in going over.

House Lots For Sale At Auction in Auburndale, tomorrow afternoon, by Elliott J. Hyde, auctioneer. Valuable real estate belonging to R. M. Pulsifer estate, Islington street, Melrose street, and Auburn and Rowe streets, suitable for building, and it is probable that great bargains will be secured. For particulars see 4th page.

Handsome Suits.
A handsome line of Scotch tweeds, English Homespun, and chevrons in all the fashionable shades, at C. B. Somers', 149 A.
Tremont street, Boston, which are made up in the best manner at $35. Also other fine goods at corresponding low prices.

Panesis.
Select your panises at Mansfield's from 3,000 of the best strains, French, German,
Belgian and English. Orders by mail promptly delivered. Box 111, Newtonville,
Mass. 14

The Lowry Y. I. P. S. C. E. elected officers Tuesday evening: Herbert Frye, president; Miss Edith Worth, vice-president; C. A. Worth, secretary; Miss Minnie Henderson, treasurer.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

THE COMMON COUNCIL IN A VERY GENEROUS MOOD.

Both branches of the city council met Monday evening. All the aldermen were present and all the councilmen except Councilman Collins.

In the board of aldermen Mayor Hibbard presided.

S. L. Pratt was granted a carriage license; W. N. Thompson a wagon license. Geo. Leonard gave notice of intention to build a house on Wesley street, Ward 7, and M. Quirk and Patrick O'Brien, a house 22x20 on Crafts street.

L. B. Gay asked for concrete walks on Church street.

Allen Jordan and others asked to have Concord street straightened and relocated.

H. B. Parker and others asked for a fire alarm signal box on the corner of Grove Hill avenue and Prospect street, also for cross walk at Mill and Walnut streets, and another at new street and Walnut street.

Alderman Harbach presented the report of the water board that it was inexpedient to pay $2 a day to employees at present.

Aldermen Fenno presented a report from the highway committee to the same effect.

Wm. Lowe asked for license to repair building on Chestnut street, Upper Falls.

M. A. Mick and others asked to have the lane running from Dedham street to Brookline street laid out and accepted as a public street, to be called Oak Hill street.

E. J. Hickey was granted license to build an extension to his mill at Upper Falls, one 7x40 feet and another 25x18 feet.

On motion of Alderman Harbach, the water board was authorized to lay 450 feet of 8 in. water main on Berkeley street, at an expense of $574, and 400 feet of 6 in. and 12 feet of 4 in. on Hillside and Chester streets, at a cost of $510.

On motion of Alderman Luke $2000 was appropriated for interest on sewer bonds, the amount to be taken from any unexpended balances, or charged to the taxes of '91.

On motion of Alderman Hyde, $149 was appropriated to be expended by the committee on state and military affairs, to cover all necessary expenses of Memorial Day.

Alderman Luke presented an order from the finance committee that the appropriation of $2000, voted for alterations at City Hall, be added to the appropriation for public property, and the expenditures charged to that appropriation.

Alderman Hyde asked for the meaning of this order.

Alderman Luke said when it was passed the appropriation was not added to any special appropriation, and it was thought more expedient to have it added to some appropriation and not stand as an isolated account.

Alderman Hyde moved that it be referred to the public property committee, and the motion was passed.

SIDEWALKS AND CROSSWALKS.

Alderman Fenno reported from the highway committee, favorably on petitions for sidewalks and street crossings, from W. H. Leatherbee, L. B. Gay, C. W. Hall, C. T. Pulsifer, Loring Brooks, L. K. Bridgman, O. D. Homer, S. Doane, Moses G. Crane, E. B. Rogers, Robert R. Bishop, Chas. Everett, B. F. Holmes, Bruce R. Ware, and others for the construction of such sidewalks and crosswalks were passed.

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENTS.

On motion of Alderman Fenno, the highway committee were authorized to expend $18,200, to be charged to appropriation for highway widening, reconstruction, etc., as follows: California street, $2000; Boyd street, $2000; Cabot and Harvard, $2000; Boylston, $2000; Elliot, $2000; Hammond street to Kingsbury, $3000; Hammond street at ledge, $1000; Arlington, $2000; Bellevue, $300.

WATER AGAIN.

On motion of Alderman Fenno the order appropriating $15,000 for watering streets was rescinded, and an order passed that $13,500 be appropriated for the purpose, and not over 60 per cent. be charged to abutters.

Another order was passed appropriating $9000 for watering streets, to be charged to the assessment of taxes for '91. Alderman Fenno stated that the highway committee had decided to charge none of the cost of water on the abutters, and less was asked for than at the last meeting, as it was found that many of the requests for street watering were isolated cases, which it would be inexpedient to grant.

J. N. Keller and E. L. Adams asked to have the gutters on Church street, opposite their estates graded and paved with cobble stones.

H. W. Wellington and others asked to have Dabry street laid out to a width of 40 feet, and accepted as a public way.

Harriet H. Walker and others asked to have the improvements at Lemon Brook finished and put in good order.

J. W. Scanlan asked for concrete sidewalk on Hillside avenue and on Walnut street.

S. J. Whall and others asked for four street lamps, on Charles street and Evergreen avenue, Oakland street and Weston bridge, and on Charles street.

U. C. Crosby, Mrs. Stetson, Mrs. Davis and A. S. Weed asked to have the gutters on Park street paved with cobble stones.

A. Temperley was granted license to build pay shop at Upper Falls.

Con. Murphy asked for gravel sidewalk on Gardner street, and J. E. Bristol concrete walks corner of Pearl and Gardner streets.

An order was passed for $100 for extending wires for the signal box at Thompsonville, to be charged to fire department.

An order came from the common council, ordering the fire committee to place the chemical engine or steamer 2 temporarily in service at Nonantum, the cost to be charged to the miscellaneous account. On motion of Alderman Crehore, the order was referred to the fire committee.

Another order came up, amending the order for a house at Nonantum by substituting an engine house. The aldermen adhered to their former action, and refused to adopt the amendment.

THE $2 A DAY ORDER.

A minority report from the highway committee, signed by Councilman Grace, came from the lower branch as follows:

In view of the fact that the prevailing wage rate for city and town employees in this commonwealth is not less than $2 per day, and believing that a community such as this, supported as it is by the common people equally with their more fortunate brethren, it should deal with its employees in a just and considerate spirit, and being painfully aware of the fact that $1.75 per day for but a portion of the year is entirely inadequate to supply the demand of the many mouths which our hard working employees are compelled to feed, I respectfully dissent from the report of the majority of the committee on highways and water board, and report that in my opinion the order which was referred, ought to pass.

Wm. F. Grace, Com. on Highways.

On motion of Alderman Harbach the report was received and filed.

An order passed by the lower branch that all laborers should be paid not less than two dollars a day was read.

Alderman Luke said that he had listened to the arguments for such a measure in the other branch, and while it was his desire to be liberal, yet it was not the proper time now to make a change, and the condition of the appropriations would not allow of its being made at this time.

Alderman Hyde said he should very much like to vote two dollars a day to every laborer employed by the city, but December was the proper time for such an agitation when the appropriations were being made up, and there could be only one answer to such a proposition now.

The order was then defeated by a unanimous vote.

Alderman Luke moved that the $1000 appropriated for the purchase of instruments for the city engineer, be charged to the appropriation for instruments for the city engineer.

Alderman Harbach asked if the bills had been approved by the finance committee.

Alderman Luke said they had not.

Alderman Harbach said, when the city government passes an order and it is approved by the mayor, then it was the duty of the finance committee to approve bills incurred under that order, and not to refuse to approve them because of some whim. It was their duty to carry out the orders of the city council.

Alderman Luke said the finance committee were willing to be held responsible for their acts. The bills were considered in an open meeting of the committee, when the mayor was present, and although he had no authority to speak for him, he was under the impression that the mayor favored the course of the committee. As a matter of bookkeeping, bills incurred by any department should be charged to that department, to show exactly how much that department cost the city. This could not be done, if they were scattered round among several departments. There was no occasion for personalities, but the city engineer's department should contain all the accounts of the city engineer.

Alderman Harbach said he should have no objection to voting for the order if the bills had been paid, but the change could have been made just as well after the bills had been paid as before.

Alderman Hyde said when 21 men voted to do a certain thing, and the mayor approves, it should be done. The bills should have been paid, and the bookkeeping could have come in afterwards.

The order was then passed.

On motion of Alderman Hyde an express wagon license was granted to Timothy Kelly, after which the board adjourned.

THE COMMON COUNCIL.

The common council had a rather lively meeting, and a vigorous discussion over an engine at Nonantum, and over the raising of the pay of laborers to two dollars a day. Both orders were passed, but the first was referred to the fire department, and the latter defeated in the board of aldermen.

The minority report by Councilman Grace on the increase of wages, caused quite a discussion as to the proper way to treat both reports, and at one time it looked as though the whole thing would be tangled up in the discussion over parliamentary rules. Councilman Fornkall thought the acceptance of the minority report disposed of the majority report, and there was no need of receiving that, but President Mead finally straightened the matter out and the majority report was properly received and filed.

On the increase in pay Councilman Bothfield called attention to the fact that as the appropriations had all been made, the increase would either mean that work could be given to a less number of men, or an extra appropriation would have to be made.

President Mead left the chair and spoke warmly in behalf of the measure, and said it would be easy enough to make an extra appropriation.

Councilman Moulton thought the men were entitled to two dollars a day.

Councilman Dutch thought so too, and that such a rich city as Newton ought to be liberal with its laborers. None of the councilmen would want to do such hard work for ten dollars a day, and other cities were paying that price, and the wealthy citizens of Newton would not object to an increase.

Councilman Merchant said two dollars a day was little enough, and the order ought to pass.

Councilman Churchill said he would be glad to vote for the order if it was expedient, but the appropriations were all made, the work laid out and any change would disarrange matters and mean a cutting down of the work. He should be glad to vote for such an order, if it was expedient to do so.

Councilman Fornkall made a lengthy speech on the selfishness of his motives and the general generosity of his character. He said no extra appropriation would be needed, as they could draw on the money saved at the stone crusher. He also referred incidentally to his love for the Graphic.

Councilman Richardson said the extra pay would cost the city about $5000, and he did not think the order ought to pass.

Councilman Bothfield thought it would cost more, as during the summer some 200 men are employed. For a hundred men the increase would mean $25 a day or $700 a month, and this could not be given without an extra appropriation. The money saved at the stone crusher would be used in hiring more men to work on the streets, and the increase of pay would take work away from just so many men.

Councilman Grace and Sprague also spoke in favor of the increase.

When the order was non-concurred in by the aldermen the council adhered to its action, and adjourned.

FAVOR THE PLAN.

NEWTON OFFICIALS BELIEVE THE CITY SHOULD FURNISH ITS LIGHT.

In regard to the bill for municipal lighting, the city officials of Newton think favorably of the scheme.

Mayor Hibbard said he was not in a position to express an opinion, as the city has a contract with the Newton & Watertown Gas Light Company for lighting the streets of the city, and the contract does not expire until next April. By agreement with the company it is optional with them to light the city two additional years, at the same rate. The reason for such a contract was the exceedingly low price given by the company. In Mayor Hibbard's inaugural address, he says:

"Among the items of appropriation may be noticed the yearly cost of lighting our streets, viz., $25,500. This expense is fixed by contract for a term of years. The cost of street lighting has recently had considerable investigation by an able committee, and should be closely studied in the future."

Alderman L. E. Coffin said he did not know what the city's action in the matter would be provided the bill passed. He thought it was a grand idea but had nothing to say in regard to the city's action. The board had not discussed the matter at all. The city has a contract which lasts nearly a year and possibly three years. What would be done at its expiration he could not say. He hoped, however, that the bill would pass.

Alderman J. A. Fenno, chairman of the street lighting committee, said that the subject of the city owning its own plant had been referred to that committee, but they had taken no action on the matter whatever. He thought it was an excellent idea, and a law which should be on the public statutes, thus allowing a city or town to own its own plant and light its streets and public buildings. When the contract with the Newton & Watertown Gas and Electric Lighting Company expired the company might offer such a low rate that it would be advisable for the city to make another contract with that concern.

Alderman Elliott J. Hyde believed in the scheme, and thought the price asked for gas and electric lighting too high. He was of the opinion that the city should own its own system of lighting, and he even went farther, and said he thought the city should own and operate the electric railways running through its streets. For the city to own its lighting plant was not only the best idea, but was the coming method, and he thought it would not be many years before each city and town would take advantage of the bill, provided it is passed, and thus reduce the expense of street lighting. He would be glad to see such a scheme operated in Newton.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.

FRANK CHAMBERLAIN'S

NOBBY SPRING HATS. Wear Our $3 Non Breakable Hat. Fine Furnishings, Gloves, Cane, and Umbrellas.

663 Washington St., Boston.

3 doors south of Boylston St.

OPEN - EVENINGS.

SPECIAL BARGAINS

-IN-

Toilet - Articles.

No matter what you want from an apothecary store, you can save money by buying it at 40 Bromfield street. We sell all patent medicines, all perfumes, all toilet articles, all roots, bark, and herbs, all oils, essences, tinctures, extracts and all other drug store goods, at

Lower Reduced Prices Than They Can Be Bought for at Any Other Store on Earth.

PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS PUT UP FOR SALE AT HALF OF OTHERS' PRICES.

WOODWARD'S

BLUE STORE WITH RAINBOW SIGNS,

40 Bromfield St., Boston.

H. W. DOWNS CO.,

143 Tremont St., Boston.

One Door South of Temple Place

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

High Grade Dress Linings and Findings.

The Largest Variety and Finest Selections of Silk and Cotton Linings in the City.

L. H. CRANITCH

HOUSE, SIGN, AND ORNAMENTAL PAINTER,

Graining and Paper Hanging a Specialty.

WALNUT STREET,

2d Door from Central Block, NEWTONVILLE.

F. H. WHIPPLE,

Sole Agent For New England For

White's Automatic Fire Alarm.

Inspection, Practical Tests and Correspondence Solicited.

Office: 1472 Washington St.,

BOSTON.

Spring Millinery!

A Choice Assortment at

THE - JUVENILE.

The Ladies of Newton and Vicinity Invited.

Miss E. Juvencio Robbins,

SUCCESSOR TO

H. J. WOODS,

Eliot Block, Elmwood St.,

Newton.

Open Monday, Friday and Saturday evenings.

WALWORTH

Construction and Supply Co.

Steam and Hot Water Apparatus.

Steam Traps, Valves and Heaters.

Steam Pumps, Boilers and Engines.

GARDEN HOSE.

SPIRAL WELD STEEL TUBE.

Used for Water, Steam or Gas.

Test 300 lbs. and upwards per sq. in.

Size, 6 in. to 24 in.

The cost of this pipe is only a fraction of that of standard pipe. Descriptive circular sent on application.

60 PEARL STREET, BOSTON.

Telephone No. 707, Boston.

NEWTON STREET RAILWAY.

Commencing April 20, 1891, cars will run as follows:

NEWTON TO WALTHAM.

Leave Newton 6.25, 7.30, 8.00, a. m., and every half hour until 11.00 p. m.

For West Newton only 11.30, 12.00 p. m.

Newtonville 6.32, 7.38, 8.08 a. m., and every half hour until 11.08 p. m.

For West Newton only 11.38 p. m., 12.08 a. m.

Car Station 6.39, 7.45, 8.15 a. m., and every half hour until 11.15 p. m.

West Newton 6.05, 6.40, 7.18, 7.48, 8.18 a. m., and every half hour until 11.18 p. m.

WALTHAM TO NEWTON.

Leave Waltham 6.40, 7.15, 7.45 a. m., and every half hour until 11.15 p. m.

For West Newton only 11.45 p. m.

West Newton 6.05, 7.05, 7.42, 8.12 a. m., and every half hour until 11.42 p. m.

Arrive Newton 12.20 p. m.

Arrive Newtonville 12.30 p. m.

Arrive West Newton 12.35 p. m.

SUNDAY CARS.

Same as on week days except that the 6.25 a. m. car from Newton and the 6.40 and 7.45 a. m. from Waltham are omitted.

Special Church Cars between West Newton and Newtonville 10.05 a. m.

Newtonville 10.15 a. m.

Arrive Newton 12.20 p. m.

Arrive Newtonville 12.30 p. m.

Arrive West Newton 12.35 p. m.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO PASSENGERS.

On and after Monday, April 20, 1891, the cars of this company will stop only at the Signal Poles, but only upon request of a passenger, or signal from a person wishing to ride.

F. G. L. HENDERSON, Supt.

EDWIN I. DILL,

Baker, Caterer and Ice

Cream Manufacturer.

Particular Attention Given to catering for Weddings and Private Parties.

A. O. U. W. Lock, Moody Street,

Waltham; Spring Hotel, Main Street, Watertown.

21

W. H. WHIPPEN,

CONSULTING ENGINEER,

Will advise with regard to the Erection and Running of STEAM PLANTS. Also Estimates of the Cost of Same.

Furnished. Transmission of Power by Wire Cable a Specialty. Call or address

615 Atlantic Avenue, BOSTON.

28-3m

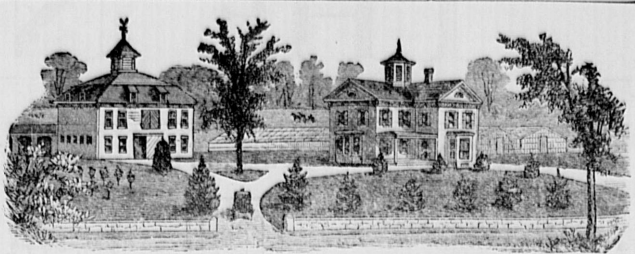

SPRING SUITS.

J. H. NICKERSON,

Merchant Tailor and Clothier,

WEST NEWTON, MASS.

Is now prepared to furnish Spring Suits from the Latest Styles of goods, ready made or made to order as you may desire. No better or cheaper clothing for Men or Boys can be procured. Call and see our line before purchasing. Please leave your orders early to avoid having to wait when the season advances.

The Granite State Building

ASSOCIATION.

OBJECT.

THE object of this association is to furnish homes to its members on an instalment plan at the very lowest cost. According to the lapses on old line insurance and one to five year orders for the past five years, fifty per cent. of all have lapsed. We find by careful investigation, a homestead costing Three Thousand Dollars can be obtained at a cost of about Eighteen Hundred Dollars to all members of this association. Our plan is this; All members pay five Dollars to join this association and as soon as this fund reaches the amount of Three Thousand Dollars, certificate holder No. 1 can buy or build a house, select his own location, and make his own contract for building, plans and specifications to be approved by the association. The members shall first give a mortgage for Three Thousand Dollars without interest, less the amount paid in by said member, and shall continue to pay his weekly instalment until his mortgage is paid up in full.

SOURCES OF PROFIT.

THE lapse element. It is impossible to hold any considerable number of persons together in any kind of an association without change; old members drop out and new ones come in, change in condition, alteration of mind, death, etc., all contribute to exemplify this principle, and constitute an inevitable law by which the persistent members realize a large profit. All members stand equal, as each one has to pay in full for his homestead, less the lapses, which, according to past five years' experience, place the lapses at fifty per cent. This will reduce the cost of each member's Three Thousand Dollar house to Eighteen Hundred Dollars, or less. Ninety per cent. of all instalments go to the building fund, ten per cent. to the general fund to pay the expenses of the association.

For further particulars apply to any of the following members or at the company office, Burnham Building, Room 11 and 12, 74 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

W. H. Smith, 10 Central Market, Boston.
A. J. Cunningham, 51 Blackstone St., Boston.
J. W. Smith, 222 Lewis St., Lynn.
Geo. G. Hackett, Wakefield, Mass.
L. O. Dion, Natick, Mass.
Chas. W. Baird, 39 and 41 North St., Boston.
Fred R. Whitworth, 33 Boylston St., Boston.
John J. Crowley, 16 Carnes St., Lynn, Mass.
Chas. E. Brown, 30 North St., Boston.
Mr. Jas. B. Fife, West Somerville, Mass.
J. S. Sawyer, Winthrop, Mass.
W. H. Lyons, 202 Union St., Lynn, Mass.
T. E. Griffin, 5 Gray St., Charlestown.
M. J. Sawyer, West Medford.
J. E. F. Griffin, 6 Gray St., Charlestown.
A. G. Smith, South Hill.
Daniel A. Glavin, 39 Bennington St., E. Boston.
N. Clifford Paul,

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB.

The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the Tariff, is cordially invited to take part in the discussions carried on in this column. Respectful consideration will be given to inquiries, criticisms, and communications of every kind, whether coming from Tariff Reformers, Free Traders or High Protectionists. Address Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, Newton Centre, Mass.

A Moderate Tariff.

"A moderate tariff and reciprocity" is the platform on which Mr. Blaine would stand if candidate for president, according to a story from Washington recently published in the Boston Journal. That is something of a change from the position taken by the Republican party when it passed the McKinley bill. No doubt it indicates the direction in which many Republicans are now looking. Even President Harrison talks about reciprocity treaties more than he talks about the McKinley bill.

A Western Warning.

"What is the cause of the condition of the Republican party in Michigan, asks the Chicago Tribune, and it answers: 'The McKinley bill, and nothing else.' This is only one of the straws which shows the real feeling of a large number of Republicans. The Farmers' Alliance grows because the farmers are discriminated against by a system which raises the prices of all they buy except sugar, and does not raise the prices of what they sell.

As To Our Commerce.

The Boston Journal, which pays Hon. George Fred Williams the compliment of being especially spiteful to him in his public character, has lately taken Mr. Williams to task for making the statement in his Dartmouth College address that the high tariff "destroys commerce, and has destroyed our quite effectively." The Journal then proceeds to deny that what Mr. Williams stated was true by asserting that the commerce of this country is now greater than ever, and has increased faster than the country's population. To do this it gives commerce a different significance from what Mr. Williams intended. But on this point it so happens it attacks not Mr. Williams alone. At about the same time that Mr. Williams was speaking, no less a personage than President Harrison was addressing an assemblage at San Francisco. This is what he said:

We want merchant ships. I believe we have come to a time when we should choose whether we will continue to be non-participants in the commerce of the world or will now vigorously, with the push and energy which our people have shown in other lines of enterprise, claim our share of the world's commerce. It is my belief that, under the operation of the postal bill of the last session of Congress, we shall be able to stimulate ship building, to secure some new lines of American steamships, and to increase the ports of call of those now established. I hope it may not be long—I know it will not be long, if we but unitedly pursue this great scheme—until one can take a sail in the bay of San Francisco and see some deep-water ship coming in bearing our own flag. [Enthusiastic and continued cheering.] During our excursion the other day I saw three great vessels come in. One carried the Hawaiian and two the English flag.

The Journal characterizes this statement, that commerce is something in which we are non-participants, to be either a "misstatement or blunder." There really does seem to have been either a misstatement or a blunder in the case. The responsibility for it rests either with the Boston Journal or President Harrison. We leave the reader to settle as to which is the responsible party.

It Has Not Raised Wages.

[From the Minneapolis Journal.] It is hardly wise for the American Economist, organ of the ultra protectionists, to boast that the McKinley bill has "raised wages." Everybody who has read the daily papers for the last six or eight months recalls a remarkably large number of dispatches announcing wage reduction, especially in the iron and steel manufacturing. The fact is, there has been an unusual amount of wage reduction since last fall. It will not do to charge this to the McKinley bill; but it is perfectly evident to the public that that measure has not raised the wages of the operatives a particle. It is a waste of breath and ink to tell the country that.

Manufactures and Exports.

The commercial editor of the New York Tribune gives away the whole protective snap every time the political editor is off his guard. "The way to compete," says the commercial editor in discussing "How to enter Southern Markets," is to compete.

There are large classes of American manufactures which can be sold in the Southern markets of this hemisphere if a determined effort be made to introduce them and to displace inferior and more expensive goods from Europe. The United States takes the bulk of the hides and skins exported from South and Central America, and it has superior facilities for tanning leather and manufacturing boot and shoes. Nothing can be easier than to establish in return a large trade in leather and its manufactures. Wherever the experiment has been tried it has been found practicable to undersell foreign leather. American shoes ranging from 75 cents to $1.25 will average 10 per cent. less per pair than English shoes in the West Indies and Central America. At prices ranging from $1.25 to $1.75 there will be a difference of 15 per cent. in favor of the American goods, and at prices from $1.75 to $2.50 a pair this margin will be raised to 20 per cent. These statements are not made at random, but on the authority of Captain D. F. Murphy, who is in charge of an American wholesale house in Kingston, Jamaica, and is selling goods in Central America, Hayti and Columbia. The free trade critic may reply that we have singled out a class of manufactures which is not protected by the tariff and which has the advantage of free raw materials. Very well; let us then extend the list. American paper and stationery can be and is sold in those countries at a reduction of 10 per cent. from English prices. Hose pipe, overcoats, blankets and other classes of rubber goods of American manufacture can be introduced in those markets at prices 15 per cent. lower than the English. Castings, locks, wire for fences, builders' hardware, kitchen implements and furnishing goods can be supplied from the United States certainly at the same cost as German wares, and probably more cheaply, and there is a marked preference for the American goods.

American cottons will be at least 10 per cent. below European goods when properly introduced and systematically sold in wholesale houses. Glassware from Wheeling, W. Va., is already underselling the cheapest German manufactures. American agricultural tools and machinery are cheaper wherever sold. Clocks and watches from New England have no competition when taken into the Southern markets. American furniture is preferred, and can be sold at prices which will drive European goods out of market.

All this is substantially true, but if these American manufactures can go all the way to South America and then compete with English and German goods, how is it that it can't stay at home and compete right here in the United States with English and German goods?

AMATEUR INTERCLUB BOWLING.

A game in the finals in the Newton club bowling tournament was played Monday evening between teams 2 and 8. It was an interesting struggle, in which team 8 came off the victor by 37 pins. Payne was high roller with a total of 406, and also made the best 10-frame score, knocking down 172 pins. The summary:

TEAM EIGHT.
Bowlers.	First string.	Second string.	Third string.	Totals.
Cunningham.....	149	154	156	459
French.....	149	145	134	428
Langdon.....	96	161	141	398
Payne.....	142	172	152	466
Byfield.....	130	144	134	408
Totals.....	687	767	703	2157

TEAM TWO.
Bowlers.	First string.	Second string.	Third string.	Totals.
Richards.....	139	115	163	417
French.....	149	145	134	428
Morse.....	145	150	119	414
Grigg.....	120	149	137	406
Buswell.....	154	127	134	415
Totals.....	707	686	727	2120

The fourth game in the bowling finals of the Newton club took place Saturday evening, team seven rolling against team eight.

The work of the former team was excellent Hamilton scoring 472, with an average of 157 1-3. A ten frame score of 171 was made by Fuller of the same team. The summary:

TEAM SEVEN.
Bowlers.	First string.	Second string.	Third string.	Total.
Hamilton.....	166	158	148	472
Fuller.....	171	136	164	465
Langdon.....	130	154	139	423
Uley.....	131	157	140	428
Collins.....	109	100	100	309
Totals.....	698	679	691	2068

TEAM EIGHT.
Bowlers.	First string.	Second string.	Third string.	Total.
Cunningham.....	136	118	163	417
Dennison.....	137	148	134	419
Langdon.....	144	136	115	405
Payne.....	124	135	140	399
Byfield.....	113	161	137	411
Totals.....	654	698	689	2041

BOWLING NOTES.

The members of the Amateur Interclub Bowling league are preparing for a gala time at the Woodland Park Hotel, Auburndale, Saturday evening next. A banquet will, of course, be a feature of the occasion and it is expected that 200 gentlemen will be present, representing the several clubs of the league. Speeches will be in order and an excellent musical program will be provided. Ex-Alderman Samuel L. Powers will probably give an address on bowling, touching upon its healthful and social aspects and upon its permanency as an indoor sport. The first, second and third prizes will be awarded to the Boston Athletic Association, Newton and Arlington teams. Next season's tournament will be talked up, and a general good time is expected.

Mr. C. F. Shirley, who has the highest individual average in the Newton club tournament, has announced his intention of challenging Mr. A. A. Savage to roll for the clock. Mr. Savage now has a match on with Mr. J. C. Bridgman, and if he should be defeated Shirley will challenge the winner. The Interclub league prizes have been decided upon. The first prize probably an elegant silver plaque, goes to the Boston Athletic Association team; second prize, silver mantle clock, Newton Club team; third prize, mahogany bookcase, Arlington Boat Club team. Five silver cups as individual prizes will be presented to the members of the B. A. A. team, and a silver club will be also awarded to Warren Hill of the Athletic team, who made the highest individual average in the league games.

A Double Funeral.

Many Newton friends attended the double funeral of Gen. James Fowle Baldwin Marshall and his wife at the Unitarian church in Weston last Saturday. They died within two days of each other, and their funeral was held on the same day. Mr. Edward P. Bond of West Newton was one of the pall bearers and among those present from Newton were Mr. Lawrence Bond, Hawaiian consul at Boston, Senator and Mrs. Gilman, and Rev. Francis Tiffany. Rev. Geo. E. Ellis who married the deceased couple about fifty years ago, assisted the pastor of the church, Rev. Chas. F. Russell, and many prominent citizens who had known Gen. and Mrs. Marshall attended. The interment was at Mt. Auburn.

A Fortunate Man.

I had severe attacks of kidney disease. My stomach also troubled me very much. I was prevailed upon to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. After using five or six bottles, I was cured. I consider it an invaluable remedy for Kidney Disease, Stomach trouble, and all diseases of the blood.—John Vander-slice, No. 1 Gregory st., Rochester, N. Y.

AN EPITAPH.

He never won immortal fame
Nor conquered earthly ills,
Yet men weep for him, all the same,
He always paid his bills.
—Epoch.

ONE OF MANY.

He taught his wife the sin of dress
With eloquence and power,
And then played billiards all day long
At sixty cents an hour.
—Cloak Review.

NOT TO BE FOOLED.

Sweet day, so bright, so clear, so warm;
That summer's near us you denote;
But still, however much you charm,
I'm going to wear my overcoat.
—New York Press.

Carpenters and mechanics use Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. It is healing and very soothing.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

Aveling, E. Introduction to the Study of Botany. 102.564
Intended as a guide to the practical study of botany, and assuming on the part of the reader no knowledge of the subject.

Brentano, L. The Relation of Labor to the Law of To-Day; trans. by P. Sherman. 84.230
The solution of the labor problem is, according to the writer, "the perfect organization of labor, the result of necessary labor legislation, and a readiness on the part of employers to comply with this."

Cambell, J. The Hittites; their Inscriptions and their History. 2 vols. 77.170
Clowes, W. L. Black America; a Study of the Ex-Slave and his late Master. 84.231
The author discusses the problem of the negro in the South, and suggests what he thinks the only radical solution,—the peaceful removal of the negroes from the U. S., and their establishment in a country and in circumstances that would be propitious to their own development and that of their barbarous kindred.

Finek, H. T. Spain and Morocco; Studies in Local Color. 32.437
Describes the characteristic features of some of the principal towns in these countries after a visit of two months.

Higginson, T. W. Life of Francis Higginson. (Makers of America.) 91.652
The subject of this biography was the first minister in the Massachusetts Bay Colony, and the author of "New England's Plantation."

Holder, C. F. Charles Darwin, his Life and Work. 92.628
Not a discussion of Darwin's theories, but the story of his life simply presented, and adapted to young readers.

Kaufmann, R. Paris of To-Day; trans. fr. the Danish by Olga Finch. 37.230
The author gives various aspects of Parisian life, with descriptions of the Exposition of 1889.

Keenan, H. F. The Iron Game; a Tale of the War. 62.834
The action takes place during the war, and there is a description of the battle of Bull Run.

Lauplough, E. Yorkshire Battles. 74.256
Account of the several English battles which have been fought on Yorkshire soil.

Lang, A. A second glancing of the fields of fairyland, and drawn from Norse, French and German sources. 62.800
Mabie, H. W. Under the Trees and elsewhere. 54.645
Twenty-one essays whose titles,— "An April Day," "Under the Apple-Boughs," "A Mountain Rivulet," etc., indicate their scope.

Raboussin, H. Madame D'Orgeant's Husband; fr. the French by F. H. Potter. 63.861
Riley, J. W. Sketches in Prose and Occasional Verses. 63.864
Schaumann, F. L. Wood Carving in Practice and Theory as applied to Home Arts. 104.422
With notes on design having special application to carving in wood in different styles.

Stille, C. J. Life and Times of John Dickinson, 1732-1808; prepared at the Request of the Hist. Soc. of Penn. 52.479 Covers an important period in the history of Penn. From 1760 to 1783 John Dickinson was a most important person in the service of the state.

Teal, F. H. Compounding of English Words. 76.200
Why and why joining or separation is preferable, with concise rules and alphabetical lists.

Townsend, T. The History of Ancient Vinland; trans. fr. the Latin of 1706 by C. G. Herbermann. 106.256
The first book in which the story of the discovery of Vinland by the Northmen was made known to general readers.

Wallace, J. H. American Trotting Register; cont. the Pedigrees of Standard-Bred Trotters, and an App. of Non-Standard Animals. 52.479
E. P. THURSTON, Librarian.
May, 13, 1891.

There is danger in impure blood. There is safety in taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. 100 doses for one dollar.

Don't Feel Well.

And yet are not sick enough to consult a doctor, or you refrain from so doing for fear you will alarm yourself and friends—we will tell you just what you need. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will lift you out of that uncertain, uncomfortable, dangerous condition, into a state of good health, confidence and cheerfulness. You've no idea how potent this peculiar medicine is in cases like yours.

The fireman's warning: "You are out with the fire!" "You're here, father put an extinguisher on the affair." "You've done sparking, then." "No, I've gone back to the old flame."—[Cape Cod Item.]

Jinks—Why do you offer such a large reward for the return of that contemptible pug dog? Winks—To please my wife. "But such a reward will be sure to bring him back." "No, it won't. He's dead." —[New York Weekly.]

Waiter—I expect you to pay in advance. Guest—What do you mean, sir? Waiter—No offense, sir, whatever, but the last gentlemen who ate shad here got a bone in his throat and died without paying, and the boss took it out of my wages.—[Texas Siftings.]

Arrested.

Charles A. Daly was arrested last evening for stealing from the drug store of Sheffman, a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Before the court this morning, upon being asked why he should steal, he stated that his mother was troubled with rheumatism, and that it was the only medicine that helped her, and being out of money and work was the cause of his stealing. As this was his first offense he was put on probation.—Newark News.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation: I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped to be cured, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results. Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Husband and Wife.

Have more than once been saved by the timely use of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, after all other remedies have been tried in vain. The Balsam stops decay of the lungs and cures influenza and acute and chronic coughs. There is no other medicine in the world that acts so promptly, certainly none that does its work so thoroughly as Kemp's Balsam. All druggists sell it. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

"My wife cured me of a very severe colic in five minutes with Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

Raggles—"Don't beg there. Them folks is wuss off than we are." Beery Ben—"They don't show it." Raggles—"Oh, I know'em. They're trying to cut a dash on $2,400 a year and five children to feed."—Harper's Bazar.

ESTABLISHED 1817.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.

CARPETINGS.

Oriental Rugs and Carpets,
Curtains, Draperies, Wall Hangings,
Furniture Coverings, Shades, &c.
AT REASONABLE PRICES.

558, 560 WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON.

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE,
—SUCH AS—
Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, Scissors, Shears and Lawn Mowers,

Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House

We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.

HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?

And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?

If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves
WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES,
OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.

A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

An Eight Per Cent Investment.

The Fully Paid Certificates Issued By The

GRANITE STATE PROVIDENT ASSOCIATION

—OF—

MANCHESTER, - - - N. H.,

Draw a Guaranteed Annual Dividend of EIGHT Per Cent Payable Semi-Annually.

The Association makes its Investments in the East on City Property only thereby obtaining Security that is Constantly Increasing in Value.

When an Institution can show that it has a Dollar and Twenty-three Cents with which to pay each dollar it owes, no doubt is expressed as to its Financial Solidity. The recent examination of the Bank Commissioners show that

Granite State Provident Association's

Ratio of Assets to Liabilities is One Hundred and Twenty-three.

The Association has the name of over 7500 Investors on its Books to whom Certificates of a Par Value of nearly $10,000,000 have been issued.

If you wish a Safe and Profitable Investment you cannot do better than to write for particulars.

Hon. J. C. MOORE, President; Hon. H. D. UPTON, Treasurer;

G. PERCIVAL STEWART, Vice President;

E. E. BURLINGAME, Secretary;

PHILIP CARPENTER, General Counsel;

FRANK S. STREETER, Associate Counsel.

Great Reduction in Carpet Cleaning.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE

NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COMPANY.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminster 8 cents per square yard for Turkey Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. Sole Manufacturer of the ROCHESTER BUG EXTERMINATOR. Price 35 cents a bottle; 3 bottles for One Dollar.

SIMON A. WHITE,

P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street.

P. A. MURRAY,

Carriage Builder.

ALL Work Guaranteed.

Special attention given to REPAIRING AND PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGES

WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

PEERLESS CRATE

LARGEST AND BEST ASSORTMENT

—OF—

Glazed, Enameled and Relief Tiles for

Mantels, Hearths, Facings,

Wainscotings, Bath Rooms, Etc., of any house in Boston.

Confined to no one Manufacturer.

Designs and Estimates furnished free of charge on application.

CELEBRATED "PEERLESS GRATES,"

Iron Fire Places, Portable Grates, Dampers, and SLATE GOODS.

JOSEPH W. GRIGG,

26 Charles Street, Boston, Mass.

J. OTIS McFADDEN, DEALER IN

Window Shades, Wire Screens, Wall

Papers, Venetian Blinds.

23 CORNHILL, BOSTON.

Telephone connection.

HARRIS E. JOHNSON,

ELECTRICIAN.

Annunciators, Gas Lighting Apparatus

Burglar Alarms, Electric Supplies

and Bells.

Incandescent Light Wiring.

All kinds of Electrical Apparatus Installed & Repaired

MAINTENANCE AND LOCKSMITH.

379 Centre St. Howe's Block, Newton

LADIES AND GENTS BOOTS

Made to fit any shaped foot, stylish if you wish, or neat, plain and comfortable if desired. If your feet trouble you try a pair of boots made on my new natural last, and don't suffer any longer. A full line of Ladies' Gents' and Children's Boots

Shoes and Rubbers kept on hand at bottom prices

A. L. RHYND, 265 Washington St., Newton

J. HENRY BACON,

Successor to Francis Murdock & Co.

Dry Goods & Notions

ARTHUR HUDSON.

Analytical and Pharmaceutical Chemist and Apothecary.

(28 years experience in the business.)

WARRER'S BLOCK, NEWTON

Cor. Centre and Elmwood streets.

A full line of Chemicals of Standard Purity at ways in stock.
Physicians' prescriptions compounded with accuracy at all hours.
Proprietary Medicines and Druggists' Sundries

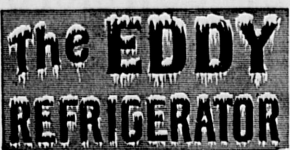

CHEMISTRY.

With a large and thoroughly appointed Laboratory, Mr. Hudson offers his services in the line of his profession. Investigation as to the composition of matter conducted by analysis or synthesis, according to most approved methods. Analysis of potable waters, milk, etc., a specialty.

The Senior Druggist of Newton.

TELEPHONE 7979.

HAVING SOLD

In Newton, for the past 23 years is sufficient guarantee that they are the Best.

Call and examine them before purchasing a refrigerator and avoid regret and waste.

Old Refrigerators refitted and repaired at short notice.

CELEBRATED MAGEE MYSTIC RANGES
and BOSTON HEATER FURNACES
always on hand.

Stoves Ranges and Furnaces cleaned and repaired; repairs for all makes furnished to order.

Tin Roofing, Conductor Work and General Jobbing promptly attended to and in a workmanlike manner.

JOHN S. SUMNER,
352 Centre Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

-GO TO-

G. A. BURLEIGH,

-FOR-

BOOTS, SHOES AND SLIPPERS.

38 Essex and 56 Beach Sts., Boston.

-AND-

427 BROADWAY, SOUTH BOSTON.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's

Wear at Lowest Prices.

Gents' Goodyear Welt Shoes, easy as hand

sewed, $2.50 and $3.00.

Slate, Copper, Tin and Grave

ROOFING.

Special attention given to repairing.

John Farquhar's Sons,

Nos. 20 and 23 East St., Boston.

Established 1836. Telephone No. 162.

FISH OYSTERS,

Vegetables & Fruit of all Kinds

-AT-

Bunting's Fish Market,

COLUMBIA BLOCK.

Established 1877. Connected by Telephone.

Daniels' Nonantum Stables

HENRY C. DANIELS, PROPRIETOR.

Livery and Hacking.

Patrons will find at these Stables the best of

Horses and Carriages for hire.

Landau and Hacks, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. Safe and reliable horses for ladies to drive.

BOARDING.

Superior accommodations for Boarding Horses,

lean and comfortable stalls; careful and prompt attention. Telephone 13-3.

M. C. HIGGINS

PRACTICAL PLUMBER

-AND-

Sanitary Engineer.

(Formerly with S. F. Carrier.)

Sumner's Block, Newton.

PLUMBING WORK IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.

Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city; perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

25-17

S. C. SMALL & CO.,

Manufacturers of

FURNITURE

and Interior Decorations.

Recovering and Repairing at moderate prices.

ow 73 P. stand St., Newton. 32y

JOB PRINTING

GRAPHIC OFFICE.

SULPHUR BITTERS

The Greatest Blood Purifier

KNOWN.

This Great German Medicine is the cheapest and best. 128 doses of SULPHUR BITTERS for $1.00, less than one cent a dose. It will cure the worst cases of skin disease, from a common pimple on the face to that awful disease, Scrofula. SULPHUR BITTERS is the best medicine to use in all cases of such stubborn and deep-seated diseases. Do not ever take or mercury, they are dead SULPHUR BITTERS. Place your trust in SULPHUR BITTERS. It is the purest and best medicine ever made.

Try a Bottle To-day!

Send 3-cent stamps to A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass., for best medicine work published.

THE "COLCHESTER" RUBBER CO.

Adhesive Counters.

AT RETAIL BY

A. E. Brickett, Newton Highlands.

A. J. Gordon, Newton.

A. L. Rhynd, Newton.

John McCammon, Newton.

J. V. Sullivan, Newtonville.

G. E. Barrett, Newton Centre.

J. F. Maglinsky, West Newton.

J. T. Thomson, Newton Upper Falls.

THE "COLCHESTER" RUBBER CO.

Adhesive Counters.

AT RETAIL BY

A. E. Brickett, Newton Highlands.

A. J. Gordon, Newton.

A. L. Rhynd, Newton.

John McCammon, Newton.

J. V. Sullivan, Newtonville.

G. E. Barrett, Newton Centre.

J. F. Maglinsky, West Newton.

J. T. Thomson, Newton Upper Falls.

THE "COLCHESTER" RUBBER CO.

Adhesive Counters.

AT RETAIL BY

A. E. Brickett, Newton Highlands.

A. J. Gordon, Newton.

A. L. Rhynd, Newton.

John McCammon, Newton.

J. V. Sullivan, Newtonville.

G. E. Barrett, Newton Centre.

J. F. Maglinsky, West Newton.

J. T. Thomson, Newton Upper Falls.

THE "COLCHESTER" RUBBER CO.

Adhesive Counters.

AT RETAIL BY

A. E. Brickett, Newton Highlands.

A. J. Gordon, Newton.

A. L. Rhynd, Newton.

John McCammon, Newton.

J. V. Sullivan, Newtonville.

G. E. Barrett, Newton Centre.

J. F. Maglinsky, West Newton.

J. T. Thomson, Newton Upper Falls.

THE "COLCHESTER" RUBBER CO.

Adhesive Counters.

AT RETAIL BY

A. E. Brickett, Newton Highlands.

A. J. Gordon, Newton.

A. L. Rhynd, Newton.

John McCammon, Newton.

J. V. Sullivan, Newtonville.

G. E. Barrett, Newton Centre.

J. F. Maglinsky, West Newton.

J. T. Thomson, Newton Upper Falls.

THE "COLCHESTER" RUBBER CO.

Adhesive Counters.

AT RETAIL BY

A. E. Brickett, Newton Highlands.

A. J. Gordon, Newton.

A. L. Rhynd, Newton.

John McCammon, Newton.

J. V. Sullivan, Newtonville.

G. E. Barrett, Newton Centre.

J. F. Maglinsky, West Newton.

J. T. Thomson, Newton Upper Falls.

THE "COLCHESTER" RUBBER CO.

Adhesive Counters.

AT RETAIL BY

A. E. Brickett, Newton Highlands.

A. J. Gordon, Newton.

A. L. Rhynd, Newton.

John McCammon, Newton.

BASE BALL.

ALLEN'S VS. BOSTON COLLEGE.

The Allen's school played with a nine from the Boston College, Monday afternoon. The features of the game were the battery work on the part of Allen's nine, and the fielding work of the Boston College nine. The errors were small in number and the nines were united in their work.

The score by innings:

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Allen's.....0 1 0 3 1 0 5 1 11

Boston College.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

Earned runs—Allen's 11, Boston College 4; bases called—Allen's 4, Boston College 2; struck out—Allen's 9, Quirk 6; passed balls—Allen's 2,

Boston College 4; batteries, Quirk and O'Connell,

Fuller and Cornish; time—2 hrs.; umpire—J. Hall and Lomax.

NEWTON HIGH VS. WELLESLEY HIGH.

The Newton High School nine played with the Wellesley High School nine last Friday afternoon at Newtonville.

The Newtons were easy victors. The Wellesley men, fumbled with the ball many times, when there was no apparent reason for doing so, which resulted favorably for the Newtons. Inman is getting into good shape and opposing nines find it hard to get hits off from him. The score is appended:

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Newton.....5 3 1 2 0 0 1 0 1

Wellesley.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

Earned runs—Newton 5, Wellesley 0; bases called—Newton 3, Wellesley 0; struck out—

Newton 10, Wellesley 0; passed balls—Newton 0,

Wellesley 0; batteries, Newton 0, Wellesley 0;

time—1 hr.; umpire, Dolan and Hollis.

TUFTS VS. NEWTONS.

The Tufts College nine defeated the Newtons at Newton Centre Saturday afternoon. Sherman pitched for the Newtons, but he was not able to keep the Tufts down very well. The good features of the game were the pitching of Huyler and the fielding of Hayes and Warren. Bowen got his finger badly hurt in the fifth inning. The score was as follows:

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Tufts.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Newtons.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

Earned runs—Tufts 12, Newtons 5; bases called—Tufts 12, Newtons 5; struck out—

Tufts 12, Newtons 5; passed balls—Tufts 0,

Newtons 0; batteries, Tufts 0, Newtons 0;

time—1 hr.; umpire, Dolan and Hollis.

OUR BOYS, 7; WEST NEWTONS, 4.

The West Newtons were defeated by the Our Boys of Somerville in a well played game at West Newton Saturday afternoon. The features were the fine pitching of Armstrong for Our Boys and the fielding and base running of the visitors and the back-stop play of Roden.

The fielding of the home nine was ragged at times, and helped out the visitors in their run getting. The score:

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Our Boys.....3 1 0 0 0 1 2 0 7

West Newtons.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

Earned runs—Our Boys 7, West Newtons 0; bases called—Our Boys 7, West Newtons 0; struck out—

Our Boys 12, West Newtons 2; passed balls—Our Boys 0,

West Newtons 0; batteries, Our Boys 0, West Newtons 0; time—1 hr.; umpire, Burke and Sibley.

WE HAD BEEN BUZZED BY THE GALE.

We had been buzzed by the gale so long, that the change to the still, close air, and the warm, bay smell, made me very drowsy. I believe I was already nodding, when a heavy crash brought me to my feet.

"What was that?" I asked myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

"It was the wind," I said to myself.

"No," I said to myself.

WRITTEN FOR THE GRAPHIC.

A December Ride.

Did I ever tell you how we were struck by lightning?

It was the December after Rolf and I were married; only a fortnight to Christmas, but it was real Indian Summer weather, without a hint of winter in the air. We drove over, one day, to Mother Bassett's, and planned to return the next night with the full moon to light the way.

It was a beautiful ride, of twenty miles. The bright blue of the sky and the jays screaming to each other, and all the warm woody odors made it seem like October. I can smell ripe hickory leaves and hear the nuts dropping in mid-winter when a jay calls.

Next day was bright and warm, and we did not notice, until Rolf was handing me into the buggy, that the air had become very sultry, almost stifling in fact; and a thin haze was drawn over the sky.

Father and Rolf had put in some bundles, and mother brought out a set of ancestral fire irons as a present. Father took a survey of the heavens and repacked the bundles under the seat, tucking the carriage robe about them. So it was sunset before we started. Kate trotted off briskly but it was growing dark fast when we reached the pines. There is a seven mile stretch of them, with never a clearing all the way. In the daytime the big trees—it's a wonder they haven't made boxboards of them before this—arching over your head, are full of soft, comforting sounds, and velvet purrings, as though they loved you, they are so grand and strong so gentle too, you wish they would so you the whole twenty miles.

When on moonlight nights, such as we had planned for, the silver lights, like needles, thread them through and through. They talk together overhead; cool, ferny smells and warm, resinous ones drift past your face, and it seems like an enchanted forest. A group of elves dancing in the bright places, or a procession of moss-capped gnomes filing along in the dusky edges would not surprise you in the least. But on a dark night, it is almost like being buried alive.

Just as we entered the wood, the first big raindrop splashed on my face. The darkness shut down on us like the lid of a box. In another minute there was a distant rumble of thunder; and we had not gone a mile before the tempest broke over us.

Kate behaved splendidly. It was well for that she knew the road and was not frightened. At the first flash she stood still; then shook her head, and started off at her best pace, and never faltered nor shied through all the tumult. Rolf held the reins, but did not try to guide her, his eyes were so dazzled by the flashes of lightning and more and more vivid, and so startlingly frequent. And such thunder peals—snap, crackle, crash and rumble in all parts of the sky at once! And the wind roaring and shrieking through the pines, till the whole world was full of savage growls, and cries of pain.

We feared some of the trees might fall, so it was a relief, in one way, when we reached the open country again, although we were then completely at the mercy of the gale, and torrents of rain drove in our faces. I clung to the umbrella with both hands, and now and then was nearly jerked from my seat by a sudden, savage gust.

It was not long before the rain forced its way through the umbrella, and trickled down the handle in such a stream that it ran into my sleeves and dripped from my elbows. Though the wind was so fierce, we were not cold, only breathless and growing exhausted with the struggle.

The tempest appeared to keep directly overhead, and as there was no prospect of cessation of hostilities, we began to strain our eyes anxiously for the sight of a house, where we might seek shelter. A flash of lightning, at last, showed us the silhouette of a big barn, and Kate very willingly trotted up the lane toward it.

A lantern came from an adjoining shed to meet us as we approached. The man who carried it looked disappointed to find us so late, but he had been at work in the shop so as to hear his "folks" when they came home, but he

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

85 WASHINGTON STREET, NEW TON, MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at the sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be
made payable to

EDWARD D. BALDWIN, Editor and Publisher

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

The GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday
afternoons, and is for sale at all News Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston & Albany News Room, Boston Depot.ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished
communications cannot be returned by mail
unless stamps are enclosed.

COPYRIGHT TRANSCRIPT HAS BEEN CONSOLIDATED WITH THE GRAPHIC

THE INCREASE OF PAY.

The proposition to increase the pay of all city laborers to two dollars a day called forth a good deal of eloquence in the common council, Monday night, the chief moving cause apparently being with some of its advocates, that as the city has made a considerable saving in the stone crushing contract, they might as well increase wages all round to prevent a surplus. Others argued that it would be easy enough to make an extra appropriation to cover the additional expense, and that as Newton is a wealthy city it ought to pay as large salaries as any other city or town.

The opponents of the measure argued that the middle of the year is not the proper time to increase salaries; if that is to be done, it should be decided upon when the annual appropriations are being made up, and the plans for the year can be made on the basis of the increased pay. If the wages are to be increased, let it be done next November, for next year, instead of upsetting the figures and plans for every job of work contemplated this year.

There is a good deal of sense in this argument. At present the work for the year is nearly all laid out, and the cost based on the present rate of wages. Increase the wages and the amount of work to be done will have to be cut down.

It is foolish to talk about an extra appropriation this year. When the figures were made up, as large a sum was asked for as could reasonably be granted. Our street department already costs nearly as much as the schools, and the total has aroused much complaint among the taxpayers. But even with this total, not half the petitions for street improvements can be granted. The amount saved by the stone crushing contract will only be added to the general fund; it need not burn a hole in any one's pocket, as it will all be expended on the streets the present year.

If the increase of wages had passed, the result would have been that one laborer out of every eight employed by the city would have had to be discharged. The wages now paid to eight men would have been paid to seven, which would have been very nice for the seven, but rather hard on the eighth man and his family, who are doubtless as deserving and as needy as any one of the seven more fortunate ones.

There are many contractors in the city, who employ a great many laboring men, and these work just as hard as the city laborers, and if current reports are true, a little harder. No one stated that these contractors pay their laborers, who work ten hours a day, while the city men only work nine. If the city is forced to pay so much more for labor, then the extra cost of city work will be so great that the taxpayers will be heard from in their turn, and city work will have to be let out by contract. There are a good many things to be thought of besides the very simple one of voting to raise wages, and a good deal can be said on both sides.

HASTY LEGISLATION.

The Common Council is making quite a reputation this year for hasty legislation, passing orders which have never been considered by a committee, and doing other things rather unusual for a branch of the Newton City Government. One reason is probably the large proportion of new members, who have hardly yet got used to the system usually followed by legislative bodies. Orders come up from the lower branch involving large expenditures, which have never been recommended by any committee, and were it not for the board of aldermen the appropriations would be used up long before the end of the year.

Possibly this is the reason for the loose methods, the lower branch knows that the aldermen will exercise a careful oversight, and that no harm can come if they are a little extravagant, and so they pass orders for new engine houses, transfer steamers to new places, increase everybody's pay and so forth, without much regard for the consequences. They are gaining the reputation of good fellows, extremely generous with the city's money, while the aldermen are looked upon as close fisted men, and as one hearer indignantly remarked the other night, "they are as careful of the city's money as if it was their own."

This charge has certainly a foundation in truth, as the aldermen are a business like body, who realize that there ought to be some limit to the city's expenditures, and having a certain amount of money appropriated, they want to make the best possible use of it, and so they prefer to discuss their plans before passing them. There has been a good deal of loose talk about making extra appropriations for this and that purpose, but as the appropriations were carefully made for this year they should not be exceeded unless some great emergency arises. Some cities have a clause in their charters, that if the appropriations are exceeded, the excess must be paid for out of the pockets of the city council. This is a rather drastic provision, but it is said to work admirably, as every committee then realizes the necessity of spending their money wisely, and the members have a personal interest in keeping within the appropriations.

In another column will be found the provisions of a druggist's sixth class liquor license, which are very stringent, and which are not fully understood by people generally and on this account druggists are often subject to many very embarrassing requests, which they cannot grant if they aim to live up closely to their license. They do not wish to offend influential customers and they are therefore subjected to temptation which would not be put in their way if their patrons understood the law. A man that asks another knowingly to do an illegal act is not without blame, but probably in most cases the requests are made without knowledge, and it takes a great deal of tact on the part of the druggist to explain matters without offending his customers. It is a good deal of responsibility to place upon the druggist, and added to it is the thought that if he does not grant the request a rival will, and so he will lose trade in other ways. For this reason an understanding of the law will help law-abiding people to keep their own shoulders free from blame. The license does not intend to make a drug store in any sense a saloon, and there is this further reason for a strict observance of the law, that the board of mayor and aldermen have shown that they will revoke any license on evidence that it is violated.

THE BOSTON JOURNAL says "One of the shameful lies with which the Bourbons sought to prejudice the people against the McKinley tariff was that under it it would be impossible to export manufactured goods."

The Weekly Bulletin, published by the Three Americas company, of which ex-Governor Brackett is President, and ex-Governors William Claflin and Oliver Ames, Russell Harrison, and other prominent Republicans are directors, whose object is to promote trade with other countries on this hemisphere, publishes this among other facts:

A prominent carpet manufacturer at Lowell, Mass., writes us that it would be absurd for him to send samples of carpet to South America, because his carpets are made of South American wool, very largely, which comes here burdened with a duty of 10 to 15 cents per yard on the carpet. Of course he cannot export carpets, therefore, in competition with England, France and Germany, all with free wool. He would have a better chance even under entire free trade. It is to be regretted that the carpet interest is so hampered. It is useless under such conditions to waste money on a trade we would like very much to get a share of.

Can it be that Messrs. Brackett, Claflin, Ames and the son of the President are Bourbons, who publish shameful lies?

THE 8.27 express from Newton, on Wednesday morning, struck and killed Annie Hartley, a grammar school girl, at the Everett Street crossing, Allston. This is a very dangerous crossing, but hardly more so than the Newton crossings, at which fatal accidents may occur at any time. The railroad company take no steps to abolish these death traps, and the legislature has just defeated a bill by which crossings might be ordered abolished when the railroad company refused to act. The legislators evidently think that the wishes of the railroads are of more importance than the lives of citizens.

THE MILFORD JOURNAL thinks that Newton churches ought to copy the example of one Milford church, which has a printed calendar, to do away with the "pulpit notice nuisance." Milford is as usual behind the times as most of the Newton churches have had printed calendars every Sunday for a number of years.

THE GRAPHIC will publish an original story, next week from a well known Newton writer, founded on facts in his own experience.

LAST Saturday was a bad day for Newton ball clubs, and the visiting nines enjoyed the picnic.

High School Notes.

The Newton High school orchestra will finish its prosperous season this week. On Wednesday night it played at a reception in Auburndale, on Thursday evening at the Horticultural fair in Boston, and will also play there tomorrow evening. To-day at recess they provided music while the young ladies danced. The orchestra is composed of the following members: Violins, Messrs. Page, Wiggin, Dillingham and Gulich; flute, Mr. Chapman; cornet, Mr. Loring; clarinet, Mr. Millar; piano, Mr. Dillingham.

Twenty young ladies of '92 took part at the West Newton Unitarian May Festival last Saturday afternoon. They went through marching movements, free hand, dumb bell and wand exercises much to their credit and to the pleasure of the audience.

The Review appeared this week. One very noticeable thing about it is the abundance of literary essays and the lack of school items. The lyceum, class and political columns were omitted.

The Calisthenic officers have finally obtained what they consider satisfactory proofs and have placed their orders. Any who desire one of the photographs, the same size as the battalion pictures, may obtain them of Odin Fritz, Newton.

Newton Cottage Hospital.

Newton, May 8, 1891.

At a meeting of the Trustees of the Newton Cottage Hospital, held the 1st inst, a Committee consisting of Hon. Wm. Claflin, E. B. Haskell, Esq., and E. L. Pickard, Esq., was appointed "To take into consideration all matters pertaining to the Hospital Controversy and if possible to report a plan by which an amicable settlement may be reached."

The following is a copy of the report of the Committee presented at a meeting held this day.

W. P. ELLISON, Clerk.

To the Board of Trustees of the Newton Cottage Hospital:

The undersigned, to whom was committed the delicate task of considering the unfortunate discussions in the Hospital management, entered upon it with some reluctance, because, while believing that they might agree upon an equitable plan of adjustment, they appreciated how hard it is for men who have conscientiously taken a decided stand to consent to any modification of their views. But the importance of the interests involved forbade us to decline the mission entrusted to us without an honest effort to reconcile conflicting views, and so happily bring back harmony and efficiency to a most worthy charitable work, in which all the citizens of Newton have a vital interest.

We see no reason to doubt that positions have been conscientiously taken by both parties in the controversy, but we believe that mistakes have been made on both sides, the Hospital being the chief sufferer in all cases. Yet we do not see, by the investigation we have been able to make, that the causes of the discord are too grave to admit of easy and complete reconciliation if the good friends of the Hospital on both sides will sink personal prejudices to a reasonable extent and have a little consideration for the feelings of those who do not see things as they do. The perfect freedom from any clashing between the two different schools of medicine equally entrusted with the medical and surgical service of the Hospital is an example of high-minded liberality as encouraging as it is rare, and it is the ground of our most sanguine hopes for restoring harmony. The members of your committee can only say for themselves that they are free from prejudice, and that their single purpose is to present a plan of adjustment which shall be fair to all concerned, and which shall be as little liable as possible to misunderstandings in the future.

While we recognize that the general plan upon which our Cottage Hospital is organized is especially liberal in admitting to its service both of the great schools of medicine, we see no good reason why it should not be made still broader by removing or changing the requirement for eligibility to service on the Hospital Staff. We do not believe that anybody for one moment supposes that the Board of Trustees, through its executive committee, will select for that Staff any physician who is not properly qualified. So far as we have been able to inform ourselves, such a requirement is not commonly made for hospital service. It certainly is not needed in an organization so liberal as ours. Your by-laws already provide that the Hospital shall be managed by a committee of five, appointed by the Executive Committee, and upon that Committee there is, or is to be, an important representation of the physicians of both schools. These physicians will ordinarily name the men who are to form the Hospital Staff. We can scarcely conceive the possibility of a case where the united votes of these physicians in favor of a reasonable course should not prevail in the Committee. Yet for extraordinary cases, if any arise, it must be remembered that the Board of Trustees, acting for itself, or through its Executive Committee, has a broader responsibility than the representatives of any class or profession. It stands in the place of all the people who are interested in the Hospital, and who give to it money or service, and it is responsible to all for a wise, honest and efficient administration of its affairs. The change of organization by which the Medical Board was merged in the Executive Committee seems to us to have been wise and in the interest of harmony and efficiency, and if the provisions of the new system are observed in letter and spirit we do not see why any cause of complaint should arise.

We would accordingly recommend the amendment of Article XIII of the by-laws by striking out the words "shall be members of the Massachusetts Medical Society or of the Massachusetts Homoeopathic Medical Society, and". If it would obviate objections on the part of the physicians we would recommend in place of the amendment to Article XIII proposed above another amendment making physicians who are members of the Massachusetts Medical Society, or the Massachusetts Homoeopathic Medical Society, or graduates of Medical Schools recognized by either of these societies, eligible for appointment on the Hospital staff. We would also recommend that the executive committee, in the interest of harmony, and for the purpose of removing all cause for controversy, appoint for the current year the visiting physicians suggested by the physicians on that committee. It being understood that this action is substantially the acceptance by the executive committee of a proposition heretofore made by the physicians, and that both parties to the controversy shall accept it in good faith as a final and final settlement of the point in dispute.

Further, we would most earnestly recommend that the members of finance and building committees and the clerk and treasurer who recently tendered their resignations, promptly and cordially withdraw them and resume the duties of their offices.

Finally we would recommend that all citizens of Newton take an active interest in the hospital and harmoniously work to make it the pride of and a blessing to our city.

WILLIAM CLAFLIN,

E. B. HASKELL,

EDWARD L. PICKARD.

May 12, 1891.

The undersigned, in answer to a question that has been raised, desire to say that they understand in case their report on the Newton Cottage Hospital controversy be accepted, and its recommendations adopted, one effect will be that all opposition on the part of the physicians to the appointment of Dr. McIntosh as consulting physician for the current year and as a visiting physician next year, if he be selected by the Executive Committee, shall cease.

WILLIAM CLAFLIN,

E. B. HASKELL,

EDWARD L. PICKARD.

It is said that the school board will be asked to appoint June 13, Saturday, for the prize drill.

SISSON & HENDERSON,

TAILORS.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Spring and Summer, '91.

The Correct Styles.

FULL DRESS, SEMI-DRESS and BUSINESS SUITS.

Novelties Always on Hand.

IMPORTERS OF FINE CLOTHS.

Sartorial Parlors,

37 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON.

Over Savage, King & Co.

Dress Suits to Let.

ALIVE

To Your Wants For SPRING, We have Out-done All Other SEASONS by Carrying the Largest Stock of

Artistic Millinery,

EVER SHOWN IN

WALTHAM.

Come and See Our Assortment. It will prepare your ideas so you can leave your Orders with us.

Please remember we have removed to

LINCOLN'S NEW BLOCK.

J. W. MACURDY,

133 Moody Street.

SOUTH SIDE, WALTHAM.

EUROPE. H. GAZE & SON'S

Select tours under personal escort (each party limited to twenty-five). Leaves New York, April 22, May 2, 6, 13, 27, June 3, 17, 24, 27, July 1, 4, 8, 22, 23, etc. North Cape and Russia, June 27; Fall Tour, Holy Land and Egypt, Sept. 16; Round the World (westward) Oct. 3. Send for postage for Gazette containing full particulars. W. H. EAVES, New England Agent, Parker House, Boston. Ladies received in Reception Room. Estimates furnished for independent travel covering any desired route throughout Europe. Agents for all lines ocean steamers, and choice routes secured. Plans of steamers, sailings, etc., on application. Correspondence solicited.

My Hat Blown Off!!

We are offering 10 Per Cent. Discount for 30 days on our Nobby Hats. No Hamburg, real HONEST BARGAINS. EVERY HAT WARRANTED. Don't fail to secure a SPRING HAT at a very Low Price.

PARKER'S BEE HIVE,

278 Washington St., Boston.

YOU CAN SAVE

FROM

$2.00 to $5.00

—ON—

A BABY CARRIAGE

—OR—

REFRIGERATOR

—AT—

F. L. CRAVES,

So. Side Furniture Rooms.

BABY CARRIAGES

FROM

$4.00 to $35.00.

194 Moody St., Waltham.

NOW THE PARTY - SEASON

Has returned, We are prepared to receive

Orders for

Parties, Receptions, Weddings,

Luncheon, Etc.

We have just received from New York, a lot of

FANCY MOULDS OF FANCY ICES.

ALL KINDS OF

ICE CREAMS and SHERBET. CAKE in

Variety. WEDDING CAKE a Specialty.

SALTED ALMONDS, CANDIES

and BON BONS of all kinds may be found at

PAXTON'S,

Eliot Block, - Newton.

Real Estate.

Mortgages.

Insurance.

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale.
SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATES in the above villages.
Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES
—OFFICES—
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

SAUL BROTHERS,
Watch Makers, Jewelers—AND—
OPTICIANS.

135 MOODY ST., LINCOLN LOCK, WALTHAM.

Make a specialty of repairing Fine Watches and French Clocks.
We wish to call the attention of the people of Newton in regard to this branch of our business. We will call for and repair your French Clock and warrant it to give satisfaction or no charge.

References: C. F. EDDY, S. F. CATE, NEWTON GRAPHIC, ETC.

Drop us a Postal.

SAUL BROTHERS,

135 MOODY STREET, - WALTHAM.

E. U. SAUL.

C. T. SAUL.

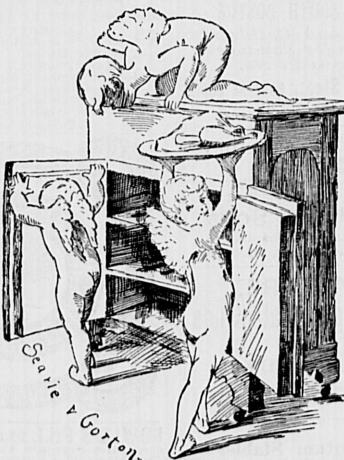

NEW HORSESHOEING SHOP.

PATRICK B. FARREL & CO.,

(Formerly of Murray & Farrell.)

BROOK STREET, NEWTON.

With an experience of 21 years in Newton, much of the time with the great horseshoer of this vicinity, the late Mr. Nugent, and for the past 8 years a partner of the firm of Murray & Farrell, is feeling properly ask for a share of the public patronage. Special care taken with shoeing over-reaching, interfering and tender-footed horses.

Alaska Refrigerator,

Best in the World. $3.50 to $60.

Baby Carriages,

Also an extensive line of medium and fine

FURNITURE, CARPETS AND RANGES.

Standard Furniture Co.,

23 WASHINGTON AND 87 FRIEND STREETS, BOSTON.

Reasonable Credit to Trustworthy Persons.

THOMAS O'CALLAGHAN & CO.,

CARPETS.

ROXBURY TAPESTRY.

We are the largest retailers of this

carpet in New England. The reputation that these celebrated goods have established is gaining more favor year by year. We will sell during the coming week 25 patterns at

75 cents per yard.

ART SQUARES.

Best Quality, All Wool.

2 1/2 x 3 yards.....$5.63

3 x 3 yards.....6.75

3 x 4 yards.....7.87

3 x 4 yards.....9.0

WADDEN CARPET LINING,

5 rows stitching.....2 1/2-c. per yd.

LOWELL BRUSSELS,

30 patterns.....$1.00 per yd.

LOWELL EXTRA SUPERS,

20 patterns.....62 1/2-c. per yd.

EXTRA SUPERS,

20 patterns.....50c. per yd.

STRAW MATTING,

1,000 pieces, 40 yards in each,

$6.00 per roll.

Thomas O'Callaghan & Co.,

577, 579, 601 Washington St.

NEWTONVILLE.

—C. Farley, Turner, 433 Wash. St. Newton
—The new flag pole is in readiness and will be put up in a few days.
—Mr. Babcock, formerly of Murray street, has removed to Chelsea.
—Mr. Nelson Brown has leased Capt. J. Q. Bird's stable for the summer.

—Capt. and Mrs. Galbraith have departed for their summer cottage at Cataumet, Mass.

—F. H. Hunting, the expressman, purchased a new horse this week—a good stepper.

—Mrs. Sarah Dimick of Randolph, Vt., has been a guest of Mrs. E. N. Boyden the past week.

—Dr. David E. Baker has been elected a member of the Middlesex South District Medical Society.

—Mr. Austin T. Sylvester and family returned from a trip to New York, Washington and Philadelphia.

—A very enjoyable musicale was given by pupils of Prof. Allsberry in Tremont Hall, Tuesday evening.

—Mrs. G. L. Johnson of Walnut street leaves Saturday for a short trip to New York and Washington.

—W. N. Potter and family have given up their residence on Grove Hill Park and have removed to Roxbury.

—Mr. J. C. McIntyre of Highland avenue took his first degree at Dalhousie lodge, P. & A. M., Wednesday evening.

—The following letters are awaiting claimants at the postoffice: Mrs. Isaac Fenno, William Peabody, Ross Shields.

—Mt. Ida Council, No. 1247 of the Royal Arcanum, held a basket sale and a musical entertainment in Tremont Hall, last evening.

—Rev. Dr. A. E. Dunning of Boston will preach at the Central Congregational church, next Sunday at 10.45 a. m. and 7.30 p. m.

—"Squire" Pierce has taken down the fence bordering his estate on Cabot street and is making improvements about the grounds.

—Services at the Universalist church next Sunday morning at 10.45, Rev. R. A. White will preach. Young people's meeting at 6.30 o'clock p. m.

—Mrs. Chaloner has resigned the position of secretary of the Woman's Guild which she has held for the past two years, as she will be much away the coming season.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Cotting attended the reception in the Universalist church, Tuesday evening and received the congratulations of their many friends.

—The last half of the bowling match between Messrs. Bridgman and Savage for the clock will be rolled until after the finals in the club tourney are completed.

—In the first set of final matches resulting in a tie between teams 2, 7 and 8, Bridgman knocked down 1426 pins; Richards, 1401; Marsh, 1377; Cunningham, 1302; Hamilton, 1332; Buswell, 1339; Cutler, 1317; Denison, 1263.

—The annual meeting of the Guild will be held on Tuesday next at 3 p. m. in the Methodist vestry, when the reports of the secretary and various committees will be read and the election of officers for the coming year will be made. A full attendance is desired.

—Mr. Phillip Gruber, formerly of this city, spent the Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Guilford. He has been recently located at Woonsocket, R. I., but has left that place to accept the position of head weaver in the Sawyer Woolen Mills at Pittsfield, this week.

—The Flower Mission begins its labor of love next Tuesday morning when Mrs. Brewer, chairman of the Guild committee, in this work will be at the Albany station.

—At 9 o'clock, to receive with her assistants whatever donations of flowers, fruits or vegetables may be sent by kind friends for the poor and sick of our great city whose lot is less happy than ours, let the children remember.

—Considerable excitement was occasioned in the square Wednesday afternoon when a horse attached to the forward wheels of a wagon came flying down Walnut street, taking the B. & A. tracks upon reaching the crossing and traveling up the railroad to the crossing above the truck house. The animal took the street again at that point and came back towards Newtonville as far as Lowell street; thence through Lowell towards the Waltham line. The horse was stopped by H. B. Day's coachman. The damage consisted of a badly twisted axle and the wheels and shafts were rendered useless. The body of the wagon was overturned at Newtonville and was not much injured.

—The members of the Newton Club base ball nine think they have got a good eye, but those who ought to know say the boys can't hit a balloon, although they covered considerable ground on the Magnolia field last Saturday afternoon. Follett, especially, measuring off quite a space. When the members of the nine returned after the game, they looked like some of the tattered and used up heroes of '61. It took a generous application of liniment to limber up the stiffened joints and get the men in shape for dress parade. They claim that base ball is the next great sport to bowling and another heroic leather hunting contest is being arranged. The Newton High school nine is anxious to arrange a game and possibly a date will be agreed upon.

—The Universalist church parlors contained a large company of ladies and gentlemen Tuesday evening, upon the occasion of a reception tendered to Rev. and Mrs. H. A. White by the Goddard Literary Union. Over 300 invitations were sent out and the guests numbered about 250 persons.

—The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and potted plants. It was an informal affair and the reverend gentlemen and his amiable wife received the kind assurances and cordial hand claps of their many friends. A collation and the usual social festivities were among the agreeable features of the occasion which was rendered yet more enjoyable by an impromptu entertainment consisting of vocal numbers by Mrs. French and Mrs. Hall, singing by a quartet, comprising Messrs. Pinkham and Johnson, Mrs. French and Miss Leavitt, and recitations by Miss Maud Lewis. The special committee having charge of the affair comprised Messrs. Grant and Parker, Mrs. H. F. Ross, Mrs. A. B. Tainter and Mrs. D. H. Fitch. The reception committee comprised Messrs. C. B. Pillsbury, W. F. Kimball, H. F. Ross, B. S. Grant, F. M. Whipple, W. E. Chaloner and S. W. French. The refreshment features were under the supervision of a committee consisting of Mrs. Alice Johnson, Miss Nellie Wadsworth, Mrs. D. H. Fitch and Miss Hattie Calley.

—At Roland W. Macurdy's in the Parmenter block, 29 Moody street, opposite F. R. R. station, Waltham, may be found a large and choice assortment of the season's latest styles in millinery. Special attention is given to elderly ladies work, special shapes and great care taken in fitting to the head. Children's hats and trimmings in a large variety. Trimmed hats and bonnets trimmed with care to the correctness of the season's styles. The ladies of Newton will find the millinery to be equal as to quality and style of work to that of any of the leading millinery establishments of Boston. 32 2t

Auction.

Aban, Trowbridge & Co. will sell the Scripture house on Magnolia street, Newton, at auction, to-morrow at 3.45 p. m. on the premises. For particulars see adv.

WEST NEWTON.

Farley rents pianos, 433 Wash. St. Newton

—Mr. Covell and family have returned to their home on Waltham street.

—Mr. Nat Lane is at home this week, after an extended business trip.

—Mrs. M. J. Davis has returned from a visit to relatives in Townsend, Mass.

—Mrs. Tilden of Rockland and her son, Bertie, are visiting Mrs. George Bailey.

—The depot grounds are looking finely and are kept up always in the best condition.

—Winslow Fisk has become an expert bicyclist and now takes a daily spin on a fine road machine.

—C. P. Powell, the efficient gate tender at the Chestnut street crossing is laid up this week with malaria.

—Prof. Elwell of Amherst and family are visiting Mrs. Elwell's father, ex-Alderman James H. Nickerson.

—Mr. H. P. Barber has recovered from his recent illness and has resumed his customary duties at Cook's store.

—The marriage of Asst. City Clerk Brimblecom and Miss Stone of Watertown is one of the approaching hymeneal events.

—Rev. Dr. Faunce participated in the alumni exercises of the Theological Institution at Newton Centre, Wednesday afternoon.

—Mr. Joseph Bacon of Prospect street has purchased a handsome pair of horses. They are speedy animals and represent a considerable valuation.

—Col. Lawrence and family are expected home this week. They have been traveling 2 years in Europe and have visited many points of interest in the Old World.

—Mr. Carlton has purchased the Bacon house on Washington street, adjoining Andrew Peter's estate. It will be remodeled into an apartment house for families.

—Charles Ward Post 62, will attend memorial service Sunday following Memorial Day in the Second Congregational church. A memorial address will be delivered by Gen. John L. Swift.

—A. J. Fiske has fitted up a hardware department in his store. He recently purchased the hardware stock of Alonzo Whitney to which he added a complete line of goods for builders and family use.

—Mr. and Mrs. John W. Carter are making arrangements for an extended European trip. Mr. Carter intends to make explorations in Africa and Mrs. Carter will spend a year or longer in Germany.

—Members of the class of '91, N. H. S., gave a May return party to their young lady friends at Nickerson's Hall, last evening. The matrons were Mrs. A. W. Walworth and Mrs. E. R. Farbell. Miss Wilmot presided at the piano. Mr. Barlow provided the refreshments.

—A sale of useful and fancy articles, and refreshments, will be held at the Williston Home, Waltham street, Friday and Saturday, May 22 and 23rd, afternoon and evening. It is hoped there will be a generous attendance, and much pains have been taken to make the sale an attractive one.

—The semi-annual election of the Newell Y. P. S. C. E. occurred Tuesday evening in the Second Congregational church parlors. These officers were elected: William Folsom, president; Miss Louise Richardson, corresponding secretary; Miss Sarah M. Frost, corresponding secretary.

—A meeting of the Second Congregational church, last evening, it was decided to adopt the articles of faith set forth by a special committee of the national council in 1880; and also voted to adopt a new set of principles and rules and to publish the same in a manual which will soon be issued.

—The following letters are awaiting claimants at the postoffice: Emma Allen, George W. Burgess, Thomas Callahan, Mary Connelley, F. D. Entremont, Penina E. E. Foran, Michael Feney, Thomas Hamilton, John Kennedy, Mrs. John Lyons, Col. T. R. Matthews, Evelyn Newton, Lizzie Paisley, Rebecca Sparrow, Chester Snow, Jr., Henry Wainwright.

—The May festival of the West Newton Unitarian Sunday school was held in the City Hall, last Saturday afternoon. The exercises opened with a grand march by the school, followed by a Maypole dance, and fancy dances by young girls from the Barnard Memorial Institute of Boston.

—Other features of the occasion were sleight of hand tricks by Mr. C. W. Chase of Boston, and a calisthenic drill by 20 young ladies of the class of '92, Newton high school, under command of Miss Mildred Thompson.

—The installation of the officers of Loyalty lodge, I. O. G. T., took place in Carpenter's Hall, Wednesday evening. The installing officials were Reuben Falknall, D. G. C. T., assisted by Miss Watson of Charity lodge. The officers installed were W. F. Bruce, C. P. T.; Miss Nellie Nichols, V. T.; Miss McCallan, chaplain; Howard Frost, M.; Miss F. Clouston, secretary; Dana Libbey, A. S.; Sarah Frost, F. S.; Arthur S. Kimball, treasurer; Miss A. McClellan, S.; Mr. Whitman, G. Miss E. Ellis, S. J. T.; A. R. Coe, P. C. T.

—What proved to be a rather serious affair started in a quarrel in Bjorn Bjornson's boarding house on Chestnut street, shortly after midnight Sunday morning. One of Bjornson's boarders, Otto Dronemann and Gustave Miller, got into a dispute leading to the exchange of exceedingly uncomplimentary remarks, and Dronemann became so angered that he made a furious assault upon Miller, stabbing him three times in the breast with a small jack-knife. Besides using the weapon, Dronemann used his teeth and badly lacerated Miller's right hand. Officer John J. Davis arrested the two men and locked them up. None of Miller's wounds are regarded as being of a serious character. In the police court, Monday, Dronemann was arraigned for an assault with a dangerous weapon and sentenced to 7 months in the house of correction.

—The annual meeting of the West Newton Woman's Educational Club was held in the Unitarian church, Wednesday afternoon. The reports of the officers were read and accepted, that of the secretary reviewing the work of the club for the past year. It will be given in full in the next issue of this paper. The condition of the treasury was shown to be in good shape with a balance on hand over all expenses. The membership comprises 200 women. The following officers were elected: Mrs. E. N. L. Walton, president; Mrs. Kate Mead, Mrs. Sarah Davis, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. L. G. Pratt, vice-presidents; Mrs. A. P. Hastings, recording secretary; Mrs. Marion Freeland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. G. D. Gilman, Mrs. Mary E. Putnam, Mrs. Ellen Perrin, Mrs. E. A. Marsh, Mrs. H. M. Phillips, Mrs. H. E. Harrison, Mrs. A. C. Ellis, Mrs. Susan Crockett, directors. At the close of the business session the ladies adjourned to the banquet hall, where a collation was enjoyed. This was followed by after dinner speeches. Nearly 200 ladies were present. Quotations from Emerson were given and some of the ladies gave an idea of one thing that they would do for Newton provided they had the power and unlimited means at their disposal. The post prandial exercises were very witty and entertaining.

—A Steamer Chair is a most useful and comfortable piece of furniture for the price. They rest the entire body, arms, legs, back and head. There are eight different styles and one can be bought as low as $2 at Faine's Furniture Warerooms, 48 Canal street, Boston.

WEST NEWTON.

Farley rents pianos, 433 Wash. St. Newton

—Mr. Covell and family have returned to their home on Waltham street.

—Mr. Nat Lane is at home this week, after an extended business trip.

—Mrs. M. J. Davis has returned from a visit to relatives in Townsend, Mass.

—Mrs. Tilden of Rockland and her son, Bertie, are visiting Mrs. George Bailey.

—The depot grounds are looking finely and are kept up always in the best condition.

—Winslow Fisk has become an expert bicyclist and now takes a daily spin on a fine road machine.

—C. P. Powell, the efficient gate tender at the Chestnut street crossing is laid up this week with malaria.

—Prof. Elwell of Amherst and family are visiting Mrs. Elwell's father, ex-Alderman James H. Nickerson.

—Mr. H. P. Barber has recovered from his recent illness and has resumed his customary duties at Cook's store.

—The marriage of Asst. City Clerk Brimblecom and Miss Stone of Watertown is one of the approaching hymeneal events.

—Rev. Dr. Faunce participated in the alumni exercises of the Theological Institution at Newton Centre, Wednesday afternoon.

—Mr. Joseph Bacon of Prospect street has purchased a handsome pair of horses. They are speedy animals and represent a considerable valuation.

—Col. Lawrence and family are expected home this week. They have been traveling 2 years in Europe and have visited many points of interest in the Old World.

—Mr. Carlton has purchased the Bacon house on Washington street, adjoining Andrew Peter's estate. It will be remodeled into an apartment house for families.

—Charles Ward Post 62, will attend memorial service Sunday following Memorial Day in the Second Congregational church. A memorial address will be delivered by Gen. John L. Swift.

—A. J. Fiske has fitted up a hardware department in his store. He recently purchased the hardware stock of Alonzo Whitney to which he added a complete line of goods for builders and family use.

—Mr. and Mrs. John W. Carter are making arrangements for an extended European trip. Mr. Carter intends to make explorations in Africa and Mrs. Carter will spend a year or longer in Germany.

—Members of the class of '91, N. H. S., gave a May return party to their young lady friends at Nickerson's Hall, last evening. The matrons were Mrs. A. W. Walworth and Mrs. E. R. Farbell. Miss Wilmot presided at the piano. Mr. Barlow provided the refreshments.

—A sale of useful and fancy articles, and refreshments, will be held at the Williston Home, Waltham street, Friday and Saturday, May 22 and 23rd, afternoon and evening. It is hoped there will be a generous attendance, and much pains have been taken to make the sale an attractive one.

—The semi-annual election of the Newell Y. P. S. C. E. occurred Tuesday evening in the Second Congregational church parlors. These officers were elected: William Folsom, president; Miss Louise Richardson, corresponding secretary; Miss Sarah M. Frost, corresponding secretary.

—A meeting of the Second Congregational church, last evening, it was decided to adopt the articles of faith set forth by a special committee of the national council in 1880; and also voted to adopt a new set of principles and rules and to publish the same in a manual which will soon be issued.

—The following letters are awaiting claimants at the postoffice: Emma Allen, George W. Burgess, Thomas Callahan, Mary Connelley, F. D. Entremont, Penina E. E. Foran, Michael Feney, Thomas Hamilton, John Kennedy, Mrs. John Lyons, Col. T. R. Matthews, Evelyn Newton, Lizzie Paisley, Rebecca Sparrow, Chester Snow, Jr., Henry Wainwright.

—The May festival of the West Newton Unitarian Sunday school was held in the City Hall, last Saturday afternoon. The exercises opened with a grand march by the school, followed by a Maypole dance, and fancy dances by young girls from the Barnard Memorial Institute of Boston.

—Other features of the occasion were sleight of hand tricks by Mr. C. W. Chase of Boston, and a calisthenic drill by 20 young ladies of the class of '92, Newton high school, under command of Miss Mildred Thompson.

—The installation of the officers of Loyalty lodge, I. O. G. T., took place in Carpenter's Hall, Wednesday evening. The installing officials were Reuben Falknall, D. G. C. T., assisted by Miss Watson of Charity lodge. The officers installed were W. F. Bruce, C. P. T.; Miss Nellie Nichols, V. T.; Miss McCallan, chaplain; Howard Frost, M.; Miss F. Clouston, secretary; Dana Libbey, A. S.; Sarah Frost, F. S.; Arthur S. Kimball, treasurer; Miss A. McClellan, S.; Mr. Whitman, G. Miss E. Ellis, S. J. T.; A. R. Coe, P. C. T.

—What proved to be a rather serious affair started in a quarrel in Bjorn Bjornson's boarding house on Chestnut street, shortly after midnight Sunday morning. One of Bjornson's boarders, Otto Dronemann and Gustave Miller, got into a dispute leading to the exchange of exceedingly uncomplimentary remarks, and Dronemann became so angered that he made a furious assault upon Miller, stabbing him three times in the breast with a small jack-knife. Besides using the weapon, Dronemann used his teeth and badly lacerated Miller's right hand. Officer John J. Davis arrested the two men and locked them up. None of Miller's wounds are regarded as being of a serious character. In the police court, Monday, Dronemann was arraigned for an assault with a dangerous weapon and sentenced to 7 months in the house of correction.

—The annual meeting of the West Newton Woman's Educational Club was held in the Unitarian church, Wednesday afternoon. The reports of the officers were read and accepted, that of the secretary reviewing the work of the club for the past year. It will be given in full in the next issue of this paper. The condition of the treasury was shown to be in good shape with a balance on hand over all expenses. The membership comprises 200 women. The following officers were elected: Mrs. E. N. L. Walton, president; Mrs. Kate Mead, Mrs. Sarah Davis, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. L. G. Pratt, vice-presidents; Mrs. A. P. Hastings, recording secretary; Mrs. Marion Freeland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. G. D. Gilman, Mrs. Mary E. Putnam, Mrs. Ellen Perrin, Mrs. E. A. Marsh, Mrs. H. M. Phillips, Mrs. H. E. Harrison, Mrs. A. C. Ellis, Mrs. Susan Crockett, directors. At the close of the business session the ladies adjourned to the banquet hall, where a collation was enjoyed. This was followed by after dinner speeches. Nearly 200 ladies were present. Quotations from Emerson were given and some of the ladies gave an idea of one thing that they would do for Newton provided they had the power and unlimited means at their disposal. The post prandial exercises were very witty and entertaining.

AUBURNDALE.

—Mrs. George Ordway has removed to Allston.

—Vincent Pluta is again at work in his father's market.

—Mr. George Mann is still quite seriously ill with rheumatism.

—A party of Harvard College boys stopping at the Woodland Park Hotel, Sunday evening.

—Mrs. Edmond, Mr. Waldo and Mr. and Mrs. Van Wageningen are at Mrs. Walker's for the summer.

—Michael McCarthy is assisting at the depot baggage-room during the convalescence of Clinton Crandall.

—Mrs. Williams, mother of Mrs. Bridgman, Hancock street, is extremely ill, with small prospect of recovery.

—A number of Auburndale people attended the Church wedding in Grace church on Wednesday evening.

—Miss Della T. Smith of the Riverside school is chairman of the program committee of the Wheaton Seminary Club.

—Mr. Charles Morse, formerly of this place, has been appointed organist and choirmaster of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

—The list of letters at the post office awaiting claimants are as follows: Miss Ellen Greedy, Miss Millie Ladner, 5, Miss Nellie Morris.

—Mrs. Walter M. Lincoln is the recipient of much social attention at Riverview, the home of her sister, on the Niagara River, Ontario.

—Rev. John Matteson of Cambridge will conduct the services on Sunday next at the Church of the Messiah. Morning service at 10.45; evening service at 4.45.

—Fred Williams, agent of Adams Express Co., is to take a week's vacation at his home in Utica, N. Y., and his place on the team will be taken by A. L. Damon.

—Mr. Crandall who was severely injured by being struck by the moving train, is cared for by Miss Sutherland, one of the finest nurses from the Cottage Hospital.

—Rev. T. W. Bishop, pastor of the Methodist church, has leased Mr. P. A. Butler's house on Woodland avenue for one year and will move in about the middle of May.

—Mr. Joseph Lee has put on a new carriage this week which he will run through the summer from the depot to the Woodland Park Hotel. It is drawn by a pair of fine horses, driven by Charles Carter.

—The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Methodist church, held a social in the church parlors, Wednesday evening. A curio entertainment was one of the attractions. The other attraction was the supper, furnished by the young men.

—The funeral services of Mrs. W. W. Briggs were held on Friday afternoon and Rev. Calvin Cutler officiated, assisted by Rev. D. W. Faunce, D. D., of West Newton. A mixed quartet rendered music at the service. The floral tributes included a pillow from the grandchildren, and a wreath from the children.

—The young ladies belonging to the S. D. society at Lasell Seminary, will give their annual banquet the first week of June, and the committee in charge are striving to surpass, if possible, the elegance of previous years, and have put the preparations into the hands of a well known Boston caterer.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will consist of moving out the front of the clubhouse, enlarging the balcony and making the bowling alleys regulation length. A vote was passed to reserve the use of club property on holidays, and Saturdays after 12 m. for gentlemen only. Two ice boats have been placed in the house and four footers are being built, two to be ready in about 10 days.

—The Newton Boat Club held a meeting in the club house at Riverside, Thursday evening. Several changes were made in the bylaws, which were unanimously adopted. The alterations will

NEWTON BAPTIST GRADUATES.

REV. DR. HOVEY'S BACCALAUREATE SERMON TO THE CLASS.

The spacious auditorium of the Baptist church, Newton Centre, contained a large congregation Sunday morning, when President Alvah Hovey of the Newton Theological Institution delivered the baccalaureate sermon before the members of the graduating class, their friends present and the parishioners of the Newton Centre Baptist church.

The preliminary exercises consisted of singing by the church choir, the reading of scripture selections by Rev. Lemuel C. Barnes, and the invocation by Prof. Basil Manly, D. D., of Louisville, Ky.

Rev. Dr. Hovey's discourse treated of "The Sacred Writings." He took his text from II. Timothy ii., 14-17: "But abide thou in the thing which thou hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them, and that from a babe thou hast known the sacred writings which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus."

The sacred writings spoken of in this place, said the speaker, are those of the Old Testament; but it is certainly right, he added, to associate with them the writings of the New Testament as equally sacred, that we may look together at certain noteworthy features of the whole Bible, which we have known from childhood. No apology is needed, continued Dr. Hovey, for saying a last word to you on this great subject, for the theme is not only one of intrinsic importance, it is also one that now engages public attention to an unusual degree.

Let us, then, look at a few characteristics of that unique collection of writings which we call the Bible, and which we believe to be, in some proper sense of the word, sacred. And let us assume, for the time being, that

A REVELATION OF TRUTH concerning God and man has been preserved for our use in those writings, and on the basis of this moderate assumption proceed to inspect them with care, that we may ascertain the features of that revelation. In so doing, we shall find that it may be truly described, first, as complete, systematic and philosophical. It was conveyed to the people in fragments of history, biography and song, in proverbs, warnings and promises; and who can say that the method of communication chosen was not adapted to the men and the time?

Jets of light, flashes of truth, visible judgments, striking deliverances, pathetic admonitions were what they seemed to need at that period of their history, if we may reason from the method which God took to make them receive his truth and obey his will. The same course was followed according to the gospel record by Jesus Christ himself when teaching the people at a later age. He taught the people simply on particular points, and by way of testimony rather than of argument. This was what they could bear; anything beyond this would have been unsuited to their mental or moral state. The gospel narratives are constructed in the same manner.

The passages of history and biography in the Bible must be pronounced with great emphasis fragmentary, and probably intentionally so. This should be borne in mind when studying the sacred writings, and we should never expect to fill up the wide gaps which in many cases separate one event from another. If we could, a hundred DIFFICULTIES MIGHT VANISH and our critical judgment be satisfied. But who can know that the added material would benefit the world? Who can assure us that the Bible we have is not large enough for all mankind?

The revelation of God in the sacred writings may be also described as multifarious. The truth which the prophet was to speak was perhaps revealed to his mind by a significant picture spread before his inward eye or by a divine message addressed to his soul's ear. The forms in which it was given to the prophets were, however, no more various than the forms in which they delivered it to the people. Indeed, they repeated, as far as possible, the form, as well as the substance, of what they received. Why should they not do this, or how could they help doing it? For if any imagery was employed in revealing a truth to them, it would naturally be the imagery with which they were familiar; and if language, though voiceless, was the medium of imparting any truth to their minds, it would certainly be their own language as known and used by themselves. Why should not God, when bringing truth to a mind under the inspiration of his spirit, bring it in the Hebrew dialect to the Hebrew, and in the ploughman's dialect to the ploughman? And if this is God's way of conveying truth into a prophet's mind, it will be the prophet's way of conveying to the people.

The revelation of God in the sacred writings may be described as progressive. "First the blade, then the ear, then the full corn in the ear," is a proper characterization of it. God's unity and power were early revealed; next, perhaps, his holiness, then his goodness to Israel, and later his care for all mankind; finally in the New Testament, his divine existence and perfect grace. Similar progress was made in revealing the moral law, and no less evident was the progress of revelation as to human sinfulness. The progressive character of revelation should be kept in mind in searching the scriptures.

The grand peculiarity of God's revelation in the sacred writings must be characterized as religious, the feature which distinguishes it from first to last. But the question may rise to your lips, How many of the sacred writings were inspired of God? It is a fair question, and if we are guided by the teaching of Paul and of Christ, the answer must be every scripture of the Old Testament. Modern scholarship, though patient and sharp-sighted, has discovered no facts directly opposed to this conclusion, no facts which justify a belief that either Christ or his apostles doubted

THE INSPIRATION OF ANY BOOK of the Old Testament.

I am ready to adopt the words of Prof. Herriek of the University of Ohio as essentially correct, said Dr. Hovey in conclusion, namely, that "the Bible contains the successive stages of a revelation of God to men in language so guided by him as to convey to its hearers the most perfect conceptions consistent with their situation and limitation. The humblest scholar need make no serious mistake in following its teachings as a guide to conduct and belief; the profoundest sage may find in it the stimulus for reflection and research. The book is self-consistent in spirit and in purpose from beginning to end, although by no means homogeneous. The sacred writings must be scanned by modern scholarship with a comprehensiveness of view capable of distinguishing the inspired record of what man thought, said and did, and what God himself directed and revealed."

Let me urge you then, said Dr. Hovey, addressing the students, to examine all facts pertaining to the Bible with an open mind; to search the scriptures for the light rather than for the darkness; and to make use without fear of such knowledge and experience as you may have, especially if the truth which you know has been sufficient to nourish the life of faith in other human souls. May the spirit and the word invoked by prayer and examined with diligence guide you into all the truth which is necessary to qualify you still further for the ministry of Christ in these days of questioning and of progress.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

HOLLIS STREET THEATRE.—Mr. Augustin Daly brings his famous company to the Hollis Street Theatre, opening next Monday evening in the great New York success, "The Last Word." For the week of May 25, "The School for Scandal" will be given on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and at the Wednesday matinee, the balance of the week being set aside for "Faming of the Shire." The repertory for the third and last week of the engagement will be announced later. The regular box office sale of seats begins on Thursday at 10 a. m., but tickets can be purchased for the first two weeks of the engagement by letter, orders with remittances being accepted up to 6 p. m., Wednesday, May 13, for any and all of the first two weeks' performances. Requests will be filled in the order of their receipt, and seats selected as near the location desired as possible. Buyers are limited to 10 tickets for each performance.

BOSTON THEATRE.—This is the last week of "The Soudan" at the Boston Theatre. On Saturday evening next the great success will be withdrawn for the season, and the 19th performance will be celebrated. It has been thought appropriate to give Mr. Neville a send-off on the last night of the run, and so many leading and influential citizens have expressed a desire to make the last performance a testimonial to the capable actor who has won so many friends here, Mr. Tompkins has agreed, and it is certain that this popular actor will appear in the last performance of his last appearance. Leonard Grover's latest comedy drama, "The Wolves of New York," will follow "The Soudan" and will be given an elaborate production, beginning Monday, May 18. The company comprises among its list such well known names as Mr. Grover, Mr. Herbert, Mr. Archer, George R. Elston, Charles Hovey, Frank Girard, Herbert Stacy, Louise Rial, Lisle Leigh, Bebe Vining and Florence Noble. The play is brimful of mirth, sensation and genuine pathos.

GLOBE THEATRE.—Eight hours' work, eight hours' play, eight hours' sleep, makes a workingman's day. This, in brief, is the new melodrama, "Work and Wages," which is to have its first production in Boston, at the Globe Theatre, next Monday evening, and is to continue throughout the week. The play is one which, while it advocates the eight hour movement and the principles of co-operative labor, presents the question of work and wages in the most conservative manner, charging to neither side an overplus of vice or virtue. It tells a simple story in a simple way, and aims to reconcile conflicting interests between those who pay and those who work for wages. The play will be presented by an able company. A big attraction is announced at the Globe for September 28, when Mlle. Rhea begins her engagement in Mr. S. B. Alexander's new play "Judith," presenting correct phases and accurate types of the Jewish people.

TREMONT THEATRE.—On Thursday night, May 14, Mr. Willard was seen for the first time in the Tremont Theatre in the play of "Judith" which presents Mr. Willard in a very different light from that of "The Middleman." The play itself is in marked contrast with "The Middleman." The heroine of the stage-romance is a young girl who has become famous for a miraculous gift of healing the sick. She is supposed to accomplish her cures through faith and fasting. Lord Asgarby has a daughter who is ill of consumption. The fasting girl is brought to the castle in the belief that she can save the earl's daughter. The handsome and dreamy Welsh minister of the town is deeply impressed with the healer's saint-like character. By and by his admiration assumes something more than mere spiritual worship. He loves the mysterious new-comer. A local professor, who is suspicious of the girl challenges her to bear the test of seclusion and watching. Out of fear of her father and love for the young minister the girl accepts a trying ordeal, which gives to the story its romance and dramatic effect. "Judith" is the play to see; its success in London and the English provinces has been of the very greatest.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

THE CENTURY.

The Century for May is at hand and contains its usual amount of fine illustrations and excellent reading. It opens with a portrait of Emperor Nicholas I., followed by very interesting illustrated articles on Game Fishes of the Florida Reef; Salons of the Empire and Restoration; The Squirrel Gun; Visible Sound; Louisa May Alcott; A Bulgarian Opera Bouffe; At the Court of the Czar; Exhibition of Artists' Scraps and Sketches; The Confederate Diplomats and their shirt of Nessus;—(A chapter of secret history); Pioneer Mining in California. Topics of the Time: Iceberg, etc. We have rarely seen a number of the Century that is more attractive than this. The Century Company, Publishers, New York.

THE ARENA.

The May Arena (Boston), which, by the way, closes the third volume of this young giant among reviews, contains a notable array of talent, including articles by such well-known writers as Rev. Minot J. Savage, Julian Hawthorne, Max Muell, C. Wood Davis, Professor Emil Blum, Professor Abraham S. Lincoln, Ph. D., Dr. Henry D. Chapin, E. P. Powell, the well-known scientific and theological author, Professor J. W. McGarvey, of Kentucky University, and Rev. John W. Chadwick. Full-page photographs of the Rev. Minot J. Savage, Julian Hawthorne, and Professor Abraham S. Isaacs are also features of this number.

ST. NICHOLAS.

St. Nicholas opens with a pretty frontispiece of a little girl under an apple tree, entitled "Spring Blossoms," and contains its spring tide message with a group of poems by Emily Dickinson and Nora Perry. The second paper by Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge upon "The Land of Pluck" is accompanied with illustrations which show the old Dutch settlers of New York in appropriate guise. All young readers will enjoy Mrs. Dodge's method of telling history. The magazine is entertaining with many bright verses and humorous pictures, to which there is a decided flavor. "Chan Ok, a Romance of the Eastern Seas," by J. O. Davidson, is a new serial which promises novel entertainment for boys. Papers on scientific subjects for solid reading. Century Co., publishers.

A DRUGGIST'S LICENSE

ENTITLES HIM TO SELL INTOXICATING LIQUORS FOR MEDICAL, MECHANICAL AND CHEMICAL PURPOSES ONLY.

His license is subject to the following conditions:

I. That the provisions of the license be strictly adhered to.

II. That No Sale shall be made between the hours of eleven at night and six in the morning.

III. That No Sale shall be made during any part of the Lord's day.

IV. That no liquor except such as is of good standard quality and free from adulteration shall be kept on the premises.

V. That No Sale or delivery shall be made to: (a) A person known to be a drunkard; (b) An intoxicated person; (c) A person who is known to have been intoxicated within six months; (d) A person who is known to use or the use of any other person; (e) A person known to have been supported in whole or in part by public charity at any time within the twelve months preceding.

VI. That the druggist shall keep a book and enter therein the date of every sale of liquor, the person to whom it is sold, the kind, quality and price thereof and the purpose for which it was sold.

VII. That said book and its certificates, including the signature of the purchaser, shall be at all times open to the inspection of the Mayor and Aldermen, Selectmen, Overseers of the Poor, Sheriffs, Constables and Justices of the Peace.

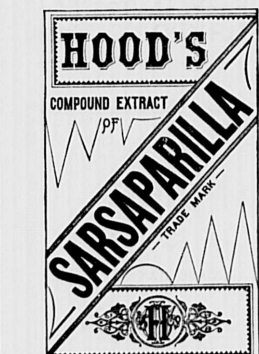

VIII. That the sale of liquors on the day of any national, state, municipal or town election is forbidden.

IX. That the license shall be displayed on the premises in a conspicuous position where it can be easily read.

X. That the license shall be forfeited if any of its conditions are violated.

The board may require that all entrances except that on the public street shall be permanently closed, and that any screen, partition or other obstruction which interferes with a view of the interior of the licensed premises shall be removed.

It won't cost you one-half as much. Do not delay. Send three two-cent stamps for postage, and we will send you Dr. Kaulman's great work, fine colored plates from life, on disease, its causes and home cure. Address, A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass.

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health.

At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. It strengthens the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. The peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation of the vegetable remedies used give to Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiarly powerful curative powers. No other medicine has such a record of wonderful cures. If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other instead. It is a Peculiar Medicine, and is worthy your confidence.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

CITY OF NEWTON.

MILK INSPECTION.

IN accordance with Chapter 57, Section 1 of the Public Statutes, I hereby give notice that I have been appointed Milk Inspector for the City of Newton. All licenses must be renewed before the 1st day of June. All persons selling milk not licensed or registered must be registered at this office before that date. Blank forms of applications can be obtained by applying to me at 101½ N. W. Street, Newton, Mass. Office hours, 8:15 to 10:15 a. m. W. S. FRENCH, Milk Inspector.

Mortgagee's Sale.

By virtue of the power of sale, and for breach of the conditions named in a certain mortgage deed given by John A. Harrington to William Livermore dated November 5th 1890 and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds lib. 2068, folio 26, will be sold by public auction on the premises on Monday June 1, 1891 at three o'clock, P. M. all and singular the premises described southeasterly by said Winthrop avenue and westerly by land late of Bartow heirs seventy-two feet to said Winthrop avenue; thence southeasterly by said Winthrop avenue eighty-one and 21-100 feet to the point of beginning containing 5516 square feet of land more or less.

WILLIAM LIVERMORE, Mortgagee.

May 8, 1891.

City of Newton.

ASSESSORS' NOTICE.

The inhabitants of the City of Newton, and all other persons liable to pay taxes therein, are hereby required to bring in to the Assessors of said Newton, on any day from

May First, to the Fifteenth Day of June, Next,

true lists of all their Polls (males, 20 years old and upwards), and schedules and estimates of their personal estates, not exempted from taxation.

ASSESSMENT OF WOMEN.

Chap. 196, Acts of 1880.

The Assessors or Assistant Assessors shall, in the month of May or June in each year, visit each dwelling-house or building and make true lists of all women twenty years of age and upwards, who shall in writing over their own signatures, request the Assessors to assess them for a "poll tax," and it shall be the duty of the Assessors to inquire at each such dwelling house or building for such written requests for assessment which must give the name in full—age, occupation, residence May 1st, 1890. All women desiring to be assessed for a poll tax should have their written request for such assessment in the form required by the act of 1880, ready for delivery to the Assessors when they shall visit the house where they dwell. Each request shall be upon a separate sheet signed by the applicant with her name in full. No application for the assessment of a woman for a poll tax will be received by mail or in any other than the manner provided by said Chapter 196, except by filing in the office of the Assessors the list provided by Section 12, of Chapter 298, of Acts of 1884, as amended by Chapter 200, of Acts of 1888.

Persons holding estates in trust, whether for minors or otherwise, are particularly requested to furnish the Assessors with statements in relation to such estates.

When estates of persons deceased have been divided during the past year, or have changed hands from other causes, the Executors, Administrators, Trustees, or other persons interested, are required and warned to give notice of such change; and in default of such notice will be held to pay the tax assessed, although such estate has been wholly distributed and paid over.

Return of Property Held for Literary, Benevolent, Charitable, or Scientific Purposes.

In accordance with the requirements of Chapter 217, Acts of 1882,—all persons and corporations are hereby required to bring in to the Assessors of Newton on any day from May first to the fifteenth day of June next, true lists of all real and personal estates held by such persons and corporations respectively for literary, benevolent, charitable, or scientific purposes on the first day of May 1891, together with statements of the amount of all receipts and expenditures by such person or corporation for said purpose during the year next preceding said first day of May; such lists and statements to be in such detail as may be required by the tax commissioner.

MORTGAGED REAL ESTATE.

Chap. 175, Acts of 1882, Sec. 1.

Any mortgagee or mortgagee of Real Estate may bring in to the Assessors of the town or city where such Real Estate lies, at the time specified for bringing in the list as provided in Section thirty-eight of Chapter eleven of the Public Statutes, a statement under oath, of the amount of each separate lot or parcel of such Real Estate, and the name and residence of every holder of an interest therein as a mortgagee or mortgagee. When such property is situated in two or more places, or when a record mortgage includes for one sum two or more estates or parts of an estate, an estimate of the amount of the mortgagee's interest in each estate or part of an estate shall be given in such statement. The Assessors shall, from such statements or other data, ascertain the proportionate parts of such estates that are the interests of mortgagees and mortgagees, respectively, and shall assess the same. Whenever, in any case of mortgaged Real Estate, a statement is not brought in as herein provided, no tax for the then current year on such Real Estate shall be invalidated for the reason that a mortgagee's interest therein has not been assessed to him.

SHIPPING.

Shipping and business income are not taxable to a firm, but each resident partner must include these items in his individual return. Owners and agents of ships and vessels engaged in the foreign carrying trade, are referred to Sections 8 and 9, of Chapter 11 of the Public Statutes, for the form of return required to obtain exemption from taxation upon the valuation of such property. Said returns to be made to the Assessors on or before June first.

Any person bringing in a list of all his taxable personal property will be assessed upon the valuation thereof, and any person neglecting to furnish the Assessors with such list within the time above specified, will be deemed at a legal meeting of the Board of Assessors agreeably to the laws of this Commonwealth.

All persons will take notice that statements of personal property must be in writing and subscribed under oath before one of the Assessors, on or before the fifteenth day of June, and that the Personal Property of all taxable persons must be estimated by the Board, notwithstanding any verbal statement or informal written communication to any one or more of the Assessors.—Pub. Stat. Chap. 11, Sec. 39 and 41. When a person has failed to bring in a list or schedule of his taxable property, in conformity to this notice, no abatement of a tax assessed on Personal Estate to such person can be granted, "unless such tax exceeds by more than fifty per cent, the amount which would have been assessed to that person on Personal Estate if he had seasonably brought in said list; and if said tax exceeds by more than fifty per cent, the said amount, the abatement shall be only of the excess above the said fifty per cent.—Pub. Statutes, Chap. 11, Sec. 73.

The Assessors will be in session at their office, in the City Hall, in the City of Newton, on the 6th, 13th, 20th, and 27th days of May, and the 3d, 10th, and 17th days of June next, from 3 to 5 o'clock, P. M.

Blank schedules will be furnished on application to either of the assessors.

SAMUEL M. JACKSON, Assessors of the City of Newton.

HOWARD B. COFFIN, CHARLES A. MINER, } of Newton.

Newton, April 25, 1891.

City of Newton.

DOG LICENSES EXPIRE

April 30, 1891,

And all persons owning or keeping a dog or dogs in Newton after that date, without license, are liable to be proceeded against for violation of the law. The fine in such cases is $15.00 and costs, amounting to about $25.00. See Chap. 102 of the Public Statutes.

I. F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

Mortgagee's Sale of Personal Property.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage of personal property given by Edward M. Angell to Elliot W. Keyes, dated December 15, 1889, and recorded in the Records of Mortgages of Personal Property in the Clerk's Office of the City of Newton libro G, folio 309, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction at market at corner of Auburn and Ash streets in Auburndale

on Wednesday, May 20th

at 10 o'clock in the forenoon. All and singular the goods and chattels described in said mortgage, consisting of one New York meat block, one ordinary meat block, one bench, one marble counter, one Howe's platform scales, two sets of spring balance scales, two marble slabs, two meat saws, three knives, two cleavers, two large draw curtains, small curtains, one desk, two chairs, one stove, and other tools and fixtures; also one bay horse about twelve years old weighing about nine hundred and fifty pounds, one other express horse, one single harness, with whips, robes etc., and all other property covered by said mortgage. Terms cash.

ELLIOT W. KEYES, Mortgagee.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, SS. PROBATE COURT.

To all persons interested in the estate of Isabel Homer Silsby late of Newton in said County deceased.

GREETING: Whereas Horatio B. Hackett and Joseph E. Whitman executors of the will of Eleanor H. Whitman, deceased, who was the executrix of the will of said Silsby, deceased, has presented for allowance the second and final account of her administration upon the estate of said deceased; you are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County, on the fourth Tuesday of May instant, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed. And said executors are ordered to serve this citation by publishing the same once a week, in the Newton Graphic a newspaper printed at New on two successive weeks, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court. Witness, GEORGE M. BROOKS, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this fifth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

J. H. TYLER, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, SS. PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of Elizabeth S. Howland, late of Newton in said County, deceased.

GREETING: Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Lucy Sparhawk who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, and that she may be exempt from giving a surety or securities on her bond pursuant to said will and statute.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the fourth Tuesday of May instant at nine o'clock before noon, to show cause, if any you have, against the same.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Newton Graphic printed at Newton the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE M. BROOKS, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this first day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

J. H. TYLER, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, SS. PROBATE COURT.

To the next of Kin, Creditors, and all other Persons interested in the Estate of Thomas Ranney late of Newton in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas, application has been made to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased, to Francis Buttrick of Waltham in the County of Middlesex. You are hereby cited to appear at the Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the fourth Tuesday of May next at nine o'clock before noon, to show cause, if any you have, against granting the same.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Newton Graphic printed at Newton the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE M. BROOKS, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this thirtieth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

J. H. TYLER, Register.

NOTICE IN HEREBY GIVEN

That the Subscribers have been duly appointed Executors of the will of John D. Lovering late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate, and has taken upon herself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

SARAH H. B. LOVERING, Exec.

April 28, 1891.

A. HODGDON, Whitening, Whitewashing, and Tinting.

Work Guaranteed First Class in every respect.

Orders may be left at Barber Bros. Hardware Store, opp. Library or at Residence.

PROFIT GUARANTEED

Pierce Loan & Investment Co. (INCORPORATED) TACOMA, WASH. CAPITAL $100,000. Stocks, Bonds and Mortgage Loans. Make investments in Real Estate for non-residents in sums of $1000 or more, and all loans are made on easy terms. Write for free information, maps, &c. EBEN PIERCE, President.

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

INCORPORATED 1831. Bank Hours: From 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.; on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Office in the Newton National Bank, GEORGE HYDE, President.

JOHN WARD, Vice President.

MISS SUSANNA M. DUNKLEE, Treas.

Trustees: Joseph N. Bacon, James F. C. Hyde, Dustin Lacey, Francis Murdoch, Wm. Henry Brackett, Samuel M. Jackson, William Dix, Charles E. Hildings, William C. Strong, Charles A. Minor, and Elliott J. Hyde.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTMENT: George Hyde, Samuel M. Jackson, J. F. C. Hyde, Chas. A. Miner, Clerk and Auditor.

Interest begins on deposits on the first days of January, April, July and October.

West Newton Savings Bank

Incorporated 1887. West Newton, Mass. AUSTIN R. MITCHELL, President.

JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treasurer.

ALFRED L. BARBOUR, Clerk.

Trustees: Austin R. Mitchell, Benj. F. Houghton, Dwight Chester, Edward L. Pickard, Prescott C. Brigham, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, Edward W. Cate, Adam R. Tolman, C. F. Eddy, Lyman C. Putney.

Committee of Investment—Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickard, Dwight Chester, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Cate, et al.

Open for business daily, 8:30 to 11 a. m., 1:30 to 4 p. m.

Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and October.

Don't Drink

impure water longer buy a good filter. They will fit a faucet whether it has thread or not. Call and see at Barber Bros.

Newton National Bank

NEWTON, MASS. BUSINESS HOURS: From 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 4 p. m. On Saturdays, from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

JOSEPH N. BACON, President.

B. FRANKLIN BACON, Cashier.

BANJO

Instruction. Special Attention to beginners. C. E. HASTINGS, 822 Washington St., residence, Eddy St., Newtonville. Agent for the celebrated Gaiamco Banjos.

BLAIR'S PILLS.

Great English Remedy for Gout & Rheumatism. SURE, PROMPT AND EFFECTIVE. Large Box 24, Small 14 Pills. At all Druggists and 224 WILLIAM ST., NEW YORK.

PEARSON'S NEWTON AND B

"I Am So Tired"

Is a common exclamation at this season. There is a certain bracing effect in cold air which is lost when the weather grows warmer; and when nature is renewing her youth, her admirers feel dull, sluggish and tired. This condition is owing mainly to the impure condition of the blood, and its failure to supply healthy tissue to the various organs of the body. It is remarkable how insensible the system is to the help to be derived from a good medicine at this season. Possessing just those purifying, building-up qualities which the body craves, Hood's Sarsaparilla soon overcomes that tired feeling, restores the appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, imparts vigorous health. Its thousands of friends as with one voice declare "It Makes the Weak Strong."

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know what sugar; read what he says:

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co., Gentlemen:—I have been in the general practice of medicine for more than 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. I have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly,

L. L. GORSUCH, M. D.

Office, 215 Summit St.
We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Cancer Can be Cured, and by Dr. James M. Solomon, Jr., 75 Court St., Boston, Mass.

Boston, Aug. 26, 1890.
Dr. Solomon has cured a cancer on my lip of seventeen years' standing, it was cut out twice, by what they call eminent surgeons, at intervals of six years, after being cut out each time I knew by the feeling it was still there, and it would be now if I had not been so fortunate as to have Dr. Solomon treat it, he did it without any cutting. I would urge those afflicted with cancer not delay, but to go at once and be cured permanently as I have done. My dear Doctor I thank from the bottom of my heart.

JOHN HALLAHAN,

78 Charlestown Street.

Catarrh of the Bladder.
I had been troubled since 1869 with Gravel and Catarrh of the Bladder. Tried several doctors, but got no relief. Finally, at the advice of E. D. W. Parsons, I was prevailed upon to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. The result was marvelous. After using a few bottles, was entirely cured. S. N. Arnold, No. 563 Plymouth Avenue, Rochester, N. Y.

No Matter How Hard
any druggist sell tries to his own cough medicine, remember he does it because he makes more money on it. Insist on having Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, for there is no cough medicine so pure and none so quick to break up a cold. For influenza, soreness of the throat and tickling irritation with constant cough Kemp's Balsam is an immediate cure. Large bottles 50c, and $1. All druggists.

I Will Never

Allow myself to suffer again what I have suffered for the last year. The vile disease, Dyspepsia, gave me no comfort. I could not eat or enjoy anything. The doctor amounted to nothing; nothing seemed to relieve me, until I used a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Four bottles made me well.—Joseph Batchelder, Master of schooner, C. A. Baker.

A Testimonial.

Deacon Podberry—You have been a faithful pastor to us for seven years now. Rev. Mr. Wilcox—I have tried, in my humble way, to do my best.
Deacon Podberry—Yes, and we were thinking of giving you some sort of testimonial. Which would you prefer, a trip to Palestine or a trial for heresy?

FIFTY-SIX HORSES.

It takes fifty-six horse power to run the two mammoth presses which are soon to be placed in the BOSTON HERALD Office.

SEE Saturday's Boston Herald for the contents of next Sunday's Herald.

The ablest and cleanest Newspaper published in New England. No Objectionable News or Advertising.

Just the Paper for your Family to read.

ADAMS' MACHINE SHOP.
MACHINE JOBBING AND REPAIRING.
All Kinds of Machine Sharpening and Grinding.
CYCLE AND TRICYCLE REPAIRING A SPECIALTY. LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED.
396 WASHINGTON STREET, NEWTON.
P. O. BOX 114. 16-17

DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY
PURIFIES THE BLOOD
AND IS RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS
when all other remedies fail—as the only positive cure for Dyspepsia, Constipation, Liver and Kidney Diseases. Thousands gratefully testify that Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has Saved Their Lives. To Mothers and Daughters (even the youngest) Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has Proved a Real Blessing.

$1.00 bottle; 6 for $5.00. All Dealers.
"A FAMILY JEWEL"—A beautiful illustrated book—how to Cure all Blood and Kidney Diseases mailed free. Address (outside of city) DR. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, BOSTON.

Bait for Desirable Tenants.

There is at present great rivalry among the owners of flats and tenements in the struggle to secure as tenants the thousands of families which at this season each year seek new quarters. The rapid growth of the city's population has been more than equalled by the number of flats and other dwellings erected during the past few years, with the attendant result that desirable tenants are at a premium.

"The inducements offered to parties of the class desired," said a prominent real estate agent recently, "are not directly of a pecuniary nature. In spite of the rivalry among house owners, there is a tacit understanding that there is to be little or no reduction in rents. The figures asked are reasonable, but great ingenuity has been displayed in the character of the inducements held out to secure good tenants. Formerly two weeks' free rent was considered quite a concession, but now one and even two months are thrown in to get a desirable party on a lease. Steam heat, electric bells, elevators, telephones and awnings to the windows are common at fair rentals in the better class of flats.

"Among the novelties offered are flats where all the coal and fuel needed are furnished free, thus doing away with a common cause of quarrel with janitors suspected of using the tenant's fuel. In some the gas bills and ice bills are paid by the landlords, and stationary mirrors and iceboxes still further reduce the tenant's expenses. A genius on the west side has filled his row of moderate priced flats by allowing each family the free use of a piano."—New York Telegram.

Reading About Foreign Countries.

At this time of year we are overrun with applications for guide books, works of travel, books of modern history of foreign countries, and even novels of which the scene is laid abroad. Whatever they may say in Europe about the Americans, they cannot truthfully declare that we do not prepare for a foreign tour, for hardly any one now goes abroad without reading of the countries he intends to visit, sometimes as carefully as though he expected to pass a competitive examination.

There are several persons in the city who go abroad every summer, and you can tell exactly where they are going by the books they ask for when they are getting ready for the tour. The fact shows that Americans are intelligent sightseers, and when they visit a foreign city know exactly what they are to see there, and often, by reason of the special cramming they undergo, understand the history, antiquities and curiosities of the places they visit better than people who have lived there all their lives.—Interview in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

An Odd Plan for a Church.

Rev. Thomas Dixon, well remembered of Boston as a former pastor of the Dudley Street Baptist church, is nothing if not unusual. His audiences having outgrown his New York church, he has planned an auditorium as unique as himself. As his sermons have political preludes, his church is to have a worldly foundation. It will in fact not be a church but an office building, with stores on the first floor, an auditorium to seat five thousand, that is described as being on "the next three floors," and offices on six floors above.

It would appear that Mr. Dixon would have to do some loud talking to accommodate hearers in "an auditorium" that consisted of the second, third and fourth stories of the building, but probably this description of the edifice is not had at first hand from the architect. It is hardly Mr. Dixon's style to keep his audience in tiers.—Boston Commonwealth.

Reynard as a Rat Exterminator.

A Pennsburg gentleman, whose barn was formerly overrun with rats, is no longer troubled with them, and he used neither traps nor dogs in driving them out. About a year ago he purchased a fox somewhere in the west. The fox was given the freedom of the barn, and in a short time after its arrival all the rats found it convenient to depart, and none of them has found it expedient to return. Reynard catches rats after the manner of a terrier, and when not engaged is frequently seen following his master about like a well behaved canine, to which he bears no little resemblance. He is perfectly tame, and goes about the streets of the town without being molested by the dogs that roam around, ready to attack any animal not of their own species.—Allentown Chronicle-News.

Those Suspected Two Dollar Bills.

The number of two dollar bills in active circulation in New York is astonishing. Since the publication of the alleged extensive counterfeiting of the two dollar silver certificates the entire issue, genuine and bogus, seems to be kept on the move.

The two dollar notes fairly rain upon every tradesman, who passes them on as quickly as possible. The next man does the same. Nobody refuses, nobody disputes them; but all the same everybody lets go of them at the first opportunity. If the same uneasiness prevails elsewhere the problem of the two dollar notes will have solved itself. They will be worn out in six months.—New York Herald.

A coat of the great Napoleon was recently stolen from the country house of M. Cheval in a suburb of Paris, and the police have been trying to recover it. The burglars who carried it off with other booty were probably unaware of its historical value. Its recent owner bought it in St. Helena immediately after the death of the emperor.

A novel feature of a menagerie's exhibiting at the Crystal Palace is a huge cage containing a happy family of twelve lions, three Bengal tigers and cheetahs, panthers, polar and Thibet bears, ponies, goats and boarhounds, numbering twenty in all.

John Russell, who lives near La Gro, claims to be the oldest native son of Indiana. He was born there in 1811, and since 1834 has owned and lived upon a farm which he entered in that year.

English Friendly Societies.

The returns of some of the large friendly societies for 1890 are now coming in, and notwithstanding the increased expenditure caused by the influenza epidemic in the early part of the year, the figures in most cases show large increases, both in members and funds. The Ancient Order of Foresters, numerically the largest, with its 700,000 members, added 17,587 to its number and £159,393 to its funds, bringing the reserve capital up to £4,500,000. This society appears to be rapidly "leveling up" its actuarial deficiency, the returns showing that a proportion equal to 73.4 of its members are now paying graduated contributions according to age, as against 59.5 five years ago.

The Manchester Unity of Odd Fellows comes slightly behind the Foresters in respect to numbers, but occupies far and away the front rank of all societies in wealth, its invested capital reaching the magnificent amount of £7,250,000.

The Hearts of Oak, the largest centralized society without branches, has been advancing of late years by leaps and bounds. Its annual report shows that in 1890 it added 10,000 to its membership, which now numbers 140,000, and £76,000 to its funds, totaling its reserve capital up to £1,157,518. This society admits no one to its membership over thirty years of age, and is chiefly recruited from the ranks of small shopkeepers, clerks and skilled artisans.

In the aggregate these three societies total up an adult membership of 1,500,000, with 144,000 juvenile members and a gross invested capital of over £13,000,000.

The great burial collecting societies constitute quite another class, at the head of which stands the Prudential, with assets worth £12,000,000, and which claims to have 9,000,000 policies in force. The Prudential is a joint stock limited company, which began with a capital of £2,500 about forty years ago. A few years since this grew to £200,000. According to a statement recently made by Sir Herbert Maxwell in the house of commons the shareholders in 1887 received dividends equal to 400 per cent. on the original capital, besides bonuses amounting to £399,600.—St. James' Gazette.

The Ohioan Wanted to Sleep.

Sunday evening two young men retired in one of the principal hotels and went to sleep. One of these guests was from Ohio, the other, a genuine frontiersman from South Dakota. They slept until 2 a. m. Sunday, when awakened by a couple of roistering youths who occupied an adjoining room. The youths shouted and sang until guests all around commenced to protest, and then they shouted and sang all the louder.

The Dakota man rang for a porter, and sent him to quiet the unruly youths, but with no effect. Then the Ohioan arose, tied a suspender around his waist, rolled up the sleeves of his nightshirt and walked to the door whence came the riotous sounds. He knocked, and one of the fellows opened it. The Ohio man didn't stop to talk. He charged into that room, belted one youth in the neck, knocking him on top of the bed. Quick as a flash he seized the other and hurled him bodily across the first. Then he pounded their heads together while he regained his breath, and told them that if they woke him up again he would come in and throw both of them through the window.

He slept in peace until breakfast time.—Philadelphia Press.

A Railroad Man's Record.

C. P. Burton, of Aurora, Ill., challenges the country to match the following record: J. L. Watkins is the veteran ticket agent of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy at Mendota, Ill., and has been for thirty years. The greater portion of that time he has spent in the office, acting as night agent as well as day. Although in the midst of railroad trains, coming in contact daily with the turmoil incident to that rushing life, he has never stepped on a train in the years he has been agent until Tuesday, when he rode to Aurora and thence to Wheaton, and he was mad all the way. He had been subpoenaed as a witness at Wheaton and was obliged to go. He had expected at some future time to take a vacation, and thought he would ride on a railroad train when he got ready, but he had not intended that his first ride in years would be forced.—Chicago Tribune.

Settling Scores Posthumously.

Annie Kline, colored, weighing 350 pounds, died in Chicago the other day. It is averred that before departing this life she expressed an intention to "haunt" some surviving enemies. Be that as it may, Jennie Cook, a neighbor, declares that soon after the funeral, while she was passing the deceased's former abode, Miss Kline appeared at the window, robed not in regulation white, but in sable, and demanded the liquidation of a grocery bill. Jennie, in affright, appealed to the officer on the beat. The policeman reports that when he visited the house the ghost remarked: "Mulechey, beware!" and threw a brick at him. There are those who are inclined to doubt that Miss Kline has materialized.—Philadelphia Ledger.

An Adder with Two Heads.

Professor G. A. Rogers, the aeronaut, dropped into the office recently, having in his possession a very rare species of a brown adder. It was eleven and one-half inches long, and with two distinct heads, one and one-quarter inches from point of contact, had the appearance of two snakes artistically rolled into one. This peculiar freak of nature was killed a few days ago by a seven-year-old Milton (N. H.) boy, who performed the feat with a short stick as the adder was coming out of a small pile of rocks.—Boston Globe.

Big Prices for Newspaper Stock.

A few London Graphic shares came into the market the other day. The shares are $50 each, $35 paid; and on these dividends ranging from 25 to 104 per cent. have been paid. The lots were eagerly competed for at the prices ranging round $180 per share. This is a premium of over 500 per cent.—London Tit-Bits.

Murder Will Out.

Ten years ago an old timer named Tom Poole, who, with his two children, lived on a farm between Pemberton meadows and Lillooet lakes, was found murdered. The bodies of the children, horribly mutilated, lay across the father's corpse in the cellar of the house, which had been burned over their heads after the horrible butchery. Suspicion rested on a neighbor named Graham, who was last seen near the ranch. He was arrested and tried in New Westminster for the crime, being afterward acquitted.

The provincial government offered a reward for the capture of the murderer, and there the case dropped and public interest gradually died out. Within the past few months certain discoveries have been made which go to show that Graham was really innocent, and the real murderer is an Indian chief named Nemiah, who, two years ago, murdered a Chinaman on the Fraser river, and has since been evading the authorities.

About two weeks ago Nemiah quarreled with another Indian in his band, and the hands of the chief were almost stained with the blood of his third victim. Other Indians present seized and bound him, and immediately sent a message to B. Franklin, justice of the peace at Tatlae Lake, that they had got Nemiah and wanted the authorities to come up and take him. On receipt of this information Franklin, accompanied by a posse of special constables, left immediately, only to find on arriving at their destination that their bird had flown.

Nemiah's squaw had cut the ropes that bound him while the others were asleep. Making good use of his liberty Nemiah took to the "stick," where he is supposed to be at present. The party found that the Indian Guishon, with whom Nemiah had the quarrel, was not dangerously injured. All the other Indians are willing to assist in the capture of Nemiah, or appear to be.—Vancouver (B. C.) Cor. Tacoma Ledger.

Mushroom Lore.

A local expert proposes to make mushroom hunting a specialty this summer, and he is certain that if there is any section of Maine where there are lovers of this fungus it is right here in Lewiston and Auburn. On his finger he can count scores of men (has to use his fingers twice over and more, too, you see) who are fond of them and know how to cook them. At one certain country house in Lewiston the Sunday mushroom dinner is a fixed thing in summer, and my aren't they delicious! The old rule for distinguishing them from toadstools—viz., eat them, and if you die they are toadstools—is not now operative.

It's a poor mushroom gatherer who does not know the difference. The top of the young mushroom is white, the under portion loose and lighter. As it matures the top changes to a brown color and the under part to a dark red. The stem, which is white and round when young, also grows dark with age. Eatable mushrooms have pleasant odor and are never slimy. A test proposed is to sprinkle salt on the under side or spongy part and give it time to act. If it turns black the mushroom is good; if yellow, the toadstool is poisonous.—Lewiston Journal.

Woodpecker's Justice.

A year ago a pair of red headed woodpeckers determined to peck a hole in the boarding under the eaves of a house, as woodpeckers often do. The owner of the house, not liking such mutilation, after repeated efforts succeeded in driving them away, and they went to work at once and dug a hole in the nearest tree.

When the birds' home was finished and housekeeping had begun the farmer's boys captured the female as she sat in the nest and kept her in a cage, hoping to catch the male also.

Two days later he returned with another wife. The boys relented at the sight. They gave Mrs. Woodpecker No. 1 her liberty and awaited results.

To their surprise the male woodpecker, after a relentless pursuit of about six hours, killed her. Then he destroyed the one egg which she had laid, and continued housekeeping with wife No. 2 as if nothing had happened.—Cor. Youth's Companion.

Beating Street Car Railways.

It is hard to get ahead of the street car companies, but some people in Chicago think they are going to do it. They are having constructed vehicles exactly like street cars, except that the wheels are a little larger. They are gauged to fit the car tracks, and it is proposed to run them on the tracks just like any horse car, without asking with your leave or by your leave. They will stop like the street cars and charge the same fare. If the car companies object, owners of the new vehicles will point to the fact that they are simply omnibuses, which are entitled to use any portion of the public streets, whether tracks happen to be there or not. If the car companies don't like their tracks to be used they are at liberty to take them away.—Exchange.

Bands That Statesmen Write.

Among Lord Granville's other amiable possessions was that of a very neat and scholarly handwriting. Perhaps this is one reason for his popularity with press men. On the whole, however, statesmen certainly do not write worse than "writers." Mr. Gladstone's hand is indeed spoiled by over indulgence in postcards. Mr. Balfour's hand is not pretty, and Mr. Goschen's is execrable, but John Morley's hand has character, but is not always easy to read. Lord Salisbury writes clearly. So do Lord Rosebery and Lord Hartington. But it may be doubted whether any of those we have mentioned write at once so prettily and so legibly as did Lord Granville.—Pall Mall Gazette.

When You Go to Europe.

A hint from one who knows continental hotels: I carried with me one good sized bedroom pillow encased in dark summer silk, and wished many times that I had brought one or two more, as one is forcibly reminded of the block and guillotine when placing the head upon some of the miserable contrivances politely called pillows in many places in Europe.

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by all who are in want of

STRICTLY ALL-WOOL FABRICS

—FOR—

Ladies', Gent's, Youth's or Children's Wear,

In all Weights and of the Latest hadings and Styles.

The many who have availed themselves of the bargains offered by us in the past can testify to this, and all in want in the future are invited to send for Samples and Prices before supplying themselves elsewhere and be convinced.

All the Remnants and Imperfect goods made at the Assabet Mills also sold by us, and they are offered at PRICES LOWER THAN EVER BEFORE.

Write for samples or give us a Call.

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY,

MAYNARD, MASS.

Water Bugs and Roaches. EXTERMINATOR

No dust. No trouble to use.

Price, 50c., sent by mail for 60c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

BARNARD & CO.

7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.

R. A. EVANS & SON,

Dealers in and Manufacturers of

ALL KINDS OF

Marble and GraniteWORK.

123 HAVERHILL STREET, - BOSTON.

REFERENCES: J. N. Bacon, R. L. Day, C. J. Hatch, C. S. Phillips, C. B. Fillebrown, O. A. B. Hings, D. R. Emerson, Geo. L. Keyes, J. F. C. Hyde, Isaac Sylvester and S. A. D. Sheppard.

Dr. James M. Solomon, Jr.'s Botanical Medical Institute
75 Court St. (Scollay Sq.), Boston, Mass.

INDIAN BOTANICAL REMEDIES

Roots, Herbs, Gums and Barks chiefly used. Dr. Solomon treats all CHRONIC DISEASES, makes a specialty of LUNG TROUBLES, CANCER, TUBERCLES, EPILEPSY, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, ST. VITUS DANCE, SPINAL COMPLAINTS, HEMORRHOIDS OF LUNGS, ECZEMA and all SKIN DISEASES, KIDNEY AND LIVER TROUBLES and all DISEASES OF THE BLOOD. PILLS and FISTULA cured without the use of the knife and cure guaranteed. Consultation free.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH
THE POSITIVE CURE.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

WEST END STREET RAILWAY COMPANY.

Newton to Bowdoin Square

WEEK DAY TIME.

First car leaves Newton 5.35 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 9.25 P. M., then 5.50 P. M., an every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.
Returning leave Bowdoin square 7.05 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 6.35 P. M., the 7 P. M., and every thirty minutes until 11 P. M.

SUNDAY TIME.

First car leaves Newton 7.50 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.
Returning leave Bowdoin square 8.30 A. M. and every thirty minutes until 11.00 P. M.
First car for Boston leaves Watertown at 7.15 A. M.
F. H. MONKS,
5 ly General Manager.

S. K. MacLEODCarpenter and Builder.

Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed.
Bathrooms and Fittings for Plumber's Work a Specialty.
Shop, Centre Place, op. Public Library
Residence, Boyd street, near Jewett.
P. O. Box 650, NEWTON, MASS.

Mrs. ABBIE C. THAYER.
CHRISTIAN SCIENTIST,
19 CHANNING STREET, NEWTON.
Practices Christian Science Mind Healing as taught by Mrs. Mary B. G. Eddy.

T. F. CLENNAN.

Carriage Trimming & Harness MAKING.

BLANKETS, ROBES, WHIPS, &c.

Washington Street, Newton

J. J. JOHNSON, FLORIST.

CONSERVATORIES,
School Street, Newton.
Floral Decorations for Weddings, Receptions, etc., etc.
Cut Flowers and Bedding Plants.

FRANCIS MURDOCK.

INSURANCE AGENT,
Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT
placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies
Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

The highest honors have been awarded for these instruments.

Bay State Guitars,
MANDOLIN'S and BANJO'S; also Wm. B. Tilton & Son's Banjo's and Guitars. Send for Catalogue for all Musical Instruments.
J. C. HAYNES & CO., Mass.

RICHARD ROWE,

Insurance Agency.

No. 2 Mason Building.

WAT R STREET, - BOSTON

P. O. Box 304, Newtonville, 32

DRUNKENNESS—LIQOR HABIT—In all the World there is but one cure, Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, effecting a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been cured who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and today believe they quit drinking of their own free will. No harmful effect results from its administration. Cures guaranteed. Send for circular and full particulars. Address in confidence, GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 450 Race Street, Cincinnati, O.

McALVIN'S DYSPEPSIA PILLS.

A Positive Cure for every form of Dyspepsia, such as Indigestion, Bilio-scurvy, Constipation, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Foul Stomach, Dizziness, Numbness and all Nervous or Sick Headaches caused by a disordered stomach or liver. These Pills are prepared by Tax Collector McAlvin, of Lowell, and are the result of actual experience with dyspepsia in his own case. Sold Agent in Newton, W. M. RUSSELL, 302 Water-town St. One good druggist waited in every city to act as sole agent. Write to John H. McAlvin, Lowell, Mass. 37 ly

Fitchburg Railroad.Hoosac Tunnel Route.

Through Train and Sleeping Car Service.

Leaving Causeway St. Passenger Station

BOSTON, —

For Troy, Albany, Saratoga, Rome, Utica, Syracuse, Watertown, Ogdensburg, Rochester, Binghamton, Hornellsville, Salamanca, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and the West.

6.30 A. M. Daily, Sundays excepted.

8.30 A. M. Daily, Sundays excepted.

10.45 A. M. Daily, except Sundays, b special.

11.30 A. M. Daily, Sundays excepted.

ALTER THORPE, Newton Centre agent for the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand-bills,
and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—C. Farley rents Pianos Wash. St. Newton.
—Mr. S. V. Dyer has removed from White's to Roffe's block.
—Crystal Lake Division, S. of T., visited Waltham, Monday evening.
—Coolidge block has been painted this week, by Valentine Haffner.
—Mr. Frank Lord is having a house built, corner of Morton and Broadway streets.
—Mr. Edward Stanley has moved into John Stearns' house in Parker street.
—Mr. A. R. Gardner, of the firm of Gardner Bros., is riding a new tricycle.
—The Newton baseball team play at Wilmington, Saturday, with the Wilmington Club.
—At Richardson's market are excellent strawberries and Oak Grove cream, which is the best.

—Miss Sallie Libby of Winchester is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Wm. B. Flanders of Crescent avenue.

—Mr. A. W. Benton of Brookline has had his new house, corner of Sumner and Gibbs street, staked out.

—Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Stone have been in Berkeley a week recently, where Mrs.
Stone's parents are both quite ill.

—Mr. Chas. A. Clarke of Lake avenue has removed to Mr. Bray's house, corner of Institution avenue and Albany street.

—Miss L. F. Merrill, who has visited Miss Friend for some months, left Newton Centre yesterday for her home at Etna, Me.

—An iron fence has been placed about the grounds of Mellen Bray's house, corner of Institution avenue and Beacon street.

—Miss Lulu Ulmer, daughter of Mr. G.
W. Ulmer, was run into by a tricycle propelled on the sidewalk, Tuesday evening.

—An alarm was sounded from box 7 last Friday, for a fire in the coal sheds below the depot. They ignited from a spark and but little damage resulted.

—The Burlington, Vt., Unitarian church has extended a unanimous call to Rev. H.
L. Wheeler, to be their pastor. He has been associate pastor since last December.

—Three painters at work on Mr. Bertrand Taylor's new house fell 25 feet Wednesday afternoon, by the breaking of a ladder. C.
F. Morrison had to be removed to the Hospital, and the others were quite badly hurt.

—An account of Mr. Bassett's resignation as clerk of the U. S. District Court has been given elsewhere, and all will hope that he may recover his health. He and his family go to Hull for the summer, the last of the month.

—A series of three lectures on Christian Science is being given by Mr. C. Howard Wilson in the Newton Free Church, the second lecture, Thursday, May 21, at 8 o'clock, is entitled "The House Beautiful."
All are cordially welcome.

—A very delightful card party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bailey of Beacon street on Wednesday evening last. First prizes were won by Miss Bennett and Mr.
Walter Brooks, after which refreshments and dancing were in order.

—At the Methodist church next Sunday,
a. m., Rev. Dr. Elia will present the cause of the Boston City Missionary and Church Extension Society. In the evening the pastor will lecture on "Amusements" at 7 o'clock. All cordially invited.

—Yu Lee had a $2 bill stolen out of his hand in his laundry early Monday evening.
He caught the miscreant, and was badly hurt in the fight which followed. The police were present to interfere in this bold robbery, though a large crowd gathered.

—The letters advertised are as follows:
Mrs. Abby Brown, John Curran, C. Cooker, Esq., Mrs. Sarah Dobster, Mrs. Thomas
Dealy, G. C. Judson, Rev. A. Martell, Miss
A. L. Munsall, Samuel McNeil, Esq., Jas. L.
Parker, Mr. Rogers, Homer Street, Miss Henrietta Soule.

—An alarm was rung in from box 73
Wednesday afternoon for a fire in the stable belonging to James M. Woodbridge, Beacon street. The roof was burned, resulting in a damage of about $50. The fire was thought to have originated from a locomotive spark or from fires near Farrar's blacksmith shop.

—A company of our young folks were out last Saturday evening for a straw ride with Mr. D. W. Eagles. The evening was fine, the team good, a carol was sung, and the chaperones, and a jolly company all combined to make a very enjoyable affair.
This is getting to be a very popular way of spending an evening. This is Mr. Eagles second party out this spring.

—Garey & English are building a large greenhouse for Mr. E. W. Conner at Newton. It is 76x19 feet in area, with a boiler house, 13 feet square, and a propagating room, 20x5 feet. They are also building a fine house for Mr. Seward at the corner of Newton Highlands and the corner of Columbus and Forest streets. The house is to cost in the vicinity of $10,000 and will be one of the finest residences at the Highlands.

—Willie, the thirteen year old son of Station Agent J. Holden, died last Friday, and the funeral was held on Monday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Barnes officiating.
Willie was a bright and promising boy, and his death is a severe affliction to his parents. At the funeral there was a large attendance of his school mates, Supt.
Jones dismissing his class for the afternoon, and the profusion of flowers attested the general sympathy. There was a handsome pillow of white carnations and roses with "Willie" in the center, from his playmates, a beautiful star from some of the girls of his class, cut flowers from other members, flowers from his Sunday school teacher and class, and a large number of other floral tributes from friends.

—The post office fixtures have moved this week. They are in the same building, but the boxes are now arranged across the room, facing the door, a change which has often been suggested to Mr. Richardson, but which on account of the poor light he never sanctioned. The door entering the office proper at the right and in the door, a pigeon hole and shelf will be used for money orders. Near this door is the desk for public use. Inside, the clerks have more room, which will be arranged conveniently. The change was made by Garey & English, Wednesday night, and the room is to be painted in light colors.

—The Newton's made a wretched exhibition of ball playing in their game with the Tufts' college, Saturday afternoon. Nearly every man in the team with the exception of Warren, got rattled sometime during the game. Sherman was way off in his pitching the first few innings but braced up the latter part of the game. Bowen did good work behind the bat but did not hold Sherman as well as could be desired, and the injury to his finger in the sixth inning was unfortunate for the team, the changes necessary not helping the game for Newton.
Cushing took his place and was valuable in good shape although not as valuable in other ways, as Bowen. Warren won universal admiration from all who witnessed his work and he showed himself the strongest man the team has in the field. He made a brilliant one hand catch of a fly in the fifth inning, and he was all over the field doing splendid work, often saving some of his unfortunate comrades an error.
At the bat he did fine work making a total of six bases and two runs. The Newtons must brace up and do better work than last week or they will lose the support of those interested in the game and a great necessity now apparent is better facilities for procuring itemized scores after the game is concluded.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—The Methodist service on Sunday will be at 7.30 instead of 7.

—The Chautauque Circle will meet next Monday at Miss Webster's.

—The next meeting of the Monday Club will be held with Mrs. Nelson.
—The Improvement Association have a concert at Lincoln Hall, May 21st.

—Next Sunday Whitsunday will be appropriately observed at St. Paul's church.

—Mr. H. P. Ayer took the place of Mr.
Ryder in the quartet at the Congregational church last Sunday.

—Miss Ellen Foristall, living with E. J.
Hyde, starts for Oxford Saturday, May 10th, her home, where she intends to spend the summer.

—Mr. Dickerman has sold one of his houses at Eliot, on Harrison street, to Mr.
Horace Hill of Dorchester, who will soon occupy the same.

—Mrs. Thorne of Newton Centre was received as a member of the Monday Club at its meeting this week, held at the residence of Capt. Chatfield.

—The City of Newton have commenced the grading of the grounds about the engine house, and setting edge stones and paving entranceways.

—Rev. Herbert D. Ward has recovered from a short illness. Mr. and Mrs. Ward will leave in a few days for their summer residence in Gloucester.

—Mrs. Cobb is having alterations and improvements made on her house, corner of Bowdoin and Forest streets, lately vacated by Mr. A. W. Young.

—On Thursday a class of nine (two from out of the village) were confirmed at St.
Paul's church by the Rt. Rev. Leighton Coleman, Bishop of Delaware.

—Capt. Kendall, accompanied by his wife and son, will in a few days start on their voyage to China, and on Monday next will sell at auction their household effects.

—Mr. L. A. Ross has sold the fine house built by him last year on Walnut street, opposite his residence, to a Mr. Kellogg of Boston, who will occupy it immediately.

—Mr. C. H. Hale of Waban has been awarded by the City of Boston the contract for the building of the lower section of wasteway in the town of Ashland, at Bash 5.

—We hear that Mr. H. M. Beal, who has built houses at the Highlands and at Eliot, was the lowest bidder for the contract of building the almshouse for the City of Newton.

—Mrs. Lamson started for Chicago on Thursday, where she will visit her son,
Mr. W. O. Lamson, and later go to Marsh-town, Iowa, and visit a brother, whose home is there.

—Mr. J. R. Frederick Barry will sail on Saturday by Steamer Pavia, with a party of friends, and will make a tour through England, Ireland and the Continent, and expects to be absent about two months.

—Mrs. Waterson, who formerly conducted a millinery business in Bowen's block, would announce to the ladies of the Highlands and vicinity that she is prepared to do millinery work at her home on Winchester street at the residence of her father, Mr. G. W. Ferren.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Loring and daughter of Chelsea, are boarding with Deacon Whiting. Mr. Loring has for many years been with Messrs. Nash, Squidling & Co., sugar-refiners of Boston. A son, Mr. F. T.
Loring, and wife, who have just returned from their wedding trip to Chicago, have also taken board there.

—Mr. J. C. Newcomb, carpenter and builder, has sold out his business and goodwill to Mr. W. B. McMullen. Mr. McMullen has been for a long time in the employ of Mr. Newcomb, and being thoroughly competent to perform all work that may be entrusted to him in the best manner, it is hoped that he may receive a fair share of the patronage of the public.

—The King of Clubs spent a most delightful evening at the residence of Mr.
Charles Bryant last Saturday. When the guests had assembled, cards occupied the evening and prizes were awarded to Miss Grace Whittemore and Mr. Winard Ayer.
After refreshments were served, dancing was enjoyed for a short time, and then the young gentlemen entertained the young ladies with humorous solos.

—Newton Highlands is well represented at the Homeopathic Fair held in Horticu-tural Hall this week. In the absence of Mrs. Dr. Eaton, who was chairman for Ward 5, Mrs. E. J. Hyde acted in that capacity last Monday, the opening day.
Today the Newton table is in charge of ladies from Ward 5, and is to be managed by Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. E. J. Hyde, Mrs.
Heckman, Mrs. Mansfield, Mrs. King, from the Highlands; Mrs. Johnson from Eliot;
Mrs. Van B. Gould from Waban, and Mrs.
John Gould from Upper Falls. The young ladies who act as aids will be Miss Grace Bryant, Miss Della Barber, Miss Lillian Manson, Miss Kate Manson, Miss Florence
Johnson, Miss Edith Nickerson and Miss Alice Heckman.

—Last Tuesday evening was ladies' night at the Highland Club, and a rare musical treat was offered the guests. Miss Grace Franklin sang a duet, "Night in Venice," by request, Miss Franklin, "Polly
and I," Wakefield, Mr. Heinrich, "Snow-
flakes," and "Love me if I Live," Cowen.
Miss Franklin, Miss Franklin and Mr.
Heinrich then sang a duet, "Night in Venice," by request, Miss Franklin, "Polly
and I," Wakefield, Mr. Heinrich, "Snow-
flakes," and "Love me if I Live," Cowen.
The guests of the Highland Club are to be congratulated. This was Miss Franklin's first appearance in Newton, we believe.
Miss Gertrude Cobb was accompanist.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—James Leach's new house is raised and boarded in.

—Hickey's No. 1 paper mill shut down for a few days this week to repair the dryers.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith have the sympathy of friends in the loss of a little child, Monday.

—Mrs. Thomas Leach died at her home in Needham, Monday. The remains were taken to Waltham.

—A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Heald of Eliot street was quite badly burned, the first half of the week.

—Funeral services over the late Mrs.
Buckley were solemnized Tuesday, and the interment was at Needham.

—A new house is to be erected on Eliot street, from Mr. F. A. Flathers, and the ground has been staked out.

—The ladies of the Methodist church will serve a "Pink Tea" on Monday evening, May 25th, followed by a musical entertainment.

—A large crowd filled post office square Friday evening, and a patent medicine man and his ventriloquist companion were the innocent cause.

—An Upper Falls time keeper was left in Needham Sunday night, without the consent of the owner. This began the annual round of Needham festivities.

—The Gamewell Fire Alarm Telegraph
Co. shops are being painted this week by Temperley & Hurley of Newton Highlands.

—Contractor H. M. Beal submitted the lowest bid for the construction of the new almshouse, and the city fathers should award him the contract. His figures were $24,800.

—Mr. John T. Thomason was detained from his duties as sexton at the Baptist church, Sunday, the first time in 12 years, a remarkable record. Mr. Rogers Linton took his place Sunday.

—The Pettie Machine Works have had four small houses commenced back of the residence of Charles Brown on Linden and Mechanic streets. John Mullen is digging the cellars and the carpenter work is to be done by Mr. Fulton of Cohasset.
The houses are to be small, for one family
each, and will contain about six rooms.

—Echo Bridge was visited by about 25 teams, 100 bicyclists and nearly 100 people on foot, Sunday, and Officer Shaughnessy, the staunch official in charge, was kept busy guiding the pleasure seekers to points of interest, and answering numerous questions.
The bridge is a strangely attractive place among its visitors. Sunday were a number of people from Boston.

—Alfred Beals who is employed at the Pettie Machine Works as a moulder, was badly injured Saturday night, while walking on the track near Newton Centre he was struck by the 10.41 train, both arms being fractured and sustaining other severe injuries. Dr. J. H. Bodge was called and advised his removal to the Newton Cottage Hospital. Officer Fuller taking him there in the patrol wagon.

—Officer Purcell is entitled to two blue bars on his uniform after next Sunday, which marks the anniversary of his tenth year on the police force. He has figured in more heavy sentences than any other officer, notably among them being the Owens case, a sentence of 10 years, the Oakley case, 3 years and later the Fredrick case, 2 years, the last being one of the best pieces of work which has been done on the south side of the city.

—Charles Harding, the bookkeeper at Hickey's paper mills, was quite severely injured one day last week. He was assisting in unloading a heavy truck from a car at the depot and the force being insufficient, striking him on the back of the head, cutting a deep gash and severing an artery.
Dr. Deane of Newton Highlands dressed the wound and Harding is slowly recovering.

—Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Emerson were tendered a reception Monday evening in the vestry of the Methodist Episcopal church.
It was a very pleasant gathering of ladies and gentlemen, and included a large number of Rev. Mr. Emerson's parishioners, the affair being perfectly informal. The usual social features were enjoyed and cake
and coffee were served. A musical entertainment was given under the direction of Mr. Threlfall, Miss Sturtevant presiding at the organ.

—Considerable interest is manifested in the services of the Episcopal church held in Quinobegun Hall at four o'clock each Sunday. Next Sunday instead of the usual service of evening prayer there will be an administration of Holy Baptism. All are welcome at these services. Sunday will be the feast of Whitsunday.

W. C. T. U. School of Methods.

There was a large attendance at the School of Methods, held Tuesday at the Methodist Episcopal church of Newton, under the auspices of the Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The morning session opened at 10 o'clock, and Mrs.
Susan S. Fessenden, President of the Massachusetts W. C. T. U., presided. After a devotional service conducted by Mrs.
Martha Hyde of West Newton, Mrs. Helen
G. Rice, the State Superintendent of Sunday School work, spoke upon "How Shall Teaching be Done?" The lady outlined the importance of the important work already accomplished and in progress in this branch of the service, and pointed out several methods for increasing its effectiveness. She urged the importance of the pledge rolls and the supplements regularly issued. Mrs. Fessenden spoke at length and interestingly upon "How can we enforce the scientific temperance instruction law passed by the W. C. T. U. in 1887?"
At noon, noontide prayer was conducted in union with the National and World's W.
C. T. U., and shortly after Mrs. Kate Lente Stevenson of Newton delivered an address upon "What has the W. C. T. U. done for Woman?"

The morning session closed at 12.30 o'clock, and after a basket collation the afternoon session of the Standard Furniture Co., 23 Washington and 87
Friend streets, which will be found in another column. Although this concern is comparatively new, the members of the firm have a long experience in the trade, and won for themselves a good reputation for honest dealing and polite attention to their customers. Mr. John Rossborough was several years with A.
McArthur & Co., Joseph H. Symonds
was identified several years with A.
McArthur & Co., and the Home Furniture
Co., Henry P. Worthley was a member of the old firm of Rossborough,
Symonds & Worthley, the other members have had a long experience in the wholesale trade. We feel justified in recommending any of our readers in want of furniture, carpets, etc., to give them a call before buying elsewhere. With their long experience and large capital
we think they can give greater bargains than can be found anywhere in New England.

Plants For Sale!

A large collection of Palms, Ferns, Chrysanthemums, Etc.
DOYLE'S CONSERVATORIES,
Formerly Hovey's, Cambridge Street, Cambridge
WM. E. DOYLE, 43 Tremont St., Boston.

SUMMER SEASON '91.

West of England and Irish Boating Serges

In various shades and weights.
Pin checks and fine stripes in large variety.
Also an assortment of English Light Homespun which we can safely say is the largest in the city.
Popular Prices: Artistic Cutting; Best Mechanical Results.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.,

Importing Tailors,
6 UNION STREET, BOSTON.
W. C. BROOKS, Residence, NEWTON CENTRE.

Newton Associated Charities.

The regular meeting of the Visitors and Directors of the Newton Associated Charities were held at their room in Newtonville, Thursday afternoon. The Visitor's meeting at 3.30 was largely attended. Reports showed increasing interest and efficiency in work. The Directors meeting was held at 5 p. m., the following directors being present: T. B. Fitz, N. T. Allen, Mrs. N. W.
Farley, Mrs. Johnson, Seward W. Jones,
Miss M. C. Worcester, Mrs. Luke Davis,
Rev. F. B. Hornbrooke, Rev. W. A. Lamb,
Mrs. Geo. F. Kimball, Rev. R. A. White, and Dr. D. E. Baker. The treasurer reported a very pleasant gathering of ladies and gentlemen, and included a large number of Rev. Mr. Emerson's parishioners,
the affair being perfectly informal. The usual social features were enjoyed and cake
and coffee were served. A musical entertainment was given under the direction of Mr. Threlfall, Miss Sturtevant presiding at the organ.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

To Furnish the House.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Standard Furniture Co., 23 Washington and 87
Friend streets, which will be found in another column. Although this concern is comparatively new, the members of the firm have a long experience in the trade, and won for themselves a good reputation for honest dealing and polite
attention to their customers. Mr. John Rossborough was several years with A.
McArthur & Co., Joseph H. Symonds
was identified several years with A.
McArthur & Co., and the Home Furniture
Co., Henry P. Worthley was a member of the old firm of Rossborough,
Symonds & Worthley, the other members
have had a long experience in the wholesale trade. We feel justified in recommending any of our readers in want of furniture, carpets, etc., to give them a call before buying elsewhere. With their long experience and large capital
we think they can give greater bargains
than can be found anywhere in New England.

LUMBER.

GILKEY & STONE

ARSENAL ST., WATERTOWN

Yose & Sons PIANOS

ESTABLISHED 1851.
28,000 SOLD AND IN USE.

NEW STYLES
ELEGANT DESIGNS, SUPERIOR WORKMANSHIP, GREAT DURABILITY,
EASY TERMS.
New and Second-hand Pianos rented, and one year's rent allowed on the purchase price.
100 Second-hand Pianos, in good order, ranging from $50 to $275 in price. Some have had but little use.
YOSE & SONS PIANO CO.,
170 Tremont St.

Insurance.
Henry K. Parker,
47 Kilby St.,
Boston.

Newton Club Men

Will find it to their advantage to call at the Chambers of

Mr. SOMERS, the Popular Tailor, For FINE WOOLLENS, and see the handsome styles in Suits at $25.00 of fine FOREIGN TEX-TURES, embracing all the fashionable shades
for SUMMER WEAR.

CHAMBERS:
149 A Tremont Street,
BOSTON.

SIDNEY P. CLARK,

REAL ESTATE & INSURANCE.

Houses for Sale and to Rent in all parts of Newton and other Suburbs of Boston. A large number of Choice Building Lots for Sale.

Furnished Houses a Specialty.
178 Washington Street,
AND Cousens' Block, :: Newton :: Centre

Strawberry Plants For Sale!

100,000 Strawberry Plants of the new seedling "JESSIE," introduced by Green's Nursery Co., Rochester, New York.
This seedling is one of the Earliest, Largest and Most Profitable Strawberry now in the Market.
The Flavor is the Finest.

PLANTS, $.75 Per 100.

PLANTS, $.50 Per 1000.

JOHN SCOTT,
WALTHAM STREET, NEAR CITY LINE,
West Newton, Mass.
FORMERLY
J. SCOTT & BROS.,
STRAWBERRY CULTIVATORS,
ALLSTON, MASS. 29

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given that on Monday evening, May 18th, 1891, at City Hall at 7.30 o'clock, the Board of Aldermen will hear all parties interested in the petition (18518) of the Newton
Street Railway Company, that the order (12801)
requiring said Railway Company to change the location of its tracks in River street from the side to the centre of said street, may be revoked.

31 21 ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

City of Newton.

The Public Property Committee invite Plans
and Specifications for the enlargement of the Police School House, Washington street, Ward
Three.
For further particulars, address E. J. HYDE,
31 Milk street, Boston.
The Committee reserve the right to reject any
and all Plans and Specifications.
Bids will close on Monday, May 18th.
E. J. HYDE,
Chairman Public Property Committee.
May 8, 1891. 31-21

Pearmain AND Brooks,

Bankers and Brokers.

(Members Boston Stock Exchange.)
Have Removed to New Stock Exchange Building,
No. 53 State St., Room 218.
SUMNER B. PEARMAIN, L. LORING BROOKS.

WALTER H. THORPE,
Counsellor at Law,
28 State Street, Room 55,
BOSTON, MASS.
Residence, Pelham St., Newton Centre

Wm. E. Armstrong & Co.,

(Successors to A. A. SHERMAN & CO DEALERS IN

Provisions, Vegetables, Fruits,
BUTTER, LARD,
Pickles, Canned Goods,
ALL KINDS OF FISH.
Lobsters and Oysters in their Season.

Care will be taken to serve customers with promptness. Orders taken at the house daily if desired.

Farnham's Block, Newton Centre.
Wm. E. Armstrong. (30) G. C. Armstrong.

A. H. ROFFE,

HAY and GRAIN,

LIME, CEMENT AND DRAIN PIPE.
Cypress, near Centre Street, Newton Centre.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION. 3

J. FRANK MAKEE,

Hack, Livery & Boarding STABLE.

Good carriages and careful drivers furnished for Weddings, Funerals and Parties, at short notice.
Carriage at depot from 7.45 a. m. to 7.45 p. m.
All orders attended to day or night.

FURNISHING UNDERTAKER

All funeral requisites furnished.
Pelham and Pleasant Streets Entrance,
NEWTON CENTRE.
Telephone connection. 45 17

Choicest Articles in the Grocery Line.

Fresh Print Butter received 4 times a week.
Newton Eggs. Flour at Cobb's Prices, including Bridal Veil, Cereal Food, in variety. Canned Goods of all kinds. Salt Pork and Potatoes.
All Kennedy's Specialties. Nuts, Raisins, Dates, Figs, Citron, Currants and

CITY GOVERNMENT.

A LONG AND RAMBLING HEARING OVER TRACKS ON RIVER STREET.

The Board of Aldermen met at 7.45 o'clock, Monday evening, with Mayor Hibbard in the chair and all the members present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

A petition from Lewis Brumwell, claiming damages for the drainage by the city of water on his land on Adams street, through his house, J. C. Ivy, was read and referred to the claims committee.

A petition from T. M. Clarke, asking that the mayor and aldermen order gates at his private crossing on way opposite Brookside street, and stating that the directors of the road had disregarded his application; that the provisions of the railroad charter provided that the mayor and aldermen had power to do this; that an appeal could be taken to the county commissioners, decisions of the Supreme court have affirmed this power, and the later law giving the railroad commissioners jurisdiction in no wise conflicted with the previous regulation; referred to the city solicitor.

The order in regard to the hose house at Nonantum, amended by the common council to provide for an engine house, was taken up.

Alderman Coffin asked what would be the difference in cost.

Alderman Hyde said the public property committee had not got as far as that, but the engine house at Newton Highlands had cost $16,500.

Alderman Sheppard asked which was the most needed.

Alderman Crehore said the engine would be of no use without hose, and Chief Bixby had stated that a hose house would be all that was needed for the hose to come and the committee had so reported. There was 90 pounds of pressure at the place, which rendered an engine unnecessary.

Alderman Hyde said in his talk with the councilman from Ward One he inferred he wanted a chemical engine.

Alderman Crehore said he had a chief whose opinion ought to outweigh that of those entirely ignorant of the needs of the department.

Alderman Sheppard moved and Alderman Coffin seconded that the board adhere to its former action, and the motion passed unanimously.

A. W. Snow and others asked for a fire alarm signal station at corner of Beacon and Station streets; referred.

The New England Telephone and Telegraph Company asked for locations for wires and poles on Winthrop street, between Shaw and Putnam; Temple, between Putnam and Prince; Putnam, between Winthrop and Temple; Waltham, between River and Washington; Otis between Walnut and Murray, and Beacon, between Centre street and Grant avenue. Referred to committee on license.

RIVER STREET HEARING.

The hearing on the petition to rescind the order requiring the tracks on River street to be placed in the center of the street was opened at 7.30.

In the absence of President Morse, Mr. H. B. Parker presented the facts in the case and read it. He said that 75 per cent. of the abutters wanted the tracks just where they were. It would be a great expense if the tracks were ordered to be changed now.

Alderman Luke asked if the company intended to keep the road-bed in good condition.

Mr. Parker said the company were pushing everything now to get the turnouts in, so that cars could be run on fifteen minute time. As soon as the turnouts were finished the road-bed would be put in order. The tracks were in the same place they have been for twenty-three years; there had been no accidents, the motor men were very careful and were chosen for faithfulness. The cars ran about 8 miles an hour.

Mayor Hibbard asked if time lost were not made up on this part of the route.

Mr. Parker thought not, the cars ran no faster there than elsewhere.

Geo. M. Cox then spoke against granting the petition.

Mr. Goodrich asked how he was affected, Mr. Cox said he lived on the other side of the street, and he was not affected at all, he wanted the tracks changed in the interests of the public.

He claimed there had been three accidents already on River street. The tracks had been changed, the city engineer giving the lines, and to speak plain, it was done by the authority of the chairman of last year's highway committee.

Alderman Harbach said the chairman of the highway committee never gave any such authority.

Thomas Mague also spoke against the petition, said he lived on the other side of the street, and it would be better for the public to have the tracks in the center, as the grade of the street was very bad now and could not be changed until the tracks were moved. He wanted the street regraded. He changed that men had been bought up, that it was a case of Jake Sharp and hoodlums.

Mr. Goodrich asked him to tell all he knew about Jake Sharp practice.

Mr. Mague said parties objecting to the tracks had been offered money to withdraw. One man was offered $25 if he would not appear.

Mr. Goodrich asked him to give names.

Mr. Mague called Mr. McGlinchy, who was sworn and said Mr. Taffe had offered him $25 to sign a paper to let the tracks remain as they were, but he refused. Mr. Taffe said he would give him $25 down and $50 more if the tracks did not have to be moved.

Mr. Goodrich said $100 would have been taken. He said no, as he estimated his damages at $500.

Mr. Goodrich said the road was willing to pay a fair amount for damages.

Mr. Cox claimed he was also approached. The Mayor asked him to state the facts under oath. He declined, but said Mr. Taffe had told him to see the company and they would make it satisfactory.

Michael Taffe spoke in favor of the petition. Said the road did not injure him, or cause him any greater annoyance than Mr. Mague's tipcars, both wove him up in the morning. He had a white post in front of his door, and all the others were jealous of him.

road plough had made a bank six feet high and 6 feet across in front of his store.

Mr. Goodrich asked him if he had ever complained to the city. He said he had not.

Patrick Kinnear said he had been troubled with snow, couldn't get out of his house, and the cars went like lightning in front of his house; he had not complained, although he had thought of it.

A man whose name was not given said his child 3 years old had been knocked down by a car as it was starting up, but the child was fortunately not hurt. If the car had been going rapidly the child would have been killed. The road was very dangerous, especially for the children.

W. H. Ryan said the tracks were a great danger, in winter the snow plough piled the snow against the houses, and made it almost impossible to get out. It was a wrong to the people who lived there.

Mr. Cox began to speak at some length and Mr. Goodrich got up as if to leave. Mayor Hibbard said the aldermen had decided to give just as extended hearings as any one desired and to let any one talk as much as they desired, and the hearing could be extended. Mr. Cox closed and no one else wishing to say more, Mr. Goodrich made his closing remarks. He recalled the way the original order was once defeated, but as one alderman was absent, it was again called up, and passed. He thought the track would be more of a nuisance in the center of the street, but there was no hurry in the matter. The road had just begun to earn a dollar, and why put them to an expense of $7000 or $8000, before they had had a chance to get any return from their investment. The order for a change could be passed at any time. The board had given quasi endorsement by granting a location for poles and wires, since the order was passed. As for the noxious question, the road was willing to make things satisfactory with any person whose estate was really damaged, but it was foolish to call it bribery. There were 42 abutters and only three or four had appeared to oppose the location, Mr. Mague wanted the change because he lived on the other side of the street. The hearing was then closed after lasting some two hours and a half.

OTHER BUSINESS.

A petition was received from J. H. Nickerson for resurfacing of concrete in front of his house; notice of intention to build by Petree Machine Co. house 35x37 on Eliot street; Amos L. Hall four houses on Oak street. Several junk licenses were granted, also carriage licenses to C. E. Bishop and H. R. Venable, Newmarket Highlands. The West Newton Social Club was granted license for pool table. A petition for pool table license for the Central House was referred to license committee.

LABORER'S WAGES.

Alderman Fenno said in regard to the rate of wages paid laborers, he had written to the superintendents of streets of the 27 cities of the state, and had received answers from 24. Of these five cities paid $2 per day, namely, Cambridge, Somerville, Boston, Lynn and Gloucester; eight cities paid $1.75; four cities paid $1.50; two, Waltham and Marlboro, paid $1.25; two paid $1.05; two paid $1.57 1/2; and one paid $1.35. Two cities paid 17 1/2 cents an hour for nine hours.

The facts did not bear out the broad assertion made by the councilman from Ward One as to the prevailing rate of wages in towns and cities, and it was only charitable to say that he seemed to be grossly ignorant on the subject.

An order was passed accepting the act passed by the general court of 1890, increasing the water loan to $500,000.

THE ALMSHOUSE.

Alderman Hyde presented an order appropriating $32,750, for the building of a new almshouse on Winchester street, the money to be raised by a note or notes, as the finance committee may recommend. Alderman Hyde said the structure would cost $24,800 and the remainder would be needed for steam fitting, architect's fees, and incidentals. The plans were the result of several months' work of the committee for last and year, and have been cut in every possible way, in order to get down as low as possible. It would be an ideal building for Newton, the central house to be sufficient for all time, of the colonial style, plain but commodious. The committee had left the matter of the notes to the finance committee to decide.

Alderman Fenno asked how many occupants there were in the almshouse.

Mayor Hibbard said the number had averaged 30 for the past ten years.

Alderman Fenno said he thought this was too much to expend for that number of people, and he was not sure but that it would be cheaper to give the almshouse altogether and board the paupers at some other institution. The figures given did not include a stable, which would bring the cost up to $40,000.

Alderman Harbach said he felt in the same way, the building was entirely too large for our present needs. The building was planned to accommodate 60. [Alderman Hyde Fifty] inmates, and he thought one wing could easily be left off for the present, and the interest and cost of repairs would build the wing by the time it was needed.

Alderman Luke asked if the paupers could legally be boarded out of the city. City Auditor Otis said they could not.

Alderman Fenno said they might be cared for in families in the city.

Alderman Crehore said he failed to see any necessity for a new almshouse. The one we have is in good condition inside, and it was a waste of money to give it up and provide for so large a number. He thought the number of paupers would decrease rather than increase. A few thousand would repair the outside of the present building.

Alderman Coffin said that last year Mr. Mosman and the overseers of the poor had decided that it was not advisable to have a building with accommodations for less than 50. We might have more if the accommodations were better. The lot had been bought two years ago.

Alderman Hyde said the city council for the last three or four years had favored building, and last year had voted to remove the almshouse. It seemed to him that the council had committed itself, and he wanted to have the public property committee procure plans. He did not hear complaints about handsome new drill sheds and school houses, but the paupers ought to be taken care of. If we are going to build at all we should now, when the plans have been prepared, after a good deal of labor. The principle of boarding out paupers was not thought a good one. The council had promised to remove the almshouse from Waban, and had bought land with that end in view.

Alderman Sheppard said the building and land would not really cost the city anything, as the value of the present site of the almshouse would more than offset the cost. An almshouse was also a necessity and a new building ought not to have accommodations for less than 50.

Alderman Harbach said he agreed as to the necessity of a new almshouse, the land where the present one is was too valuable for such a purpose, and the city ought also to build a good one, but he did not think so large a building was needed.

An informal vote was taken on the order, and Messrs. Fenno, Luke, Crehore and Harbach voted no, and Messrs. Coffin, Hyde and Sheppard yes. The order was then referred to the finance committee.

WATER MAINS.

On motion of Alderman Harbach an order was passed for the laying of 253 feet of 6 in. main on Lenox street, with a guarantee, to cost $320. Mr. Harbach explained that the residents along the line obtained water from other streets and there would probably never be any taken on this line, but the main would connect two sections of mains and aid in better circulation of the water.

An order was also passed for 145 feet of 6 in. main on Trowbridge avenue, $145; 175 feet on Crafts street, for sewerage department, $173; 475 feet on Lawson street, $503; 476 feet on Kingsbury, $525; 738 on ditto, $905; 590 feet of 6 in. and 78 of 2 in. on Hale street, $581; 220 feet of 6 in. on Cherry street, $335; 170 feet of 6 in. and 250 of 4 in. on Cherry street, and private way, $454.00; total $3,721.00.

A new division of the precincts in Ward Two founded on the railroad, to accord with the block system of assessments, was voted.

The city clerk was authorized to expend $50 to purchase precincts maps of the city.

The sum of $60,100 was appropriated for expenses during June.

On motion of Alderman Luke the city treasurer was authorized to sell 50 water bonds of the line of $1,000 each. The board then adjourned.

A Real Balsam is Kemp's Balsam.
The dictionary says, "A balsam is a thick, pure, aromatic substance flowing from trees." Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs is the only cough medicine that is the real balsam. Many thin, watery cough remedies are called balsams, but such are not. Look through a bottle of Kemp's Balsam and notice what a pure thick preparation it is. If you cough use Kemp's Balsam. "At all druggists." Large bottles 50c. and $1.

Arrested.
Charles A. Dalziel was arrested last evening for stealing from the drug store of Shifman, a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Before the court this morning, upon being asked why he should not plead guilty, he said that he was troubled with rheumatism, and that it was the only medicine that helped him, and being out of money and work was the cause of his stealing. As this was his first offense he was put on probation. —Newark News.

Used up ball players and athletes find Johnson's Anodyne Liniment a balm in Gilead.

"A stitch in time saves nine," and if you take Hood's Sarsaparilla now it may save months of future possible sickness.

An Aspiring Daughter. Daughter—"Papa, I want a new dress." Papa—"Always dress as I dress." Daughter—"You don't seem to have a thought for anything higher than dresses." Daughter—"I have, I also want a new hat." —Chicago Herald.

Catarrahal deafness is relieved by using Johnson's Anodyne Liniment as directed. Try it.

SYRUP OF FIGS

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, head-aches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, SS.

APRIL 25th, 1891.

Taken on execution and will be sold at public auction on Saturday the twentieth day of June next at ten o'clock A. M., at the donor's office in the County Court House on Third street in Cambridge County, of Middlesex County, all the right title and interest liable to be taken on execution that Ernest D. Blackwell having his usual place of business in Boston in the County of Suffolk had on the seventh day of December 1890 at two o'clock P. M. (that being the time when the same was attached on messes process) in and to the following described real estate to-wit:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Belmont in the County of Middlesex and State of Massachusetts and being lot numbered sixty-seven on a plan of land in Belmont, belonging to Trowbridge and Baker by W. A. Mason dated May 1873 recorded with Middlesex South District Plans Book 22, Plan 3, bounded and described as follows Southeastly 57 feet on said plan, Northwestly by land now or late of Sutherland, and Northwestly by lot 68 on said plan.

22 S. SAMUEL W. TUCKER, Deputy Sheriff.

J. OTIS McFADDEN,
DEALER IN

Window Shades, Wire Screens, Wall Papers, Venetian Blinds.

23 CORNHILL, BOSTON.

H. W. DOWNS CO.,

143 Tremont St., Boston.

One Door South of Temple Place

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

High Grade Dress Linings and Findings.

The Largest Variety and Finest Selections of Silk and Cotton Linings in the City.

L. H. CRANITCH

HOUSE, SIGN, AND ORNAMENTAL PAINTER,

Graining and Paper Hanging a Specialty.

WALNUT STREET,

2d Door from Central Block, NEWTONVILLE.

F. H. WHIPPLE,

Sole Agent For New England For

White's Automatic Fire Alarm.

Inspection, Practical Tests and Correspondence Solicited.

Office: 1472 Washington St., BOSTON.

23

Spring Millinery!

A Choice Assortment at

THE JUVENE.

The Ladies of Newton and Vicinity Invited.

Miss E. Juven Robbins,

SUCCESSOR TO

H. J. WOODS,

Ellet Block, Elmwood St., Newton.

Open Monday, Friday and Saturday evenings.

WALWORTH

Construction and Supply Co.

Steam and Hot Water Apparatus, Steam Traps, Valves and Heaters.

Steam Pumps, Boilers and Engines.

GARDEN HOSE.

SPRINKLER SYSTEMS.

Used for Water, Steam or Gas.

Test 300 lbs. and upwards per sq. in.

Sizes, 6 in. to 24 in.

The cost of this pipe is only a fraction of that of standard pipe. Descriptive circular sent on application.

60 PEARL STREET, BOSTON.

Telephone No. 707, Boston.

NEWTON STREET RAILWAY.

Commencing April 20, 1891, cars will run as follows:

NEWTON TO WALTHAM.

Leave Newton 6.25, 7.30, 8.00, a. m., and every half hour until 11.00 p. m.

For West Newton only 6.30, 12.00 p. m.

Newtownville 6.32, 7.38, 8.08 a. m., and every half hour until 11.08 p. m.

For West Newton only 11.38 p. m., 12.08 a. m.

Car Station 6.30, 6.35, 7.15, 7.45, 8.15 a. m., and every half hour until 11.15 p. m.

West Newton 6.35, 6.40, 7.15, 7.45, 8.15 a. m., and every half hour until 11.15 p. m.

WALTHAM TO NEWTON.

Leave Waltham 6.40, 7.15, 7.45 a. m., and every half hour until 11.15 p. m.

For West Newton only 11.45 p. m.

West Newton 6.35, 7.05, 7.42, 8.12 a. m., and every half hour until 11.42 p. m.

Car Station 6.38, 7.08, 7.45, 8.15 a. m., and every half hour until 11.45 p. m.

Newtownville 6.45, 7.15, 8.22 a. m., and every half hour until 11.52 p. m.

SUNDAY CARS.

Same as on week days, except that the 6.25 a. m. car from Newton and the 6.40 and 7.45 a. m. from Waltham are omitted.

Special Church Cars between West Newton and Newton.

Leave West Newton 10.05 a. m.

Newtownville 10.15 a. m.

Arrive Newton 10.20 a. m.

Leave Newton 12.20 p. m.

Arrive West Newton 12.30 p. m.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO PASSENGERS.

On and after Monday, April 20, 1891, the cars of this company will stop only at the Signal Poles, but only upon request of a passenger, or signal from a person wishing to ride.

F. G. L. HENDERSON, Supl.

EDWIN I. DILL,

Baker, Caterer and Ice

Cream Manufacturer.

Particular Attention Given to catering for Weddings and Private Parties.

A. O. U. W. Lock, Moody Street, Waltham; Spring Hotel, Main Street, Watertown.

21

W. H. WHIPPEN,

CONSULTING ENGINEER,

Will advise with regard to the Erection and Running of STEAM PLANTS. Also Estimates of the Cost of Same.

Furnished. Transmission of Power by Wire Cable a Specialty. Call or address

615 Atlantic Avenue, BOSTON.

23-3m

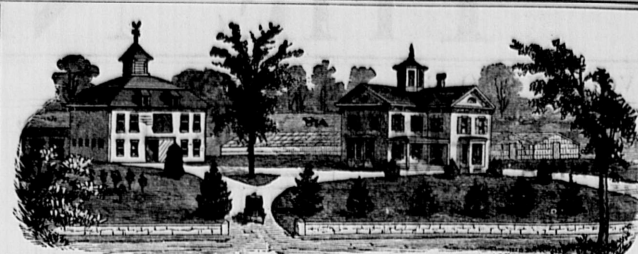

SPRING SUITS.

J. H. NICKERSON,

Merchant Tailor and Clothier,

WEST NEWTON, MASS.

Is now prepared to furnish Spring Suits from the Latest Styles of goods, ready made or to order as you may desire. A better or cheaper clothing for Men or Boys can be procured. Call and see our line before purchasing. Please leave your orders early to avoid having to wait when the season advances.

The Granite State Building

ASSOCIATION.

OBJECT.

THE object of this association is to furnish homes to its members on an instalment plan at the very lowest cost. According to the lapses on old life insurance and one to five year orders for the past five years, fifty per cent. of all have lapsed. We find by careful investigation, a homestead costing Three Thousand Dollars can be obtained at a cost of about Eighteen Hundred Dollars to all members of this association. Our plan is this; All members pay five Dollars to join this association and as soon as this fund reaches the amount of Three Thousand Dollars, certificate holder No. 1 can buy or build a house, select his own location, and make his own contract for building, plans and specifications to be approved by the association. The members shall first give a mortgage for Three Thousand Dollars without interest, less the amount paid in by said member, and shall continue to pay his weekly instalment until his mortgage is paid up in full.

SOURCES OF PROFIT.

THE lapse element. It is impossible to hold any considerable number of persons together in any kind of an association without change; old members drop out and new ones come in, change in condition, alteration of mind, death, etc., all contribute to exemplify this principle, and constitute an inevitable law by which the persistent members realize a large profit. All members stand equal, as each one has to pay in full for his homestead, less the lapses, which, according to past five years' experience, place the lapses at fifty per cent. This will reduce the cost of each member's Three Thousand Dollar house to Eighteen Hundred Dollars, or less. Ninety per cent. of all instalments go to the building fund, ten per cent. to the general fund to pay the expenses of the association.

For further particulars apply to any of the following members or at the company office, Burnham Building, Room 11 and 12, 74 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

W. H. Smith, 10 Central Market, Boston.
A. J. Cunningham, 51 Blackstone St., Boston.
J. W. Smith, 22 Lewis St., Lynn.
Geo. G. Hackett, Wakefield, Mass.
Chas. W. Baird, 39 and 41 North St., Boston.
Fred R. Whitworth, 33 Boylston St., Boston.
John J. Crowley, 16 Carnes St., Lynn, Mass.
Chas. E. Brown, 39 North St., Boston.
Mr. Jas.

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB. The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the Tariff, is cordially invited to take part in the discussions carried on in this column. Respectful consideration will be given to inquiries, criticisms, and communications of every kind, whether coming from the protectionist, the free trader, or the high protectionist. Address Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, Newton Centre, Mass.

How the Drawback Works.

In spite of the drawback of ninety-nine per cent. of the duty paid on raw material used in the manufacture of exported products, that special pet of the protective system, the American Screw Company has found the terms of the law so onerous that they have given up all attempts to ship goods abroad, and have arranged to send machinery to England for operation there, instead of starting up some of their idle domestic mills. All this on the authority of a correspondent of the New York Evening Post, the editor of which guarantees the authenticity of the statement.

The Dying Cobden Club.

[Harold Frederic's London Letter.]

The bosoms of McKinley, Reed & Co. will be much soothed by the news that the Cobden Club is so hard up for funds that it is obliged again to omit its annual fish dinner at Greenwich, and that it is not unlikely that it will expire altogether in the next few years. It is now four years since its members made even that poor show of meeting one another. The truth is that the club's mission seems to have ended. It was founded in the first flush of the triumph of political economy over stupidity and ignorance in England by men who fondly believed that the rest of the world was open to conviction by argument, as the English had shown themselves to be. They were going so to spread the light that soon all mankind would abandon those twin relics of medieval barbarism, tariffs and wars. The dream was lofty, but it cruelly failed of realization. Four great wars have convulsed Europe since the formation of the club, and tariff walls are being reared higher than ever, and standing armies are in preparation for vaster conflicts. The old generation of Englishmen who the club had been mostly died off. The new generation do not burn with sacred enthusiasm to proselytize the world. They see that England is making profits right and left by the protectionist's follies of her neighbors, and they are indisposed to spend money in dissipating those follies. Hence the Cobden Club may be described as on its last legs.

Investigating the McKinley Tariff.

A sub-committee of the Senate committee on finance is engaged, in compliance with a resolution introduced by Senator Plumb, in investigating the effects of the McKinley tariff. Senator Plumb's original proposition was for a tariff commission, and this was agreed to by the Senate, but thrown out in the conference committee. He then proposed an investigation by the finance committee and this was agreed to.

The Senate finance committee contains a strong minority of able and experienced Democratic Senators, all of whom are tariff reformers. The sub-committee now at work in New York has Senators Carlisle and Harris on it; on no commission selected by President Harrison would the cause of low taxation have been represented by such champions.

We are favorably impressed with the way the committee have gone to work. At the very start it is utilizing Colonel Carroll D. Wright, Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. He is a Republican and we suppose a protectionist. But he is an accomplished, experienced and honest statistician. The work he has already done in the investigation of the cause of producing coal, iron and steel is of the utmost value to the cause of tariff reform. There is no other argument of the protectionists that is half so effective as that our manufacturers must have protection because they pay higher wages. Colonel Wright has shown, so far as he has gone, that high wages do not involve greater cost of labor to the manufacturer.

The sub-committee has consulted Mr. D. A. Wells, who is not only a Democrat, and one of the most eminent laborers in the country, but is thoroughly experienced in the collection and analysis of commercial statistics.

The sub-committee is now at work collecting information about prices before and after the enactment of the new tariff. This is useful, but it is the least important branch of the inquiry. When the committee has got through with this we hope it will ascertain the extent to which wages have been reduced since October 6 last, and will ascertain what, if any, is the relation between increased protection and reduced wages.

The committee certainly will not regard its work as done until it has inquired why the prices of domestic wool have not advanced to the extent they were expected to.

As we have been selling Canada a great deal more agricultural produce than we have been buying from Canada, and the McKinley bill was intended to obstruct trade between this country and Canada, we hope the committee will not fail to inquire whether we have bitten off our nose to spite our face.

The committee will fall short of its full duty if it does not investigate the influence of Mr. McKinley's tariff on the glass and other trusts, and on the importation of laborers in violation of law.

The most important line of inquiry for the committee to pursue will lead to the investigation of the decadence of the New England iron industry, and the present condition of the woolen goods industry, and the effect of the McKinley tariff on our smelting industry and the mining of low grade silver ores. There will be time before the committee reports to get some information about the effect of the new tariff on our canning industry, and a really accurate statement of the existing condition of the tin plate industry in this country would be valuable.

It is a good committee, and we believe the Republican as well as the Democratic members are in earnest in this investigation.

Everybody Knows

That at this season the blood is filled with impurities, the accumulation of months of close confinement in poorly ventilated stores, workshops and tenements. All these impurities and every trace of scrofula, salt rheum, or other disease may be expelled by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier ever produced. It is the only medicine of which "100 doses one dollar" is true.

Many years have gone by since a good family doctor originated Johnson's Anodyne Linctament.

GOOD EYES FOR THE DINNER.

INTERCLUB BOWLERS AT THEIR FIRST ANNUAL SPREAD.

Regulation pins, balls and alleys are three factors which, in a great measure, account for the increased interest in bowling as an indoor winter sport.

Members of the Amateur Interclub Bowling League are unanimous in giving expression to that opinion, and believe that the game has been established upon a permanent basis.

The members of the Interclub Bowling League for the season of 1890-'91 comprised six teams of five men each, representing the Boston Athletic Association, the Newton Club, the Arlington Boat Club, the Norfolk House Casino, the Woodland Park Hotel of Auburndale, and the Chelsea Review Club.

Each team played five games with the other teams—two on the home alleys, two on the opponent's alleys and one on neutral alleys. As a result of the season's work, the Boston Athletic Association team won first place, the Newton Club team second place, the Arlington Boat Club third place, and the Norfolk House Casino team, Woodland Park and Chelsea Review Club teams finished in the order named.

The details, showing the individual and team work and the number of games lost and won by each club have been published in the GRAPHIC.

A summary of the several teams may be briefly summarized as follows: Boston Athletic Association, won 17, lost 8; Newton Club, won 16, lost 9; Arlington Boat Club, won 15, lost 10; Woodland Park, won 8, lost 17; Chelsea Review Club, won 7, lost 18.

Each second and third prizes were offered for the clubs finishing in the order named, the members of the team winning first place to be also entitled to individual prizes and a special individual prize to be presented to the member of the league making the highest individual average.

Coming from the great interest taken in bowling since the organization of the Amateur Interclub League two years ago, it may be safely predicted that the sport has been firmly established as a pleasant form of winter amusement. The league will be enlarged next year by the addition of several clubs, and three applications for membership are now in the hands of the secretary, Mr. F. M. Wood. The applications are from the Kenwood Club of Malden, the Melrose Club and the Newton Boat Club; and the three organizations will undoubtedly be represented in the league next season.

Since the change which resulted in establishing what is termed a regulation alley, it has been urged by some experts in bowling that the pins are placed too far apart, resulting sometimes in leaving two families when the ball is apparently accurately delivered. This opinion is not generally shared, however, by members of the Amateur Interclub League.

It is not probable that any change will be made in the width of the alleys or the location of the pins next year. A beneficial result would be secured by decreasing the diameter of the pins at the base from 2 1/4 inches to 2 inches, and such a change is likely to be brought about next season. It is claimed that the change in the diameter of the base of the pins will secure a strike, provided the ball is accurately delivered, and bowling as a sport brought to a higher standard from a scientific standpoint.

Some changes may be also made in the bowling ball next season. They will probably be placed at least 10 inches away from the side of the alley, and constructed of leather or some material that will prevent the pins from rebounding across the alleys.

In looking over the work of the league during the past season, the factors which have led to a good showing on the part of the leading clubs are worthy of consideration.

The success of the Boston Athletic Association team is due to its systematic method of practice. To get in the best condition for league matches, the important part of individual and team practice was recognized. Matches with picked teams were arranged at least one evening every week, and each member of the B. A. A. team practiced daily, especially with a view to getting single pins and difficult shots. Every man on the team rolls a cross ball from the right side of the alley, and to that method of delivery, combined with accuracy, Capt. Wood attributes much of the success of his men. That there is some ground for his belief would appear in the records made by Hill, Lodge and Wood. The men roll practically the same style ball, and they scored the head of the league in individual averages. Hill's average is 163; Lodge, 161; Wood, 160. The closeness of these averages seems to further indicate that the right-hand cross ball is most effective in knocking down pins.

The efficacy of the cross ball as against the straight ball is still further demonstrated by the showing made by Boston and Follett of the Newton Club team. Both men roll the left-hand and cross ball, and stand next to Hill, Lodge and Wood in the individual class, each having an average of 157.

Mr. Warren M. Hill, who heads the league, and who won first prize in the individual average class, has been interested in bowling for the past two years. He was a member of the athletic team of the Interclub league last season, and made a fair showing. This season his work has proved himself to be the most accurate bowler in the league. His first ball is pretty sure to hit in the right place, and he is generally sure of single pins. His bowling has been of a very steady character, and he has been able to do equally good work on home and foreign alleys. If his work stands for anything, it would seem to clearly demonstrate the efficacy of the cross ball.

The greatest surprise has been occasioned by the work of the Norfolk House Casino team.

It has one of the best complements of players in the league. Its members roll an effective cross ball, and the team stood second last year, giving the B. A. A. team a hard tussle for first place. Although fourth this year in the league race, the Casino team really stands third in the total number of pins knocked down, leading the Arlington in that respect, although having won less games. The team has been crippled at several stages during the tournament by temporarily losing the services of some of its best players, which, perhaps, partly accounts for its present standing in the league.

The B. A. A. team fairly and honestly won the championship, being first, not only in games won, but in individual averages and in total number of pins knocked down.

The annual dinner of the Amateur Interclub Bowling League at the Woodland Park Hotel, Auburndale, last Saturday evening, was a brilliant affair. The material festivities of the bowlers commenced shortly after 8 o'clock, and at that hour around the tables in the spacious dining hall were seated a company of about 100 gentlemen, members of the several league teams and representatives of the various club organizations.

The dinner was one of Lee's best, and was thoroughly enjoyed. The menu was a work of art. It was designed by Mr. C. F. Shirley of the Forbes Lithograph Company, a member of the Newton Club, and a substitute player of the Newton bowling team.

The unique description of the various dishes provoked no small amount of amusement. There was consommé à la Chelsea, and a pictured tureen. Follett of beef, lamb from Warren Hill and other delectable viands that appealed personally to many of the gentlemen present. The table decorations were very simple, consisting of a tasteful arrangement of apple blossoms.

President William J. Follett occupied the place of honor at the head of the table, and upon his right and left were seated the presidents of the several clubs and the captains of the league bowling teams.

During the progress of the dinner there was an occasional cry of "good eye," and the sweet strains of orchestral music, with vocal numbers by Messrs. E. Haxell and R. W. Pattee of the Arlington Boat Club, lent its added charm to the occasion.

It was about 10 o'clock when President Follett rapped to order and made brief introductory remarks. He said:

I give you greeting, and in doing so I avail myself of my pleasant privilege in calling you to order tonight to congratulate you, not only upon this most auspicious closing of the winter's work.

To those of you who are familiar with our history these congratulations have a significance not embodied in the scientific and nifty courtesy of the league teams during the past winter; not shown by the phenomenal increase of interest in that greatest of all gentlemen's indoor sports—bowling—but reflected in the character and enthusiasm of this gathering.

We have here tonight the representatives of the pushing, driving, active, progressive clubs of Boston and its suburbs. Those organizations recognize that the highest social enjoyment goes hand in hand with the most perfect physical development, and know that that development must be of a kind that the busy man of the world can take up easily, and lay down as readily, without unnecessary preliminary preparations, clean and healthful, and one that, from professional and all its surroundings.

Such is bowling; and for the development of that princely game this league was formed, and to that end we are here tonight to congratulate and toast one another upon our mutual success.

Primarily for bowling; secondarily to further stimulate interest in club life, and develop close social relation between similar organizations. The enthusiasm of our constantly increasing support, and the ever lengthening waiting lists of the several clubs; the new social ties, and the reciprocal entertainments; and crowning all a chapter for the victor and a consolation for the vanquished, the fidelity, loyalty and devotedness of the ladies is alone sufficient cause for the league's existence.

And so, tonight, gentlemen, we look back upon a success limited only by the field of operations, and upon a past whose brilliant and shadowed only by the radiance of the future.

At the conclusion of his speech, Capt. Follett presented the toastmaster of the evening, Mr. Fred. H. Nazro of the Norfolk House Casino.

Mr. Nazro made a witty speech and then called upon Hon. Henry Parkman, who responded to the toast, "The Boston Athletic Club."

Ex-Alderman Samuel L. Powers of Newton responded for the Newton Club, Mr. W. S. Eaton, Jr., for the Newton Boat Club and Mr. O. L. Bailey for the Chelsea Review Club. At the conclusion of the speeches, the hearty cheers were given for the Boston Athletic Association team.

The prizes were not formally presented. The amount expended for them was $224, and $100 will be spent for the first prize, which goes to the Boston Athletic Association team, and which has not been fully decided upon. The second prize, a silver mantle clock, goes to the Newton Club team, and the third, a handsome bookcase, to the Arlington Boat Club team.

The individual prizes for the members of the Boston Athletic Association team have passed into the hands of the owners, also the prize for the highest individual average in the league, which was won by Mr. Warren M. Hill of the Boston Athletic Association team.

The team individual prize consists of solid silver cups of pretty design, appropriately engraved.

A feature of the festivities at the Woodland Park Hotel was a continuous one-string contest participated in by nearly all the bowlers present, for a valuable silk umbrella. It was won by Capt. William J. Follett of the Newton Club team who knocked down 195 pins.

The prize umbrella was presented to the winner by Mr. Frank Nazro, and an appropriate response was made by Capt. Follett.

The evening's exercises closed shortly before midnight, and the first annual dinner of the league was in all respects a success.

Among those present at the dinner were the following gentlemen:

A. A. Savage, Newton; W. M. Tapley, Newton; C. W. Hamilton, Newton; George W. Brown, Newton; W. F. Hawley, Newton; Ernest Hasseltine, Arlington; H. W. Pattee, Arlington; Charles F. Shirley, Newton; H. C. Fessenden, Arlington; W. F. Haven, Arlington; W. L. Hill, Arlington; W. F. Dearborn, Newton; R. C. Bridgman, Newton; R. H. Sawyer, Malden; W. F. Plummer, Auburndale; W. K. Corey, Boston; W. H. Gould, Auburndale; W. M. Lawrie, Auburndale; H. S. Pearson, Auburndale; C. W. Hall, Newton; L. E. Smith, Newton; J. B. Fuller, Newton; J. W. Winch, Newton; J. H. Wheelan, Jr., Newton; W. A. Hall, Auburndale; J. H. Learned, Chelsea; Frank Tent, Chelsea; L. H. Carruth, Chelsea; J. H. Field, Chelsea; O. L. Bailey, Chelsea; C. E. Stevens, Arlington; W. S. Eaton, Jr., Auburndale; F. H. Nazro, Boston; S. L. Powers, Newton; Hon. Henry Parkman, Boston; W. J. Follett, Newton; Fred M. Wood, Boston; Charles E. Dennison, Newton; A. W. Flanders, Arlington; C. H. Johnson, Arlington; G. A. Smith, Arlington; C. W. Loring, Auburndale; W. M. Hill, Boston; G. B. Billings, Boston; ex-Alderman Fred Johnson, Auburndale; S. P. Hinckley, Jr., Chelsea; H. C. Frost, Chelsea; R. W. Jackson, Chelsea; F. H. Curry, Chelsea; C. A. Bacon, Chelsea; F. S. Stevens, Chelsea; I. I. Davis, Chelsea; W. L. Slade, Chelsea; E. W. Roberts, Chelsea; Charles H. Sprague, Newton; W. E. Worcester, Allston; W. F. Kimball, Newtonville; J. L. Richards, Newtonville.

ESTABLISHED 1817.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO. CARPETINGS

Oriental Rugs and Carpets,
Curtains, Draperies, Wall Hangings,
Furniture Coverings, Shades, &c.
AT REASONABLE PRICES.

558, 560 WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON.

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE,
—SUCH AS—
Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, Scissors, Shears and Lawn Mowers,

Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House
We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.

HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?
And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?
If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves.
WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES,
OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.

A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

An Eight Per Cent. Investment. The Fully Paid Certificates Issued By The GRANITE STATE PROVIDENT ASSOCIATION

MANCHESTER, - - - N. H.,
Draw a Guaranteed Annual Dividend of EIGHT Per Cent Payable Semi-Annually.

The Association makes its Investments in the East on City Property only thereby obtaining Security that is Constantly Increasing in Value. When an Institution can show that it has a Dollar and Twenty-three Cents with which to pay each dollar it owes, no doubt is expressed as to its Financial Solidity. The recent examination of the Bank Commissioners show that

Granite State Provident Association's
Ratio of Assets to Liabilities is One Hundred and Twenty-three.

The Association has the name of over 7500 Investors on its Books to whom Certificates of a Par Value of $10,000.00 have been issued. If you wish a Safe and Profitable Investment you cannot do better then to write for particulars.

Hon. J. C. MOORE, President; Hon. H. D. UPTON, Treasurer;
G. PERCIVAL STEWART, Vice President;
E. E. BURLINGAME, Secretary;
PHILIP CARPENTER, General Counsel;
FRANK S. STREETER, Associate Counsel.

Great Reduction in Carpet Cleaning.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE
NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COMPANY.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters 8 cents per square yard for Turkey Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. Sole Manufacturer of the ROCHESTER BUG EXTERMINATOR. Price 35 cents a bottle; 3 bottles for One Dollar.

SIMON A. WHITE,
P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street.

P. A. MURRAY,
Carriage Builder.

ALL
Work Guaranteed.

Special attention given to REPAIRING AND PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGES
WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

SPECIAL BARGAINS
—IN—
Toilet - Articles.

No matter what you want from an apothecary store, you can save money by buying it at 40 Bromfield street. We sell all patent medicines, all perfumes, all toilet articles, all nose, barks and herbs, all oils, essences, tinctures, extracts and elixirs, absolutely pure wines and liquors, selected especially for medicinal use, and all other drug store goods, at

Lower Reduced Prices
Than They Can Be Bought for at Any Other Store on Earth.
PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS PUT UP FOR LESS THAN HALF OF OTHERS' PRICES.

WOODWARD'S
BLUE STORE WITH RAINBOW SIGNS,
40 Bromfield St., Boston.

M. C. HIGGINS
PRACTICAL PLUMBER
—AND—
Sanitary Engineer.
(Formerly with S. F. Carrier.)
Sumner's Block, Newton.

PLUMBING WORK IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.
Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city; perfect satisfaction guaranteed.
25-1v

CAMBRIDGE LAUNDRY.
NEWTON OFFICE:
Sumner's Block, opposite Newton National Bank
Work done well and promptly. Work taken Monday to 2 p. m., and returned, Thursday night. Received after Monday and up to Thursday, returned on Saturday. Holland and lace curtain a specialty.

HARRIS E. JOHONNOT,
ELECTRICIAN.
Annunciators, Gas Lighting Apparatus
Burglar Alarms, Electric Supplies
and Bells.
Incandescent Light Wiring.
All kinds of Electrical Apparatus Installed & Repaired
MACHINE SHED and LOCKSMITHS
379 Centre St. Howe's Block, Newton
LADIES AND GENTS' BOOTS
Made to fit any shaped foot, stylish if you wish, or neat, plain and comfortable if desired. If your feet trouble you try a pair of boots made on my new natural last, and don't suffer any longer. A full line of Ladies' Gents' and Children's Boots Shoes and Rubbers kept on hand at bottom prices
A. L. RHYND, 265 Washington St., Newton

J. HENRY BACON,
Successor to Francis Murdock & Co.
Dry Goods & Notions
Ladies' and Gents'
Furnishing Goods,
OIL and STRAW CARPETS,
Trunks, Bags, &c.
BACON'S BLOCK,
Nos. 279 to 281 Washington St.,
NEWTON.

LATEST
in BLACKS
and BROWNS.
FRANK CHAMBERLAIN'S
NOBBY SPRING HATS.
Wear Our $3 Non Breakable Hat.
Fine Furnishings, Gloves, Canes, and Umbrellas.
663 Washington St., Boston.
3 doors south of Boylston St.
OPEN - EVENINGS.

Moody Street Nursery
C. D. FISKE, Proprietor.
WALTHAM, - MASS.
All orders promptly attended to.

THEODORE L. MASON,
Agent for the celebrated
Rockford Watch
ELGIN, WALTHAM, and other American
Watches always in stock.
Repairing of Fine Watches, French, Grandfather
and American Clocks a specialty.
All work warranted to give satisfaction.
Elliot Block, Centre Street, Newton, Mass.

J. L. PHILLIPS,
PLUMBER, STEAM
—AND—
GAS FITTER.
Steam and Hot Water Heating a Specialty.
44 Spruce Street,
Waltham, - Mass.
23-1v.

Mrs. E. A. SMITH,
MILLINERY.
202 Moody Street,
Opposite Walnut Street,
WALTHAM.

PURE - MILK
supplied daily from
PROSPECT VALLEY FARM.
One Cow's Milk supplied when desired.

H. COLDWELL & SON,
WALTHAM, MASS.
P. O. Box, 992.

JOB F. BAILEY,
Dealer in
Doors, Windows and Blinds.
Glass, Balusters, Blind Trimmings, etc.
WINDOW WEIGHTS AND LINE.
24 Kneeland St., Boston.

C. A. HARRINGTON
LUMBER,
Lime, Cement, Plaster, &c.
Crafts St., Newtonville, Mass.
Telephone, 245-5 Newton.

ARTHUR HUDSON. Analytical and Pharmaceutical CHEMIST AND APOTHECARY.

(28 years experience in the business.)

WARNER'S BLOCK, NEWTON
Cor. Centre and Elmwood streets.

A full line of Chemicals of Standard Purity at ways in stock.
Physicians' prescriptions compounded with accuracy at all hours.

Proprietary Medicines and Druggists' Sundries
CHEMISTRY.

With a large and thoroughly appointed Laboratory, Mr. Hudson offers his services in the line of his profession. Investigation as to the composition of matter conducted by analyses of syntheses, according to most approved methods.
Analysis of potable waters, milk, etc., a specialty.

The Senior Druggist of Newton.
TELEPHONE 7979.

HAVING SOLD

In Newton, for the past 23 years is sufficient guarantee that they are the best.

Call and examine them before purchasing a refrigerator and avoid regret and Save Ice.

Old Refrigerators relined and repaired at short notice.

CELEBRATED MAGEE MYSTIC RANGES
and BOSTON HEATER FURNACES
always on hand.

Moves Ranges and Furnaces cleaned and repairs for all makes furnished to order.

Tin Roofing, Conducing or Work and General Jobbing promptly attended to and in a workman like manner.

JOHN S. SUMNER,
352 Centre Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

—GO TO—
G. A. BURLEIGH,
—FOR—

BOOTS, SHOES AND SLIPPERS.
38 Essex and 56 Beach Sts., Boston,
—AND—
427 BROADWAY, SOUTH BOSTON.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's Low Cut Shoes for Summer
Wear at Lowest Prices.

Gents' Goodyear Welt Shoes, easy as hand
sewed, $2.50 and $3.00.

Slate, Copper, Tin and Grave
ROOFING.

Special attention given to repairing.
John Farquhar's Sons,
Nos. 20 and 22 East St., Boston.
Established 1836. Telephone No. 162. 49

Daniels' Nonantum Stables

HENRY C. DANIELS, PROPRIETOR.

Livery and Hacking.

Patrons will find at these Stables the best of Horses and Carriages for hire.

Landaus and Hacks, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. Safe and reliable horses for ladies to drive.

BOARDING.

Superior accommodations for Boarding Houses, lean and comfortable stalls; careful and prompt attention.
Telephone 13-3. 50

YOU CAN SAVE

$2.00 to $5.00

—ON—
A BABY CARRIAGE

—OR—REFRIGERATOR

—AT—
F. L. CRAVES,

So. Side Furniture Rooms.
BABY CARRIAGES

FROM
$4.00 to $35.00.

194 Moody St., Waltham.

CHURCHILL & BEAN

Tailors.

IMPORTERS

—OF—
FINE CLOTHS

503 Washington St.

BOSTON.

G. F. CHURCHILL, Newtonville.

J. H. BEAN, Dorchester.

Railroad Crossing.

To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:—
The legislature it seems has dismissed the application of Newton for an alteration in grade crossing ordinance of 1880, and it seems to us that the subject ought now to be approached from a different point.

The conditions expressed in the charter of the road, were intended by the legislature to cover the whole ground and we think do so.

The legislature that granted this charter, aware that corporations and associations for making money, have no souls, to that end intended and tried to protect the people from extortion where power should accumulate in hands of the road, which was sure sooner or later to come to pass, and all the protection the charter gives, the people need. They gave the corporations power to march where they chose on condition they pay all damages, with full power to tax the people enough to pay it all, and earn ten per cent on the vested capital besides;
also reserving in hands of the state the privilege of taking the road any time during continuance of the charter by paying 10 per cent over the vested cost; also with the provision the road should not require of the people rates higher than to earn 10 per cent on capital invested; all these provisions and conditions exist to-day.

The state has the right to take the road on these terms now, abating the ten million bonus, and, in the interest of the people, we respectfully recommend the state to do so. The charter makes the road responsible for all damages to persons or property, occasioned by reason of their taking the land, etc., a condition which seems to be wholly forgotten, though one of no difficulty, only regaining the expenditure of a small part of the money collected for that purpose from fares without touching other millions. The commissioners referred to in the charter are not the railroad commissioners acting so largely in the interest and so much under the influence of the road, but the county commissioners, unbiased, acting more in sympathy with the people. As to the rates of passenger fares extorted from the people, we think it the duty of the legislature to look to the facts and find whether the road has been and is living up to the conditions of the charter or not.

T. H. C.

The Original Interviewer.

By the death of James Redpath modern journalism has lost one of its pioneers. Mr. Redpath used to claim that he was the first interviewer. "I started the practice of interviewing many years ago," he remarked to me a few weeks ago, "in the columns of The Boston Advertiser. My first interview was widely discussed, and my plan was immediately imitated by Editor Dana, of The Sun, who the day after my interview appeared sent out a corps of writers to interview the leading men of the day on various topics. In my career since that time I have written hundreds of interviews, and I have learned from them a few lessons which have been of use to me.

"In the first place, my experience has taught me that it is impossible for an interviewer to report the exact words of the person whom he is interviewing. He is obliged by the condition under which he works to misrepresent, or rather to fall into inaccuracies, verbal or otherwise, with regard to what has been said to him. Consequently, whenever a representative of the press comes to interview me, and I have been interviewed many times, I always insist upon writing out the interview in my own hand, and I am thus sure of being reported correctly."

Mr. Redpath's career is an illustration of the fine training which journalism gives to one who after practicing it enters upon purely literary work. Much of his success as a magazine editor was doubtless due to his experience as a newspaper writer. Mr. Redpath was Allen Thorndyke Rice's right hand man during the period when Rice was lifting up The North American Review from the comparative obscurity into which it had fallen to renewed success, and to his ability much of the present popularity of the review is due. It is known that Mr. Redpath wrote most, if not all, of the articles which appeared over Rice's name, for though he may have furnished the ideas he was not a literary man.—New York Telegram.

A Broken Bank's Rare Experience.

In 1877 the Third National bank of Chicago failed for nearly $1,000,000. It had a capital stock of $750,000, and all its cash on hand, amounting to $200,000, went to its creditors. J. Irving Pearce was president of the failed bank. Huntington W.
Jackson was the receiver of the closed institution, and has had the management of its assets since that time. The stockholders were informed that the stock was worthless. Some sold their holdings for a song and others kept what they had because nobody would buy it. A meeting of those holding stock was held recently, at which the receiver announced that he had been offered $1,000,000 for real estate near Jackson park, supposed to be comparatively worthless at the time of the wreck of the bank.

This sale will be made unless a higher price is bid, and the money distributed among the stockholders. The defunct bank was also the owner of considerable real estate in the town of Cicero, which could not have been sold then for more than $150 or $200 an acre, but is now worth $3,000 or $4,000 an acre, and which will swell the assets enormously. If any other town in the country has a bank which failed and went out of active existence fourteen years ago, but is worth more now than it was at the highest tide of its prosperity, let the facts be produced.—Chicago Journal.

Modern Heroes.

Those pessimistic folks who can see nothing heroic in the spirit or people of this age are respectfully requested to give a moment's attention to the case of Israel Joseph, a real estate broker, who was buried in Cypress Hills cemetery recently.
The other day, at the crowded corner of Broadway and Vesey streets, two little girls were about to be run down by a heavy team whose driver had lost control of them. Israel Joseph sprang from the sidewalk, seized the animals by the bits and held them back until the girls were out of the way.

The plunging horses so jerked and flung him about that a heart valve burst, and in a few days the man was dead. He had simply given his life for two children he had never seen before.
And in so doing he had proven himself
one of the heroes of which our old world still has plenty. Only they are garbed in workmen's blouses or business men's entwined coats, and we don't recognize them as they go about their business in the humdrum ways of daily life.—New York Press.

Mr. Gould's Sentimental Quest.

Your correspondent saw Mr. Gould and Mr. Wrenn walking after dark, and being near overheard their conversation. Mr. Gould had heard of Brunswick's famous tree, "Lovers' oak" which casts shade over an acre of ground.
Turning to Mr. Wrenn he asked about the tree and expressed a desire to see it.
Both hunted it and walked eight blocks by actual count, but it was too dark to find it despite the electric lights. They returned to the car disappointed, as no one near could point out the way to the tree.—Brunswick (Ga.) Cor. Augusta Chronicle.

A Hundred Dollars Stolen by a Mouse.

Fifteen years ago a $100 bill disappeared from the cash drawer of the Second National bank of Monmouth, Ill., and a customer, now deceased, was suspected of having been overpaid. Recently a workman, in dissecting an old counter, found the lost bank note in a mouse nest, and the cloud on the dead man's name is lifted. The bill, which was issued by the Pittsburg National bank, is not badly mutilated, and will be readily redeemed.
—Cor. St. Louis Republic.

The Sailor's Wood Pile.

A Washington county sea captain aspired to fit a handsome pile of firewood this winter, and worked lustily with saw and axe. Proud of his exertions, he called on his wife to gaze and admire.
"Phoebe," he bawled, "how does the pile look from there?" Back was wafted the answer, "Quite a pile, William!
I think if you were to move the well curb it could be seen from the street."— Lewiston Journal.

A Live Chess Tournament.

The living chess tournament which was held at St. Leonard's in aid of the funds of the Men's Help society was a curious sight, the floor of Royal Concert hall being for the time converted into a huge chess board, while the gallery was reserved for spectators. The Hon. Reginald Capell and Mr. Shadforth Boger were the players and were well matched, each side scoring a win. As you watched the figures moving over the board you felt as if you were realizing the dream of Alice in her travels on the other side of the looking glass, though the Tudor dresses were certainly more graceful than those worn by Alice's dream friends, and the White Queen did not seem to have lost a single pin, while her Red Majesty moved with a charming smile on her face.

The pawns were played by children,
and admirably they acted their parts, though it must have been dull for those who were never moved during the game.
Two ushers in court suits fetched the "pieces" that were taken, and when the White Queen was taken prisoner several other white captives came to escort Her Majesty off the board. Among the "pieces" were Lord and Lady Brassey as the Red King and Queen, the Hon.
Muriel and the Hon. Marie Brassey as the Red King and Queen's Rooks, the Lady Beatrice Capell as the Red Queen's Bishop, and the Hon. T. Brassey as the Red King's Knight, while on the white side Miss Forbes and Capt. Gaskell were the King and Queen, and Baron von Roemer the Queen's Knight.—London
Cor. Philadelphia Telegraph.

Mr. Kanzler's Strange Affliction.

Mr. Jacob Kanzler, a well known business man of Sandusky, is the victim of a most peculiar affliction which baffles medical skill. Saturday night he retired at the usual hour in full possession of all his faculties. When he awoke he found he could not speak, his vocal organs refusing absolutely to perform their usual functions. Finding that he could not utter a word, he attempted to write what he could not speak, but his hand refused to trace the words upon the paper.

He moves about as usual, having perfect control over his lower limbs and likewise over his hands until he attempts to use the latter to give expression on paper to his thoughts, and then they fail him completely. His mind is as bright and clear apparently as ever. He understands all that is going on about his home and place of business, but lacks the power to express himself in any manner. Mr. Kanzler is about 55 years of age and hale and hearty. His afflic-tion is not paralysis or any kindred ailment. Just what it is, however, is a puzzle to the medical men who have seen him. It is believed to be the only case ever known.—Cleveland Leader.

Unwilling to Eat with the Jurors.

A good story is told on Deputy Marshal Conway, who is said to be proof against the fears of superstition. He was ordered to take a federal jury to the Denison for tea Friday night, and as he went into the dining room with the twelve men he was conducted to a table that had been specially prepared for the party.
The jurors were all seated, but Mr. Conway remained standing. "Sit down, boss," said the head waiter, as he drew out the last chair.

"I think I'll take another table," said
the deputy.

"Sit right down, sah; sit right down," insisted the negro; "there's plenty of room."

"Yes, but I can't be the thirteenth man at any meal," and Conway took another seat.

"Does you know, sah, I never thought of that?" asked the head waiter in a whisper; "I'd done exactly the same as you'd did."—Indianapolis Journal.

A Typical Case.

A sad story has just come in by canal boat from Cumminsville. A patrolman on one of the outside beats was informed by the passengers on a railroad train that a fight was in progress on the opposite end of his beat. He made a hurried trip to the point indicated, and as soon as he arrived there he asked if any one had heard of a fight. The inhabitants informed him that there had been a murder there some time before, but that the victim had been dead and buried several weeks. The officer then returned with all speed to the point from which he started. Terrible news awaited him.
During his absence he had been dismissed from the force for failing to answer calls, and his wife had married again.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Something Pretty.

A sea captain who is exercising his land legs here brings a curio from Punta Arena, Straits of Magellan. It is a fur rug or spread made of guan-aco skins, a llama like animal that bears domestication. Ten of the light tan pelts, with their white under fur making the outline, have been skillfully stitched together to resemble a pattern in fur.—
San Diego Union.

Thomas W. Phillips, of New Castle, Pa., who has been elected to congress, once lost a fortune of nearly $1,000,000 that he had made in the oil fields of the Keystone State. He has since retrieved this lost fortune, and is again one of the richest of oil producers.

The sale by Mrs. King, of Corpus Christi, the "cattle queen" of Texas, of 15,000 2-year-old steers, is probably the largest single order for cattle ever filled in Texas. The consideration was $82,000.
Mrs. King's ranch is worth $900,000.

Edward Lennon, the Irishman who has just died in New York at the age of 103 years, carried a pike in the great Irish rebellion of 1798. He had papers in his possession proving his birth in County Derry, Ireland, in 1785.

The "manna" which fell from the sky in Asia Minor last August and was baked into bread has recently been examined by men of science, and is identified as a lichen, belonging to the family Lecanora esculenta.

NEWTONVILLE WOMAN'S GUILD.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT READ AT THE ANNUAL MEETING, MAY 19, '91.

Today brings us to the close of the seventh year in the life of the Guild, and we meet to hear the yearly reports of the committees, elect officers for the coming year, note our growth and success and plan for the work to be done along the varied lines of the social, charitable, industrial and educational.

Our list of membership has this year reached that magic number which when it is passed, assures us the right of other successful clubs to have from that point a waiting list, so that it shall not assume unwieldy proportions and as far as possible its members may all take active part in some work of the Guild, and so an undivided interest be maintained. In regard to our president we have to repeat the record of the past two years.

She has given devoted, untiring, efficient work and been the presiding genius whose gentle dignity and grace has impressed itself at all times; in the executive meetings as well as in the public assemblies, and whenever tact and skill were needed, and the Guild is to be especially congratulated that she has been prevailed upon to still serve as their leader.

The work of the executive board has been excellent and much has been accomplished. The social and industrial committees have conducted a fair, which proved a gratifying success; a Mother Goose party for the children, three recitations; paid $300 for the support of the free bed at the Cottage Hospital, made up a quantity of sheets, furnished cable linen, and made some necessary and pleasing improvements in the dining room, and contributed jellies and delicacies for the convalescent as well as books and pictures for their entertainment.

The work of the charitable committee is so quietly done and in such spirit of consideration for the unfortunate that its ministrations are made with a delicacy that forbids publicity, but is none the less effective. The long and serious illness of its chairman has been a matter of deep regret and we feel glad to report improvement after weary months.

The educational committee have furnished for our delectation speakers who have entertained and instructed us along many lines, all of them interesting, many of them delightful, and there has been such a varied program that all tastes must have been appealed to since time has been given to biography, history, science, travel, music, elocution, philanthropy, literature and ethics, and we are cordially grateful for the pleasures afforded.

A course of lectures was generously given in February and March by Dr. A.
M. Beecher for the Guild Hospital fund, and under the auspices of the Madam Plogonon lectured upon Yucatan and the explorations made by herself and her famous husband.

Rev. Dr. Shinn prefaced his paper before the Guild with a charming tribute to the good work done for the hospital, and in other ways which he hoped would be regarded simply as pleasant words, but as appreciative of the real worth of its work and bade the members God speed since he felt with many that the society was helping to make the city of Newton nobler and better.

Cordial greetings have been received from the Woman's Club, Worcester; the Wimodaghis of Washington, D. C.; the Woman's Press Association, San Francisco; and invitations extended from the C. L. S. C. of Newton Highlands; the Social Science Club, Newton; the Educational Club, West Newton; and the Federation of Clubs Convention at Orange, N. J., followed by a reception at the residence of Mrs. Thomas Edison, Llewellyn Park.

This morning the work of the Flower Mission was resumed with Mrs. Brewer as leader, and an able and willing corp of ladies and children as earnest helpers in their charitable work.

We are grateful that no losses by death sadden our record, so that our ranks are full, and to allude to a more solid subject our treasury has a sense of repletion greater than it has hitherto known, and though we hope not to be too inflated with success, we feel there is cause for sincere congratulation.

The Guild season was opened by a charming reception at the club house, Oct. 3, given by our president, who was assisted in receiving the throng of guests
by Mrs. Chas. West, Mrs. Geo. Morse, Mrs. Hackley, and Mrs. Northern. The dinner was served in the dining room, and Miss Margaret Worcester, Mrs. Gilman and Mrs.
Cook assisted socially.

The parlors were exquisitely decorated, flowers greeting one everywhere and the genial welcome and the social spirit pervading all the place, made it a memorable hour, and a happy starting point for the winter. There were many distinguished guests from other clubs present. On Oct. 7th came a contrast of scenes, when a memorial meeting was held in the Methodist vestry and papers were read and resolutions passed on the death of Miss Palmer, the devoted matron of the Hospital, who gave her life in its service, and of Mrs. Edith Carter, who was called to that city just out of sight from an earthly home, where her youth and beauty and sunny temper made all about her happy. Appropriate music was rendered by Mrs. Chas. Cunningham, Mrs. Henry Soule, Mrs. E. N. Boyden and Mrs. R. A. White.

On Oct. 11, Rev. Dr. Shinn gave an interesting paper on "A Visit to the Passion Play." His description of that unique representation by the Bavarian peasants of scenes in the life of our Saviour utterly absorbed the attention of the entire audience to the end.

On Nov. 4th Miss Elizabeth Porter Gould read her biographical sketch of the life and work of Hannah Adams, the pioneer literary woman of the colonies, and indeed of America. The next speaker was Mrs. Kate Gannett Wells, who gave a most interesting and helpful paper on Clara Barton and the "Red Cross Work."

Dec. 2, found the Guild at the house of Mrs. Chandler Holmes, when Mrs.
Thorpe of Newton Centre gave some fine recitations and a talk upon "Vocal Culture." Just before Christmas at Mrs.
J. W. Dickinson's, Miss Gertrude Thompson and Miss Nellie Sherman gave some sketches of travel. Miss Thompson's very pleasant account of her trip abroad last summer was followed by Miss Nellie Sherman's paper on "Fayal and Southern Spain." Her graphic description, concise yet delicate treatment of her subject, was followed by a series of beautiful word-pictures in a poem entitled "My Sketch Book."

Dec. 30th, the annual reception was held by courtesy of Mrs. Geo. Morse at her home on Court street. Mrs. Morse,

Mrs. Chas. West and our president received. In spite of the storm it proved a very pleasant occasion and brought together many of the new members in a social way much desired.

The first talk of the new year came from Miss Beecher on "Woman's Work," masterly, practical, full of hope, stimulating to higher things, and on the 27th we wandered amid scenes of a far past as we heard Mrs. Martin's paper on Columbus, and contemplated an old picture in such a charming way that nothing that thrilled us all anew with its beauty. Then one sunny afternoon in mid-February Mrs. J. B. Cornish gave an hour to recitation, assisted by the Misses Cobb, Davis and Bigelow, who added some very pleasing musical selections.
Mrs. Cornish's versatility and appreciation of sentiment afforded her audience rare pleasure. On St. Valentine's Day the Guild, children, and Mother Goose held high carnival, and Miss Macomber was the dame honored and dearly beloved.

On Feb. 24 came a charming musicale.
A fine program was presented by members of the Guild, assisted by Mrs. S. W.
French and the Californian quartet and Master Harry Wiggins.

On March 10, Miss M. H. Carter presented "New Methods of Teaching Physical Geography," connected with the Berkeley School, with which Prof. Carter is associated. Miss Carter brought with her children from two grades, who illustrated the plan. Drawings and model-ings were shown and the exercises proved novel and fascinating.

On the 23rd, Mrs. Abby Morton Diaz, the president of the Woman's Industrial and Educational Union, spoke on "True Social Science." Mrs. Diaz is a talented yet practical woman, and her plea for a higher, more unselfish national life was forceful and full of common sense.

On Easter week the fair in the Methodist vestry netted over $250, and the hard workers on that occasion felt repaid for their labor.

In April Rev. Francis Hornbrooke read his essay upon Browning's "Ring and the Book," holding the interest of his large audience closely, to the end of his clear and masterly synopsis of the poem, and his scholarly criticism of the principles and their motives.

Later in the month Miss Kate L. Brown came with "Songs and Stories of Children," and her enthusiasm and happy manner of expression made one kind of this successful teacher of the kindergarten.

The last paper of the season was by a member and worker in our Guild, Mrs.
Andrew Wellington, whose fine essay on "Our Three Poets" made us proud of her literary skill and wonderful memory.

Thanks for the hospitality of their homes are due to Mrs. Chandler Homes,
Mrs. J. W. Dickinson, Mrs. George Morse and Mrs. C. F. West, the latter having cordially tendered her house on the occasion of the farewell reception to Rev. and Mrs. Geo. Butters.

JENNIE CHALONER,

Rec. Secretary.

DR. ALFRED HOSMER.

FUNERAL OF THE EMINENT PHYSICIAN IN WATERTOWN.

The funeral of the late Dr. Alfred Hosmer took place from the First Parish (Unitarian) church at Watertown, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The deceased was one of the most prominent residents of the town, was widely known in Boston and the cities and towns of its western suburbs, and the attendance was so great that all could not be provided with seats. Among those present from out-of town were President Eliot of Harvard,
Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson,
Prof. Francis of Newton Centre, Rev. F.
B. Hornbrooke, I. T. Burr, N. T. Allen,
Judge Baldwin, Col. I. F. Kingsbury,
Judge R. R. Bishop and D. R. Emerson.

The floral tributes were elaborate and beautiful. The family pew was draped in mourning and decorated with white flowers. The services consisted of singing "Heaven is My Home" and "Thy will be done" by the church quartet, Miss Daisy Batchelder, Miss Alice Gardner,
J. M. Frizer and J. F. Green; reading of Scripture by Rev. Arthur May Knapp, a former pastor, and address was given by Rev. W. H. Savage, the pastor of the church.

The speaker referred to the good and useful life of the deceased; declared that in his death Watertown had sustained a great and irreparable loss, and remarked that no largely endowed, cultivated and earnest soul could be withdrawn from a community without leaving it poorer than it was before. Such souls, he said, constitute the true worth of a town or of a nation. He loved the old town, and her history and traditions were subjects to him of never failing interest. He was always loyal to the public schools, and the boys have lost a true friend. He was a man who tried to do right and not simply to please. To

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

85 WASHINGTON STREET, NEWTON, MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.

All money sent at the sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable to

EDWARD D. BALDWIN, Editor and Publisher

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

The GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston & Albany News Room, Boston Depot.

ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

NEWTON TRANSCRIPT HAS BEEN CONSOLIDATED WITH THE GRAPHIC

BRIGHTER PROSPECTS.

The unfortunate controversy over the Cottage Hospital appears to have been amicably settled, which will be good news to every resident in Newton. The charity has been such a noble one, so much suffering has been relieved there, and the people of the city have contributed so generously to its support, that the trouble caused much sorrow among all the friends of the hospital. Now that it appears to be happily over, this great Newton charity will probably be more flourishing than ever, and its needs will receive the generous help of the people.

One remarkable fact about the meeting on Monday was that all the recommendations of the committee appointed to prepare a mode of settlement were unanimously adopted. This is the best thing about the whole affair as it shows that the outcome is accepted by all parties, physicians as well as laymen, and the people will feel that they owe a debt of gratitude to all who have aided to bring about the settlement.

As far as can be judged by an outsider, both parties have shown a conciliatory spirit, and were willing to make compromises. The physicians can congratulate themselves that their original position was endorsed by the committee, and adopted as one of their recommendations, which shows that they have not been without justice in their demands.

The management of the hospital is also vindicated, and hereafter the rules will have to be carefully observed, as they should be.

It is certainly to be hoped that the officers who resigned will now reconsider the matter, and that all will join as heartily in work for the hospital as before, and all the trouble will be forgotten. It is not a pleasant matter to dwell upon and all should hasten to forget it as soon and as completely as possible.

It is gratifying to see that the disinterested labors of the President of the board, his generous aid, and his manifest purpose to remain at the post of duty, no matter what trouble came, were appreciated by the meeting, and recognized in an official manner. No citizen of Newton has done more for the hospital, or labored more zealously for its best interests than Mr. Leeson, and the trouble, for many reasons, has been a great grief to him. Although one of the men whose time is more valuable than money, he has never hesitated at any sacrifice for the hospital.

STREET RAILWAY BOODLE.

There was some very amusing talk about Jake Sharp practices, boddle and bribery at the street railway hearing Monday evening, and it was naturally expected that something sensational was coming. But it all turned out to be merely a question of damages. The street railway company did not wish to move their tracks on River street, naturally enough, as it would cost some seven or eight thousand dollars, and they had offered moderate sums to some of the abutters who objected, to withdraw their objections. One man testified he had been offered $25, but he thought his damages were worth $500, and he refused to take any less sum. The street railway company did not offer so much and he remains an objector. Another man was proved to have received several loads of gravel.

Those who expected to hear that an alderman, or at the least a common councilman had been bought up, were very much disappointed at such a tame and prosaic ending of the sensation, and it would take a very sensitive conscience to discover any corruption in these proceedings. Most people would think the street railway people have a perfect right to make the best terms they can with any one who complains at the location of their tracks.

Whether the tracks should be moved is another matter. The street, like many of the Newton thoroughfares, is a very narrow one, and even with the tracks on the side, there is none too much room for teams, although it is better for teams than it would be to have the tracks in the centre.

The real point at issue is whether the tracks are dangerous as they are, and a nuisance. The blocking of the sidewalks with snow could easily have been remedied by the abutters last winter if they had complained, and will probably not be allowed again.

The company has so far had a hard time of it, and naturally they want a chance to earn some return on the great amount of money invested, before adding another great sum to their construction account. The motor men are certainly careful and watchful, and reduce the danger of accidents to a minimum, and they would lose their places if they were not. As Mr. Goodrich said, the tracks can be ordered moved at any time, if the aldermen are convinced of its necessity.

tion account. The motor men are certainly careful and watchful, and reduce the danger of accidents to a minimum, and they would lose their places if they were not. As Mr. Goodrich said, the tracks can be ordered moved at any time, if the aldermen are convinced of its necessity.

ROOSEVELT AND CLARKSON.

MR. ROOSEVELT is thoroughly in earnest in his devotion to civil service reform, and he is also outspoken in his criticism of ex-Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson, the new president of the Republican League. In a speech at St. Louis Tuesday night, Mr. Roosevelt said "the civil service commission was not hostile to the Republican party. On the contrary, the commission is striving to carry out the pledge made by the Republican party at the last convention, which Mr. Clarkson and his friends are striving to have us break." Mr. Roosevelt like Mr. Wolcott, is a Republican, and he has no patience with the men who are such a serious burden for the party to carry. Of Mr. Clarkson he says further:

Mr. Clarkson knows perfectly well, and he cannot keep a straight face and deny it, that during his term of service as First Assistant Postmaster-General he administered that office and had it administered as it must be under the spoils system by turning out all the fourth-class postmasters, competent and incompetent alike, if the people who sought their places had sufficient political backing. He knows, also, that the fourth-class postmasters are appointed upon the recommendations of the Congressmen from their districts. Everyone knows that. He says that he and his friends believe in Republican officers under Republican administrations. If this is not true, he says, then all political parties in America ought to disband. In other words, he and his friends believe that, if they cannot get the offices, the party ought to disband. That is to say, he and his friends believe that they ought to be paid for supporting the party. That sounds like a harsh way of putting it, but it is a perfectly just way. There is a certain difference between being paid with an office and being paid with money, exactly as there is a certain difference between the savagery of an Ashtute and that of a Hotentot, but it is small in amount.

These are strong words, but Mr. Roosevelt has a strong following in his own party and his labors in behalf of reform give him the right to demand that his views shall have a careful hearing.

THE redistricting plan appears to be about as fair as could be made, if the committee had set out with the purpose of making a non-partisan division of the state, and it is also about the only one that could be adopted this year. In these days of gerrymanders by both parties it is quite an honorable distinction for Massachusetts to act on the principle of doing equal justice to both parties. The new districts look well upon the maps of the state, and although bitter criticisms have been directed at the proposed division, the committee probably realize that it would be impossible to suit every one.

THE assertion made in the common council that the usual rate of wages in cities and towns was two dollars per day, was taken up by Alderman Fenno, and discussed in the light of figures he had obtained from the superintendents of streets in 24 of the 27 cities of Massachusetts. It appears that only five of the cities pay two dollars, while the rest pay from $1.75 down to $1.35. It is dangerous to make a general statement unless one has the facts to back it up, because there is generally some listener with a fondness for statistics, who disproves it easily by citing facts.

WITH street cars running every fifteen minutes, Newton is entitled to feel itself considerable of a city. The frequent cars seem to be well patronized also. Now if that line to Newton Centre was only started, people on both sides of the city would have a chance to get acquainted. The Newton Centre line has not been heard from for a long time and the people on the South side of the city are getting impatient at the delay. It is probable that now there would be no opposition to the project from any large number of abutters.

Sensational Head Lines.

Newtonville, May 21, 1891.
To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:

The highly sensational article which appeared in the Boston Record in regard to the hearing before the board of aldermen of Newton, Monday evening, May 18, was so far from the truth and the testimony taken at the meeting, that it should be corrected. Mr. McGlinchey testified under cross examination, that it was only reason he did not accept the money offered him by the Newton Street Railway Company was, that he considered his property damaged much more than the amount named, and thought he ought to have at least five hundred dollars for damages. This shows that as far as Mr. McGlinchey is concerned it is a simple matter of dollars and cents between him and the Street Railway Co., as to what amount the tracks in their present position damage his property. The Street Railway Co. are ready to settle with any abutter at a reasonable basis for whatever damage they think they have sustained, and take a release of all claims. Mr. Cox admitted that personally he did not care a penny whether the track was on River street or not, but thought the street needed repairing and regrading. He thought the quickest way to get this done was to have the tracks moved into the centre of the street, which would compel the city authorities to regrade and fix up the street.

Mr. Mague complained that the water of the street drained into his land, and by obliging the railway company to relocate its tracks, the city would have to fix the street, and in the interest of his estate and the dear public this should be done.

The hearing showed very clearly that at the bottom of the petition to have the tracks moved, was the plan to get River street regraded and repaired. And the speakers thought by getting the location changed from the position it has occupied for twenty-three years, would be the only way the street could be improved.

We trust the citizens of Newton will judge the matter on its merits and not any sensational head lines of the Boston Record.
HORACE B. PARKER.

NEWTON CLUB BOWLING.

TEAM TWO WINS THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

A game in the finals in the Newton Club bowling tournament was played at Newtonville Wednesday evening between teams 2 and 7, the former winning the match by 13 pins after a hard struggle.

Richards was high roller, with a total of 492. He also made the best 10-frame score. The victory gives team 2 the championship, although it has one more game to play, which will not affect the result, so far as first place is concerned.

Teams 7 and 8 are now tied for second place. The summary of Wednesday night's rolling is appended:

TEAM TWO.
Bowler.	First String.	Second String.	Totals.
Richards.....	172	170	342
French.....	111	126	237
Morse.....	130	130	260
Grigg.....	120	113	233
Buswell.....	122	149	271
Totals.....	661	780	2046

TEAM SEVEN.

Bowler.	First String.	Second String.	Totals.
Hamilton.....	151	156	307
Fuller.....	146	123	269
Morse.....	146	160	306
Tracy.....	128	113	241
Collins.....	100	100	200
Totals.....	671	653	2033

BASE BALL.

ALLENS VS. BROWN AND NICHOLS.

Alleys school nine and Brown and Nichols played a three inning game Monday afternoon in West Newton. At the end of the third inning the score was 12-0 in Brown and Nichols favor, so Alleys nine substituted Stacy, a special student at the school, back of the bat. Brown and Nichols' nine protested as he was not a regular student at the school and asked for his removal. The Alleys would not remove him on the ground that as there were no stipulations as to who should play on the nine excepting members of the school, they had the right to keep him. Thereupon Brown and Nichols' fellows left the field with the score 9-0, Alleys' favor. The batteries were Russell and Fuller, Smith and Benson.

The Watertown High school visited the Newton High school at Watworth's field, Wednesday afternoon. The visiting team left the field with a record of 9-0 in their favor. The N. H. S. put up a very steady game, but was crippled by the loss of three of their best men. The nine from the Watertown school was not composed wholly of school men, and the team had heavier and larger men.

The Purity of Howard Ice Co. Ice. Office of S. P. Sharples, State Assayer, Boston, Mass. Howard Ice Co. Gentlemen:—I have examined the water obtained from melting a portion of the ice submitted by you for analysis, and marked "Ice cut from Bullough's Pond," otherwise named Pearl Lake, dated Feb. 13, 1891, and I find the water thus produced clear, and absolutely free from impurities, and a suitable ice for domestic use. Yours respectfully,
S. P. SHARPLES.

Cory on an Ice Cake.

After a tough three hours' struggle with death John Opfer came out ahead, and he was full of joy. Opfer is an employee of the West Jersey Ferry company, and is fond of skating. He was enjoying this exhilarating sport on the Delaware at the head of Third street, between the Camden shore and Petty's island, Saturday, when he struck a weak spot in the ice and broke through. The current dragged him down and he became unbenumbed.

When he arose to the surface Opfer was in the midst of the broken ice floating rapidly up stream, and he made a frantic effort to save himself. He seized several cakes of ice, but they sank under his weight and sent him again and again beneath the surface. He cried loudly for help, but he was so far from either shore and the floating ice was so heavy that no one dared to attempt his rescue.

At last Opfer, his strength almost gone, managed to climb upon an ice floe, where he fell exhausted. His struggles had been witnessed by two men on Petty's island, and as the floe drifted up toward the point they pushed off in their boat at the risk of their own lives, and pulled the unconscious Opfer off the ice.

After a hard fight the boatmen managed to make the island again, and they carried Opfer into the little dwelling house that stands there. He had been struggling with ice for an hour, and gave no sign of life when efforts to resuscitate him began. After two hours' hard work, however, Opfer opened his eyes, and at last was brought out of death's grasp entirely.

"I thought I was a goner, sure enough," said Opfer yesterday, "when I found myself banging away at those cakes of ice. Geozolium, but I was cold! Then all of a sudden I got warm and cozy and settled down for a nap. My! but it was nice till those men on the island woke me up."—Philadelphia Record.

Was with Napoleon.

One of the last of Napoleon's veterans, and naturally one of the very few survivors among the officers of the Grand Armee, has celebrated his ninety-seventh birthday in his retreat at Herblay, on the banks of the Seine. M. Soufflot, who is extremely popular in that part of the country, loves to fight his battles over again. He took part in the campaigns of 1812 and the three following years, and before Napoleon went to Elba he was promoted to the rank of captain.

He was a staunch imperialist, and after the downfall of his hero he refused to serve under any other regime, and was put upon half pay, but he emerged for a short time from his retirement to command a squadron of lancers of the Old Guard at Waterloo. After the final collapse of the emperor he left the army for good, at the age of 22, and spent the following half century of his life in civil employment. He then "pitched his tent," to use his own expression, at Herblay, where he is held in high esteem for his many acts of kindness. M. Soufflot is said to be the doyen of the members of the Legion of Honor.—London Telegraph.

The Hospital Corporation.

At a meeting of the Newton Cottage Hospital Corporation held on the 18th inst, the following business was transacted by unanimous votes viz., Art. 13 of the By-laws was amended in accordance with the recommendation of the special committee, so that graduates of the Medical schools recognized by either the Mass. Medical Society or the Mass. Homoeopathic Medical Society are eligible for appointment on the Hospital Staff.

All the other recommendations of the committee were adopted.

The thanks of the corporation were extended to those members who had tendered their resignation, for their past services, and they were requested to withdraw their resignations and continue their service.

The thanks of the corporation were extended to the President in recognition of the arduous services and pecuniary aid rendered during the past four weeks. President Leeson responded by saying that whatever slight services he may have been able to render were small in comparison with the long continued devotion of members of the Board who have served from the foundation of the Corporation, and for himself he should be more than compensated if, as the result of the admirable report of the special committee, its wise recommendations looking to a complete and permanent settlement of all matters in dispute be accepted by all parties.

The thanks of the corporation were also extended to the special committee, consisting of Hon. Wm. Claflin, E. B. Haskell, Esq. and E. L. Pickard, Esq. for the wise report which has resulted in the amicable settlement of the controversy. Subsequently, Messrs. Bullens, Converse, Pettie, Potter and Ellison withdrew their resignations.

W. P. Ellison, Clerk.

SISSON & HENDERSON, TAILORS.

Spring and Summer, '91.

The Correct Styles.

FULL DRESS, SEMI-DRESS and BUSINESS SUITS.

Novelties Always on Hand. IMPORTERS OF FINE CLOTHS.

Sartorial Parlors,

37 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON.

Over Savage, King & Co.

Dress Suits to Let.

24-2m

ALIVE

To Your Wants For SPRING, We have Out-done All Other SEASONS by Carrying the Largest Stock of

Artistic Millinery,

EVER SHOWN IN

WALTHAM.

Come and See Our Assortment. It will prepare your ideas so you can leave your Orders with us.

Please remember we have removed to
LINCOLN'S NEW BLOCK.

J. W. MACURDY,

133 Moody Street, SOUTH SIDE, WALTHAM.

26-2m

EUROPE. H. GAZE & SON'S

Select tours under personal escort (each party limited to twenty-five). Leaves New York, April 22, May 2, 6, 13, 27, June 3, 17, 24, 27, July 1, 4, 8, 22, 23, etc. North Cape and Russia, June 27; Fall Tour, Holy Land and Egypt, Sept. 16; Round the World (westward) Oct. 3. Send 6c postage for Gazette containing full particulars. W. H. EAVES, New England Agent, Parker House, Boston. Ladies received in Reception Room. Estimates furnished for independent travel covering any desired route throughout Europe. Agents for all lines ocean steamers, and choice rooms secured. Plans of steamers, sailings, etc., on application. Correspondence solicited.
24-3m

NOW THE PARTY - SEASON

Has returned, We are prepared to receive Orders for Parties, Receptions, Weddings, Lunches, Etc.

We have just received from New York, a

FANCY MOULDS OF FANCY ICES. ALL KINDS OF ICE CREAMS AND SHERBET. CAKE in Variety. WEDDING CAKE a Specialty. SALTED ALMONDS, CANDIES and BON BONS of all kinds may be found at PAXTON'S, Eliot Block, - Newton.

Real Estate.

Mortgages.

Insurance.

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale.

SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATES in the above villages.

Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES

OFFICES

J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

SAUL BROTHERS, Watch Makers, Jewelers

—AND—

OPTICIANS,

135 MOODY ST., LINCOLN LOCK, WALTHAM.

Make a specialty of repairing Fine Watches and French Clocks. We wish to call the attention of the people of Newton in regard to this branch of our business. We will call for and repair your French Clock and warrant it to give satisfaction or no charge.

References: C. F. EDDY, S. F. CATE, NEWTON GRAPHIC, ETC.

Drop us a Postal.

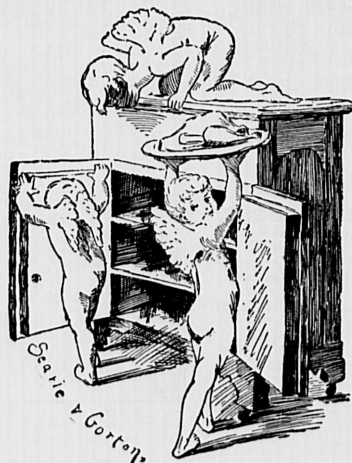

SAUL BROTHERS, 135 MOODY STREET, - WALTHAM.

E. U. SAUL.

C. T. SAUL.

NEW HORSESHOEING SHOP. PATRICK B. FARREL & CO., (Formerly of Murray & Farrell.) BROOK STREET, NEWTON.

With an experience of 21 years in Newton, much of the time with the great horseshoer of this vicinity, the late Mr. Nugent, and for the past 8 years a partner of the firm of Murray & Farrell, is feeling properly ask for a share of the public patronage. Special care taken with shoeing over-reaching, interfering and tender-footed horses.

Alaska Refrigerator,

Best in the World. $3.50 to $60.

Baby Carriages,

Also an extensive line of medium and fine

FURNITURE, CARPETS AND RANGES.

Standard Furniture Co.,

23 WASHINGTON AND 87 FRIEND STREETS, BOSTON.

Reasonable Credit to Trustworthy Persons.

THOMAS O'CALLAGHAN & CO., CARPETS.

ROXBURY TAPESTRY.

We are the largest retailers of this carpet in New England. The reputation that these celebrated goods have established is gaining more favor year by year. We will sell during the coming week 25 patterns at 75 cents per yard.

ART SQUARES.

Best Quality, All Wool,

24x3 yards.....$5.63
3x3 yards.....6.75
3x4 yards.....7.87
3x4 yards.....9.0

WADDLED CARPET LINING,

5 rows stitching.....2 1-2c. per yd.

LOWELL BRUSSELS,

30 patterns.....$1.00 per yd.

LOWELL EXTRA SUPERS,

20 patterns.....62 1-2c. per yd.

EXTRA SUPERS,

20 patterns.....50c. per yd.

STRAW MATTING,

1,000 pieces, 40 yards in each,

$6.00 per roll.

Thomas O'Callaghan & Co., 577, 579, 601 Washington St.

NEWTONVILLE.

—C. Farley, Turner, 433 Wash. St. Newton
—Crushed violet and ice cream soda at Payne's.

—C. W. Davidson has returned from a trip to Washington.

—H. F. Ross is finishing up an order for 1000 doors for Boston.

—Miss Lena McDonald is spending the week in Philadelphia.

—See auction sale of lots on Highland avenue and Otis street.

—Dr. Coxeter is out again, having recovered from his recent illness.

—Mrs. J. B. Turner is rapidly regaining strength and is now able to leave her room.

—Fuller & French have rented the Parker house on Washington street to Mr. Brainard of Boston.

—Mr. A. R. Mitchell's house on Austin street has been rented to Mr. Terrill of Springfield.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Mrs. Isaac Fenno, William Peabody and Rose Shields.

—Rev. Mr. Jackson will preach to the young men in the Methodist church, Sunday evening.

—Prof. Shipman, D.D., of Tufts College, will occupy the pulpit of the Universalist church, Sunday.

—The heavy trusses of the new drill shed on the High school grounds were placed in position this week.

—Rev. John E. Worcester and Miss Worcester have gone to Intervale, N. H., on a two week visit.

—Hon. J. C. Hyde has sold the lot on the corner of West and Watertown streets, belonging to Mrs. Hill.

—Deputy Post Sachem Hall of Algonquin tribe, I. O. R. M., Allston, visited Norum-bega Wednesday evening.

—Mr. Charles Ames and family have given up the Kimball cottage on Walnut street and have removed to Boston.

—At the Art Students Association exhibit at the Women's E. & L. Union rooms, Miss Fanny Tewksbury has three fine water colors.

—Postmaster Turner has an unclaimed package marked W. M. and H. W. Otis.
It contains copies of Harper's Magazine,
2 April and 2 May.

—Mr. Smith of Boston, who is best known by his connection with the city herald lines, has purchased the livery business for many years conducted by J. T.
Hill.

—Messrs. A. A. Savage and R. C. Bridgham will finish that 10-string match for the clock at the clubhouse, Monday evening. Mr. Savage has a lead of 58 pins on the first half, rolled recently.

—The new flag pole was raised yesterday afternoon under the supervision of Mr. H.
F. Ross. Quite a crowd of spectators were attracted during the progress of the work and everybody there seemed to have an accurate idea of just how it ought to be done.

—Mrs. Seavy of Portsmouth, N. H., who has been passing the winter here, died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. J. G.
Tompson, Otis street, Tuesday. Death resulted from heart disease. The deceased was 66 years of age and was much esteemed.

—Charles Ward Zouaves is the name of a new life, drum and bugle corps that is now being put through a course of drill by Drum Major Joseph Holmes of the N. H. S. battalion. The new organization contains some good musicians and gives promise of a successful career.

—Capt. Richards' team has won the championship of the Newton Club bowling tournament. Its members are correspondingly happy and are the prospective possessors of some very handsome and useful silk umbrellas. The members of the team are J. L. Richards, captain, J. W. French, George W. Morse, Joseph Grigg and Charles H. Buswell.

—The handsomest wisteria vine in the city is said to be the one at William Jones's house on Crafts street. It covers the front piazza its whole length, reaches to the eaves at each end, and runs over a portion of the side of the house. It has seven or eight hundred clusters of blossoms out at present, and is much admired by people passing the house.

—Mrs. Ann W. Grant died at her residence, Walnut place, Wednesday evening.
The deceased was an old resident and was widely respected and esteemed. She was a member of the Central Congregational church and was active for many years in church work. She was a true Christian woman whose death will be sincerely mourned. The funeral takes place from the late residence this afternoon.

—This evening reception by the life class and exhibition of work at Unity A. B.
Club studio, 184 Boylston street. The country seat of Professor Hyatt at Annis-quam will be the summer home of the club and quite a large party from the Newtons will go down Memorial Day. It is a charming old house with an orchard at its back as it faces the sea, delightfully secluded and yet the electric passes the gate. Excursions to all points of Cape Ann will be in order and students and art lovers find sea and shore fascinating.

—The Associated Charities has inaugurated the penny savings system in this city with headquarters in the real estate office of Tainter & Ballantyne. It is a stamp method and encourages the saving of small sums. The funds received will be deposited in the Newton banks. The following comprises the board of directors:
Rev. H. A. White, president; Treasurer,
Miss M. C. Worcester; Secretary, and cashier; H. W. Wellington, Rev. W.
A. Lamb, Newton; H. B. Parker, Newton-ville; Mrs. Allen Jordan, Lower Falls;
W. Jones, Newton Highlands; A. F.
Leatherbee, Newton Center; Mrs. Horace
Dutton, Auburndale; Albert Metcalf, West
Newton; Hiram A. Sherman, Upper Falls.

—Rev. R. A. White preached in the Universalist church Sunday morning from the text "Sorrow endureth for a night but joy cometh in the morning." A sermon full of hope and courage and helpfulness to the saddened, the discouraged, the disappointed, that however deep the troughs of the sea one might hope to rise to all the higher crests of the wave, that the bright things of life were as abundant as the disheartening ones, that patience and good cheer and a courage to wait for the incoming tide would make all right again, and yet in the day of prosperity we should prepare for possible disaster so that whatever came we should be in a way in readiness.

—The annual meeting of the Woman's Guild occurred on Tuesday afternoon in the Methodist vestry, where they have been privileged to hold many of their meetings the past season. The reports of the year were submitted and the following list of officers elected for 1891-92: Pres., Mrs. George T. Hill; vice-presidents, Mrs.
J. W. Dickinson, Mrs. D. S. Simpson, Mrs.
H. H. Carter, Mrs. M. S. Saville; recording secretary, Mrs. John Martin; corresponding secretary, Miss M. W. Hackett; treasurer, Mrs. G. F. Cooke; auditor, Mrs.
Wm. C. Richardson; directors for 4 years,
Mrs. Chas. Leonard, Mrs. T. B. Elliot, Holmes; for 3 years, Mrs. S. T. Brewer; for 2 years, Mrs. Wm. J. Towne, Mrs. W. L.
Chaloner; members of the board of directors, May 19, '90, Mrs. Geo. F. Kimball, Mrs. J. N. Allen, Mrs. C. B. Macomber.
The secretary's report will be made in another column.

—Mrs. H. P. Dearborn passed to her higher life on Friday, May 15th, after an illness of five weeks, during which time she evinced a patience, cheerfulness and courage that was marvellous to those who knew of her suffering. Mrs. Dearborn was a member of the Universalist church and an active, talented worker in its Literary Union. Her character was strong and earnest, her devotion to home and its duties exceptional, her friendship true and cordial. Her keen sense of humor and clear intellect made personal contact a pleasure, and the bright word and smile will be greatly missed. The funeral services took place on Monday at 2:30 p. m., when a large number of the friends who knew her best and loved her attended.

Prof. Leonard of Tufts College and Rev.
R. A. White conducted a simple and touching service, as both clergymen were old friends of the family. The pall bearers were Messrs. Brown, Grant, Eliebrown, Beach, Parker and Bradshaw. The music rendered by the quartet was simple and appropriate, and the floral tributes were choice and beautiful. The remains were taken to Provincetown for interment in the family lot.

WEST NEWTON.

Farley rents pianos, 433 Wash. St. Newton

—William Cazmay has been appointed sexton of the Unitarian church.

—Mr. B. L. White of Waltham street is enjoying a few weeks in Baltimore.

—Miss Alice Morton is taking a vacation of a few weeks with friends in Philadelphia.

—Mr. A. H. Glover has rented his cottage and leased the Carrol place for a term of three years.

—The annual anniversary exercises of the Baptist Sunday school will be observed Sunday evening, May 31.

—Mr. J. Elliott (Trowbridge) is making preparations for a recital which will be given in the Second Congregational church.

—Dr. Graves' friends here think that he will be able to clear himself from the charge of being concerned in the Barnaby poisoning case.

—The Newton Street Railway company commenced to run its cars on 15 minute trips Wednesday, a change that will be appreciated by the traveling public.

—Miss Lillian Bosworth of Portland, Me., is here on a visit. She is a daughter of Officer N. T. Bosworth and is connected with the Portland Transcript.

—The sale at the Williston Home today and to-morrow, afternoon and evening, will be very attractive, and the public generally are invited to attend.

—The work on the interior of Mr.
Travelli's elegant residence on "the hill"
was commenced this week under the supervision of the builder, Mr. H. F. Ross.

—Fred H. Hobart, a popular resident, and the inimitable humorist, Frank Swift,
gave a laughable musical sketch in St.
John's church, Newton Lower Falls, Tuesday evening.

—A quartet, comprising Misses Upham and Fogwill, Messrs. Beardsley and Libby, rendered selections at an entertainment given in the North Evangelical church, last evening.

—Rev. J. C. Jaynes spoke on the topic
"What is Needed to Make the Church More Efficient in Thought, Life and Work," at the meeting of the Channing Unitarian Club, last evening.

—A meeting of the West Newton branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held in the Baptist church yesterday afternoon. Routine business was transacted.

—The West Newton National Bank has largely increased its business the past six months, as shown by their statement. The number of new accounts opened in that time is seventy-nine.

—Loyalty lodge, 151 L. O. G. T. will hold a public meeting in Carpenter's Hall, Wednesday evening, May 27. At its regular meeting, Wednesday evening, two new members were initiated.

—The local branch of the National Three-Year Benefit Order will give a public entertainment in Nickerson's Hall, Monday evening, May 25. Prof. Ryerson, the humorist, and other attractions will be provided.

—Mr. A. S. Glover has started on a protracted trip in the interests of the Hersey Water Meter Company. He will pass through Pennsylvania thence to Chicago and will travel through some of the Southern states before returning East.

—There will be an organ concert at the Unitarian church Sunday next, by Mr.
Chas. Johnson, organist of the church, assisted by Miss Priscilla White, soprano.
Concert to commence at 7:30. Members and friends of the society are cordially invited.

—Quite a little breeze of excitement was caused last night by the rumor that two freight trains had collided. The story proved true enough but was, fortunately,
a very simple accident with no serious results. Both trains were moving on the same track. One stopped suddenly and the other ran it down, but with so little force that it did no harm.

—The following comprises the list of unclaimed letters in the post office: Hannah
Allen, George Allen, G. H. Adams, B. H.
Burr, Harriett Barker, Jessie Chisholm,
Robert Finneaux, William Haskell, Mrs.
Clara B. Jones, Tim Klein, Patrick Kiv-lian, Maggie Kelly, John McBrierty, Laura Rosen, Mrs. M. G. Washburn, Frank D. Wellcome, Annie Welch.

—The Brockton city officials paid a visit to police headquarters yesterday and inspected the police signal system. A trial trip of the patrol wagon was made for the benefit of the visitors, box 25 at the corner of Waltham and Derby streets being piloted in. Driver E. C. Holmes reached the box just 2:34 minutes after the gong sounded in the police department stable. The visited before the Gamewell factory after leaving police headquarters, and dined later at the Newton clubhouse.

—A public meeting, under the auspices of the Newton Associated Charities, will be held in the Second Congregational church, Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Horv of Charlestown will explain the methods and objects of Associated Charity work.
This meeting is for the purpose of informing the public of the work of the Newton Associated Charities, and is the sixth in a series of meetings held during the year in different parts of Newton. No collection.
The public cordially invited.

—Louis Erinstein, a Somerville pedler, visited Mrs. Allen's house on Washington street this week and took away goods, it is alleged, valued at $63, for which he paid to an inmate of the domicile the munificent sum of 50 cents. The case was reported to the police and Inspector Henthorn went to Somerville with a search warrant. He found some of the goods on Erinstein's person, and a copper bolt and a carpet bag were identified. Erinstein was arrested and was arraigned for larceny in the police court yesterday morning. Judge Kennedy found sufficient cause to bind him over for trial before the grand jury and fixed his bonds at $200.

—A pleasant feature has been added to the service of song in the Unitarian church by the solo singing of Miss White. In the cultivation of Oratorio style, her voice has not only broadened and increased in volume of tone, but at the same time has lost none of its delicacy and sweetness. All the sentiment which characterized her earlier style of music, has not been lost in the cultivation of the higher, which added to her devotional fervor, lends an inspiration to all her singing. We are pleased to learn that with her friend and teacher, Miss Munger, she has taken rooms with Mrs.
Hussey, Elm street for a portion of the summer.

—At the meeting of the fire committee of the board of aldermen, Wednesday evening, the matter of placing the West Newton engine in commission was brought up. Several petitioners were present, who stated that they did not feel it was wise to continue longer without additional service in West Newton. Chief Hasty stated that the hydrant service on the hill is insufficient, some hydrants being at present entirely useless in case of fire, and even with the high service very little pressure can be in his judgment be expected, and that the engine is the only apparatus which will effective work on the top of the hill. The petitioners set forth, that added to these considerations, the long distance between the village and the growth of the city seem to make the engine a necessity, and that although fires have fortunately been few, too much dependence should not be placed upon that fact, and that it is the judgment of the majority of the citizens, as shown by the petition representing nearly a million and a half dollars, that the time has come for more fire department. The bill will be brought before the full board.

—The 72d anniversary of the Second Congregational Sunday school was appropriately observed Sunday evening. There was a large attendance at the exercises.
The pulpit and the space within the centel was tastefully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. The program was arranged as follows: Organ voluntary; Anthem, "O Praise the Lord all ye Nations, the Lord our Shepherd of the Sheep," anthems, "The Lord is my portion," anniversary hymn, "The Mighty Hand," exercises by the Pine Farm boys;
address to the Sunday school children, W.
Duncan, West Newton; singing, "Our Battle Cry," remarks by Rev. Dr.
Patrick, Supt. Bell, Mr. Inman and others.
Some very interesting facts concerning the report of the Sunday school was given in the report of the secretary, Mr. F. L.
Trowbridge.

—The most charming bedsteads for a small room are made of tubular iron, painted a soft ivory white, and fitted with woven wire mattress. They come in any width from three feet upwards. They are light, neat, clean and very ornamental. They can be purchased as low as $7.00 at Payne's Furniture Warehouses, 48 Canal street,
Boston.

AUBURNDALE.

—Mr. George Mann is slowly recovering from his illness.

—Dr. Fairbanks and a party of friends from Boston were rowing on the Charles, Tuesday.

—Mr. Codman of Boston and friends took boats from the Riverside boat house, Tuesday.

—The first house on the Berkeley estate, Maple street, was sold Tuesday afternoon at public auction.

—Rev. and Mrs. Metcalf were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Rousmaniere, at New Bedford last Sunday.

—Miss Adams of Boston and a large party of friends were on the Charles River Tuesday, with six of Partelow's boats.

—Arthur Plummer played for the Watertown Orchestral Club one evening last week at their entertainment given in Town Hall, Watertown.

—Mrs. Isabella G. Parker has been offered the position of organist and director of the vested choir of the Church of the Ascension, in Waltham, Rev. Mr. Shields, rector.

—Mr. E. L. Pickard, Ex-Alderman Johnson, Mr. E. B. Haskell and Mr. Henry A.
Prest left town Wednesday morning for the Rangleys Lakes, Me., where they will enjoy two weeks of fishing.

—Business has been unusually good this week at the Riverside boat house, a large number of individuals going out on the water, and 22 boats are already engaged for Memorial Day, May 30.

—Rev. William H. Gulick and his wife, more familiarly known to the public as Mrs. Alice Gordon Gulick started on Wednesday for the Sandwich Islands, where they go on a visit of several weeks.

—Prof. H. E. Gordon, who has been enjoying a year's leave of absence from his college in the west, expects soon to resume his duties there and will remove from his present residence on Hancock street.

—Mrs. Kate Lente Stevens of Newton will address the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Auburndale, in the Congregational chapel, Wednesday, May 27, at 8 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all the citizens of Newton.

—Miss Louise Imogen Guiney's poem for the Sherman Memorial in Boston, next month, is completed, and promises to surpass in length and beauty even the work submitted upon on Grant, which she wrote for the Boston memorial six years ago.

—The fixtures and belongings of the market recently run by E. M. Angell & Co., were sold Wednesday at public auction by Charles H. Painter of Newtonville.

—There were a fair number of purchasers and the articles as a whole sold well.

—Harvard and Wellesley colleges are well represented on the Charles river at Riverside on pleasant afternoons when the colleges declare a holiday and it is true that the girls do not carry a good an-oar as many of their brother boatmen.

—The letters which are unclaimed remain at the post office and the addresses are Mrs. Botsford, Rev. W. A. Benedict, Mrs. D. S. Crawford, (2), Mr. John Dar-
nold, Miss Maggie Doherty, Miss Lucette Grubb, Miss Della McManis (2), Mrs.
Martha Webster.

—The Newton Boat Club, through Commodore Lawson of the A. C. A., has presented the Vesper Boat Club of Lowell, Mass., a large framed photograph, a glass bird's eye view of their house and grounds, and embracing quite a portion of the Charles River and the beautiful country in that vicinity.

—The strawberry supper given by the New England Order of Protection last evening, was like all their efforts to attract the public eminently successful and the berries disappeared without opposition down many a throat. A great many were served and Riverdale Lodge added quite a sum to the treasury.

—A union meeting of the Young People's Societies of Christian Endeavor was held Wednesday evening in the Congregational church. There was a large attendance and a debate conducted by Messrs. Crosby, Brown and Frank Davidson was one of the pleasures of the evening in which many of those present participated.

—At the auction sale of the Pulsifer and last Saturday, the rain interfered with the attendance somewhat, and only the lot on Melrose street was sold, to Mr. Walter C.
Ware, for $500. Bids were received on all the other lots, but the price was not satisfactory, and they were not sold. Messrs.
J. F. C. Hyde and E. J. Hyde have since had several offers, and the lots will probably be disposed of at private sale.

—A section hand by the name of Markin, who was at work beyond Riverside with section foreman Kipps' gang, was struck by the 10:12 Inward express train Monday morning, sustaining serious injuries, and was taken to the Massachusetts General Hospital. Two trains were approaching at the same time and the man became confused, being about to step on the track, when the engine hit him, throwing him against the moving shaft.

—There has been a great deal of conjecture about town as to why the Williams school house flag is not replaced on pleasant days. It correctly informed us has not been floated this spring upon only one day, that of Gen. Sherman's funeral.

There is no reason why the flag should not be used for the purpose it was intended, and it is the duty of the janitor of the building to see that the wishes of the public, who so generously donated the flag, is carried out in this respect.

—Miss Frances E. Hildreth gave a party to about thirty of her young friends last evening at her residence. The rooms were tastefully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, and the evening was spent in progressive angling and dancing. In the prizes given, were won by Miss Ethel Blaisdell, Miss E. Josephine Tyler,
Miss Hutchinson, Mr. Geo. H. Young, Mr.
F. B. Coffin, and Mr. Howard Whitmore.
During the evening a beautiful collation was enjoyed and at a late hour the party broke up having spent a most enjoyable evening.

—The last meeting of the Tuesday Club for this year was held Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. E. B. Haskell on Vista avenue. It was very fully attended. Mr. Edward Sawyer of Newton read the paper for the evening containing accidents, reminiscences and details relative to war which was both interesting and instructive. A discussion followed, and a calendar list of meetings for the ensuing year '91-'92, and the names of the essayist for the prizes given, were presented by the committee in whose charge the matter was placed. During the evening "mine host" provided an enjoyable collation and the evening closed with pleasurable anticipation for the future.

—The Auburndale Village Improvement Society has not been heard from but it is this year and some inquiry is natural to find out why such a society exists. Its objects are thus defined: "The beautifying and adorning the streets and public grounds of the village, especially by planting trees and shrubs, caring for and preserving the same.
To create and encourage in the community
a spirit of improvement which shall stimulate every one to seek to make his own surroundings more attractive, to attend to matters affecting public health; and to provide such entertainments as the board of governors shall think proper." This "spirit of improvement" does not seem to exist even in the society itself, to judge from its obscurity; not that there is not great need of what such a society is supposed to do; there is a demand for clean and such a place cleaned up or that piece of ground beautified. There is no park in Auburndale but there is of some nature in every other Newton village with the exception of Newton Highlands and the time will not be long when they will have them.
The Newton Centre Improvement Association has set an example which every society would not be ashamed to follow and it is an honor to belong to such an association.
There is no reason why this village should not be as active in public improvements as any other village, if those who belong to the Auburndale society have any desire to show that they are not too disinterested in public improvement to take some action worthy the name.

Sale at Williston Home.

The Sale at the Williston Home, Waltham street, West Newton, this afternoon and evening, and tomorrow afternoon and evening, should call out a large attendance, as the proceeds are for the benefit of the Home.

At Roland W. Maury's in the Parmenter block, 20 Moody street, opposite F. R. R. station, Waltham, may be found a large and choice assortment of the season's latest styles in millinery. Special attention is given to elderly ladies work, special shapes and great care taken in fitting to the head. Children's hats and trimmings in a large variety. Trimmed hats and bonnets trimmed with care to the correctness of the season's styles.
The ladies of Newton will find the millinery to be equal as to quality and style of work to that of any of the leading millinery establishments of Boston, 32 21

SPRING

HAS COME

AND SO HAVE

CLAPP'S
NEW SPRING STYLES

—IN—

FINE BOOTS

—AND—

Low Shoes.

YOU SHOULD SEE THEM.

They are Nobby.

ASSOCIATE'S
BLOCK,
NEWTONVILLE.PILGRIM HOUSE,
Nantasket Beach,WING & GLENNAN, Proprietors
CHAS. E. DEVEREUX, Manager."OCEAN HOUSE." Leading Hotel at York
Beach, Maine. Most romantic beach in the world.
Send for circulars which give full particulars.GERMAN PILE CURE.
Safe and Reliable.
25c. a Box at the Druggists.

"S. S. KANSAS"

Has just landed for us a lot of fine Brass Bedsteads; we have for your inspection nearly 100 patterns in Brass, and combination of Brass and cream white, and if you have never visited our warerooms we assure you a call will afford you pleasure and may result to our mutual advantage.

H. W. BIGELOW COMPANY,

Importers and Manufacturers.

Telephone No. 350. 70 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

MINER ROBINSON,

ELECTRICIAN.

199 Washington Street, Sears' Building, Boston. Residence, West Newton.

Private Residences fitted for the

ELECTRIC LIGHT

Estimates Furnished for a Complete Installation.
Also Gas Lighting, Burglar Alarms, Call Bells, Etc.
Connected by Telephone.

6 Per Cent. Per Annum.

THE DEBENTURE BONDS OF THE

Middlesex Banking Company of Middletown, Conn.,

Secured by First Mortgages on Real Estate, deposited with the UNION TRUST CO. of New York, and a safe and profitable investment. For sale at par and accrued interest by 23-1yr. EDWARD P. HATCH, Agent, First Nat. Bank, West Newton, Mass.

CARRIAGES! Spring Styles.

We invite attention to our large stock of Fine Carriages for the Spring and Summer Seasons. A large assortment of Standard Styles in Victorias, T. Carts, Kensington Wagons, Beach Wagons, Depot Carriages, Surreys, Etc. All the Leading Novelties and Fancy Designs in Light and Dark Finish.

We have also a Large Variety of

SECOND HAND CARRIAGES

In above Styles which we offer at Very Low Prices to insure their ready Sale.

First Quality Goods at Lowest Prices.

Our expenses are less than those of any other first-class concern in Boston and our customers get the benefit of it.

Written for the GRAPHIC. PICKED UP ADRIFT.

The barque Brenda was on her homeward voyage to New York, from the Mediterranean. I was the only passenger. My usual habit when travelling is to study men and things, and not books, and on a sea voyage to become acquainted with every man on board ship. Sometimes one will meet with the man who has "been down at Jericho and fallen among thieves," and will find it pleasant to get out the oil and wine and set him on his feet again.

During the first week out, our second mate, when his watch was on deck would stand midship, with his arms folded, eyeing me closely and taking my measure.

I found myself also doing the same to him. We soon came together like kindred drops. Benjamin H. Nelson was a young man, on the sunny side of thirty, broad shouldered, in perfect health, with blue eyes, long wavy chestnut hair and very modest in his address. This gentleness of manner was evidently natural, but there was an undercurrent of ferocity that puzzled me, and I was drawn to him irresistibly, to know his history, and why he was thus.

As we paced the deck together during our long voyage, my first favorable impressions ripened into a friendship which I have never had occasion to regret.

He was the ideal of a sea rover, lithe as a cat, and brave as a lion, with a woman's heart of tenderness under his rough sea jacket.

His home, where his mother and sisters lived, was near Hartford, Connecticut, but he had been absent fifteen years! During this time he had neither written to, or heard a word from them.

He had been wandering over the earth from one continent to another, spending his money as fast as he earned it without any restraint but his own will, and that generous disposition which was his birth-right and born in him.

He was a strange anomaly, to be so tender, and yet so cruel to his mother and family.

"Well," said he one day "I should like to see mother and my eldest sister too if they are living. They used to be kind to me, and I loved them, but my uncle I never could endure, and it is with him that my mother lives or did live."

I told him, that I should surely find out the old lady when we arrived, and tell her that her "Benjamin," is still alive and well.

He began to think me in earnest. Little by little I unrolled the story of his life. When he was twelve or thirteen years of age he made a voyage to the West Indies and returned so well pleased, that his mother forbade his going again, for she had only consented to this one voyage in hopes of dissuading him.

Afterward he went to live with a brother-in-law, in the western part of New York state, where he was treated like a dog. He escaped by the first opportunity, leaving his clothes and wages behind him and shipped on board of a vessel bound up the lakes.

There he stopped awhile with a man who had a lovely residence in a vast cedar swamp, about ten miles from the landing.

He was a smuggler of contraband goods across the line from Canada. One day they had been killing pigs, and the blood and offal were lying round the yard.

Nelson was out walking to and fro by starlight, when a large panther appeared. He slipped back into the house, the lights were put out, and the old backwoodsman shot the animal through the chinks of the logs. The panther was about nine feet long with a beautiful skin.

After this Nelson went down the river on a flat boat to New Orleans, and shipped to Liverpool. He had been three times to the coast of Africa, both Eastern and Western, to the East Indies, to China, up the Red Sea, the hottest place on earth, to Smyrna, Bremen, Cronstadt, Australia and Yokohama and other places too numerous to mention.

On his first voyage to Eastern Africa, the captain was a "Turk," and kept the crew half starved. He with several others revolted. The captain put the rebels under the hatch, and fed them with bread and water very sparingly.

They found a passage way through to the barrels of bread amidship, and for the time had nothing to do, but to eat and sleep.

Arriving on the coast shortly after, they were put in irons. An American man-of-war vessel was lying there, and the authority of government invoked, but on representation of their side of the story, and showing their fare, the old sea dog took their part and would not consent that they should even be flogged.

Subsequently they were abandoned by the captain, who shipped men in place of them.

They were left to die, without money, among strangers and with no clothes except what they had on.

Nelson had a trunk full on board, for which he had paid not long before about one hundred dollars.

This with his wages was lost. The man-of-war man found them under a tree, not caring whether they lived or died.

He took them all on board his ship to the Cape of Good Hope. At Cape Town, Nelson made acquaintance with Mother Claussen, who kept a boarding house there, and he lived with her several months. She took a great fancy to him, and wanted him to marry her daughter, who was an only child, and an heiress in fact, of about ten thousand pounds sterling.

"Why in the name of reason didn't you settle down there?" said I.

"Why haven't I done a great many things that I neglected to do?" was his answer.

"I used to go up in the country with the girl, and we were very thick together. I might have married her any time I chose, but I didn't."

While lying in the dock at Liverpool, an old lady came on board, looked round a moment and saw her son who had been absent two or three years. She seized him in her arms, overjoyed to see him once more alive.

The man pushed her away rudely and said, "Woman, what do you want of me?"

The poor heart was too much astonished for grief.

"Good Heaven!" she exclaimed, "and don't you know me? Have I lived to see the day when my own son disowns me?"

because I am poor?" Then bursting into tears, she turned to the crew who had clustered around in the deepest sympathy. "Men," said she, "have you no mother at home?" This was too much for the tender spot in a sailor's heart.

Every eye was moistened with tears. The Nelson, and I enlarged upon his heavy heart.

But the boy from that moment lost all esteem on board though formerly he had been a general favorite. He seemed to be doomed. He became dogged and sullen, and was treated like a worthless crew officer and men during the whole year.

Just after the woman parted from her son, one of his shipmates came up to him, and dealt him a blow that laid him on the deck. When he recovered his feet, another levelled him, and then they regarded him as a Cain not fit to live on board. It was a crime that sailors would not forgive, and the more they thought of it the more it grew in enormity.

It is to be hoped that this wicked son returned, and sought forgiveness of his mother, before it was too late.

This was an appropriate text for me with Nelson, and I enlarged upon his own conduct, equal in cruelty, though different in mode.

Nelson was stopping once in New Bedford and at his boarding place, he noticed a woman about the house, as a servant of all work, who seemed sad and dejected.

One evening he happened to come in rather early, and seeing nothing to interest himself in, about the parlor, he took a light and went up stairs to "turn in."

Just as he reached the upper landing, he heard this woman following him. As he looked round at her, she told him in a trembling voice, that she wanted a favor of him. "Well, what is it?" said he. "Please to listen," she replied, "and I will tell you my situation."

Some time ago I lived in Newport, R. I. My husband was a blacksmith, and an excellent workman. We had a good living, and were happy.

But he became entangled with whalemen, and persuaded to leave his place and ship as a whaler, thinking he would make his fortune in a short time.

He returned after one of those dreadful long voyages with but a few dollars due him from the owners, or in debt, I forget which. He was exasperated, and in a moment of passion, threatened the merchant in his own counting room, that he would have revenge if he had to take it by fire.

He didn't mean anything by it, only it was a common expression, and he was very much enraged.

It was when they were setting fires so much, and everybody was on the look out for incendiaries.

Sure enough, some time afterward this merchant's buildings took fire, and my poor husband was arrested at once, and sent to jail for a year.

I went to service as you see now. His time has just expired, and if I could only raise money enough to pay our fares to Newport, and get him back again to his old place, where the man would be glad to have him, I do believe that we should be happy again, and the past would be forgotten."

Nelson handed out a five dollar bill, and went up stairs and got another from his room mate. The next day they told the story among the sailors in port, and raised quite a sum for them, for sailors never do such things by halves.

Some years after, Nelson chanced to be in Newport, and thought he would take a look at them, and see how they were getting along, and if the money had done them any good.

The shop where he used to work, as described by the woman, was at the head of the steamboat landing, and he went in to see the woman, and to see how they were getting along, and if the money had done them any good.

He enquired for Mr. Benson. "That's my name," said a good, steady looking young man, stepping forward. "What can I do for you?"

Seeing he was not recognized, he was too delicately generous to remind him of former times, and yet a little chagrined. Inventing some excuse on the spot, he was turning to leave the shop, when the man eyed him closely, sprang forward, grasping both his hands in his own.

"Why, sir, you are the man who saved us from ruin some years ago at New Bedford, are you not? Forgive me for not recognizing you at first sight, but you have altered some and look a little different. You must come up to my house. My wife would never forgive me if I should let you go off without seeing her."

"So I was obliged to go," said Nelson, "wiping his sleeve across his eyes," and the old woman almost smothered me with kindness for a fortnight. They had a neat little house of their own, and he paid for, and he was making good steady wages."

"All this time," said I, "your own mother was pining away her life for only one line from her lost son. A continued sorrow wears away upon an aged frame, and brings it prematurely to the grave."

About seven years previous to the time of our interviews, Nelson shipped at Norfolk, Va., on the Brig Martha, to the Spanish Main, on a "trading voyage," at sixteen dollars a month. The crew was picked, and they joined the Brig at Hampton Roads, eight of them before the mast. They soon suspected the nature of the voyage to be something illicit or clandestine. She was in ballast mostly, loaded with counterfeit Spanish and Mexican dollars, from parties in New York. At some places on the coast, they would stop, and exchange the kegs of silver for gold; at others for cargoes of goods to be shipped immediately to the states and elsewhere.

It was a bold operation and the risks were great. They kept along as far as Rio de Janeiro, where the captain left shore to get aboard in a great hurry, being chased by a sloop of war and a cutter.

The captain and the two mates shipped on board a vessel that was standing out of the roads, bound for England, and left the brig and what was there to the mercies of the Brazilian government.

Nelson has since then met this captain in New York twice, and he speaks with him, and leaves a handful of dollars in his pocket, to keep his tongue still.

It was said that he cleared seven or eight hundred dollars by that infamous rascality. Whether the money ever did him or his any good in the long run, is another question.

As an illustration of the character of sailors, his chum, who always shipped with him on their various voyages, came into possession at this time of an estate valued at about eight thousand dollars, by the death of his parents, and offered Nelson one half right through land, stock, etc., if he would come and share with him.

Nelson declined the offer of course, but it was made in good faith.

The last he had heard from him, he had run through it all.

"Why is it," he said one night, as we were leaning together on the topsail, "that sailors earn their money like dogs, and spend it so like asses? No other people do."

"I can't tell, you know how it is yourself," said I. "Why do they have churches for them, different from other people? floating Bethels? mariners' churches? and sailor priests? No other class of people are set off by themselves in that way. Can't I go to church like other people? Can't I sleep ashore without having pails of water all night thrown at my chamber door?"

I could but laugh at his shrewd questions, but I knew them to be the voice of an uneasy conscience, and that he was trying in vain to be a misanthrope. He was deadly homesick and would not acknowledge it.

On our arrival in New York, I urged Nelson to go home at once and report himself to his mother and family.

He said "he was poor, never had any luck, and now after being gone so long, to go back empty, he didn't want to do it, better wait till he had some luck, etc., etc."

"Yes," said I, "if there is such a thing as luck, you have had better luck than you deserve, and the way to change your luck is to turn square round, and face the world, and now is the best time to do anything."

After a few minutes he replied, "I will. I'll do it now while the iron is hot!"

He wrote to his mother and sister, hardly expecting a reply, but it came very quickly. To his great surprise they were alive and well. And there was a joyful meeting.

He spent several months about home, endeavoring to atone for his former neglect.

Then came the pressure of necessity, and he started out into the world again with the vigor of a new life, and new purposes. After a few voyages he had the command of a ship out of New York, and at last married a nice girl at his native place.

This, to such a man as he, was an anchor on good holding ground.

In the course of years he found himself, with his wife's assistance, able to support a family, and he was looking for a new home, and at last married a nice girl at his native place.

We are none of us so young as we were at the commencement of this narrative, and the years bring changes.

The web-foot still clings to Skipper Nelson, and the ex-whaler, and they are as good of old as when they were young.

The narrator and his family have had many a summer sail and clam-bake with them and their families on the shores and waters of Buzzard and Narraganset.

Capt. Nelson always mourns for the fifteen best years of his life wasted in wandering aimlessly over the face of the earth, and deplores that obstinate waywardness which made so much untold grief to his mother.

He thinks that he must have been under a spell, like a nightmare, needing somebody to shake him out of it, and wake him up.

He has enjoyed more in one year since than in all those years thrown away, with nothing to show for them, but bitter memories.

He says he used to envy the sea-birds, for the sailor has no nest but a boarding-house and the hospital, or an unknown grave. He deserved to suffer for the suffering that he ruthlessly inflicted upon the hearts of others.

But his repentance, when it did come, was sincere and thorough.

He made a home for his mother, and comforted her declining years.

S. H. GOOCH.

Moisten a handkerchief with Johnson's Anodyne Liniment and inhale for relief.

I suffered for more than ten years with that dreadful disease, catarrh, and used every available medicine which was recommended to me. I cannot thank you enough for the relief which Ely's Cream Balm has afforded me.—Emanuel Myers, Winfield, L. L. N. Y.

It won't cost you one-half as much. Do not delay. Send three two-cent stamps for postage, and we will send you Dr. Kauffmann's cure, in its original box, for the cure of all diseases, its causes and how to cure them. Address, A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass.

Labor conquers all things, but it has to wrestle pretty hard with the walking delegate.—Puck.

All the little things a man hides from the world when he is young will appear written out on his face when he is old.—Arlinson Globe.

It is hard to believe in the religion of a man who always looks as though he had been throwing bootjacks at a cat.—Ram's Horn.

"What did you think of the sermon this morning?" "I was very much interested. I never supposed that so simple a text was so hard to elucidate."—Puck.

"We have home-made pie," said the waiter lady in the Woman's Exchange. "Excuse me," said the pallid young man as he reached for his hat, and started for the door. "I was looking for bakery pie. I was married only last month."—Puck's Sun.

My sweetheart perfect? No, indeed, For, if she was, she wouldn't love Poor miserable me.—Puck.

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines.

Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies.

Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine which can truly be said to "cure" a disease.

One Hundred Doses One Dollar. Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's.

Peculiar in its medicinal merit, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered."

Peculiar in its "good name" at home, there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers.

Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly.

Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

Is Peculiar to Itself

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

Is Peculiar to Itself

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

City of Newton. City of Newton.

DOG LICENSES EXPIRE April 30, 1891, ASSESSORS' NOTICE.

The inhabitants of the City of Newton, and all persons liable to pay taxes therein, are hereby required to bring in to the Assessors of said Newton, on any day from

May First, to the Fifteenth Day of June, Next,

true lists of all their Poles (males, 20 years old and upwards), and schedules and estimates of their personal estates, not exempted from taxation.

ASSESSMENT OF WOMEN.

Chap. 196, Acts of 1889.

The Assessors or Assistant Assessors shall, in the month of May or June in each year, visit each dwelling-house or building and make true lists of all women twenty years of age and upwards, who shall in writing over their own signatures, request the Assessors to assess them for a "poll tax," and it shall be the duty of the Assessors to inquire at each such dwelling-house or building for such written requests for assessment, which must give the name in full, age, occupation, and residence May 1st, 1890.

All women desiring to be assessed for a poll tax should have their written request for such assessment in the form required by the act of 1889, ready for delivery to the Assessors when they shall visit the house where they dwell. Each request shall be upon a separate sheet signed by the applicant with her name in full. No application for the assessment of a woman for a poll tax will be received by mail or in any other than the manner provided by said Chapter 196, except by filing in the office of the Assessors the list provided by Section 12, of Chapter 298, of Acts of 1884, as amended by Chapter 200, of Acts of 1888.

Persons holding estates in trust, whether for minors or otherwise, are particularly requested to furnish the Assessors with statements in relation to such estates.

When estates of persons deceased have been divided during the past year, or have changed hands from other causes, the Executors, Administrators, Trustees, or other persons interested, are required and warned to give notice of such change; and in default of such notice will be held to pay the tax assessed, although such estate has been wholly distributed and paid over.

Returns of Property Held for Literary, Benevolent, Charitable, or Scientific Purposes.

In accordance with the requirements of Chapter 217, Acts of 1882—all persons and corporations are hereby required to bring in to the Assessors of Newton on any day from May first to the fifteenth day of June next, true lists of all real and personal estates held by such persons and corporations respectively for literary, benevolent, charitable, or scientific purposes on the first day of May, 1891, together with statements of the amount of all receipts and expenditures by such person or corporation for said purpose during the year next preceding said first day of May; such lists and statements to be in such detail as may be required by the tax commissioner.

MORTGAGED REAL ESTATE.

Chap. 175, Acts of 1882, Sec. 1.

Any mortgagee or mortgagee of Real Estate may bring in to the Assessors of the town or city where such Real Estate lies, at the time specified for bringing in the list as provided in Section thirty-eight of Chapter eleven of the Public Statutes, a statement under oath, of the amount due on each separate lot or parcel of such Real Estate, and the name and residence of every holder of an interest therein as a mortgagee or mortgagee. When such property is situated in two or more parcels, or when a record of mortgage includes for one sum two or more estates or parts of an estate, an estimate of the amount of the mortgagee's interest in each estate or part of an estate shall be given in such statement. The Assessors shall, from such statements or otherwise, ascertain the proportionate parts of such estates that are the interests of mortgagees and mortgagees, respectively, and shall assess the same. Whenever, in any case of mortgaged Real Estate, a statement is not brought in as herein provided, no tax for the then current year on such Real Estate shall be invalidated for the reason that a mortgagee's interest therein has not been assessed to him.

SHIPPING.

Shipping and business income are not taxable to a firm, but each resident partner must include these items in his individual return. Owners and agents of ships and vessels engaged in the foreign carrying trade, are referred to Sections 8 and 9, of Chapter 11 of the Public Statutes, for the form of return required to claim exemption from taxation upon the valuation of such property. Said returns to be made to the Assessors on or before June first.

Any person bringing in a list of all his taxable personal property will be assessed upon the valuation thereof, and any person neglecting to furnish the Assessors with such list within the time above specified, will be deemed at a legal meeting of the Board of Assessors agreeably to the laws of this Commonwealth.

All persons will take notice that statements of personal property must be in writing and subscribed under oath before one of the Assessors, on or before the fifteenth day of June, and that the Personal Property of all taxable persons must be estimated by the Board, notwithstanding any verbal statement or informal written communication to any one or more of the Assessors—Pub. Stat., Chap. 11, Sec. 29 and 41. When a person has failed to bring in a list or schedule of all his taxable property, in conformity to this notice, no abatement of a tax assessed on Personal Estate to such person can be granted, "unless such tax exceeds by more than fifty per cent. the amount which would have been assessed to that person on Personal Estate if he had reasonably brought in said list; and if said tax exceeds by more than fifty per cent. the said amount, the abatement shall be only of the excess above the said fifty per cent.—Pub. Statutes, Chap. 11, Sec. 73.

The Assessors will be in session at their office, in the City Hall, in the City of Newton, on the 6th, 13th, 20th, and 27th days of May, and the 3d, 10th, and 17th days of June next, from 3 to 5 o'clock, P. M.

Blank schedules will be furnished on application to either of the assessors.

SAMUEL M. JACKSON, Assessors of the City of Newton.

HOWARD B. COFFIN, of Newton.

CHAS. L. MINER, of Newton.

Newton, April 25, 1891.

City of Newton. City of Newton.

DOG LICENSES EXPIRE April 30, 1891, ASSESSORS' NOTICE.

And all persons owning or keeping a dog or dogs in Newton after that date, without license, are liable to be proceeded against for violation of the law. The fine in such cases is $15.00 and costs, amounting to about $25.00. See Chap. 102 of the Public Statutes.

I. F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, SS. PROBATE COURT.

To all persons interested in the estate of Elizabeth S. Winslow, late of Newton in said County deceased.

Whereas Horatio B. Hackett and Joseph E. Whitman executors of the will of Eleanor H. Winslow, deceased, who was the executrix of the will of said Elizabeth, deceased, have presented for allowance the second and final account of her administration upon the estate of said deceased; and you are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Court House in said County, on the fourth Tuesday of May instant, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed. And said executors are ordered to serve this citation by publishing the same once a week, in the Newton Graphic a newspaper printed at Newton three weeks successively, the last publication to be two days at least, before said day of said Court, this sixth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

J. H. TYLER, Registrar.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, SS. PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs at law, next of kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of Elizabeth S. Winslow, late of Newton in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Lucy Sparhawk who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, and that she may be exempt from giving a surety or sureties on her bond pursuant to said will and statute;

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the fourth Tuesday of May instant at nine o'clock before noon, to show cause, if any you have, against the same.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation three times successively, in the Newton Graphic a newspaper called the Newton Graphic printed at Newton the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE M. BROOKS, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this first day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

J. H. TYLER, Registrar.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, SS. PROBATE COURT.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says:

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.
Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co.—Gentlemen:—
I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly,
L. L. GORSUCH, M. D.
Office, 215 Summit St.
We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Quicker than anything else on earth, Johnson's Anodyne Liniment will reduce inflammation.

A Fortunate Man.
I had severe attacks of kidney disease. My stomach also troubled me very much. I was prevailed upon to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. After using five or six bottles, I was cured. I consider it an invaluable remedy for Kidney Disease, Stomach trouble, and all diseases of the blood.—John Vandervelde, No. 1 Gregory st., Rochester, N. Y.

"What did that new suit of yours cost?" "Two hundred dollars." "Jerusalem, man! How did that happen?" "Easy enough. I paid $75 for the suit originally, and it looked so well that my wife would not let me rest till I had put up $125 more for an outfit for her to match it. Buy cheap clothes, old fellow. Buy cheap clothes."—Washington Star.

Doctor Freshcut—"Allow me, professor, to present to you my wife. The professor (regarding Mrs. F. with some curiosity)—"So this is your new wife, eh?—er—as you know, I have never interested myself in the study of the sex—and my opinion on such matters is therefore not valuable—however, I am inclined to the opinion you have secured a very fair specimen."—Life.

For heroic but vain endeavors to look pleased nothing can equal the facial expressions of two girls compelled to dance with each other on account of the scarcity of the men.—Texas Siftings.

FIFTY-SIX HORSES.

It takes fifty-six horse power to run the two mammoth presses which are soon to be placed in the

BOSTON HERALD

Office.

SEE Saturday's Boston Herald for the contents of next Sunday's Herald.

The ablest and cleanest Newspaper published in New England. No Objectionable News or Advertising.

Just the Paper for your Family to read.

ADAMS' MACHINE SHOP.

MACHINE JOBBING AND REPAIRING.
All Kinds of Machine Sharpening and Grinding.
CYCLES AND TRICYCLES REPAIRING A SPECIALTY. LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED.
396 WASHINGTON STREET, NEWTON.
P. O. BOX 111. 16-17

DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY PURIFIES THE BLOOD

IS RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS when all other remedies fail—as the only positive cure for Dyspepsia, Constipation, Liver and Kidney Diseases. Thousands gratefully testify that Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has Saved Their Lives. To Mothers and Daughters (even the youngest) Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has Proved a Real Blessing.

$1.00 bottle; 6 for $5.00. All Dealers.

"A Family Jewel."—A beautiful illustrated book—how to cure all the diseases mentioned in this paper—mailed free. Address (returning this paper) DR. DAVID KENNEDY, CORPORATION,

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT

UNLIKE ANY OTHER. As much for INTERNAL as EXTERNAL use. Originated by an Old Family Physician in 1810.

Positively cures Diphtheria, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Neuritis, Rheumatism, Headaches, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Catarrh, Cholera Morbus, Cholera, Scalds, Burns and Boils, Sprains, Stomach Inflammation, Cuts, Burns, and Bruises. Relieves all Cramps and Child-like Colic. Sold everywhere. Price 25c. per bottle. Express paid. L. S. JOHNSON & CO., Boston, Mass.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

- Atkinson, J. C. Forty Years in a Moorland Parish: Reminiscences and Researches in Danby in Cleveland. 34.365
- Chapman on the folk-lore, and manners and customs of this parish in Yorkshire, with historical, antiquarian and geological descriptions. 31.346
- Boedeker, K. Great Britain; Handbook for Travellers. 31.346
- Intended to help the traveller in planning his tour and disposing of his time to the best advantage. 63.863
- Barr, A. E. She Loved a Sailor. 92.626
- Bridgett, T. E. Life and Writings of Sir Thomas More, Lord Chancellor of England and Martyr under Henry VIII.
- The writer has quoted passages from the works of More, that the reader may form his own judgment and gain some knowledge of More as a writer.
- Cook, E. T. Studies in Ruskin; some Aspects of the Work and Teaching of John Ruskin. 54.643
- Discusses not how but what Ruskin has written, and aims to show some aspects of his public work as are of public interest, and incidentally throw light on his teaching.
- Doyle, T. The Book; trans. by A. R. Montalva. 62.799
- Du Maurier, G. Society Pictures from Punch. 57.302
- Illustrations by Geo. Du Maurier.
- Dwight, W. Life and Letters. 96.329
- The first edition was published more than twenty years ago, and gave a "picture of the experience then common everywhere in the country, North and South, of those households where sons were given to the war."
- Ewald, C. C. Studies Re-studied; Historical Sketches from Original Sources. 77.160
- Fletcher, T. C., ed. Life and Reminiscences of Gen. Wm. T. Sherman, by Distinguished Men of his Time. 94.511
- Fletcher, W. The History and Development of Steam Locomotion on Common Roads.
- The history has been traced from the earliest times, and the book is divided into 12 sections: Introduction, Period of Speculation, of Experiment, of Success, of Application, Modern Period, Practical Notes on Design and Construction of Road Locomotives, Traction Engine Law.
- Gladden, W. Who Wrote the Bible? a Book for the People. 91.670
- "Concerns itself chiefly with those purely natural and human agencies which have been employed in writing, transcribing, editing, preserving, transmitting, translating and publishing the Bible."
- Goodyear, C. A Message to China Decorators. 107.134
- A few notes written for those living where good teachers are not to be had.
- Gordon, Mrs. J. E. H. Decorative Electricity; with a Chapter on Fire Risk by J. E. H. Gordon. 105.420
- Part of the book appeared in the Fortnightly Review, and is now reproduced with the addition of practical details intended to be of assistance to any one wishing to install the electric light into his house.
- Homer, Odyssey; trans. by G. H. Palmer. 55.417
- Lowell, J. S. Note; an Unexplored Corner of Japan. 31.347
- A description of a new region as yet almost unknown by travellers, and of much that it contains of interest.
- Macray, W. D. Annals of the Bodleian Library, Oxford; with a Notice of the Earlier Library of the Univ. 76.201
- A second edition, enlarged and continued to 1880.
- Russell, W. C. The Golden Hope. 63.799
- Story, W. W. Excursions in Art and Letters. 53.413
- Contents: Michel Angelo; Phidias and the Elgin Marbles; Art of casting in Plaster among the ancient Greeks and Romans; Conversation with Marcus Aurelius; Distortions of the English Stage as instanced in "Macbeth."
- Wiltse, S. E. Stories for Kindergarten and Primary Schools. 63.842
- Yeats, J. B. Representative Irish Tales, with Introduction and Notes. 2 vols. 61.771
- E. P. THURSTON, Librarian.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

GLOBE THEATRE—"The Hornets' Nest," an eccentric comedy in three acts, will be presented at the Globe Theatre on Monday evening, May 25, by Mr. John Stetson's own comedy company, for the first time in the "Hub." The piece is said to be one of the best farce comedies of the season. The company includes the following well known artists: Mr. John C. Jennings, Mr. George C. Boniface, Jr., Mr. Richard Carroll, Mr. Al. Fellin, Mr. Ben Lodge, Mr. George Leslie, Mr. Dan Sheehan, Mr. J. J. O'Brien, Mr. Ed. Garvie, Miss George Dickson, Miss Elsie Lombard, Miss Louise Allen and Miss Sadie Kirby.

HOLLIS STREET THEATRE—Mr. Augustin Daly and his splendid comedy company were given a royal welcome at the Hollis Street Theatre, Monday evening, May 18, upon the occasion of the opening night of their annual Boston engagement. The audience was a brilliant and fashionable one, and Miss Adeline Lehman, Miss Isabel Irving, Miss Kitty Cheatham, Mr. John Drew, Mr. James Lewis, Mr. George Clarke and other favorites of the organization were welcomed with great enthusiasm. Miss Rehan achieved a great success in the character of a Russian baroness. On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings and on Wednesday afternoon of next week, "The School for Scandal" will be presented and for the rest of the week "The Taming of the Shrew."

Mr. J. C. Mullaly, the popular musical director at the Hollis Street Theatre, whose services are always so freely given whenever he can aid a good cause, is to have a complimentary benefit at the theatre next Sunday evening, and will present a program which cannot fail to give pleasure to his patrons. He has been fortunate in securing Senor Aurelio Ceruelos, the Spanish piano virtuoso, who is to make his first appearance in Boston, and several distinguished artists, as well as a chorus of 40 voices from the Dorchester Glee Club, Mr. Arthur Thayer, conductor, and a grand orchestra, George H. Hayes, J. C. Mullaly, conductor, Miss Jessie M. Downer, Mr. Leon Keach, accompanists.

TREMONT THEATRE—On Monday next, May 25th, the well-known actress, Miss Lydia Thompson and her company of comedians will appear at the Tremont Theatre, for one week only, in Thomas Addison's musical farce-comedy, "The Dazzler," which has met with great success and afforded plenty of fun to large audiences all over the country. Of the piece a New York paper says: "The second act of 'The Dazzler' is one of the very funniest things that has ever been set before the New York public. Miss Thompson's piece is one of the greatest monetary winners ever known in America. Miss Thompson acts with a spirit, and dances with remarkable grace and agility. Principal in her support is Mr. Joseph Ott, a grotesque young comedian, who took the house by storm with his absurd characterization, Max Miller, Thomas J. Grady, R. S. Nodine, and the other men in the cast were excellent, and Miss Jessie Hatcher, a western prima donna of some note, made a strong success with her singing."

WOMAN'S EDUCATIONAL CLUB.

SECRETARY'S REPORT OF THE WORK THE PAST YEAR.

The West Newton Woman's Educational Club closes its twelfth year with a membership of 200, and many on the waiting list. We shall have held with today's session sixteen meetings. The attendance has ranged from seventeen, our smallest number, to over 200, an average being about 120. Several times we have invited the public to our sessions. At our first meeting in November we arranged that Mr. Washington Baker, the Principal of the Tuskegee Normal school, should present his cause under our auspices. The pupils who accompanied him, sang very acceptably, and some of them gave interesting accounts of their school life. The audience in spite of a severe storm, numbered quite a hundred, considerable interest was aroused and two new scholarships given, one by Mr. E. B. Haskell, the other by the efforts of Mrs. Lovett. An evening meeting was held Feb. 26th, in order that greater opportunity might be given Mr. John Baker, an exiled Pole, to tell his story of the barbarities of Prison life in Siberia. The children of the advanced classes of the Grammar school with their teachers were invited to listen to a lecture on "Our Feathered Neighbors," by Mrs. Kate Tryon, who illustrated her talk with fine water color sketches and made known the bird notes and songs with charming carolings. Fourteen papers have been read by our own members. Mrs. Elliot read "A visit to the Woman's Prison at Sherborn;" Miss Hattie Claffin on "The Passion Play at Ober Ammergau;" Mrs. Phipps, "A Summer near Home" illustrated by water color sketches, the artists being Rev. and Mrs. Phipps; Mrs. Harden, "A Lake in Maine;" Mrs. Hastings, "Memories of Travel;" Mrs. J. F. Fiske, "Warwick and Kenilworth;" Miss Ellis, Mrs. Perrin and Mrs. Gilman contributed to current events; Miss Amelia Davis, "Women of Long Ago;" Mrs. Phipps, "Blanche of Castile;" and "Joan of Arc;" Mrs. Dunbar, "Mary Somerville;" and "Harriett Martineau;" Miss Porter, "Women of the future;" Mrs. L. A. Chapman on a journey to the "Rockies;" and an ascent up Pike's Peak.

Besides these we have had twenty-four papers read in all. One of our largest meetings was when Admiral Kimberly of the Navy, gave us out of his own experience some account of cyclones, including the terrible affair at Samoa. Another large audience greeted that gifted and favorite speaker Mrs. Abba Gould Woolson, when she had Queen Isabella of Spain for her subject. The stormiest day of the year, Dec. 26th, was unfortunately in depriving all, but the seventeen courageous ones, from listening to Mr. Edward Allison, Superintendent of the Blind Asylum in Philadelphia, who discussed informally, but ably on the best methods of teaching the blind. Dr. Elihu S. Pratt, then afterwards, house at Towkesbury came before us in the early spring and read a paper on the "Children of Ishmael." His position giving him great opportunities for observations, and his experience qualifying him to speak on the best methods of reclaiming fallen humanity. We had many invited guests, the taking part in the discussion following the paper were Rev. Mr. White of the Associated Charities, Dr. Nott, Dr. Faunce, Mr. N. T. Allen and Mrs. Abby Davis. The other speakers besides those already mentioned have been Miss Lucia True Ames on "Socialism in England;" Miss E. M. Rowson on "Hereditary;" Miss Harwick of Quincy on Alaska.

Two groups were formed for special study, one under the leadership of Miss Amelia Davis, have with much enthusiasm gained knowledge in regard to Republican government in our own country, taking Bryce's "Commonwealth" for a text book. The art class led first by Mrs. L. G. Pratt, then afterwards by Mrs. Ames have done good work. We have had, including this our annual meeting, four festive occasions. The president's reception at the home of Mrs. Walton, which she hospitably opens and gives cordial greetings to members new and old, at the beginning of the season. It was largely attended, very social and informal. The New Year's reception which the gentlemen are invited, Hon. G. D. Gilman, husband of one of our members, and our representative, favored us with an interesting talk on the Sandwich Islands, illustrated by stereoscopic views, after which refreshments were served. Social life of clubs has been very much stimulated by the recommendations of the federation of clubs to which we belong, and there has been an interchange of courtesies very agreeable and pleasant. Your president and secretary accepted invitations to Hyde Park given by the Thought Club of that place, to Lynn and to Wellesley Hills. The hospitality was cordial and delightful at every place. On April 17, we followed the good example and invited to an afternoon tea the presidents and secretaries of other federated clubs. We had about 25 guests, including that honored one, Mrs. Lucy Stone, who received with our president. It was a delightful sunny afternoon, the pretty homelike parlors of the Congregational chapel were beautifully decorated with ferns, palms and lilies. A speech of welcome was given by our president and some gracious and fitting words by Mrs. Stone. The arrangement of the tables for the light refreshment served reflected great credit on the ladies in charge, Mrs. Nott, Mrs. Humphrey and Mrs. Marsh.

We have maintained the scholarship in the Tuskegee Normal School, Alabama. Interesting letters have been received by Mrs. Edward Burrage, from the pupil aided. At Christmas, barrels of books and clothing were sent to the needy, gratefully acknowledged by Mr. Baker, the principal. Another Southern teacher, Mr. D. B. Allen, was also a grateful recipient of needful clothing, etc.

We hope much from belonging to the already powerful federation of clubs, of which our President is one of the advisory board. It looks towards the future union of all women's clubs. At present it numbers over 80 clubs, aggregating at least 10,000 members. The federation has a committee of correspondence in every state, through whom new clubs are reached.

The biennial meeting will be held in Chicago in the spring of '92. The president, Mrs. Charlotte Emerson Brown, was in Boston in February and received all club women, who called on her, with much cordiality. She was the recipient of attention from many of the clubs, and it has been principally from her suggestion that the clubs near us have extended their hospitalities to each other, thus stimulating our social life and making us mutually helpful, and more like the grand and ideal sisterhood we hope to become. Let it be our aim to make the club a real force in our lives. We have strength and unity of purpose in our organization, if each one could but feel sincerely that personally she has something to do, not merely to absorb, but to give forth. Not to succumb to the re-training influences which hitherto have bound womanhood, but to make the effort for expression, we shall gain earnestness and courage. The influence upon the club would be felt at once, and the reflex influence upon those who make the effort, would be an inspiration. As a club, we are free from the depressing habit of adverse criticism, we do not despise persons, papers or measures, but have a spirit of good fellowship. We have no strivings, no envies or jealousies, and when occasion comes we should here cultivate our courage, speak our convictions, feeling sure of sympathy and sisterly kindness. The thanks of all are due our good president, who has given time, thought and strength, and has made it possible in our village for our women to come together and find in each other so many desirable qualities, that the atmosphere of our club is unity and friendliness. May the coming season find us animated with fresh spirit; may more classes for mutual improvement be formed, more papers by our own members, more unselfishness in giving to those less favored than ourselves.

For when self seeking turns to Love,
Not knowing mind from thine,
The miracle again is wrought,
Life's water turned to wine.

High School Notes.
Capt. Crane of Co. C. has been granted a leave of absence from regular military duties. Lieut. Thomas will take command of the company.

On account of the rain last Saturday the scheduled game between the N. H. S. nine and a nine from the Newton Club did not take place.

The battalion has been invited to attend the memorial service at the Congregational Church, Newton Centre, Sunday evening. All the members are requested to be present.

The following Seniors have the honor of taking part at the graduation exercises. This list is subject to change on the participant's part, but as far as the teachers of the school and the high school committee are concerned, the list will not be changed. Samuel Tyler will deliver the Class Oration, Miss Amy Wires the Class History. The other parts will be essays by Holmes Whitmore, Elizabeth C. Parker, Elizabeth L. Smith, Ida M. Thomson, E. Josephine Tyler, Fletcher B. Coffin and Arthur W. Tarbell. This year the salutatory will be given by a young lady and will be spoken in English instead of Latin.

At the close of the Homoeopathic Fair held in Boston last week, on Saturday evening an informal dance was held at which the high school orchestra provided music.

The battalion will be dismissed at Newton Highlands where the dress parade will take place.

A secondary nine has been organized in the school. This nine will supply men for the regular school nine.

A drum and life corps of thirty members has been organized to play for the battalion on Memorial Day. Practicing commenced last Wednesday evening.

St. Agedore (to his, tailor—"Ah, by the way, you have a fellow to keep accounts, of course?" The Tailor—"Certainly." "Then just have him keep mine a year or so, will you?" Good morning!"—Epoch.

Miss F. (whose parents refuse to recognize her fiancé)—"If you had a daughter, Mr. Hardy, who ran away from home, and married a young man, what would you do to the young man?" Mr. Hardy—"Write him a letter of condolence."—Life.

"Mary," said the lady of the house as the cook was leaving, "I think you are treating me shamefully, leaving without a day's notice." "Indeed, I'm sorry, mum, and if a reference will be of any use to you, mum, I'll give you one cheerfully."—New York Recorder.

Do You Cough?
Don't delay. Take Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. It will cure your coughs and colds. It will cure sore throat or tickling in the throat. It will cure pains in the chest. It will cure influenza and bronchitis and all diseases pertaining to the lungs because it is a pure balsam. Hold it to the light and see how clear and thick it is. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

Cancer Can be Cured, and by Dr. James M. Solomon, Jr., 75 Court St., Boston, Mass.

Boston, Aug. 26, 1890.
Dr. Solomon has cured a cancer on my lip of seventeen years' standing. It was cut out twice, by what they call eminent surgeons, at intervals of six years, after being cut out each time I knew by the feeling it was still there, and it would not be long before it would be as large as to have Dr. Solomon treat it, he did it without any cutting. I would urge those afflicted with cancer not delay, but to go at once and be cured permanently as I have done. My dear Doctor I thank from the bottom of my heart.

JOHN HALLAHAN,
78 Charlestown Street.

Catarrh of the Bladder.
I had been troubled since 1889 with Gravel and Catarrh of the Bladder. Tried several doctors, but got no relief. Finally, at the advice of E. D. W. Parsons, I was prevailed upon to try Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. The result was marvelous. After using a few bottles, was entirely cured. S. N. Arnold, No. 563 Plymouth avenue, Rochester, N. Y.

I Will Never
Allow myself to suffer again what I have suffered for the last year. The vile disease, Dyspepsia, gave me no comfort. I could not eat or enjoy anything. The doctor amounted to nothing; nothing seemed to relieve me, until I used a bottle of Sulphur Bile. Four bottles made me well.—Joseph Batchelder, Master of schooner, C. A. Baker.

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by all who are in want of

STRICTLY ALL-WOOL FABRICS

—FOR—

Ladies', Gent's, Youth's or Children's Wear,

In all Weights and of the Latest hadings and Styles.

The many who have availed themselves of the bargains offered by us in the past can testify to this, and all in want in the future are invited to send for Samples and Prices before supplying themselves elsewhere and be convinced.

All the Remnants and Imperfect goods made at the Assabet Mills also sold by us, and they are offered at PRICES LOWER THAN EVER BEFORE.

Write for samples or give us a Call.

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY,

MAYNARD, MASS.

Water Bugs and Roaches.

CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR EXTERMINATOR

No dust. No trouble to use.

Price, 50c., sent by mail for 60c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

BARNARD & CO.

7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.

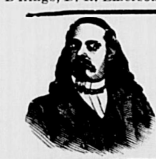

R. A. EVANS & SON,

Dealers in and Manufacturers of

ALL KINDS OF Marble and Granite WORK.

123 HAVERHILL STREET, - BOSTON.

REFERENCES: J. N. Bacon, R. L. Day, C. J. Hatch, C. S. Phillips, C. B. Fillebrown, O. A. B. Hings, D. R. Emerson, Geo. L. Keyes, J. F. C. Hyde, Isaac Sylvester and S. A. D. Sheppard.

Dr. James M. Solomon, Jr.'s Botanical Medical Institute

75 Court St. (Scollay Sq.), Boston, Mass.

INDIAN BOTANICAL REMEDIES

Roots, Herbs, Gums and Barks chiefly used. Dr. Solomon treats all CHRONIC DISEASES, makes a specialty of LUNG TROUBLES, CANCERS, TUMORS, EPILEPTIC FITS, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, ST. VITUS DANCE, SPINAL COMPLAINTS, HEMORRHOIDS OF LUNGS, ECZEMA, AND ALL SKIN DISEASES, KIDNEY AND LIVER TROUBLES AND ALL DISEASES OF THE BLOOD. PILLS AND FISTULA cured without the use of the knife and cure guaranteed. Consultation free.

Ely's Cream Balm For CATARRH
THE POSITIVE CURE.
ELY BROTHERS, 54 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

WEST END STREET RAILWAY COMPANY.

Newton to Bowdoin Square

WEEK DAY TIME.

First car leaves Newton 5.55 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 5.25 P. M., then 5.50 P. M. and every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.

Returning leave Bowdoin square 7.05 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 6.35 P. M., then 7 P. M., and every thirty minutes until 11 P. M.

SUNDAY TIME.

First car leaves Newton 7.50 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.

Returning leave Bowdoin square 8.30 A. M. and every thirty minutes until 11.00 P. M., First car for Boston leaves Watertown at 7.55 A. M.

F. H. MONKS, General Manager.

S. K. MACLEOD

Carpenter and Builder.

Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed.

Bathrooms and Fittings for Plumber's Work a Specialty.

Shop, Centre Place, op. Public Library

Residence, Boyd street, near Jewett.

P. O. Box 656, NEWTON, MASS.

Mrs. ABBIE C. THAYER.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTIST,

19 CHANNING STREET, NEWTON.

Practices Christian Science Mind Healing as taught by Mrs. Mary B. G. Eddy.

T. F. GLENNAN.

Carriage Trimming & Harness MAKING.

BLANKETS, ROBES, WHIPS, &c.

Washington Street, Newton.

J. J. JOHNSON,

FLORIST.

CONSERVATORIES,

School Street, Newton.

Floral Decorations for Weddings, Receptions etc., etc.

Cut Flowers and Bedding Plants.

FRANCIS MURDOCK.

INSURANCE AGENT,

Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT

placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies

Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

Gold Silver Bronze Medals

The highest honors have been awarded for these instruments.

Bay State Gutters,

MANDOLIN'S and BANJOS; also Wm. B. Tilton & Haynes Excelsior Guitars. Send for Catalogue for free.

J. C. HAYNES & CO.,

RICHARD ROWE,

Insurance Agency.

No. 2 Mason Building.

WAT R STREET, - BOSTON

P. O. Box 304, Newtonville. 32

DRUNKENNESS—LIQUOR HABIT—In all the World there is but one cure, Dr. Haines' Golden Siphon.

It can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, effecting a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been cured who have taken the Golden Siphon in their cups without their knowledge, and today believe they quit drinking of their own free will. No harmful effect results from its administration. Cures guaranteed. Send for circular and full particulars. Address in confidence, GOLDEN SIPHON CO., 155 West Street, Cincinnati, O.

McALVIN'S DYSPEPSIA PILLS.

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre
agent for the Graphic, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand-bills, all other kinds of printing. Also, Real estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Read McWain's advertisement.
—C. Farley rents Pianos Wash. St. Newton.
—Mr. C. S. Styles has been washed to Newtonville.

—Mr. Ezra C. Dudley has returned from the west.

—Gardiner Bros. have a new clerk, Mr. C. D. Procter.

—Rev. Lemuel C. Barnes is in Cincinnati for a week or more.

—Mr. J. M. Woodbridge's stable, Beacon street, is being repaired.

—Miss Sylvester of Warren street, is at home again in perfect health.

—Bert Farrar returned from the Newton Cottage Hospital on Wednesday.

—Crystal Lake Division S. of T. visited Wellesley Division Monday evening.

—Mr. Louis Speare is building an addition to his stable on Summer street.

—Mr. Samuel Stone of Assonet has returned to Oak Hill after a short absence.

—The N. C. S. C. hold a dance in Associates small hall, next week, Thursday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Prentice intend moving to Boston the first of June, we hear.

—The carpenters at work on the depot constructed a light skiff during their idle moments which was just about capable of carrying one person. A few days since Joseph Robb, the gate tender at the Station street crossing, made a wager that he could cross Crystal Lake in it, and his wager was at once taken. The skiff was floated, Robb got in and all went well until he was half way across the lake, when the skiff sank and he swam ashore. The carpenters had bored holes in the keel of the skiff before launching.

—The police officers of this side of the city are worthy of praise, having just succeeded in breaking up the notorious Frederick's gang, and last Sunday they raided the place of Wm. Collier, Dedham street, near the Boston line, seizing five cases of beer, two gallons of whisky, and a pint of rum. It has been a resort for West End bums, who have made considerable disturbance on the streets Sundays. The work was done by Officers Fletcher, Purcell, Moulton, and Fuller, and it is hoped the work will continue and entirely break up the liquor nuisance of this city.

—A May festival was held Wednesday afternoon and evening in the order to be held in the afternoon the younger children attended and all had an abundance of ice cream, cake, strawberries and amusement. In the evening supper was served, and an entertainment was given in which the Mandolin and Guitar club participated. The program included a cello solo by Miss Bragdon, a violin solo by her little sister, a doll drill, and "Four and 20" quadrils, the illustrated. The program was a most successful one, and the contents all being there, causing much amusement. A song by Master Willie Watson was especially pleasing.

—The Newtons have materially strengthened their team since the last game at home and are sure to be the victors in the next Saturday will be much superior to any previous effort. The club has secured Hubbard, who was Capt. and catcher of the Yale nine in '83 and '84, and will play second base, also Quackenbush, a Harvard third baseman, who will take that position in the Newtons; and Nichols, the well known pitcher and batsman will play centre field and change catcher. The opening of the Newtons will be Melrose Athletic Club nine who are ball players of a high order and the prospect is very good for an interesting game.

—Mr. James M. Gardiner of the Game-well Company, has leased a house on Lake avenue which is now occupied by the family, consisting of a son and daughter. He has been a resident of New Jersey for 20 years with headquarters at the New York office of the Gamewell Company. He came here to reside in order to be nearer the factory and will prove a valuable accession to the residential population. Mr. Gardiner is the inventor of the Gardiner fire-alarm box, used in all the cities from the City of Cairo to the Golden Gate, and many other important devices incorporated in the Gamewell fire-alarm system. He is a genial and intelligent gentleman, a man who makes friends and keeps them.

—Mr. A. C. Walworth of Centre street, won the clock on the Newton table at the Horticultural Fair last week, in Boston, which was to be awarded to the successful guesser of the number of beans in a bottle. There were 609 beans and Mr. Walworth guessed 607.

—Now that the inside of the post office building has been so nicely renovated and conveniently arranged, why would it not be a good idea for the Newton Centre Improvement Association, whose property the building is, to give the outside a fresh coat of paint.

—There will be a memorial service at the Congregational church, Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Charles Ward Post of the Grand Army, the Sons of Veterans and the High school battalion will be present. The public are cordially invited. Memorial address by the pastor, Rev. Theodore J. Holmes.

—The walk from the station up the hill to Institution avenue is made of cinders something of that nature, and its chief peculiarity is that no one walks on it, but one sees files of ladies and gentlemen going up the hill in the street. Why cannot a tar or board walk be laid instead of a walk so dirty that one is glad to avoid it.

—The "looker on" in the Record speaking of Boston University sports says: "The students are having some degree of success in a tennis tournament, but some of the younger blood in the university are taking all the honors. The easy champion in the singles has proved to be a freshman, E. R. Speare, who has met and vanquished the champion representatives of the professional schools. Speare is a fine looking and popular fellow, and so far as I know, a well known in business circles in this city."

—The carpenters at work on the depot constructed a light skiff during their idle moments which was just about capable of carrying one person. A few days since Joseph Robb, the gate tender at the Station street crossing, made a wager that he could cross Crystal Lake in it, and his wager was at once taken. The skiff was floated, Robb got in and all went well until he was half way across the lake, when the skiff sank and he swam ashore. The carpenters had bored holes in the keel of the skiff before launching.

—The police officers of this side of the city are worthy of praise, having just succeeded in breaking up the notorious Frederick's gang, and last Sunday they raided the place of Wm. Collier, Dedham street, near the Boston line, seizing five cases of beer, two gallons of whisky, and a pint of rum. It has been a resort for West End bums, who have made considerable disturbance on the streets Sundays. The work was done by Officers Fletcher, Purcell, Moulton, and Fuller, and it is hoped the work will continue and entirely break up the liquor nuisance of this city.

—A May festival was held Wednesday afternoon and evening in the order to be held in the afternoon the younger children attended and all had an abundance of ice cream, cake, strawberries and amusement. In the evening supper was served, and an entertainment was given in which the Mandolin and Guitar club participated. The program included a cello solo by Miss Bragdon, a violin solo by her little sister, a doll drill, and "Four and 20" quadrils, the illustrated. The program was a most successful one, and the contents all being there, causing much amusement. A song by Master Willie Watson was especially pleasing.

—The Newtons have materially strengthened their team since the last game at home and are sure to be the victors in the next Saturday will be much superior to any previous effort. The club has secured Hubbard, who was Capt. and catcher of the Yale nine in '83 and '84, and will play second base, also Quackenbush, a Harvard third baseman, who will take that position in the Newtons; and Nichols, the well known pitcher and batsman will play centre field and change catcher. The opening of the Newtons will be Melrose Athletic Club nine who are ball players of a high order and the prospect is very good for an interesting game.

—Mr. James M. Gardiner of the Game-well Company, has leased a house on Lake avenue which is now occupied by the family, consisting of a son and daughter. He has been a resident of New Jersey for 20 years with headquarters at the New York office of the Gamewell Company. He came here to reside in order to be nearer the factory and will prove a valuable accession to the residential population. Mr. Gardiner is the inventor of the Gardiner fire-alarm box, used in all the cities from the City of Cairo to the Golden Gate, and many other important devices incorporated in the Gamewell fire-alarm system. He is a genial and intelligent gentleman, a man who makes friends and keeps them.

—Mr. A. C. Walworth of Centre street, won the clock on the Newton table at the Horticultural Fair last week, in Boston, which was to be awarded to the successful guesser of the number of beans in a bottle. There were 609 beans and Mr. Walworth guessed 607.

—Now that the inside of the post office building has been so nicely renovated and conveniently arranged, why would it not be a good idea for the Newton Centre Improvement Association, whose property the building is, to give the outside a fresh coat of paint.

—There will be a memorial service at the Congregational church, Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Charles Ward Post of the Grand Army, the Sons of Veterans and the High school battalion will be present. The public are cordially invited. Memorial address by the pastor, Rev. Theodore J. Holmes.

—The walk from the station up the hill to Institution avenue is made of cinders something of that nature, and its chief peculiarity is that no one walks on it, but one sees files of ladies and gentlemen going up the hill in the street. Why cannot a tar or board walk be laid instead of a walk so dirty that one is glad to avoid it.

—The "looker on" in the Record speaking of Boston University sports says: "The students are having some degree of success in a tennis tournament, but some of the younger blood in the university are taking all the honors. The easy champion in the singles has proved to be a freshman, E. R. Speare, who has met and vanquished the champion representatives of the professional schools. Speare is a fine looking and popular fellow, and so far as I know, a well known in business circles in this city."

—The carpenters at work on the depot constructed a light skiff during their idle moments which was just about capable of carrying one person. A few days since Joseph Robb, the gate tender at the Station street crossing, made a wager that he could cross Crystal Lake in it, and his wager was at once taken. The skiff was floated, Robb got in and all went well until he was half way across the lake, when the skiff sank and he swam ashore. The carpenters had bored holes in the keel of the skiff before launching.

—The police officers of this side of the city are worthy of praise, having just succeeded in breaking up the notorious Frederick's gang, and last Sunday they raided the place of Wm. Collier, Dedham street, near the Boston line, seizing five cases of beer, two gallons of whisky, and a pint of rum. It has been a resort for West End bums, who have made considerable disturbance on the streets Sundays. The work was done by Officers Fletcher, Purcell, Moulton, and Fuller, and it is hoped the work will continue and entirely break up the liquor nuisance of this city.

—A May festival was held Wednesday afternoon and evening in the order to be held in the afternoon the younger children attended and all had an abundance of ice cream, cake, strawberries and amusement. In the evening supper was served, and an entertainment was given in which the Mandolin and Guitar club participated. The program included a cello solo by Miss Bragdon, a violin solo by her little sister, a doll drill, and "Four and 20" quadrils, the illustrated. The program was a most successful one, and the contents all being there, causing much amusement. A song by Master Willie Watson was especially pleasing.

—The Newtons have materially strengthened their team since the last game at home and are sure to be the victors in the next Saturday will be much superior to any previous effort. The club has secured Hubbard, who was Capt. and catcher of the Yale nine in '83 and '84, and will play second base, also Quackenbush, a Harvard third baseman, who will take that position in the Newtons; and Nichols, the well known pitcher and batsman will play centre field and change catcher. The opening of the Newtons will be Melrose Athletic Club nine who are ball players of a high order and the prospect is very good for an interesting game.

—Mr. James M. Gardiner of the Game-well Company, has leased a house on Lake avenue which is now occupied by the family, consisting of a son and daughter. He has been a resident of New Jersey for 20 years with headquarters at the New York office of the Gamewell Company. He came here to reside in order to be nearer the factory and will prove a valuable accession to the residential population. Mr. Gardiner is the inventor of the Gardiner fire-alarm box, used in all the cities from the City of Cairo to the Golden Gate, and many other important devices incorporated in the Gamewell fire-alarm system. He is a genial and intelligent gentleman, a man who makes friends and keeps them.

—Mr. A. C. Walworth of Centre street, won the clock on the Newton table at the Horticultural Fair last week, in Boston, which was to be awarded to the successful guesser of the number of beans in a bottle. There were 609 beans and Mr. Walworth guessed 607.

—Now that the inside of the post office building has been so nicely renovated and conveniently arranged, why would it not be a good idea for the Newton Centre Improvement Association, whose property the building is, to give the outside a fresh coat of paint.

—There will be a memorial service at the Congregational church, Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Charles Ward Post of the Grand Army, the Sons of Veterans and the High school battalion will be present. The public are cordially invited. Memorial address by the pastor, Rev. Theodore J. Holmes.

—The walk from the station up the hill to Institution avenue is made of cinders something of that nature, and its chief peculiarity is that no one walks on it, but one sees files of ladies and gentlemen going up the hill in the street. Why cannot a tar or board walk be laid instead of a walk so dirty that one is glad to avoid it.

—The "looker on" in the Record speaking of Boston University sports says: "The students are having some degree of success in a tennis tournament, but some of the younger blood in the university are taking all the honors. The easy champion in the singles has proved to be a freshman, E. R. Speare, who has met and vanquished the champion representatives of the professional schools. Speare is a fine looking and popular fellow, and so far as I know, a well known in business circles in this city."

—The carpenters at work on the depot constructed a light skiff during their idle moments which was just about capable of carrying one person. A few days since Joseph Robb, the gate tender at the Station street crossing, made a wager that he could cross Crystal Lake in it, and his wager was at once taken. The skiff was floated, Robb got in and all went well until he was half way across the lake, when the skiff sank and he swam ashore. The carpenters had bored holes in the keel of the skiff before launching.

—The police officers of this side of the city are worthy of praise, having just succeeded in breaking up the notorious Frederick's gang, and last Sunday they raided the place of Wm. Collier, Dedham street, near the Boston line, seizing five cases of beer, two gallons of whisky, and a pint of rum. It has been a resort for West End bums, who have made considerable disturbance on the streets Sundays. The work was done by Officers Fletcher, Purcell, Moulton, and Fuller, and it is hoped the work will continue and entirely break up the liquor nuisance of this city.

—A May festival was held Wednesday afternoon and evening in the order to be held in the afternoon the younger children attended and all had an abundance of ice cream, cake, strawberries and amusement. In the evening supper was served, and an entertainment was given in which the Mandolin and Guitar club participated. The program included a cello solo by Miss Bragdon, a violin solo by her little sister, a doll drill, and "Four and 20" quadrils, the illustrated. The program was a most successful one, and the contents all being there, causing much amusement. A song by Master Willie Watson was especially pleasing.

—The Newtons have materially strengthened their team since the last game at home and are sure to be the victors in the next Saturday will be much superior to any previous effort. The club has secured Hubbard, who was Capt. and catcher of the Yale nine in '83 and '84, and will play second base, also Quackenbush, a Harvard third baseman, who will take that position in the Newtons; and Nichols, the well known pitcher and batsman will play centre field and change catcher. The opening of the Newtons will be Melrose Athletic Club nine who are ball players of a high order and the prospect is very good for an interesting game.

—Mrs. Kendall on Monday, accompanied her daughters to Norton, where they will enter Wheaton Seminary, and on her return left with her husband and son for New York, and will make a voyage to China.

—The Monday Club will meet with Mrs. Pike next week. This is the last meeting before the vacation. Mrs. S. A. Hood will speak at this meeting on "The Dramatic Art of Shakespeare as Illustrated in Macbeth."

—Mr. J. F. Edmonds has had his residence finely painted, also the house just vacated by Mr. R. F. Butler, Jr., belonging to the Edmonds estate, and Mr. S. D. Whittemore is having his fine residence served in the same manner.

Pio Margiotta, one of C. H. Hale's Italians, was struck and killed while crossing the Eliot street bridge Tuesday morning. He was walking with four companions and became confused at the two trains passing and was killed by the inward express.

—Fences on the street line are disappearing. Mr. C. F. Johnson has removed one from the front of his estate, and Mr. Amasa Crafts, who has an eye to improvement, has done the same, making a much improved appearance, also a source of supply for kindling wood.

—The first spring outing of the Fishing Club occurred on Wednesday. Sawin's Grove was the place of rendezvous. Mr. F. B. Spear took the party by his Tally Ho coach, and were accompanied by a band of music. The day was rainy, but everything else was well done, and all had a merry time.

—The annual strawberry festival given by the Sewing Circle of the Congregational church will be held next Wednesday evening, 27th inst., at Lincoln Hall, 745 o'clock. They will present at the same time the charming cantata, "Daisy Maid's Supper," and all who attend may reckon on having a delightful time.

—A reception was given by the M. E. society to Rev. and Mrs. Frank Borton, last Tuesday evening in the parlors of the Highland Club. After the guests were presented, refreshments were served, followed by music, and the reading of a poem by Mrs. C. E. Clark. Mr. Borton responded in a cordial speech, and the rest of the evening was spent in a social way.

—The church of the Holy Trinity, a large number of people were present including some other clergymen from other churches in the city. Mr. Borton has moved into a house on Floral avenue. He will preach next Sunday evening the third in his series of sermons, this one to be "Brotherly Kindness."

—The church of the Holy Trinity, a large number of people were present including some other clergymen from other churches in the city. Mr. Borton has moved into a house on Floral avenue. He will preach next Sunday evening the third in his series of sermons, this one to be "Brotherly Kindness."

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Mr. A. J. Grover is ill with the grippe.

—Edward Newell is riding a new bicycle.

—Officer Dugan was on duty Wednesday afternoon.

—Haggerty Bros. have a handsome new order wagon.

—Chas. Harding of Hickey's Paper Mill, is again at his desk.

—Mr. George Thompson will build a house on Cheney street.

—Mrs. H. D. Burk of New York is visiting at Mr. John A. Gould's.

—Miss Nan M. Bruce is with her mother who is quite ill at Rock Bottom.

—The cellar is completed for Swift F. A. Flaherty's new house, Eliot street.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hale contemplate a European trip this coming summer.

—Strawberries and early vegetables suffered badly from the frost Monday night.

—One of our local wrestlers is trying to arrange a match with Providence parties.

—Nineteen of the members of the Friendly Aid society received their $100 on Friday last.

—The Guardian Endowment Society are arranging for a strawberry supper at Quonabequin hall.

—Supt. Whaler of Hickey's Paper Mill has given place to Mr. H. Hopkins of Holyoke, Mass.

—Contractor Mullen has completed the foot platform for Petter Machine Works on Main street.

—Mr. Frank Fanning attended the funeral of Mrs. Fanning's father, Mr. Guilford, this week in Monson.

—Mr. Edward Begley has returned from Florida much improved in health after his winter's sojourn there.

—Night watchman Bowker of the Newton Rubber Co., has resumed business after an illness of four weeks.

—Mr. Edward Lees will build a new house opposite ex-Alderman Petter's residence, commencing this week.

—Mr. C. E. Hussey of the Prospect school will go to Europe next month as assistant conductor of a European party.

—Mr. William Dyson attended the funeral of his place, Sunday, at Olneyville, Ct.

—Supt. E. C. Frost of the U. S. Fire-works Co., was agreeably surprised this week when the employees of the works presented him with a handsome new roll-top desk.

—Contractor Staples and his carpenters have been at work this week sheathing the two new stores in Lowe's Block, and they will be ready for occupancy by the first of next week.

—The building boom has never for years been as great as it is this spring. There are two houses now in process of construction in the village and nearly as many more will be erected.

—Officer Purcell has been hard at work this week. Sunday he was one of the principals in the raiding and securing evidence against Wm. Collier of Oak Hill, and Wednesday afternoon he went fishing in the river with the Newton Highlands Fishing Club.

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

—Mrs. Duval, an old lady who had lived to be 101 years and 11 months old, died at the residence of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingham, on Wednesday noon, the end

—The Episcopians of our village have begun organization. It is rumored that the ladies are making ready for a strawberry festival to be held about June 1st. The sacrament of holy baptism was administered last Sunday at the regular 4 o'clock service.

Plants For Sale!

A large collection of Palms, Ferns, Chrysanthemums, Etc.

DOYLE'S CONSERVATORIES,

Formerly Hovey's, Cambridge Street, Cambridge

WM. E. DOYLE, 43 Tremont St., Boston.

SUMMER SEASON '91.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XIX.—NO. 34.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MAY 29 1891.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR.

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE,
237 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton
Hours—Until 9 A. M., 1 to 3 p. m.

Dr. F. L. McINTOSH,
Corner of Washington and Jewett St.
(Office of the late Dr. Keith.)
Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home
until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. P. Wesselhoft, and Dr.
James B. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 40-2.

Dr. D. E. BAKER,
227 Walnut Street, Newtonville.
Office Hours: 2 to 4 P. M. and evenings (except Tuesdays and Fridays), 7 to 8.
At Newton Lower Falls
Tuesday and Friday evenings, 7 to 9.
Telephone, Newtonville, 26-4.

F. M. SHERMAN, M. D.
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,
NEWTON LOWER FALLS.
OFFICE HOURS: Until 9 A. M.; 12 to 2 and 7 to 8
Telephone 25-3 West Newton. 14

Mr. H. B. DAY,
TEACHER OF

PIANO-FORTE, CHURCH ORGAN

HARMONY,
Counterpoint and Composition.

Address 150 Tremont Street, Boston, or Hotel
Runnells, Newton. 33 y

Shirts Made to Order!

By E. B. BLACKWELL,
4 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.
Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place
as will suit their convenience.
Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands,
15c.; Cuffs, 30c.; Collars, 25c.; Centre
Plaits, 25c.
Easily fitting shirts made to fit well. 48

CREAM.

THE FAMOUS

Turner Centre Cream,

FOR SALE BY

G. P. ATKINS.

Ten Cents for One-Half Pint.

Miss E. J. SPARHAWK

will receive pay, in

WATER COLOR, OIL PAINTING

and CHINA DECORATION.

Terms and particulars on application.

1-6m Homer Street, Newton Centre.

HOWARD B. COFFIN

DEALER IN

FINE TEAS and

BEST COFFEES

AND NEWTON AGENT FOR

DEERFOOT - FARM - PRODUCTS.

363, 361 Centre and 4, 6 Hall Sts.

COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON.

TRY THE PERFECT FLOUR

Pride of Newton.

It always gives Satisfaction.

For Sale Only by

C. O. TUCKER & CO.,

Opposite Depot, Newton.

NOW THE

PARTY - SEASON

Has returned. We are prepared to receive

Orders for

Parties, Receptions, Weddings,

Lunches, Etc.

We have just received from New York, a lot

FANCY MOULDS OF FANCY ICES.

ALL KINDS OF

ICE CREAMS and SHERBET. CAKE in

Variety. WEDDING CAKE a Specialty.

SALTED ALMONDS, CANDIES

and BON BONS of all kinds may be found

PAXTON'S,

Eliot Block, - Newton.

JOB PRINTING

GRAPHIC OFFICE.

Putnam's "Pavonia."

A NOCTURNE IN WHITE AND BRASS.

UTILITY, BEAUTY AND VALUE

Are combined in this Brass and White Bedstead,

which is the acme of

Comfort, Strength, Lightness and Cleanliness, Convenience, Elegance.

It never wears out; is perfectly made, easily

Manufactured expressly to meet the wants of

those seeking a thoroughly reliable, comfortable

bedstead at a reasonable price.

PRICE WITH WOVEN WIRE SPRING:

6x4x3, 6x4x3 1/2, 6x4x4, 6x4x4 1/2,

$12.75, $12.75, $13.75, $13.75.

PUTNAM & CO.,

546 Washington Street, Boston.

EXCLUSIVE DESIGNS

Silver, Brass & Iron Bedsteads.

FINE BEDDING

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

MATTRESSES, SPRING

BEDS, BOLSTERS,

PILOWS, ETC., REMADE AND

RENOVATED

BY THE MOST IMPROVED PROCESS.

PUTNAM & CO.,

546 Washington St.

BOSTON.

GRAND SUCCESS

—OF THE—

NEW STORE

Since Our Opening Day.

We sell all our Hats direct from the Manufacturer, and can save

You from 75 Cents to $1.00 on every Hat you purchase of us.

Visit Our Store and see if we are not correct when we sell

$4.00 Hat, Our Price, $3.00; $3.50 Hat, Our Price $2.50;

$3.00 Hat, Our Price, $2.25; $2.50 Hat, Our Price $2.00;

$2.00 Hat, Our Price $1.50.

Hats made to order without extra charge.

SORRENTO,

685 MAIN STREET, opposite MOODY STREET,

WALTHAM.

Spring Opening.

HIGH CLASS TAILORING

—FOR—

GENTLEMEN,

—AT—

MODERATE PRICES.

We make a specialty this season

of very neat and stylish Business

Suits from English fancy cassi-

meres or Scotch material, at $35

and upward. Business Trouser-ings at $9.00 and upwards.

NOTE—Being Practical Tailors

and Cutters, with a long experience in London, we pay personal attention to the cutting and

fitting of every garment. Also all

our garments are made up on the premises under our constant

supervision, thus enabling us to give the very best results to our patrons, at a price about 25 percent lower than the same class of

tailoring elsewhere.

INSPECTION INVITED.

ALLAND BROS.,

TAILORS and IMPORTERS,

3 PARK STREET, BOSTON.

Street Floor. 26

WE HAVE BOUGHT

A Large Lot of

First - Class - Furniture,

SECOND HAND,

and now is your time to get a Bargain.

COME AND SEE OUR STOCK.

BENT'S

Furniture and Carpet Rooms,

Main Street, Watertown,

C. S. DECKER,

Custom Tailor

326 Centre Street,

NEWTON, - MASS.

Scientific Dress Cutting.

Mrs. M. S. MUGRIDGE,

28 Richardson St., Newton.

Evening costumes a specialty. 17

Mrs. F. A. THOMSON,

MILLINERY.

Mourning orders will receive prompt attention.

Hats dyed and pressed

Centre Street, : NEWTON, MASS,

OPPOSITE BANK.

NEWTON.

C. Farley rents pianos, Wash. St. Newton.

The grocery stores and markets will be closed tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Gertude Lovell will spend the summer travelling in Germany.

G. P. Atkins now sells the Turner

Centre cream, at 10 cents a half pint.

Mrs. B. S. Luther and Miss Luther have engaged rooms at the Pemberton for the summer.

Dr. Jewell has had plans drawn for a handsome house on his new lot on Hunne-well avenue.

Mr. Henry E. Cobb has been chosen a director of the American Congregational

Association.

The Golden Shield will be visited by the Supreme Officers Monday evening at Warner's Hall.

Work has begun on the new house Mrs.

Rogers is having built on the corner of Franklin and Centre street.

The annual June Festival of the Eliot church and Sunday school will be held on the second Thursday in June.

The Nation's Defenders will be the topic of Rev. Mr. McKewen's address Sunday night at the Methodist church.

Mrs. K. L. Stevenson was one of the speakers at the New England Woman

Suffrage Association's meeting, Wednesday night.

Maj. Geo. H. Benyon was one of the judges at the English high school drill held in Mechanic's Hall, Boston, Wednesday

evening.

The Newton Tennis Club has never seen a more prosperous season than at present. The club now numbers over thirty members.

Miss Etta Cleveland is singing tempoorarily in the quartet at the Brighton

Congregational church and has been offered a permanent engagement.

Mr. John Souther of Hotel Hunnewell

has bought a fine lot on Fairmount avenue and will build this summer a handsome house for his own residence.

The Newton Ramblers held its semi-monthly meeting last Saturday. The room was towards Canton and Sharon, where many pleasant events took place.

The Newton Street Railway carried over six thousand passengers last Sunday, and Superintendent Henderson expects to make it ten thousand before the summer is over.

Mr. Stanley has begun work on his new house on Franklin street, and Mr.

Chas. E. Eddy has the plans drawn for a very attractive house near Mr. Weston's residence.

The Waban Racquet Club expect to play on its new ground, on Boyd street, tomorrow. The grounds have been rolled and seeded, with the exception of a space for two gravel courts.

Harry R. Mason received the degree

Ph. G. at the graduating exercises of the Mass. College of Pharmacy. It was conferred by Dr. D. Shepherd, the President of the Institution.

The chorists of Grace church attended the Choir Festival at Lynn on Wednesday. There were about 400 singers in the procession, the largest gathering of vested choirs ever held in Massachusetts.

The sewer excavators are now at work on Nonantum place, and Nonantum and Bacon streets and both streets are rolled impassable, but the work is pushed so rapidly that the inconvenience is only temporary.

The Newton high school drum corps will turn out thirty strong tomorrow at the parade. This is the largest drum corps of young men ever organized for such an occasional, and it promises to do some good work.

The Newton City Market will close at

1 o'clock, Decoration Day. S. F. Atwood says Penobscot salmon or none, he is going to buy the best. Penobscot, the Decoration Day, salmon and green peas will be in order.

People are already talking about the Fourth, and it is hoped to get up an even more elaborate celebration in Nonantum

Square than last year. All the business men in the vicinity are interested, and in a few weeks the hat will be passed round.

A memorial service will take place in the Bigelow school this afternoon. Mr.

S. E. Morse, Chaplain of Post 62, G. A. R.

and Rev. F. J. Holmes of Newton Centre will give a talk to the children. Patriotic music and other exercises of interest have been arranged.

The Channing Guild will celebrate its second anniversary Thursday evening, June

4, in Channing church. Service will be held in the church at 7.30 to which the public is cordially invited. Informal exercises will follow in the parlors for members and delegates.

The Eliot Ladies' Foreign Missionary society held its last meeting for this season at the Eliot church parlors, Tuesday afternoon. There was a large number of ladies present and the subject of the talk was

Africa. Miss Cobb read an interesting paper on Dr. Alexander DeKay, missionary at Uganda.

The May sodale of the Eliot choir was held last Saturday evening after the usual rehearsal. Several invited friends lent their presence, and after the refreshments for the body came a very pleasant treat and entertainment in the excellent readings by Miss Johnson and solos by Mr. E. P. Marsh, Mrs. Gross and Mr. Dunham, the director.

Music in Grace church on Sunday

night.

Processional. H. W. Parker.

"O 'Twas a Joyful Sound" Barnby.

Two Service Anthems. H. B. Day.

Offertory Anthem. H. B. Day.

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB. The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the Tariff, is cordially invited to take part in the discussions carried on in this column. The Reform Club, under the leadership of its President, Mr. J. H. Duvall, will give to all those who desire to see the Tariff reformed, the opportunity of expressing their views on the subject. The Reform Club, under the leadership of its President, Mr. J. H. Duvall, will give to all those who desire to see the Tariff reformed, the opportunity of expressing their views on the subject.

Exclusion of Mexican Ores.

[From the Engineering and Mining Journal.] Many of those who a year ago advocated the exclusion of Mexican ores now desire to see that Chinese policy abandoned and the law repealed. The majority of miners have had their eyes opened to the manner in which they were deceived by the cunning beneficiaries of the present law.

The far-reaching effects of this bad law are not easily removed, and even if the tax on Mexican lead were to-day revoked, and it is not likely that there would be much opposition to this, it would take a long time to overcome the mischief which it has worked.

American mining men, familiar with Mexico, are unanimous in the opinion that nothing else could have so greatly contributed toward the development of a Mexican metallurgical industry as this tax upon the raw material which Mexico was exporting to the United States for treatment. Appreciating this fact, it is now possible that, were the United States to remove this import duty, Mexico would impose an export tax in order to continue the work of developing Mexican metallurgy, which our high-tariff advocates so stupidly inaugurated.

While Mexican ore formerly came to the United States to be smelted and refined, Mexican bullion will now go to Europe to be refined; foreign ships will carry it instead of American railways, and Mexican credit balances, transferred to Europe from the United States, will be restored by exports of European, instead of American, merchandise to Mexico.

It needs little argument now in Colorado to convince our dry-ore miners that the effect of excluding Mexican lead ores has been to increase greatly the smelters' charges, while since the price of silver has gone back where it was before this advance, they are getting no more for their ore than they did before. The voters are evidently changing to the other side of this question in Colorado, and it is reasonable to expect that some of the chief advocates of the Chinese policy will soon follow them.

The Real Authors.

New testimony as to the real authors of the McKinley bill continues to come out. Mr. Oliver of Pittsburg has stated that the metal schedule of the law was substantially as the manufacturers had prepared it, and Representative Bayne, of that city, claimed a re-nomination on the ground of his success in getting the law fixed to suit the manufacturers of his district. We have the statement of the agent himself and of members of the ways and means committee that the glass schedule was fixed up after repeated consultations between Major McKinley and an agent of the glass manufacturers, Judge William Lawrence, a wool raiser, ostentatiously claims the authorship of the wool schedule and is loudly chuckling over his smartness in getting the better of the manufacturers, with whom he was supposed to be in alliance, in regard to goat's hair and the sorting of carpet wools. We have had a general statement from ex-Speaker Reed that the rates were all fixed in accordance with the wishes of the men who were to make money out of them, and we have from the other side the testimony of Mr. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, that when a tariff bill is pending Congress is besieged by the people who hope to make money directly out of taxation. That is a very simple way to make a tariff, but it is not calculated to please those out of whom the money is to be made.

Wool, Shoddy and Cotton.

The Dry Goods Economist of New York has begun a series of analyses of the chief productions in woollen goods of the American woolen and worsted manufacturers, as a means of indicating how it is that the tariff duties upon wool affect them, and the means they adopt of getting around these obstacles to trade. One class of manufacturers taken for this analysis are the worsted fabrics manufactured by Messrs. Thomas Dolan & Co., whose Mr. Dolan is the president of the Manufacturers' Club of Philadelphia, and who has the credit of being one of the most influential parties in securing the passage of the wool schedules of the McKinley bill. The effect of the change in the wool schedule was to increase the price of imported wool and to restrict the American manufacturer in his selection and use of this article. The Dry Goods Economist says: "Messrs. Dolan & Co. have sold in large quantities this season a worsted fabric weighing twenty-two to twenty-three ounces, varying in price from a piece dyed solid black at $1.50 to fancy weaves at $1.72 1/2 to those containing silk twist at $1.75. The fabric is composed of a worsted warp made from delaine wool, which entirely composes the face of the cloth, and constitutes 28 per cent. of its weight. The filling makes the balance of 72 per cent. of cotton and shoddy, in the proportion of 92 1/2 per cent. of cotton to 7 1/2 per cent. of shoddy." "A finer fabric of the same order is a fancy trousering selling at $2.42 1/2, to all appearance a solid worsted fabric, both face and back. The fabric is of a class known as filling cord stripe, having a slight mixture of silk twist between the cords. The worsted is of three-eighths and delaine stock, yet every alternate pick of filling is cotton, as is also the warp between the filling cord and the back warp. Thus we have a cloth which every one but an expert would call an all-wool cloth, yet containing 21 per cent. of cotton and 79 per cent. of worsted." It is to devices such as this that the restrictions of the tariff drive the American manufacturers.

No Matter How Hard

any druggist sell tries to his own cough medicine, remember he does it because he makes more money on it. In fact, he is selling you a placebo for the throat and lungs, for there is no cough medicine so pure and none so quick to break up a cold. For influenza, soreness of the throat and tickling irritation with constant cough, Kemp's Balsam is an immediate cure. Large bottles 50c, and $1. At all druggists.

MEMORIAL DAY ORDER.

Headquarters Chas. Ward Post, No. 62, Dept. of Mass., G. A. R., Newtonville, May 21, 1891.

In accordance with the rules and regulations of our order, and in compliance with General Order No. 22 from National Headquarters, and General Order No. 4 from Department Headquarters, Saturday, May 30, will be observed as Memorial Day.

Comrades of Wards 1 and 7 are detailed to decorate the graves of comrades R. H. Newell, Burnham, army nurse, unknown; Revolutionary, William Hull, E. Brown in the Centre street cemetery, Newton, and will report to Officer of the Guard Twitchell, at the Newton depot at 8 a. m.

Comrades of Ward 3 are detailed to decorate the grave of Chas. Jones, 15th Mass. Inf'y, and will report to Officer of the Day Langley, at City Hall, West Newton, at 8 a. m.

Comrades of Wards 5 and 6 are detailed to decorate the graves of C. S. Brown, Co. F, 1st Mass. Inf.; E. Cornish, N. Y. Inf.; C. H. Duvall, Co. H, 2d Mass. Cav. one unknown; Revolutionary, Thos. Petee, Jeremiah Wiswall, Jr., and will report to Junior Vice Com. Moulton, at Evergreen cemetery, Newton Highlands, at 8.45 a. m. Barge will leave Upper Falls at 8 a. m., Newton Centre at 8.30.

J. Wiley Edmonds Camp, No. 100, Sons of Veterans, having volunteered their services, are detailed to decorate the graves of J. Wiley Edmonds and J. C. Edmonds at Mt. Auburn. All comrades will be present to decorate the graves of L. Arnold, F. Beaury, F. W. Perkins, Chas. Jones, U. S. N., John Whitton, 1st Mass. Cav.; C. F. Hooker, Co. L, 4th Mass. Cav.; Thos. Hayden, 3d Mass. Cav.; Zenas A. Crane, Geo. N. Hill, W. E. Jordan, Co. B, 44th Mass. Inf.; W. W. Eaton, 1st Mass. Inf.; J. L. Flagg, 16th Mass. Inf.; A. A. Kendall, assistant surgeon 12th Mass. Inf.; G. T. Perkins, surgeon, 26th Mass. Inf.; H. F. Flagg, Revolutionary, Z. E. Hooker, and are ordered to report to Senior Vice Com. W. T. Shepherd, at Newton Lower Falls, at 10 a. m.

Senior Vice Commander Shepherd will have charge of the exercises and decoration of the graves in St. Mary's cemetery. Barge will leave Bank Square, Newton, at 9 a. m., Post hall, Newtonville, 9.15, City hall, West Newton, 9.30, Auburn depot, 9.45.

All comrades will report to the Commander at headquarters, Newtonville, at 11.45 a. m. Dinner Call at 12 m.

Post will form at 1.15 p. m., and report to H. W. Downs, Chief Marshal, and proceed to the Newton cemetery as designated by the following General Order No. 2, of H. W. Downs, Chief Marshal: First: The Commanders of organizations who are to participate in the Memorial Day Parade, with Chas. Ward Post, No. 62, Dept. of Mass., G. A. R., on Saturday, May 30, 1891, will report to Maj. Geo. H. Benyon, Chief of Staff, at 1.30 p. m. sharp, and be assigned positions in line.

Second: Headquarters will be established in Newtonville Square at 1.15 p. m. Third: Line will be formed on Walnut street, right resting on Watertown street, and will move promptly at 2 o'clock, over the following route: Walnut to Washington street to City Hall, and receive His Honor the Mayor and City Government, thence via Chestnut, Valentine and Walnut streets to Newton cemetery. After the Memorial exercises by the Post, line will reform and march via Walnut and Beacon streets to Newton Centre; counter-march in square to Lake avenue, thence direct to Newton Highlands, where dress parade will be held and command dismissed.

The following comrades are detailed to act as color guard, representing the Navy: S. E. Shattuck, J. Pickens, T. Pickthall, W. A. Ayles. The following comrades are detailed to act as color guard, representing the Army: C. M. Kimball, W. W. Wood, O. W. Gray, H. Carter, who will be under the command of Officer of Guard Twitchell.

All soldiers and sailors, whether comrades of the G. A. R. or not, are invited to participate in the exercises of the day. Officer of the Day Langley will have charge of the barge. Comrade W. A. Vetterbee will have charge of the flowers. C. W. SWEETLAND, Commander.

Official. E. GOTT, Adj.

"OUR NEW NEIGHBORS."

HOW A GOSSIP BUBBLE AT NEWTON WAS BURST.

May is the month for moving, and the air in many localities is full of stories about "Our new neighbors." One of them is an ancient family at Newton says an imaginative writer in the Boston Herald. A house there in one of the fashionable streets was rented by some people whom no one in the town knew. Naturally the curiosity of the neighbors was aroused, and the first thing that got about concerning them was that, although they had the whole house, they lived in two rooms. Servants got acquainted sooner than their mistresses; mistresses often heard gossip from their servants; and it was in this way that the rumor got abroad.

First calls were not made with alacrity, but one day a neighbor who was a bit kinder hearted than some of her friends declared that she would no longer be so heathenish, but would make a neighborly call on Mrs. K., who certainly was an attractive looking woman. The call proved highly agreeable, for besides being a cordial and interesting hostess, Mrs. K. had in her house many curious and rare objects of art, which the guest could not refrain from openly admiring.

Admiration led to closer examination of some of the beautiful things, and Mrs. K. told many interesting incidents in connection with her treasures which had come to her from foreign shores through her grandfather, who was a sea captain.

As Mrs. H. rose to go, Mrs. K. said she would like to show her what she esteemed the most precious of her curios, and she led the way to the dining room, where on a table by itself stood a rare old punch bowl.

"A green servant that I had when I first came here," laughed Mrs. K., "asked me why I had a wash bowl in my dining room."

Mrs. H.'s excess of amusement over this last remark had a deeper meaning than Mrs. K. knew. From a wash bowl in a dining room a gossip can easily evolve a tale of life in two rooms, and so it was that the rumor was started about "our new neighbors" living in two rooms.

ARTHUR HUDSON. Analytical and Pharmaceutical CHEMIST AND APOTHECARY

(28 years experience in the business.)
WARNER'S LOCK, NEWTON
Cor. Centre and Elmwood streets.

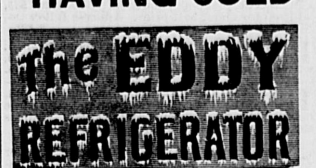

A full line of Chemicals of Standard Purity always in stock.
Physicians' prescriptions compounded with accuracy at all hours.
Proprietary Medicines and Druggists' Sundries.

CHEMISTRY.

With a large and thoroughly appointed Laboratory, Mr. Hudson offers his services in the line of his profession. Investigation as to the composition of matter conducted by analyses of syntheses, according to most approved methods. Analysis of potable waters, milk, etc., a specialty.

The Senior Druggist of Newton.
TELEPHONE 7978.

HAVING SOLD

In Newton, for the past 22 years is sufficient guarantee that they are the Best.

Call and examine them before purchasing a refrigerator and avoid regret and waste.

Old Refrigerators relined and repaired at short notice.

CELEBRATED MAGEE MYSTIC RANGES

and BOSTON HEATER FURNACES
always on hand.

Stoves Ranges and Furnaces cleaned and repaired; repairs for all makes furnished on order.

Tin Roofing, Conductor Work and General Jobbing promptly attended to and in a workman like manner.

JOHN S. SUMNER,

352 Centre Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

Post will form at 1.15 p. m., and report to H. W. Downs, Chief Marshal, and proceed to the Newton cemetery as designated by the following General Order No. 2, of H. W. Downs, Chief Marshal:

First: The Commanders of organizations who are to participate in the Memorial Day Parade, with Chas. Ward Post, No. 62, Dept. of Mass., G. A. R., on Saturday, May 30, 1891, will report to Maj. Geo. H. Benyon, Chief of Staff, at 1.30 p. m. sharp, and be assigned positions in line.

Second: Headquarters will be established in Newtonville Square at 1.15 p. m.

Third: Line will be formed on Walnut street, right resting on Watertown street, and will move promptly at 2 o'clock, over the following route: Walnut to Washington street to City Hall, and receive His Honor the Mayor and City Government, thence via Chestnut, Valentine and Walnut streets to Newton cemetery.

After the Memorial exercises by the Post, line will reform and march via Walnut and Beacon streets to Newton Centre; counter-march in square to Lake avenue, thence direct to Newton Highlands, where dress parade will be held and command dismissed.

The following comrades are detailed to act as color guard, representing the Navy: S. E. Shattuck, J. Pickens, T. Pickthall, W. A. Ayles. The following comrades are detailed to act as color guard, representing the Army: C. M. Kimball, W. W. Wood, O. W. Gray, H. Carter, who will be under the command of Officer of Guard Twitchell.

All soldiers and sailors, whether comrades of the G. A. R. or not, are invited to participate in the exercises of the day. Officer of the Day Langley will have charge of the barge. Comrade W. A. Vetterbee will have charge of the flowers. C. W. SWEETLAND, Commander.

Official. E. GOTT, Adj.

"OUR NEW NEIGHBORS."

HOW A GOSSIP BUBBLE AT NEWTON WAS BURST.

May is the month for moving, and the air in many localities is full of stories about "Our new neighbors." One of them is an ancient family at Newton says an imaginative writer in the Boston Herald. A house there in one of the fashionable streets was rented by some people whom no one in the town knew. Naturally the curiosity of the neighbors was aroused, and the first thing that got about concerning them was that, although they had the whole house, they lived in two rooms. Servants got acquainted sooner than their mistresses; mistresses often heard gossip from their servants; and it was in this way that the rumor got abroad.

First calls were not made with alacrity, but one day a neighbor who was a bit kinder hearted than some of her friends declared that she would no longer be so heathenish, but would make a neighborly call on Mrs. K., who certainly was an attractive looking woman. The call proved highly agreeable, for besides being a cordial and interesting hostess, Mrs. K. had in her house many curious and rare objects of art, which the guest could not refrain from openly admiring.

Admiration led to closer examination of some of the beautiful things, and Mrs. K. told many interesting incidents in connection with her treasures which had come to her from foreign shores through her grandfather, who was a sea captain.

As Mrs. H. rose to go, Mrs. K. said she would like to show her what she esteemed the most precious of her curios, and she led the way to the dining room, where on a table by itself stood a rare old punch bowl.

"A green servant that I had when I first came here," laughed Mrs. K., "asked me why I had a wash bowl in my dining room."

Mrs. H.'s excess of amusement over this last remark had a deeper meaning than Mrs. K. knew. From a wash bowl in a dining room a gossip can easily evolve a tale of life in two rooms, and so it was that the rumor was started about "our new neighbors" living in two rooms.

First calls were not made with alacrity, but one day a neighbor who was a bit kinder hearted than some of her friends declared that she would no longer be so heathenish, but would make a neighborly call on Mrs. K., who certainly was an attractive looking woman. The call proved highly agreeable, for besides being a cordial and interesting hostess, Mrs. K. had in her house many curious and rare objects of art, which the guest could not refrain from openly admiring.

Admiration led to closer examination of some of the beautiful things, and Mrs. K. told many interesting incidents in connection with her treasures which had come to her from foreign shores through her grandfather, who was a sea captain.

As Mrs. H. rose to go, Mrs. K. said she would like to show her what she esteemed the most precious of her curios, and she led the way to the dining room, where on a table by itself stood a rare old punch bowl.

"A green servant that I had when I first came here," laughed Mrs. K., "asked me why I had a wash bowl in my dining room."

Mrs. H.'s excess of amusement over this last remark had a deeper meaning than Mrs. K. knew. From a wash bowl in a dining room a gossip can easily evolve a tale of life in two rooms, and so it was that the rumor was started about "our new neighbors" living in two rooms.

First calls were not made with alacrity, but one day a neighbor who was a bit kinder hearted than some of her friends declared that she would no longer be so heathenish, but would make a neighborly call on Mrs. K., who certainly was an attractive looking woman. The call proved highly agreeable, for besides being a cordial and interesting hostess, Mrs. K. had in her house many curious and rare objects of art, which the guest could not refrain from openly admiring.

Admiration led to closer examination of some of the beautiful things, and Mrs. K. told many interesting incidents in connection with her treasures which had come to her from foreign shores through her grandfather, who was a sea captain.

As Mrs. H. rose to go, Mrs. K. said she would like to show her what she esteemed the most precious of her curios, and she led the way to the dining room, where on a table by itself stood a rare old punch bowl.

"A green servant that I had when I first came here," laughed Mrs. K., "asked me why I had a wash bowl in my dining room."

Mrs. H.'s excess of amusement over this last remark had a deeper meaning than Mrs. K. knew. From a wash bowl in a dining room a gossip can easily evolve a tale of life in two rooms, and so it was that the rumor was started about "our new neighbors" living in two rooms.

First calls were not made with alacrity, but one day a neighbor who was a bit kinder hearted than some of her friends declared that she would no longer be so heathenish, but would make a neighborly call on Mrs. K., who certainly was an attractive looking woman. The call proved highly agreeable, for besides being a cordial and interesting hostess, Mrs. K. had in her house many curious and rare objects of art, which the guest could not refrain from openly admiring.

Admiration led to closer examination of some of the beautiful things, and Mrs. K. told many interesting incidents in connection with her treasures which had come to her from foreign shores through her grandfather, who was a sea captain.

As Mrs. H. rose to go, Mrs. K. said she would like to show her what she esteemed the most precious of her curios, and she led the way to the dining room, where on a table by itself stood a rare old punch bowl.

"A green servant that I had when I first came here," laughed Mrs. K., "asked me why I had a wash bowl in my dining room."

Mrs. H.'s excess of amusement over this last remark had a deeper meaning than Mrs. K. knew. From a wash bowl in a dining room a gossip can easily evolve a tale of life in two rooms, and so it was that the rumor was started about "our new neighbors" living in two rooms.

First calls were not made with alacrity, but one day a neighbor who was a bit kinder hearted than some of her friends declared that she would no longer be so heathenish, but would make a neighborly call on Mrs. K., who certainly was an attractive looking woman. The call proved highly agreeable, for besides being a cordial and interesting hostess, Mrs. K. had in her house many curious and rare objects of art, which the guest could not refrain from openly admiring.

Admiration led to closer examination of some of the beautiful things, and Mrs. K. told many interesting incidents in connection with her treasures which had come to her from foreign shores through her grandfather, who was a sea captain.

As Mrs. H. rose to go, Mrs. K. said she would like to show her what she esteemed the most precious of her curios, and she led the way to the dining room, where on a table by itself stood a rare old punch bowl.

"A green servant that I had when I first came here," laughed Mrs. K., "asked me why I had a wash bowl in my dining room."

Mrs. H.'s excess of amusement over this last remark had a deeper meaning than Mrs. K. knew. From a wash bowl in a dining room a gossip can easily evolve a tale of life in two rooms, and so it was that the rumor was started about "our new neighbors" living in two rooms.

First calls were not made with alacrity, but one day a neighbor who was a bit kinder hearted than some of her friends declared that she would no longer be so heathenish, but would make a neighborly call on Mrs. K., who certainly was an attractive looking woman. The call proved highly agreeable, for besides being a cordial and interesting hostess, Mrs. K. had in her house many curious and rare objects of art, which the guest could not refrain from openly admiring.

Admiration led to closer examination of some of the beautiful things, and Mrs. K. told many interesting incidents in connection with her treasures which had come to her from foreign shores through her grandfather, who was a sea captain.

As Mrs. H. rose to go, Mrs. K. said she would like to show her what she esteemed the most precious of her curios, and she led the way to the dining room, where on a table by itself stood a rare old punch bowl.

"A green servant that I had when I first came here," laughed Mrs. K., "asked me why I had a wash bowl in my dining room."

Mrs. H.'s excess of amusement over this last remark had a deeper meaning than Mrs. K. knew. From a wash bowl in a dining room a gossip can easily evolve a tale of life in two rooms, and so it was that the rumor was started about "our new neighbors" living in two rooms.

First calls were not made with alacrity, but one day a neighbor who was a bit kinder hearted than some of her friends declared that she would no longer be so heathenish, but would make a neighborly call on Mrs. K., who certainly was an attractive looking woman. The call proved highly agreeable, for besides being a cordial and interesting hostess, Mrs. K. had in her house many curious and rare objects of art, which the guest could not refrain from openly admiring.

Admiration led to closer examination of some of the beautiful things, and Mrs. K. told many interesting incidents in connection with her treasures which had come to her from foreign shores through her grandfather, who was a sea captain.

As Mrs. H. rose to go, Mrs. K. said she would like to show her what she esteemed the most precious of her curios, and she led the way to the dining room, where on a table by itself stood a rare old punch bowl.

"A green servant that I had when I first came here," laughed Mrs. K., "asked me why I had a wash bowl in my dining room."

Mrs. H.'s excess of amusement over this last remark had a deeper meaning than Mrs. K. knew. From a wash bowl in a dining room a gossip can easily evolve a tale of life in two rooms, and so it was that the rumor was started about "our new neighbors" living in two rooms.

First calls were not made with alacrity, but one day a neighbor who was a bit kinder hearted than some of her friends declared that she would no longer be so heathenish, but would make a neighborly call on Mrs. K., who certainly was an attractive looking woman. The call proved highly agreeable, for besides being a cordial and interesting hostess, Mrs. K. had in her house many curious and rare objects of art, which the guest could not refrain from openly admiring.

Admiration led to closer examination of some of the beautiful things, and Mrs. K. told many interesting incidents in connection with her treasures which had come to her from foreign shores through her grandfather, who was a sea captain.

As Mrs. H. rose to go, Mrs. K. said she would like to show her what she esteemed the most precious of her curios, and she led the way to the dining room, where on a table by itself stood a rare old punch bowl.

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE,
—SUCH AS—

Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, Scissors, Shears and Lawn Mowers.

Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House
We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.

HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?
And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we will sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?
If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves.

WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES,
OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.

A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

22
3m.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

85 WASHINGTON STREET, NEW TON, MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at the sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be
made payable to

EDWARD D. BALDWIN, Editor and Publisher

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

The GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday
afternoons, and is for sale at all News Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston & Albany News Room, Boston Depot.ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished
communications cannot be returned by mail
unless stamps are enclosed.

REVISION TRANSCRIPT HAS BEEN CONSOLIDATED WITH THE GRAPHIC

THE REDISTRICTING QUESTION.

The non-partisan plan of redistricting the state as prepared by the legislative committee is meeting with great opposition from certain quarters. What was called a conference was held Tuesday, and it appears that Congressman Lodge has got up a plan, which Senator Bennett calls "The most outrageous gerrymander you ever saw". The conference voted to try to defeat any redistricting this year, in the hope that there will be a Republican governor and Senate next year, and if this is impossible to favor the Lodge plan, which is drawn for the benefit of Congressmen Lodge, Greenhalge and Walker, and is favored by certain members of the Republican state committee, who are mainly noted for their devotion to peanut politics. The vote stood 48 to 33, and many Republicans of the high character of Mr. Carpenter of Brookline, left in disgust and will refuse to stand by any such petty politics.

A great mistake will be made if the conference plan is followed, and one that may have serious consequences. We do not want any gerrymanders in Massachusetts, but rather a division that will be fair and equitable to both parties. The plan proposed by the committee appears to be such a one, and is endorsed by the people generally. To defeat this would be one of those political blunders that are in the nature of a crime, and the short-sighted and grasping politicians who are engineering the opposition, are the men who have already done so much to put the Republican party in a minority in Massachusetts. It only shows how urgent is the need of new political leaders in the legislature, men of breadth of mind enough to see something else than a mere temporary advantage for themselves.

The Lodge plan has a still further disadvantage. It makes Mr. Lodge's district more secure, but by the vote of 1800 seven of the thirteen districts would be Democratic, while on the committee's plan, only five of the thirteen would be Democratic, on the vote of the same year. There seems to be no special reason why Mr. Lodge should be protected at the expense of the rest of the state, especially as Mr. Lodge was in part responsible for the Republican defeat last fall, for his advocacy of the force bill and his speech in favor of bayonets at the polls.

The wisest thing the legislature can do is to pass the committee's bill, leave peanut politics and politicians alone, finish the business of the session and adjourn, especially the latter. The session has already been protracted far beyond any necessity arising from consideration of public business.

CHURCH GROWTH IN NEWTON.

While all eyes are turned to the confirmation of Bishop-elect Brooks, and are eagerly watching the returns from other dioceses, it may not be out of place to call attention to the growth of the various churches in Newton, evidenced by the new buildings that have been built already, and the several that are already planned, the old ones having been outgrown. This growth speaks well for the character of the city.

The Episcopal church has partaken of the general prosperity, and since Rev. Dr. Shinn became rector of Grace church, he has helped to establish three other churches in the city, all off-springs of his own church. These are the Church of the Messiah at Auburndale, St. Paul's at Newton Highlands, and last the Church of the Redeemer at Chestnut Hill. His unselfishness in the matter has been rewarded by an even larger growth of the parent church, whose services were never so well attended as now. Of course part of this is due to the rapid growth of the city, which benefits all churches alike. Dr. Shinn has always advised his parishioners to aid the new churches, that have been established, and has always given his services generously to the new parishes.

The Church of the Redeemer at Chestnut Hill, which is to be consecrated next Monday, is in a part of the city where no church has yet been established, and it will fill a vacancy that has long existed. The beautiful church building is a memorial gift from Mrs. Augustus Lowell of Brookline, and one of the most beautiful sections of Newton can be congratulated on now having a church building of its own, which is worthy of its location.

CARL SCHURZ's article on Abraham Lincoln, which is published in the June Atlantic, is something which will attract attention, not only from the subject but from the character of the author and his close relations with President Lincoln. The article is a review of the life of Abraham Lincoln, by Nicolay and Hay; and the result of their survey, which in the "Life" extends through ten volumes, is reduced by Mr. Schurz to about thirty pages of compact and interesting narrative, with a summing up of Lincoln's place as a statesman and the work which he did in conducting the government safely through the perils of the Civil War. One of the concluding paragraphs is worth quoting: "A few days after the fall of Richmond," says Mr. Schurz, "Lincoln pointed out to a friend the crowd of office-seekers besieging his door. 'Look at that,' said he, 'Now we have conquered the rebellion, but here you see something that may become more dangerous to this republic than the rebellion itself.'" And the concluding paragraph of the paper will always live as a most brilliant and striking characterization of Abraham Lincoln.

CONGRESSMAN WALKER says Mr. Lodge's gerrymander is an outrage, and any man who favors it ought to be banished from any decent political association. Of the proposed district in which Newton is situated he says it "appears to have a slice of about everything except Plymouth rock and the Mayflower pilgrims. Its absurdity would be laughable if it were not so outrageous." Congressman Walker has certainly cleared his skirts of any responsibility for the bill although he was also opposed to the committee's plan.

MESSRS. CHESTER and Howard, the two Newton Representatives, voted Thursday against referring the redistricting of the state to the next general court. They will be indorsed by the great majority of the voters of Newton, who do not believe in gerrymanders, or in the Republican party wearing the collar of any would-be "boss." Representative Powers of Hyde Park appears to be the real leader of the house, and in this case he is a safer man to follow than Congressman Lodge.

DR. EDWARD EVERETT HALE is shortly to commence a serial story, on life as lived in the Boston of today. It will touch the condition of our every day life in New England most closely. This story is to be published exclusively in his weekly paper, the Boston Commonwealth.

In Memory of a Useful Life.

Mrs. Ann W. Grant died in Newtonville Wednesday, May 20th, after an illness of several months. At the Central Congregational church, on the following Friday, an impressive funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Patrick of West Newton, assisted by Dea. Sloum. Rarely is it the lot of one to fill out the measure of a long life with so much usefulness and self-sacrificing devotion. She was born in Worcester in June 1812. When a child she became an earnest Christian worker and remained steadfast in the beautiful trust which radiated through her every action, and was the secret of her wonderful hold on all who knew her. Early in life she was married to Mr. A. W. Grant with whom she lived long and happily in Charlestown, and later in Newtonville where his death occurred in 1876. Three sons, several grandchildren and a great-grandchild as well as a sister and two brothers are left to mourn her loss. In character she was wonderfully symmetrical, rigid in her adherence to the right, yet charming toward all, her dear old purpose seemed to be to do good to every one she met.

It was impossible to be with her and not feel the Christlike spirit which permeated her whole being. It is unnecessary to say that every one loved Auntie Grant. Her heart was wide enough to cover all, and she delighted to minister to those in need, giving bountifully from her limited means to every good work or needy cause to which came to her knowledge. She never consciously lost an opportunity to say a word for her Master, and many there are for whom her prayers were constantly ascending. The last years of her life have been spent in the loved companionship of a widowed sister, who with her made their home a centre of delightful religious and social attractiveness. Her death would be an irreparable loss to the church and community, were it not that the blessed influence of such a life can never be forgotten.

Memorial Day.

It will be very gratifying to the veterans of Chas. Ward Post 62, G. A. R., to have the children as well as older persons take interest in procuring flowers and leaving them early Saturday morning at the places mentioned in last week's GRAPHIC. Commander-in-chief Veazy suggests that all flags be at half mast on Memorial Day.

As the Chinese View Us.

It is impossible to understand these barbarous people. One thing is certain: If they do a thing they do it with all their might. Thirty years ago they had a big civil war. The whole country was turned into military camps and battlefields, and every body, even to the women folk, were engaged in the war in one way or another, and one army numbered 2,000,000 men. And now there are young men, old enough to vote, who have never seen a company of soldiers in their life. In fact these people seem to think that another war will never break out, especially in their part of the world. A person can travel clear across the American continent without seeing a soldier, and follow the main lines of travel, too. In fact, at the present time there is only about one soldier for every 2,000 persons, while Russia has one soldier to every ninety. —Pekin Gazette.

MARRIED.

HERBERT GAUVAIN—At Newton, May 25, Pierre Hebert and Philomena Gauvain.
DAILY—BUCKLEY—At Newton, May 21, Edward Daily and Mary Buckley.

DIED.

LIVERMORE—At Faneuil, May 26, Eliza Livermore, aged 79 years.

Reading Selections from the Paper.

It was one of those wild nights you read of in nine novels out of ten.

The cold spring rain splashed viciously against the panes, and the shutters rattled and banged as the fitful gusts of wind swept through the deserted streets. It was lodge night, but Brother Fay concluded to stay at home for once, particularly as his mother-in-law was on her periodical inspection tour, and spending a couple of days with him.

With a sigh he rolled back in the rocker, his feet in a chair and a newspaper spread open before him like a screen.

Presently he chuckled, and wife and mother looked up from their sewing inquiringly.

"Rather a remarkable case," he exclaimed, looking over the top of the paper, and with a suspicious twitch about the corners of his mouth he read aloud:

"A model husband died recently at Cornish, N. H. He had been married forty-three years and never spent a night away from home."

"Well, I should say he was a model husband," broke in the old lady, grimly. "Just think of it, Mary dear, forty-three years and every evening spent at home. No lodge could coax him away from his family," she added, significantly. "Poor man, he ought to have a monument a mile high," and she sighed deeply.

Brother Fay held the paper a little higher and continued:

"Never spent a night from home. He was paralyzed."

Without the storm beat harder and louder (a habit storms have at such times), while within silence reigned, save the suppressed rustle of the paper and the "swish" of the thread through the pillow case the old lady was working on. —National Weekly.

Characteristics of the Uruguayans.

The whole Banda Oriental and its inhabitants strike one as being more refined, more amiable and more gentle than the land and people of the sister republic. Nevertheless, in the country everything is very primitive, and one is astounded at the rough way in which many of the rich estancieros live on their estates in the simplest and most comfortable houses. These men own leagues and leagues of land, and they live like the patriarchs of old—with two or three generations of children under the same roof and eating at the same table—in the old fashioned creole way. Such men, as may be imagined, are not progressive; they continue their pastoral industry in an indolent, apathetic manner, leaving to nature almost everything except the operation of selling and receiving the money; and, above all, they cannot be persuaded to subdivide their lands and let them out for farming.

Uruguay is being kept back chiefly by the conservatism of the creole land holders, who possess immense estates that are inadequately developed. The law of inheritance and the obligatory subdivision of property among the heirs will modify this state of affairs in the course of time, and these vast holdings will be gradually broken up and developed in detail. The process, however, will necessarily be slow, and meanwhile, as the state owns no lands, the increase of immigration can only be slow in proportion. —Theodore Child in Harper's.

Not Literature.

Farmer Ellsworth lives in the suburbs of a little Massachusetts town, and is a man of considerable consequence among his friends and neighbors. During the long winter evenings he and Aunt Huldah, his wife, read much, and his comments on the literature of the day, though not often grammatically expressed, often display discrimination.

Not long ago he took a book of short sketches of country life from the town library, and when he brought it back he had to pay a small fine, having kept it several days over the time allowed.

"I'm willin' an' glad to pay it, too," he said, as he laid down his pile of coppers. "You enjoyed it, then?" asked the librarian.

"Enjoyed it? I should think we did!" said Farmer Ellsworth. "My wife, specially, has ready every one of them stories twice over. But I'm bound to say," he added, in his character of critic, "that it ain't exactly what I should call writin'! Why, it's just like folks." —Youth's Companion.

Two Kinds of Censuses.

A census of the United States differs in its very conception from a European census. Once in ten years, as with us, the English government makes an enumeration of the inhabitants of the kingdom. The time chosen is the night of the 2d of April. On or before that day the enumerator must leave at each house within his district a family schedule, which calls for the name and personal characteristics—age, sex, color, occupation, etc.—of each person who on that night shall sleep in that house. If a man be traveling on that night, he is to be reported at the hotel or private house at which he arrives in the morning.

A census of the United States is a very different thing. As in England, the census is supposed to be taken on a certain day—with us the 1st of June—but the question regarding each and every man is not where he was on that day, but where on that day he had "his usual place of abode." —General Francis A. Walker in Forum.

A Corporation with a Soul.

"You see that man who just got off the car?" said a street car conductor. "He worked for this company over forty years, and was a bus driver long before they had any street cars. The company pay him, or rather his wife, regularly, and he does not do a thing. They sometimes give him a quarter. He goes after that quarter as regularly as though he was going to get the whole of his salary." —Buffalo Courier.

Conversation Was Drowned.

Algie—Why, old man, what in the world is that car trumpet for?
Charlie—It's my new suit. When I wear it I can hardly hear anything else. —Munsey's Weekly.

BUSINESS NOTICES

WANTED—Small second-hand carpet and children's clothing of all kinds; hats for little girls are in great demand; small second-hand table. Associated Charity Rooms, Newtonville, Tuesdays, 10 to 11 o'clock.

WANTED—A capable girl to do second work. Apply between six and eight p. m. Mrs. J. L. Richards, Newtonville ave., Newtonville.

WANTED—A girl for general housework; must come well recommended. Address box 470, Newtonville. 34-11

TO LET—One or two rooms for storage purposes; also several p. s. ant, partly furnished rooms for the months of July and August. Apply at 301 Washington St., Newton, Mass. 34-11

FOR SALE—A family driving mare, black, weight about 1,200 lbs., is perfectly sound and kind, a free roadster, and can show considerable speed, and safe for a lady to drive, in fact, a perfect family horse. Can be seen at S. F. Cate's stable, W. C. Newton. 34-11

SITUATION WANTED—On gentleman's place; capable man, experienced in care of horses, and has worked at gardening. Address Thomas Duane, 378 Washington street, Newton. 34-11

TO LET—A cottage house, eight rooms on Maple street. Apply to J. Fewkes, Maple street, Newton, Mass. 34-11

FOR SALE—Cheap for cash, child's crib and baby carriage. Both in good order. Address P. O. Box 202, West Newton, Mass. 33-21

SAFETY BICYCLE—2d hand ball bearings. S. Crescent, in good condition. Cost new $75, will sell for about half price. Address L Box 194, Newton. 34-11

BICYCLE FOR SALE—Second hand, 60 inch. In good condition. Good make, cost $150, will sell for $75. Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre. 34-11

HORSE FOR SALE—Dark Bay, 9 years old, weight 850 lbs., good roadster and good saddle. Also buggy, sleigh and harness. Address George Froudford, Newton Centre. 34-11

$3500 TO BE LOANED—at 5 per cent on first mortgage on improved real estate. Apply to "S. T. O. Auburndale, Mass. 30-11

TO LET—A neat house for a small family, five rooms in complete order. Three minutes from railroad station, depot and post office. Inquire of Henry Fuller, 261 Centre street, Newton. 34-11

TO LET—A pleasant house and grounds. Fruit trees and shrubbery, large hen house, handy to stores, depot and church. H. H. Read, Paul street, Newton Centre. 27-11

FOR SALE—Best quality of English hay. Inquire of S. M. Jackson, Newton Centre. 27-11

TO LET—In Newtonville, one tenement $5 a month. D. P. O'Sullivan, Cabot St., Newtonville. Telephone 52-3. 19-11

Ocean Excursion.
Salem, Salem Willows, Marblehead and Beverly.
The new, cosy, and elegant steamer, "WATERTOWN," Elegantly upholstered saloon, heated by steam, modern improvements, with every convenience and comfort for passengers, aided by competent stewards, will leave BOSTON every day, (weather permitting) at 10 o'clock A. M.
Reaching Marblehead at 12 M., Beverly at 12:30 P. M., Salem Willows 12:45 P. M., Salem 1 P. M., Return LEAVE Beverly at 3:30 P. M., Salem Willows 3:45 P. M., Salem 4 P. M., Marblehead 4:30, landing at Boston 6:30 P. M.
Fare, 25 Cents Each Way.
Freight carried every day except Sunday for three (3) cents per hundred pounds.
EDWARD H. MAXWELL.
EUROPE. H. GAZE & SON'S
Select tours under personal escort (each party limited to twenty-five). Leaves New York, April 22, May 2, 6, 13, 27, June 3, 17, 24, 27, July 4, 8, 22, 23, etc. North Cape and Russia, June 27; Sail Tour, W. L. Land and Egypt, Sept. 16; Round the World (westward) Oct. 3. Send 6c postage for Gazette containing full particulars. W. H. EAVES, New England Agent, Parker House, Boston. Ladies received in Reception Room. Estimates furnished for independent travel covering any desired route throughout Europe. Agents for all lines ocean steamers, and choice rooms secured. Plans of steamers, sailings, etc., on application. Correspondence solicited. 24-31

ALIVE
To Your Wants For SPRING, We have Out-done All Other SEASONS by Carrying the Largest Stock of Artistic Millinery,
EVER SHOWN IN
WALTHAM.
Come and See Our Assortment. It will prepare your ideas so you can leave your Orders with us.
Please remember we have removed to
LINCOLN'S NEW BLOCK.
J. W. MACURDY,
133 Moody Street, SOUTH SIDE, WALTHAM.
M. F. MCCARTHY & CO.,
Wholesale Florists of 1 Music Hall Place, have taken the Store
129 KINGSTON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.,
Where they will hold their Regular Spring Sale of Bedding Plants
EVERY
Wednesday and Saturday, at 10 A. M.
UNTIL JUNE 20th.
A fine assortment of all Varieties on Exhibition daily. 31-11

Real Estate. Mortgages. Insurance.

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale.
SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATES in the above villages.
Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES
OFFICES
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

SAUL BROTHERS,
135 MOODY STREET, - WALTHAM,
Lincoln Block.

Reliable Jewelers.
FIRST CLASS GOODS
AT BOTTOM PRICES.

SEE OUR LINE OF SOLID SILVERWARE.
Solid Gold Eye Glasses, $2.95 Per Pair.
Every Pair Warranted.

SAUL BROTHERS,
E. U. SAUL. C. T. SAUL.
The Broadway National Bank
SOLICITS BUSINESS.

IT DISCOUNTS DAILY; COLLECTS in all parts of the United States and Canada; gives the best possible attention to all accounts, whether large or small; and keeps its banking rooms OPEN UNTIL THREE O'CLOCK.
IF YOU have any reason to CHANGE YOUR BANK ACCOUNT, apply to the Broadway. Prompt and careful attention given to all business intrusted to us. DOES A STRICTLY BANKING BUSINESS. Send us your collection business and it will receive prompt attention.

ACCOUNTS OF FIRMS, INDIVIDUALS AND CORPORATIONS SOLICITED.
Corner Milk and Arch Streets, Boston.
ROSSELL C. DOWNER, FRANK O. SQUIRE, WM. R. DRESSER, President. Vice-President. Cashier.

IMPROVED
GUARANTEED
ON YX
BLACK REGISTERED INGRAIN.
BLACK HOSIERY
The great success of "Onyx" dyed hosiery is due entirely to its superior quality, and the fact that it does Not Stain the feet or garments, and that it will withstand the effect of washings as well as perspiration.
Guaranteed Stainless Onyx Black Registered.
We confidently recommend the "Onyx" to our customers as the best article for purity of dye and Wearing Quality ever offered to the public. Over five million pairs of this brand have been sold.

CENTRAL DRY GOODS CO.,
WALTHAM, MASS.
DAME, STODDARD & KENDALL,
Importers and Dealers in Fine Fishing Tackle, Athletic and Base Ball Goods, Shoes, Suitings, Etc.
374 WASHINGTON STREET, 2 FRANKLIN STREET, BOSTON.
32-41

HERBERT SEAVERNS,
FLORIST.
Cut Flowers, Plants, Bulbs and Fancy Jars.
Floral Designs of all Descriptions.
202 Moody St., Waltham, Mass.
34-11
YOUR GARDEN
HOSE IS BURST!
A CHILD CAN MEND IT
With a box of the Hudson Hose Mender. Send for directions How to Do It. It costs you nothing if you mention this paper.
33-11 C. E. HUDSON, Leominster, Mass.

NEWTONVILLE.

—C. Farley, Turner, Wash. 433 St. Newton
—Capt. F. N. Brown and family have removed to Boston.
—Mr. Walter Keith is here on a visit from Morrisville, Vt.
—Mr. Joseph W. Stover of New York was in town yesterday.
—Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Curtis are receiving congratulations. It is a girl.
—Ground will be broken for the new home of the Newton Club early in June.
—J. V. Sullivan is putting up a new house on the Rollins land, adjoining T. C. Clay's estate.
—The regular monthly meeting of the Co-operative bank will be held next Tuesday evening.
—Messrs. Smith & Hesseon take charge of J. P. Hill's livery business about June 10th.
—Mr. J. G. Lyford has purchased a farm at West Acton, to which place he has removed with his family.
—Improvements which have been made on Clyde street are a source of much gratification to the residents.

—The departure of Mr. Charles Stiles from town in sincerely regretted by the stockholders. He has become a resident of Brighton district.

—The annual prize drill of the High school battalion will take place on the high school grounds, Saturday afternoon, June 13.

—The Methodist Society has purchased of Mrs. Rumery the house on Newtonville avenue, at present occupied by Rev. Mr. Jackson.

—The following letters are awaiting claimants at the post office: Patrick Folan, Mrs. Humphrey, B. Simpson, Miss M. Sullivan.

—Peach, banana and quince, pure fruit syrup with ice cream. Try crushed violets, pineapple and orange lactart, at Payne's Pharmacy.

—J. Elliott Hyde and C. H. Tainter conducted a successful auction sale of household furniture in Tremont Hall last Saturday evening.

—A special communication of Dalhousie lodge will be held in Masonic Hall next Wednesday evening. The second degree will be conferred.

—The Newton Club and the Newtonville are to cross bats at 10 o'clock Decoration Day on Magnolia street, Newtonville. A "warm" game is expected.

—Mrs. John Carter, Highland avenue, accompanied by her sister, sailed for Bremen from New York, North German Lloyd line, Tuesday. They will be abroad several months.

—Mr. Charles T. Pulsifer, accompanied by his son, Walter, and Clifford Kimball sailed for Europe from New York Tuesday in the North German Lloyd steamer "Spreu," bound for Bremen.

—Mr. W. F. Osborne and family, formerly of Austin street, have gone to New York, where they will reside permanently. Their departure from this place is sincerely regretted by their neighbors and friends.

—The drill shed now in process of construction in the rear of the high school building, is progressing quite rapidly. The heavy trusses are all fitted together and will be raised next week. It is understood that the building will be finished in time for the graduation exercises, which will occur June 23.

—The Newton Club base ball nine defeated the Newton High School nine in a close game last Saturday afternoon by a score of 9 to 8. The High School boys were without the services of their regular pitcher. Hamilton twirled the sphere for the Newton Club men who batted and fielded well.

—A meeting of ladies was held at the Newton clubhouse yesterday afternoon to arrange some of the details of the Newton Club fête which is announced to take place during October. The fête will be managed by the ladies of the club and will be a brilliant affair. The object is to raise funds for furnishing the ladies' apartments in the new clubhouse.

—Ex-Gov. Claflin has presented a flag to the Claflin school and the new flag staff upon which it will be suspended, was placed in position yesterday. There will be public exercises and the formal ceremony of the presentation of the flag this afternoon. The exercises will include speechmaking and the singing of appropriate selections. Rev. S. F. Smith, D. D., author of "America" is among the invited guests.

—Hon. J. F. C. Hyde conducted an executor's sale of real estate Tuesday afternoon. Three lots on Highland avenue and Otis street were disposed of. One containing 51,374 feet was sold for 10-1/2 cents per foot; a lot on Otis street, containing 35,644 feet, at 4-1/2 cents per foot; a lot containing 173 feet, at 8 per foot. All three lots were purchased at cash figures by E. J. Hyde, acting as agent for other parties. There was quite a large attendance at the sale. The land sold was formerly owned by the late R. M. Pulsifer.

—The fire ladders are making preparations to royally receive the new aerial ladder truck which arrived at West Newton with the new chemical engine Wednesday. New floors are being laid in the truck house and there will be a big celebration there some evening in the near future. All Newtonville will be invited and the affair promises to be the biggest event that has occurred in fire circles for some time. There will be speeches and a banquet and a red-hot time generally. The committee of arrangements comprises Messrs. W. S. Higgins, W. H. Dyer, A. A. Savage and T. C. Nickerson and a number of other details will be held at the truck house next Monday evening.

—Those who are anxious to get the dimensions of the flag staff and spar will be edited by the following brief summary of measurements: Exact length of main staff, 77 feet; spar, 54 feet; total, extreme length, 131 feet. These figures don't tell you, however, the exact length of the pole and spar above ground. In order to get at that you subtract 14 feet of which goes into the ground and 9 of which is utilized by the lap of the spar and you arrive at the correct length above ground—117 feet. There are few flag staffs in the state higher, the Watertown Arsenal staff being one, and towering 135 feet above the ground. The raising of the pole by Mr. Ross was a scientific piece of work neatly accomplished and few cities or towns can boast of a more regal flag staff.

—Messrs. A. A. Savage and R. C. Bridgman rolled the last half of a 10-string match Monday evening for the Newton Club challenge bowling trophy—a handsome hall clock. It was an interesting contest, both men rolling in good form. For the first three strings Savage bowled without an error, taking all the single pins and combinations left after the first ball. Bridgman put up a stiff game and bowled within 16 pins of his opponent, besides making the top score, 193 pins. His average for the five strings was 161-1-5. In the first half of the 10-string contest, rolled May 4, Savage knocked down 771 pins and Bridgman 713. Monday night's rolling by strings gave Savage 173, 177, 174, 128, 185—887; Bridgman, 147, 170, 136, 163, 185—821. Savage's grand total for the 10-strings was 1608; Bridgman's, 1524. The former won the match by 74 pins. Savage's average for the 10-strings was 160-4-5; Bridgman's, 153-2-5. C. F. Shirley has signified his intention of challenging the winner.

—Miss H. J. Hudson of Bemis and Mr. H. E. Butler of Boston, formerly of Nonantum, attended in a concert given in the Reform Club Hall, Waltham, by the Sons of Temperance. Miss Hudson rendered a Solo on the piano and Mr. Butler, Miss Hudson, accompanied in several selections in an excellent manner. Both artists received hearty applause.

WEST NEWTON.

Farley rents pianos, 433 Wash. St. Newton
—Mr. Arthur Howland sailed for Europe, Wednesday, from New York.

—Mr. George H. Phelps and family have gone to Osterville for the summer.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Stanley are guests of Mr. Frank Sleeper, Chestnut street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Martial Wood will spend the summer at Bartlett Park, Winthrop.

—Mr. Henry R. Phelps has removed to Seattle, where he will reside permanently.

—Mr. Granville B. Putnam and family have gone to Pigeon Cove for the summer.

—Mr. George Freeland of Prince street has gone to Bangor, Me., on a two week's trip.

—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Shepard and family have gone to Nantasket for the season.

—Mr. T. Henry Ramsdell and family of Eden avenue have gone to Quincy for the summer.

—Mrs. J. H. Wheeler and family of Prince street have gone to Worcester for a month's visit.

—Mr. W. H. Read, formerly a resident of Margin street, has removed to Boston with his family.

—Mr. Fred. Creasey and family will occupy Mr. Chas. Shepard's house on Elm street during the summer.

—Mr. C. M. Whittlessey and Mr. C. C. Burr have been elected directors of the American Congregational Association.

—Mr. George Hutchinson and family of Newbury street, Boston, comes to West Newton for the summer about June 15.

—Master Charles D. Drew, a son of Mr. Edward B. Drew of China, was awarded a medal in the Boston Latin school drill, last Tuesday.

—Mr. Vernon E. Carpenter is having the plumbing in his house replaced with all the very desirable improvements. A. J. Fiske & Co. are doing the work.

—Mrs. E. N. L. Walton, president of the Woman's Educational Club attended the anniversary exercises of the Woman's Suffrage League in Boston this week.

—Quite a successful entertainment and sale under the auspices of the local branch of the W. C. T. U. was held at the residence of Mrs. H. K. Barrison, last evening.

—In the police court yesterday, James Curtin was convicted of maintaining a liquor nuisance and fined $50. He appealed and furnished bonds for his appearance for trial before the superior court.

—The 25th anniversary of the West Newton Baptist school will be observed at 6 p. m. An interesting Chalk Talk is expected from N. L. Greet, Esq. An orchestra recently organized from the school will assist in the musical part of the service.

—The following letters are awaiting claimants at the post office: P. Barker, Douglas Chandler, Ellen Dupoven, Freeman Dentremond, Pennerman Forman, J. H. Fairfield, Geo. P. Green, Walter Howe, Thomas Hanlon, Maggie Johnson, Fred J. Johnson, Edwin N. Kimball, Michael Keegan.

—The festival of Corpus Christi was celebrated in St. Bernard's church yesterday. In the morning, high mass was celebrated and 25 children received their first communion. There was a vesper service in the evening, with sermon and benediction.

—The veterans of Chas. Ward Post 62, will be present at the morning service at the Baptist church West Newton, and will listen to a sermon from the pastor, Rev. Dr. Faunce. They will attend service at 10 a. m. in the Second Congregational church and listen to an address from Gen. John L. Swift.

—At the special meeting of the Veteran Firemen Monday evening, those present favored taking part in a proposed tournament later in the season, but as arrangements are incomplete no definite action was taken. Nearly everyone present joined the Benefit Association of New England Firemen, which provides for a certain sum at the death of members, making a very cheap form of insurance.

—A reception and entertainment under the local branch of the National Three Year Benefit Order was given in Nickerson Hall, Monday evening. The program included numerous specialties introducing the Damon family, pleasing specialties; J. R. Whalen, colored minstrel; address, Supreme President Adams; solo, Miss Francis Walcott; recitation, Mr. Louis Curtis; solo, Miss Minnie Harris. There was a large attendance. Several new members were admitted to the order.

—Decorated Day morning the Newtons of West Newton, will cross bats with the National Banks of Boston. The team is one of the six who entered the contest for the Beacon prizes, and as its name signifies, its members are taken exclusively from the National Banks of Boston. Newton is well represented in the team, having in it two members of last season's Newtons, Burrage, who plays 2nd base, and Stacy, who catches and catches for the team. Play will be called at 10 o'clock on the Auburn street grounds at West Newton.

—A successful organ recital was given in the Congregational church Wednesday evening by Mr. J. Eliot Trowbridge, assisted by Miss Emma E. Upham, soprano, and Miss M. Millie Fogwell, contralto. Miss Upham gave a satisfactory rendering of Gounod's song, "Nazareth" and Miss Fogwell sang Sullivan's "Lost Chord." Her accentuation and expression being commendable features. The organ numbers by Mr. Trowbridge included the Prelude in Bb and Fugue Eb, Bach; Communion and Sortie, Battiste; Pastoral Symphony, Handel; and the choral "Nuremberg" with variations, by Mr. Trowbridge.

—An organ recital was given in the Unitarian church last Sunday evening by Mr. C. S. Johnson, assisted by Miss Crisella White, the talented young soprano vocalist, who has recently returned from Europe. The organ numbers were rendered with artistic taste and expression, and Miss White's singing was much enjoyed. The program comprised: Organ, Fugue in G minor, Bach; organ, Overture, "Stradella," Flotow; vocal, "On Mighty Pines," "Creation," Hayden; organ, Variations in A, Hesse; organ, "Dodelinette" and "Fruhlingsstrasse," Op. 21, No. 1, Arranged by C. S. Johnson; vocal, "Gloria Te Thee, my God, this Night," organ, Introduction to third act, and Bridal Chorus, from "Lohengrin," Wagner-Warren.

—The new chemical engine is a beauty and has attracted many admiring spectators. The shining piece of fire apparatus which Chief Hixby thoroughly believes in, arrived at the West Newton engine house yesterday and will remain there for service temporarily while the old chemical is being spruced up and put in thorough repair. The new piece of apparatus will then go to Newton Highlands. There is some talk of enlarging the West Newton engine house and providing offices and apartments for the chief of the department. The steamer will undoubtedly go into active service again as the fire committee has voted in favor. Whether the steamer and chemical will be run from the same house is a matter which will be later considered by the fire committee.

—A fair and sale was held at the Williston Home for Destitute Children on Waltham street, last Friday and Saturday. A large number of persons interested in the cause attended, and over $300 was realized. The tables and attractions were in charge of the following ladies: Confectionery, Mrs. Bird and the Misses Work; apron table, Miss Barton, Miss Hackett and Miss Deming; fancy tables, Mrs. Baldwin and the Misses Baldwin, Mrs. Chas. and Mrs. Leonard; refreshment tables, Miss Caroline Field, Miss Stewart, Miss Howland, Miss Fleming and Miss Hunt; grab boxes, Miss Welch and Miss Mary Field. The home has now 20 children who are provided for largely through the charity of Newton people.

—A public entertainment was held under the auspices of Loyalty lodge of Good Templars, Wednesday evening in Carpenter Hall, at which the following program was rendered: Trio, "Water is Best," Misses Nichol and Thompson, Mr. W. H. Rand; Banjo and Harmonica solo, John Marden; Laughing song and encore, W. H. Rand; Piano solo, Miss Watts; Duet, Mabel Cole and Frank McIntire; Banjo and Harmonica solo, John Marden; Reading "Ship at Sea," Miss F. Cluston; Addresses by G. V. P. Miss Lizzie M. Robinson of Cambridge and Dept. G. C. T. Forknall; Quartet, "Sweet and Low," Misses Nichol and Thompson Messrs. Coo and Libby; Solo and encore, Miss Fogwell; Trio, Misses Nichol and Thompson and Mr. W. H. Rand; Duet, Miss Fogwell and Mr. Beardsley; Banjo and Harmonica solo, John Marden.

—A union service, under the auspices of the Newton Associated Charities, was held in the Second Congregational church, Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Horr of Charlestown explained the methods and objects of associated charity work. After giving an idea of the formation of the Associated Charities with its agent to look up the record of applicants for assistance, its board of visitors and its many committees, the speaker alluded to some of the objects of the organization, one of the most important of which, he said, was to put the poor in relation with friendly people and the many charitable organizations that are endeavoring to help needy and deserving persons. Another object is to render effective existing lines of charitable work, to see that charity is wisely directed and distributed. The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid.

—The bidders and tramps, continued Rev. Mr. Horr, have no love for the Associated Charities. It is an organization that is very disagreeable to, and unpopular with, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities is that it lessens indiscriminate almsgiving. It brings the help and the need of the poor, that class who have no sympathy for, and who are undeserving of aid. The advantage of the Associated Charities

MEMORIAL SERVICE IN NEWTON CENTRE.

FIRST CHURCH FILLED WITH VETERANS AND THEIR FRIENDS.

A very large audience filled the First Congregational church last Sunday to attend the memorial service for Chas. Ward Post, upon invitation of the pastor, Rev. Theodore J. Holmes, who was chaplain in a cavalry regiment, and is at present a comrade of Chas. Ward Post. About seventy-five members of the Post, Commander Sweetland, with about thirty members of J. Wiley Edmonds Camp 100 S. of V., Capt. Kimball, and sixty members of the High School Battalion, commanded by Major Tyler, were in attendance, beside a large company of ladies and gentlemen, and a goodly number of children.

The church was very tastefully decorated with flowers, flags and bunting. On each side the broad aisle at the end of each pew, reserved for the visitors, was placed a tiny flag. The choir gave several appropriate selections finely rendered.

Rev. Mr. Holmes spoke from I. Samuel, xvii, 17, 18. The message and comfort which David bore to his brothers in camp.

This was the first recorded instance of kindly help sent to the soldiers at the front from friends at home. And these messages of love and cheer, with tokens of regard were some of the best supports ever given to a soldier who was doing battle at the front.

He proposed to speak of what the soldier had done for the country, and what the country had done for the soldier. The soldier received his $13 a month wages, which although not an enormous sum, was sufficient to meet his enormous personal expenses. Under the circumstances, considering that the government provided food, clothing and equipment. Bounties were paid to the soldiers, increasing toward the close of the war so that in some cases several hundred dollars were paid.

Newton furnished 1229 men for service in the war, being in excess of her quota. At one time this town secured 100 men at a bounty expense of $10,000. The women at home devised every means to aid the soldier at the front, by scraping lint, making bandages, etc., and sending pelicans to the sick. At one Newton town meeting 14 ladies formally offered their services to provide needed articles for the soldiers. Two children in Newton Corner gave a concert in the home parlor which netted $238; some children in Newton Centre arranged a fair in their mother's parlor and cleared $1215 for the needy soldiers. Boston school teachers relinquished 25 per cent. of their salary, amounting to $12,000. In short, nearly everyone lent a hand heartily for the soldiers' welfare.

The nation has been liberal in its treatment of the soldier. Its system of pensions went beyond that of any other nation. The disability act of June, 1890, was said to be the first disability law passed by any nation, giving pensions for disabilities not incurred in war or in line of duty, as soldiers.

Complaint is made that our pension payments are greater than the expenses of some of the standing armies of the old world. July 1, 1890, there were 1,200,000 veterans living, and 10 per cent. of them were over 60 years of age. Preferences for government positions are given to veterans. Nineteen soldiers' homes in the country make provision for those who have no friends to care for them.

At a town meeting held in Newton, April 19, 1891, it was voted that the families of soldiers in actual service, which were unable to provide for themselves, should be provided with "all the needed and necessary comforts of life, in sickness and in health, during the continuance of said service, and as long as the exigency of the case requires." The hardships, privations and trials endured by the soldiers while in the service were referred to; the risks they took of life and death, sickness or health; their patriotism and devotion to country and loyalty to the flag. As chaplain he had the opportunity of observing with much care the conduct of the soldiers under these trying circumstances, and he was often filled with admiration to witness the displays of noble qualities shown under the most adverse surroundings.

A beautiful tribute was paid to the heroic women who deliberately consented and advised their husbands, lovers and brothers to go out in defense of their country, and then went with them in spirit and helpfulness, and sustained and encouraged them by their prayers and encouraging messages through their perils and trials.

He urged upon the young to live noble lives, to live for a purpose, something wide and high, touching often even to the ends of the earth. To the veterans he commended that they keep the high plane of devotion, patriotism, loyalty and Christian morality as a generation ago. Illustrating the need of God's help in all the affairs of life, he referred to the noble declaration of the brave Gen. Custer, who consecrated his life to his Saviour.

A beautiful feature of the closing service was the bugle call given by two cornetists, one stationed in the chapel and the other in the gallery, reminding the old veterans of the day in camp when "Taps" were sounded.

"Tenting on the old camp ground" was sung by the choir and the benediction was pronounced by the venerable pastor emeritus, Rev. Dr. Furber.

I Don't Want a Doctor.

I have tried them, and they have only swindled me. I have figured up what they cost me for the last four years, it was just $234.31. If I had it now it would be a fortune for me. I have my bill for medicine was only five dollars, for which I purchased six bottles of Sarsaparilla. They cured me of Scrofula after suffering four years.—P. J. Cummings, Troy, N.Y.

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, ss.

FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. CHENEY & CO., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATHARTIC CURE.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1890.

SEAL A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Cathartic Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

"Halls all cuts, burns and bruises like magic." That's Johnson's Anodyne Liniment surely.

NEWTON CLUB BOWLING.

SEASON'S WORK COMPLETED. RECORD OF THE FINALS.

The last game in the finals in the Newton club bowling tournament was rolled at Newtonville last Friday evening between teams 7 and 8, the latter winning the match and second prize by 126 pins. Utley was high roller, with a total of 484. He also made the best 10-frame score, knocking down 181 pins in the second string. Some very pretty work was done by Dennison, who captured several difficult combinations. Each member of the winning team got a unique silver match safe. The summary is appended:

TEAM EIGHT.
Bowlers.	First string.	Second string.	Third string.	Totals.
Cunningham.....	133	162	182	477
Dennison.....	131	162	179	472
Langdon.....	130	123	115	368
Payne.....	161	121	169	451
Byfield.....	145	122	129	396
Totals.....	720	694	707	2121

TEAM SEVEN.
Bowlers.	First string.	Second string.	Third string.	Totals.
Hamilton.....	149	180	148	477
Fuller.....	133	133	123	389
Marsh.....	133	116	124	373
Utley.....	164	181	139	484
Collins.....	100	100	100	300
Totals.....	679	632	634	1945

RECORD OF THE FINALS.

The close of the Newton Club bowling tournament ends a sport in which intense interest has been manifested the past season, aside from the bowling of the amateur interclub league.

The last game was completed Friday evening, a large number of ladies and gentlemen being present and encouraging the game with their usual enthusiasm. Teams 7 and 8 were bowling for second place, term 2 having won the first prizes the two evenings previous by defeating both teams 7 and 8.

The first prizes offered are five hand-some silk umbrellas, one for each member of team 2, and the second prizes consist of an equal number of elegant silver match safes, which are awarded to Capt. Cunningham's team, 8.

The number of teams who entered the tourney was 10, and the series consisted of nine games. At the end of the tournament teams 2, 5, 7 and 8 were the four leading teams who were entered for the final contest of six games for first and second prizes.

In these finals team 5 was badly handicapped by the absence of two of their strongest bowlers, and throughout the series they bowled with only three men, losing every game. Team 7 was also handicapped by the absence of Collins, but pulled through in good form, and teams 2, 7 and 8 became tied for first place, necessitating another series of games between these teams, which were bowled this week as follows:

Games Games Tournament Average
Teams won.	lost.	average.	in finals.
Team 2.....	1	136 14-90	135.5
Team 7.....	2	143 80-90	134.2

The average in finals are below those made in the tournament, and are also lower than those made in the first series of finals between the four teams, the lowest average then made being 138.8 by team 7. Team 8 averaged 140.4, and team 2 averaged 145.5.

Team 2 is the only team that has kept up to its standard in last week's bowling, although their first game with team 8 held some 10 frame scores, Grigg scoring only 110 in the third string. Team 5 in the game with 2 rolled a total of 1958, and the two highest 10-frame scores were 161 and 149, very low for this team; but in the match with team 7 they braced up and scored the highest total of the finals, 2121, bringing their average within a few points of that made by team 2. Team 7 did fair work, but were not up to their previous record. The standing of the class leaders in the finals is thus summed up:

Tour. class leaders.
Bowler.	Class.	Rating.	Team.	Score.
J. L. Richards.....	1	420	2	492
C. S. Dennison.....	2	420	7	470
E. A. Cunningham.....	3	390	7	470
R. E. Utley.....	4	345	7	484
C. H. Buswell.....	5	360	2	420

Capt. J. L. Richards of team 2 has maintained his lead in the finals in both average and total scores, and as captain of the winning team he is to be congratulated on his fine work throughout the tournament. The highest 10-frame score was made by R. E. Utley of team 7, 181, in the match Friday evening with team 8.

A comparison of the individual averages follows, and shows Richards as below his tournament average, and that Buswell, Grigg, Dennison and Payne have increased their averages in the finals, showing a trifle better rolling. Byfield ran only 210 in his average in the finals behind his tournament average.
Bowlers.	Team.	Rating.	Tour.	Av. in
J. L. Richards.....	2	150	158.5	157.8
E. A. Cunningham.....	7	150	144.2	139.1
R. E. Utley.....	7	150	142.1	134.5
J. W. French.....	2	150	149.4	134.6
C. W. Hamilton.....	7	150	150.7	151.6
C. S. Dennison.....	7	150	131.1	132.5
J. W. French.....	2	140	143.8	128.9
R. E. Utley.....	7	145	151.5	145.6
C. W. Grigg.....	2	115	124.5	132.3
C. S. Dennison.....	7	140	129.3	140.1
J. F. Payne.....	8	115	128.6	142.8
H. S. Langdon.....	8	130	134.6	127.6
A. Byfield.....	8	100	128.5	134.6
G. W. Morse.....	2	130	142.1	130
*E. L. Collins.....	7	100	100	100

I suffered for more than ten years with that dreadful disease, catarrh, and used every available medicine which was recommended to me. I cannot thank you enough for the relief which Ely's Cream Balm has afforded me.—Emanuel Meyers, Winfield, L. I., N. Y.

Stand Your Ground

When you make up your mind to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy some other preparation instead. Clerks may claim that "ours is as good as Hood's," and that, but the peculiar merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla cannot be equalled. Therefore have nothing to do with substitutes and insist upon having Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and building-up medicine.

ADAMS' MACHINE SHOP.

MACHINE JOBBING AND REPAIRING.

All kinds of Machine Sharpening and Grinding.

396 WASHINGTON STREET, NEWTON. P. O. BOX 114.

NEWTONS VS MELROSE.

THE HOME CLUB WINS AFTER A CLOSE GAME.

A large and enthusiastic audience witnessed the game on Walworth's field last Saturday afternoon between the Newtons and Melrose. The home team showed up in great form, doing by far their best work this season in a game characterized by the fine playing of Nichols, and heavy batting of Hubbard.

For the Melrose team, Souter's pitching was very effective, striking out ten men, and he was ably supported by Henshaw.

The Newtons played a plucky, uphill game, and were not able to score until the fifth inning, when they made two runs by a base on balls, and two singles. In the seventh inning, with a score of eight to two against them, they went to the bat, and by three singles, four costly errors on the part of Melrose, and aided by the enthusiastic and well-timed cheering, were enabled to score five runs. By a base on balls, and three base hits, two more errors by Melrose, the Newtons succeeded in winning the game and deserved great credit for defeating one of the strongest amateur nines in the state.

NEWTONS.
Warren, 1b.....	AB.	R.	B.	TH.	SH.	PO.	A.	E.
Hubbard, 2b.....	3	3	3	7	0	1	2	0
Nichols, c.p.....	5	1	2	2	0	2	7	2
Rising, p.....	4	1	0	0	0	0	0	0
McGormick, 3b.....	0	2	1	0	1	0	0	0
Cutler, r.f.....	4	0	0	0	0	1	0	0
Cushing, c.....	4	1	1	1	0	11	2	1
Bates, 3b.....	4	1	1	1	0	1	0	1
Totals.....	38	10	8	12	3	27	24	3

MELROSE.
McAloon, 3b.....	AB.	R.	B.	TH.	SH.	PO.	A.	E.
Merrill, 2b.....	1	0	0	0	1	1	1	1
Henshaw, c.....	4	0	2	0	0	10	0	2
Foss, 1b.....	5	0	0	0	0	2	0	0
Garland, 3b.....	2	0	0	0	0	2	0	0
Foster, c.....	4	1	0	0	1	0	0	0
Cox, 1b.....	5	2	3	3	0	1	1	1
Garland, 3b.....	2	0	1	0	0	7	0	1
Souter, p.....	1	0	0	0	0	12	0	0
Totals.....	36	9	7	8	1	24	12	5

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Newton.....0 0 0 2 0 5 3 1 0
Melrose.....1 2 0 0 3 1 0 0 9
Earned runs—Newton 5; base hits—Cox; three-base hits—Hubbard 2; stolen bases—Grant 2; Foster, Garland, Warren 2; Bates 1; first base on balls—by Souter 5, McGormick 7; Nichols 2; first base on error—Newton 8; Melrose 3; left on bases—Newton 4; Melrose 8; struck out—by Souter 10, McGormick 5, Nichols 5; umpires—Mr. Smith and Mr. Peter.

NEWTON HIGH VS CUTLERS.

The Newton High school nine contended with the Cutler school nine at Walworth's field, Newton Centre, Friday afternoon. The game was close to with a score of 5 to 4, in the Cutler nine's favor.

The Newtons played an almost errorless game while their opponents lacked practice. Souter's one hand stop at short, the pitching of Kingsbury and Inman, were features of the game.

Appended is the score by innings:
Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Cutlers.....0 0 1 3 0 0 1 0 0
Newton.....1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0
Earned runs—N. H. S. 1; Cutler 1; base on balls—Adams; struck out—Adams, Wildes, Osburn (3), Clements (2), Haskell, Linder, Kimball, Wentz (2), West, H. Inman (2); double plays—Kingsbury to Haskell, Adams to Souter; hit by pitched ball—Osburn, Wildes; time—2hrs. 3 min.; umpires—Lesh and Curry.

"After the morning sermon I gave the notices," and then announced the number of the hymn to be sung. The congregation had opened their hymn-books. Seeing one of the deacons coming to give the pulpits I waited with open book. He reminded me that I had forgotten to give a notice of the ladies' meeting. I then stated to the congregation that I had forgotten to give such a notice, announced the number of the hymn again and proceeded to read it. The feelings of the congregation—not to say my own—may be imagined when I read the first line of the hymn: "Lord, what a thoughtless wretch was I."—Homiletic Review.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, all gone feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are the symptoms of dyspepsia.

Distress some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the systemic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."

GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

Sick Headache "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."

GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

Heart-burn "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."

GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

Sour Stomach "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."

GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists, $1.50 per bottle. Prepared only by C. H. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

Daniels' Nonantum Stables

HENRY C. DANIELS, PROPRIETOR.

Livery and Hacking.

Patrons will find at these Stables the best of Horses and Carriages for hire.

Landau and Hacks, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. Safe and reliable horses for ladies to drive.

BOARDING.

Superior accommodations for Boarding Horses. Clean and comfortable stalls; careful and prompt telephone 13-3.

ADAMS' MACHINE SHOP.

MACHINE JOBBING AND REPAIRING.

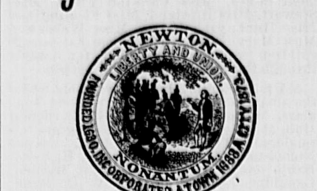

All kinds of Machine Sharpening and Grinding.

396 WASHINGTON STREET, NEWTON.

P. O. BOX 114.

16-17

City of Newton.

ASSESSORS' NOTICE.

The inhabitants of the City of Newton, and all other persons liable to pay taxes therein, are hereby required to bring in to the Assessors of said Newton, on any day from

May First, to the Fifteenth day of June, Next,

true lists of all their Polls (males, 20 years old and upwards), and schedules and estimates of their personal estates, not exempted from taxation.

ASSESSMENT OF WOMEN.

Chap. 196, Acts of 1889.

The Assessors or Assistant Assessors shall, in the month of May or June in each year, visit each dwelling-house or building and make true lists of all women twenty years of age and upwards, who shall in writing or under their own signatures, request the Assessors to assess them for a "poll tax," and it shall be the duty of the Assessors to inquire at each such dwelling house or building for such written requests for assessment, which must give the name in full, age, occupation, and residence May 1st, 1890.

All women desiring to be assessed for a poll tax should have their written request for such assessment in the form required by the act of 1889, ready for delivery to the Assessors when they are hereby required to bring in to the Assessors to pay the tax assessed, and estimates of their personal estates, not exempted from taxation.

When estates of persons deceased have been divided during the past year, or have changed hands from other causes, the Executors, Administrators, Trustees, or other persons interested, are required and warned to give notice of such change, and in default of such notice will be held responsible for the tax assessed, although such estate has been wholly distributed and paid over.

Returns of Property Held for Literary, Benevolent, Charitable, or Scientific Purposes.

In accordance with the requirements of Chapter 217, Acts of 1882, all persons and corporations are hereby required to bring in to the Assessors of Newton on any day from May first to the fifteenth day of June next, true lists of all real and personal estates held by such persons and corporations respectively for literary, benevolent, charitable, or scientific purposes on the first day of May, 1891, together with statements of the amount of all receipts and expenditures by such person or corporation for said purpose during the year next preceding said first day of May; such lists and statements to be in such detail as may be required by the tax commissioner.

MORTGAGED REAL ESTATE.

Chap. 175, Acts of 1882, Sec. 1.

Any mortgagee or mortgagee of Real Estate may bring in to the Assessors of the town or city where such Real Estate lies, at the time specified for bringing in

